Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Derby Day kicks off with the G3 Princess Elizabeth Stakes, a 1700m race open to fillies and mares aged three years and older.

ROYAL DRESS ticks plenty of boxes and has been a consistent performer since joining James Tate late in 2023. Her standout effort came with success in the G3 Meadow Court Stakes over 1800m at the Curragh. She was unlucky in this race last year, finishing third after being denied a clear run in the final 200m. She reappeared in May with a solid third in the G2 Middleton Fillies' Stakes over 2100m at York, where she was stretched by the trip, so this distance should suit.

This race features several others with strong claims, including SIRONA. David Menuisier's mare ran well on reappearance, finishing fourth in a Listed race at Goodwood over 1600m. She also beat familiar rivals last season, winning a Listed contest over 1600m at Newmarket, finishing in front of SPIRITUAL. That win came on heavy ground, so any further rain will not bother her, she is a threat.

SKELLET remains an unexposed filly, lightly raced at three with signs that she will improve this season. Ralph Beckett held her in high regard, running her in both the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas over 1600m and the G1 Coronation Stakes over 1600m, finishing eighth and seventh respectively. She then dropped to G3 level in the Prix Chloe at Chantilly over 1800m, finishing a close second, before ending her campaign with a convincing win in the Listed Fortune Stakes over 1600m at Sandown. She's proven at this level and tested in top company, and could be there at the finish.

SPARKS FLY is never one to dismiss. David Loughnane's mare has racked up 11 career wins, including a hat-trick at the end of 2024, all in Listed company. One of those wins came in the Listed Robin Hood Stakes at Nottingham over this 1700m trip. She tends to race prominently, and if the forecasted rain arrives, she will relish it more than most. All 11 of her wins have come on ground classed good-to-soft or worse.

BERMUDA LONGTAIL is the only 3YO in this year's race. Andrew Balding's filly has finished runner-up on both starts this season, at Kempton and most recently at York in May, both over 1600m. With that encouraging effort and a slight step up in trip, she could well be in the mix.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Diomed Stakes is a 1700m G3 event for 3YO's and older and features nine for this year's renewal.

PERSICA is clearly thriving after winning a G3 impressively already this season. Richard Hannon's contender dominated the G3 Earl of Sefton Stakes over 1800m at Newmarket in April on good-to-soft ground, earning a tilt at the G1 Lockinge Stakes as a result. Those Newbury 1600m top-level waters were too deep for him, but back to a grade and trip he operates well at, he is the one to beat, especially as he's proven his ability to handle the expected slower going. The booking of Ryan Moore, who had other options in the race, must be taken seriously too.

GEOGRAPHY is a German raider and should be respected with top trainer Peter Schiergen sending him to Epsom. He is a 1600m G3 winner as a two, three and four-year-old – the most recent of which came in April when holding on by a nose to win at Dusseldorf. He has since been gelded, which ought to focus his mind on racing, and with leading jockey Christophe Soumillon booked, he can hit the frame stepped up to 1700m on a surface that should suit.

DOCKLANDS has been a fine flagbearer for Harry Eustace on the international stage. He was far from disgraced in his G1 runs over 2000m and 1600m in Australia and Hong Kong respectively in the winter, and his UK comeback at Ascot in April over 1600m showed he retains all his ability. DOCKLANDS should be there at the finish, even if the going isn't perfect for him.

ICE MAX is yet to try this 1700m trip, but he has some form which suggests he can be competitive. Karl Burke has brought this 4YO on gently, and after a gelding operation, he won a G2 on soft ground at Goodwood in August over 1600m. His victory at that undulating course, not unlike Epsom in that sense, reads well, and he can run with credit.

BRAVE EMPEROR is an outsider but has shown form on softer ground before and an ability to stay 1700m, plus, his fifth behind GEOGRAPHY in April suggests that he can run well.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

AGAINST THE WIND appears to hold strong claims of resuming his progression in the 3yo 0-95 Handicap at Epsom.

The Kevin Ryan-trained EARTHLIGHT gelding has shown plenty of speed from the gate in most of his races and looks the ideal type to take to the fast 1000m course at the Surrey venue. Although he finished third in a 1000m handicap at York on his latest start, he had previously made a winning reappearance in a 1000m handicap at Thirsk. His ability to handle ease in the ground will have to be taken on trust, however given his running style, he could have too many gears if getting away on the front end.

RUBY'S PROFIT has been in tremendous form since reverting back to 1000m after winning two of her three starts over the trip this season. The daughter of PROFITABLE is another that likes to get on with things out in front which will help her chances here. She showed she can handle an undulating track when winning a 1000m contest at Goodwood last time out, and crucially has form on easier conditions having finished third in a 1200m sales contest at Newmarket on good-to-soft ground last season.

Finishing just in behind RUBY'S PROFIT the last day was the George Scott-trained MADEMOISELLE. That was the daughter of BLUE POINT's first run in 271 days and she can be expected to be even sharper with that effort under her belt. Armed with a slight pull at the weights with her last time out conqueror she is likely to be on the premises once again.

STORMY IMPACT made a satisfactory return to action last month when finishing sixth in a 1200m handicap at Newmarket. It appeared the trip just found her out on that occasion as, having been prominent for much of the race, she faded out of contention in the last 200m. The drop back in distance looks a positive move, while one of her best efforts last season came on slower ground in a 1200m novice contest behind subsequent Listed winner FIRST INSTINCT.

BLINKY has done much of his racing on the all-weather of late, but he shaped nicely enough when finishing third in a 1000m handicap at Chester last time out. Given his sole win came on good-to-soft ground in a 1000m novice contest at Leicester last year he could run well given the likely conditions.

Changed stables during the winter and a dual winner on the all-weather for new connections. Is coming off a creditable third on return to turf at Chester, having given his rivals a head start. Each-way possibilities.

Unlucky not to have gained second career win at Doncaster in April, but connections were at a loss to explain subsequent run which finished last (16-1) at York. So something to prove off current mark.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This is often one of the fastest 1000m handicaps of the season and it goes without saying that speed is the key to success.

JER BATT has plenty of good form over this distance at sharp tracks. He made a promising start to the season when third behind AMERICAN AFFAIR and JM JUNGLE over 1000m at Musselburgh. JER BATT had a poor draw at Chester last month and he did well to finish as close as he did after his jockey was forced to hold him up in the early stages. The demands of this race should suit him better.

JM JUNGLE backed up his excellent Musselburgh effort with two good performances over 1000m at York. He has loads of speed and he finished fourth, despite starting a touch slowly, in the 3YOs' version of this race on this day two years ago. This is just his type of race.

VINTAGE CLARETS will love it if the forecast rain descends on Epsom during the morning. He's started this year in good form. His sixth behind AMERICAN AFFAIR and JM JUNGLE over 1000m at York last month was even better than it looked as he wasn't particularly well placed through the early stages of the race.

EXISTENT hasn't won for more than three years but he is more than capable of playing a leading role in this competitive handicap. He's finished runner-up in his last four races. His second over today's course and distance in April was a little unlucky as he was repeatedly denied a clear run when he needed it around 400m from the winning line. He again met traffic problems when beaten a head over 1000m at Windsor last month. If he gets the breaks, he could end his barren spell.

BLIND BEGGAR has twice run well over 1000m since returning to turf from the all-weather. His third at Carlisle was a solid effort and he will appreciate the sharper track.

Looked the likely winner of this in 2023 until just grabbed close home. Mixed fortunes since but this speedster is in here with a chance especially on a fast surface.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

It's the biggest G1 Derby Stakes over 2400m field since 2003, with 19 runners going to post. With the twists, turns and undulations of Epsom, as well as an unsettled forecast, finding the winner won't be easy in this competitive renewal.

10-time Derby-winning trainer Aidan O'Brien saddles three, and Ryan Moore has opted to ride DELACROIX, so he's an obvious starting point. He was a taking winner of the G3 Derby Trial Stakes at Leopardstown last time out and won the G3 Ballysax Stakes in decisive fashion the start before that, both over 2000m. As a 2YO, he showed a good attitude to come second in a photo finish for the G1 Futurity Trophy Stakes over 1600m at Doncaster on soft ground and now appears to be excelling at longer distances.

PRIDE OF ARRAS shot onto the scene when winning the G2 Dante Stakes over 2100m, one of the most established Derby trials, at big odds. On his first start of the season and only his second ever career run, he was overlooked by the market, but he showed plenty of quality and is now a leading contender for the Derby. He's well-related to plenty of good stayers, including those that handle soft ground, so could have his claims strengthened if it becomes a stamina test.

There's a big question mark about whether G1 2,000 Guineas (1600m) winner RULING COURT will stay the 2400m trip, but he might just have enough class and ability to get away with it. The Guineas looks a strong piece of form, and now it's all about whether the son of JUSTIFY gets the trip. If he settles, he just might, and that would give him an obvious chance.

There would be no more poignant winner of this year's Derby, run 'In Honour Of His Highness Aga Khan IV', than French raider MIDAK, who carries those famous Aga Khan green and red silks. He's a perfect three from three, winning over 2100m and 2200m twice so far, most recently the G3 Prix Greffulhe over 2100m at Saint-Cloud. The depth of that form is questionable, but the yard's decision to pay a big sum to supplement him just last week is a big vote of confidence.

STANHOPE GARDENS, who runs in the colours of Hong Kong tech entrepreneur Marc Chan, also makes the shortlist. Though his preparation for the Derby has been a little rushed, he was always regarded as a type for this race. He won nothing more than a 1600m event at Salisbury on his reappearance this season but was a neck second to the well-fancied DELACROIX in the G3 Autumn Stakes over 1600m last October.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

GREEN STORM and TORNADO ALERT will probably share the lead. DELACROIX has been going forward however he is likely to sit just off the pace. RULING COURT with stamina a concern is likely to settle towards the rear. PRIDE OF ARRAS should also go back.

Despite racing too keenly and from an unfavourable track position he still had enough ability to close in on Pride Of Arras in a G2 trial for this at York. A recent spin around Epsom's Tattenham Corner reportedly was impressive.

Finished 3.5L behind Pride Of Arras when fifth in the G2 trial for this at York, a good effort after missing the break and getting outpaced briefly when the pace quickened. He could well thrive at this longer trip.

Burst into Derby calculations when a surprise winner of a crucial trial – the G2 Dante Stakes at York - putting distance between him and the rest. That was run at a sedate pace and this will surely be faster and is over further. But his pedigree suggests stamina.

Has major chances. Won the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket with the front three clear and that form has already been made to look strong. Showed terrific speed and acceleration then but he is bred for the stamina required by this notably longer trip.

Despite being an outsider he kept sticking his neck out up the straight to narrowly win a Listed trial here in April. However, he couldn't improve on that when only eighth in a York G2. But proven here and no worries over this trip.

Unbeaten at two and for many months was considered Aidan O'Brien's number one hope for the Derby. His reputation was then dashed when he raced way too freely early on, only finishing sixth in the G2 Dante Stakes at York. Maybe a revival is possible.

Won both starts last year, latterly in Listed class at Pontefract. Made a brief forward move in the G2 Dante Stakes at York on his return but his challenge fizzled out. Worries about stamina for this longer trip and anyhow probably not good enough.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This Handicap race is open to 4YOs and above rated between 0-105 and is run over a trip of 2405m.

VALVANO immediately stands out for Ralph Beckett. Having burst onto the scene as a 2YO winning his maiden by six lengths, he then rubbed shoulders with subsequent G1 2,000 Guineas and G1 Sussex Stakes winner NOTABLE SPEECH at Kempton and was only beaten two lengths over 1600m. Since then, he's been gelded and gone handicapping over trips ranging from 2000m to 2400m, placing third, fifth and fourth in his last three starts.

William Haggas' sole entry, SAM HAWKENS, also catches the eye. After his gelding operation in December, this son of GALILEO looks to be on an upward curve, most recently seen winning on the all-weather at Newcastle over 2500m. Jockey Tom Marquand did the steering that day, and the pair put in a smart performance to fly up the nearside rail and win by almost two lengths. Carrying a light weight with Marquand booked to ride again, the pair will be hoping to continue this form back on turf.

ASGARD'S CAPTAIN has been put through his paces since joining Dylan Cunha's stable. He was most recently seen winning in emphatic fashion by four-and-a-half lengths at this track at the end of April over 2400m. With Epsom's track offering unique challenges, course-and-distance form isn't something to overlook and coming here after a 46-day break could prove successful.

Andrew Balding-trained improving type CANDYMAN STAN fits the bill this year. He bounced back to life after a long winter break with a facile five-length victory at Brighton over 2400m on his seasonal reappearance in April and looks to have got even better since then. His Class 2 victory at Lingfield over 2300m last time out made it two-from-two in 2025, and he looks ready for the test here.

Racing at a high standard last year has stung MAXI KING as he shoulders top weight in this contest. Raphael Freire's charge was gelded in March and has been off the track for 210 days, so it's difficult to judge what shape he'll come here in but remains one to watch as the highest rated in the field.

Top weight here due to some fine performances in 2024 and looking well suited by this trip when winning at Newmarket. Some disappointments followed but maybe the 210-day break - and gelding - will reinvigorate.

Too good for his rivals after grabbing the favoured stands' rail in the straight to win at Newcastle last month. The gelding operation over the winter seems to be paying off.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Richard Hannon, who won this race last year with the smart PERSICA, won't be too disappointed about MEBLESH's opening handicap mark for this. Forget the fact that MEBLESH only narrowly got home in a three-way photo-finish when winning his maiden at Newbury over 2000m last month. Sean Levey oozed confidence in the final furlong and needed just hands and heels to see off the other two.

There has been plenty of rain about this week, which has delighted connections of northern raider THE TRICKSTER, who was runner-up in a competitive handicap on soft ground at Newmarket in April. Though being a late foal, THE TRICKSTER won both of his races as a 2YO, at Beverley over 1700m and Redcar over 1800m. He did well through the winter and, while 1600m on fast ground was an insufficient test, he was still only caught close home for third place at Ascot last month.

Andrew Balding trained, the lightly raced CHARTWELL JOCK has to be respected. He looked the winner entering the final furlong at Ascot over 2000m last month, but he was ultimately outpaced by a horse who came from the rear. Ridden more patiently, he has what it takes to be a major player here.

The more the ground eases, the better the chance of LOVE TALK. She was in her element in the mud when winning at Goodwood over 1400m last September, and she will have needed her comeback run against Listed company at Lingfield over 2300m last month.

Brian Meehan has always had a high opinion of LAW OF DESIGN, and he is another whose chance has been enhanced by the change in underfoot conditions. He has always worked like a proper horse at home, but he had so much size and scope about him that it came as something of a surprise that he was able to win his novice so well at Ascot in September over 1400m. LAW OF DESIGN looked a different horse on soft ground at Ascot, and, despite two disappointments this year when the going was fast, he should not be dismissed.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This competitive 1200m race is the finale on the card and has only been won by two favourites and one joint-favourite in the last 10 runnings. However, contenders near the top of the betting have tended to dominate with only three double-figure-priced scorers over the same period.

CIRCE has been largely campaigned over longer distances but has been in the form of her life since being switched back to sprinting, narrowly winning 1200m races at Newmarket and Windsor last month. There is potentially a little more improvement in her given she is now being played to her strengths and is a must for the shortlist.

EYE OF DUBAI's three career wins have all come on soft ground, so he will become even more interesting if the forecast rain arrives and should strip fitter for his comeback run over this distance at Doncaster in March when he raced too freely in the early stages.

Fitted with a visor for the first time, which he again wears here, SONDAD was a comfortable winner over 1200m at Ascot last month. This 4YO has only run eight times and looks to have further improvement in him. His stable rarely wastes ammunition when sending horses to the big meetings.

BADRI narrowly won this race in 2023 with a storming late run after being one of the last into the home straight. He wasn't able to repeat those tactics last year when a never-competitive seventh but, having failed to win in 2024 and slipped down the weights, he got his head back in front at Southwell over 1200m in January. His race record means he cannot be written off.

INTERVENTION represents the in-form stable of trainer Michael Appleby. His latest run when second over 1400m at Brighton last month is a positive in that it showed he can act on a track with the significant downhill gradients which he will face again at Epsom. The booking of jockey Luke Morris is also encouraging.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Epsom racecourse is unique in nature in that it is not a circuit, but a 2405m horseshoe shaped left-handed turning track with a home straight of approximately 700m. All races further than 1403m start in the back straight, and races held over 1203m and 1403m start from chutes which join onto the large home bend on the left-hand side of the course. Races over 1000m are run on a straight course from a chute which joins the straight, left to right for the viewer, which is considered to be the quickest 1000m in world racing. The course itself is a quirky layout that initially takes slight right-hander, then climbs right up a protracted steep incline – 45m through the first 1200m, all the way to the top of the Tattenham Hill – before descending towards the notoriously wicked Tattenham Corner, followed by a pronounced camber in the stretch run that drops away severely from the grandstand rail to the far side rail, with the course rising 11m yet again in the final 200m. On soft ground they often head to the grandstand rail upon straightening, in search of drier ground, and this gives an advantage to horses on the front who can make the first move.

This year, the Derby meeting sees eight turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Derby Stakes (2405m)

Over the 2405m they jump from the end of the horseshoe on the top right-hand side of the track, and head uphill, turning slightly left not long after leaving the gates, they then head along the back straight, which is all uphill, until they meet the starting point of the bend. The first 1000m of the race sees a steep incline of approximately 45m, which levels out before heading downhill around Tattenham Corner. They then enter the straight, which continues downhill, before heading uphill over the concluding stages on a straight with a severe camber, thus why Epsom is considered the ultimate test of a racehorse. Despite all its idiosyncrasies, it's generally a fair course in terms of the draw over 2400m. Of the last ten winners, eight have been ridden from midfield or held up, one tracked the pace whilst only one winner to have made all.

Other Races

G3 Princess Elizabeth Stakes & G3 Diomed Stakes (1703m)

Over 1703m they jump from toward the end of the back straight, said loosely given it's snake like shape, and then head uphill before coming onto the bend where the track levels out. They then go downhill onto Tattenham Corner, before entering the straight, continuing to head downhill before meeting rising ground toward the finish.

3yo 0-95 Handicap & 'Dash' Handicap (1000m)

Over the 1000m the stalls see low numbers toward the far side, which is the case for all races. They jump and run downhill until the closing stages where they meet an incline to the finish. There are very few races held over 1000m at Epsom during the year, thus we don't have much to go on. However, it is considered there is no draw bias over this trip except in larger fields, where higher draws tend to do well, as riders can grab a spot close to the grandstand rail where the camber is slightly less severe.

4yo+ 86-105 Handicap (2405m)

The 2405m 4yo+ 86-105 Handicap is the same distance as the G1 Derby Stakes.

HKJC World Pool Lester Piggott Handicap (2015m)

Over 2015m they start from halfway up the back straight, head up hill, before meeting level ground as they swing onto the bend, then run downhill, onto Tattenham Corner, into the straight, where they are still going downhill before meeting rising ground over the concluding stages.

4yo+ 86-105 Handicap (1203m)

Over 1203m they jump from a chute that joins the crown of the home bend. They then go around the turn, which is known as Tattenham Corner, before entering the straight for what is a downhill run before going slightly uphill over the closing stages. There is no draw bias as such, but due to the layout, riders can get boxed in from low draws, thus middle draws do tend to give more options.

The last ten renewals of the Derby have seen good in the going description on each occasion. The weather forecast is suggesting the chance of showers in the days leading up and on race day itself. However, Epsom does drain well and unless the rain is heavier than what is being forecast, it is likely the meeting will once again be run on going with good in the description, but it may be good to soft.

Derby prospects Pride Of Arras or Stanhope Gardens may magnify Ralph Beckett's reputation

Friday, 6/6/2025

The Derby at Epsom Downs on Saturday (7 June) will feature 19 runners – the largest field since 2003 – as this season's Classic crop tackles the complexities of Epsom's uphill and downhill gradients and camber in the supreme test not only for the three-year-old colts but also for their riders.

Adding to the challenge is the strong probability of slow ground over a taxing 2405m course. And the likelihood is that when the field swings for home rounding the iconic Tattenham Corner there will still be many positioned with winning chances.

Trainer Ralph Beckett's career continues in the ascendancy and his two contenders have been collecting swelling plaudits as this iconic Group 1 approaches, even though his gifted pair is drawn in two of the three gates that have never produced a Derby winner.

Beckett trains in the idyllic Hampshire countryside and his vocation hit a new peak when Bluestocking triumphed in the 2024 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (2400m).

Of the barrier draws for G2 Dante Stakes (2051m) at York winner Pride Of Arras (barrier 16) and the highly-regarded Stanhope Gardens (barrier two), Beckett said: "From those stalls I'd be less concerned about Pride Of Arras than I would be for Stanhope Gardens.

"But though Stanhope Gardens pulled a muscle at the back of his ribs and we were unable to train him for two weeks he's done really well to get here. He's light on his feet and well balanced. I always thought he would be suited by Epsom and this trip,"

The pair will be ridden by Rossa Ryan and Hector Crouch, respectively, as both look to advertise their skills to an international audience with a first Derby victory.

Aidan O'Brien has won eight of the past 13 Derbies and the fact that Ryan Moore is booked for Delacroix ahead of The Lion In Winter (Colin Keane) and Lambourn (Wayne Lordan) will be perceived as significant.

Delacroix has cemented his reputation with two no-nonsense winning performances this season, latterly in the G3 Derby Trial Stakes (2000m) at Leopardstown last month. Both were steadily-run affairs with a sprint finish and if this son of Dubawi – who is yet to sire an Epsom Derby winner – can now authenticate himself over this trip he will surely announce himself as another champion racehorse for O'Brien and Coolmore.

Ruling Court has an edge on ratings and this form horse is hugely respected from the Charlie Appleby stable – which boasts around a massive 35% domestic winning strike-rate this season. Ruling Court's victory over Field Of Gold in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas (1600m) has been enhanced by Field Of Gold's subsequent runaway victory of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas (1600m) at the Curragh later last month.

The pedigree of this son of Justify suggests optimism that his sharp jump of 800m in trip will be constructive, especially if William Buick is able to relax him on the sharp uphill early climb.

Others deserving serious mention include John and Thady Gosden-trained pair of Damysus (James Doyle) and Nightwalker (Tom Marquand) along with French-trained contenders Midak (Mickael Barzalona) and New Ground (Alexis Pouchin), who both have been supplemented at a hefty fee.

Midak would be the most appropriate 2025 Derby winner, flying the flag for the Aga Khan studs with this Epsom Classic run in the memory of the late Aga Khan. Midak is unbeaten in three starts, latterly in last month's G3 Prix Greffulhe (2100m) at Saint-Cloud. He performed impressively on slow conditions in work under Barzalona at Chantilly on Monday (2 June).

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

The four races offered on the World Pool for the Gold Challenge race meeting at Greyville starts with the G1 Gold Challenge over 1600m itself and include two other Graded features.

Last year's Gold Challenge winner DAVE THE KING bounced back to his best last time out and will be hard to catch if his massive stride takes him to the front at around the 800m mark.

SEE IT AGAIN is also back to his best and should be running on strongly from a good draw. He gets on well with his new jockey Raymond Danielson.

GLADATORIAN beat SEE IT AGAIN narrowly in the G2 Drill Hall Stakes over 1400m last time and they face each other on the same terms. The race might set up well for him as there looks to be a lot of paces and he as a fine turn of foot.

COSMIC SPEED beat older horses in the G1 H F Oppenheimer Horse Chestnut Stakes over this trip at Turffontein and has the class to go close. Five-time champion trainer Sean Tarry combines with leading jockey Gavin Lerena from a fair draw of five.

MONTIEN is a top-class front runner who stays on resolutely and he will probably have no option but to seek the lead from a wide draw.

WILLIAM ROBERTSON has had a tremendous season over sprints, so is the dark horse. ORIENTAL CHARM is courageous and although preferring further he has won a G2 race over this trip this season. His wide draw might make it difficult for him to find a good position.

GREAT PLAINS, CAFE CULTURE and ROYAL AUSSIE are all capable of strong finishes.

 Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

DAVE THE KING likes to lead and from his inside draw he can lead this field. COSMIC SPEED led last start and has drawn well so he can go forward and share the lead. ORIENTAL CHARM and MONTIEN from their wide draws can come across and settle behind the leaders. PURPLE PITCHER may be trapped wide in the early stages of the race.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

The G2 HKJC World Pool Stakes over 1400m is not an easy race to decipher.

LUCRATIVE was on the up when winning over this trip in fluent style in January. She returns from a five-month layoff, but trainer Dean Kannemeyer gets them fit and she is in pole over an ideal trip. She could be the one to beat under leading jockey Craig Zackey.

The G2 KZN Fillies Guineas did not pan out well for OXALIS GOLD but she will appreciate the step down in trip. She jumps from a draw of seven out of thirteen over a preferred trip and could be right there.

BEVIES DELIGHT has won the last two times. She has run over this course and distance and this time has a good draw. She beat SOHOT SOWHAT by a head last time and is now 3kg better off.

SOHOT SOWHAT is officially way out at the weights, but her last start win showed her to be potentially top class. She can prove it here from a good draw over an ideal trip. Last time she raced in a much lesser class, but after being dropped out to last from a wide draw, she swept past the field to win easily.

GREEN SAPPHIRE was caught wide in the G2 KZN Fillies Guineas and can bounce back over this more suitable trip from a good draw. Before that, she won well from the front over this course and distance in a G3 3YO event, and from a good draw she should run well if employing the same tactic.

SOVEREIGN GRANT ran on well over 1200m last time and has a better draw here over a suitable step up in trip, so she could be in the shake-up.

MINOGUE is a classy filly who has won twice over this course and distance. She has a wide draw but champion jockey Richard Fourie is an eye-catching booking. SCARLET MACAW is the highest rated and can't be ignored despite a wide draw.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

The G3 Dolphins Cup Trial over 1800m gives horses a last chance to earn a berth in the Durban July and gives others a chance to have a good build up run.

POMODORO'S JET is well regarded and has proved why this season with three comfortable wins in succession from 1400m to 1600m. He can prove he stays this trip here from pole position.

PACAYA is well weighted on his excellent Cape Town Met performance. He is not too reliable but has ran well over a1900m race before, so he could go close from a plum draw.

MADISON VALLEY has had excuses for his last three runs. He nearly won the G1 Summer Cup at Turffontein after coming from the back. After resting, he raced twice at 1600m to prepare for the G3 Greyville 1900, but a back injury caused leg swelling. He looks for a strong finish from a tricky draw of eight.

WILD INTENT ran a cracking second in the G1 SA Derby and can confirm his high position of 15 on the July log, although it won't be easy from a wide draw.

ZEITZ had a cracking win over this trip in a G3 3YO event, but has the widest draw of all. UNDERWORLD ran a cracking third in the G3 Greyville 1900, he could be in the shake up, but he has a tougher draw.

HOTARUBI is a frustrating sort but very capable on his day and is well drawn. ON MY HONOUR has not been disgraced against top drawer competition after three wins in succession. He should stay the trip on pedigree.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

The last race on Gold Challenge Day is a Class 4 handicap for fillies and mares over 1000m and looks to be competitive.

TARA STAR is hard-knocking and tipped to win from a good draw, and with Richard Fourie up, she should go close.

AYUWI YUWI is in hard-knocking form and should also be involved from a middle draw.

DAFNES DAUGHTER has some useful form in the strong centre of Cape Town and will enjoy the step back to the minimum trip, so could go close from a plum draw.

MILLION VOICES has always struck as being a useful sort, and he had a cracking win the last time he ran over this course and distance, but he does have a wide draw here.

SIESTA SUNSET was not disgraced in the G3 Strelitzia Stakes first time out, the maidens and could make a bold bid here from pole position against older horses.

LADY OF VIX is better than her last start and could be involved in the finish here. HURRICANE CAT is a speedy but limited sort, who will be distance suited and could earn a cheque.

RUBY RISING won well last time over this trip in the maidens and starts off with a reasonable merit rating, but does have a wide draw to overcome.

SELECTIONS: 4. TARA STAR, 7. AYUWI YUWI, 3. DAFNES DAUGHTER, 12. MILLION VOICES & 1. SIESTA SUNSET

Track Analysis by David Thiselton

Greyville Racecourse

Durban's Greyville Racecourse is a clockwise venue with a 2800m turf course that envelopes another synthetic strip. It imitates a triangular configuration of Great Britain's Ascot Racecourse, with a 430m homestretch.

The course is deceptive as there is a significant climb before the final bend. From the 1600m mark to the 1200m mark there is a gradual drop of 3m. From the 900m mark to the 400m mark on the final turn there is a gradual climb of 4m. There is also a four-degree fall/ camber from outer to inner on the turn. The rest of the track has a one-degree fall/ camber. The sweeping final bend with its camber allows wide runners to slingshot themselves into the thick of the fray. All races from the 1600m mark to the 1000m mark start on the bend.

Feature Race

G1 Gold Challenge (1600m)

For the 1600m G1 Gold Challenge, draws 1 to 6 are optimum. Horses drawn wider can often be caught out wide.

Other Races

G2 HKJC World Pool Stakes (1400m)

For the 1400m G2 HKJC World Pool Tibouchina Stakes, draws 1 to 6 are optimum. Horses drawn wider can often be caught out wide.

G3 Cup Trial (1800m)

For the 1800m G3 Cup Trial, they start on the back straight and runners can generally sort themselves out before hitting the turn before the 1600m mark.

Class 4 Handicap (1000m)

For the 1000m Class 4 Handicap, in sprints races, wide draws are less significant as runners can be aimed at the apex of the turn.

The long-range weather forecast is for a cool sunny day with a predicted maximum temperature of 18 degrees with a stiff Northeasterly headwind in the straight. There is no rain predicted in the week leading up to the day and the track going should be Good.

Dave The King to come out trumps in South Africa's Gold Challenge

Thursday, 5/6/2025

The World Pool meeting at Greyville Racecourse in Durban, South Africa this Saturday (7 June) starts with the G1 Gold Challenge (1600m) and also includes two other graded features.

Last year's Gold Challenge winner and Equus Horse of The Year Dave The King bounced back to his best last time out and will be hard to catch if his massive stride takes him to the front at around the 800m mark. See It Again is also back to his best and should be running on strongly from a good draw.

Gladatorian beat See It Again narrowly in the G2 Drill Hall Stakes (1400m) last time and they face each other on the same terms. The race might set up well for him as there looks to be a lot of pace and he has a fine turn of foot.

Cosmic Speed beat older horses in the G1 H F Oppenheimer Horse Chestnut Stakes (1600m) at Turffontein and has the class to go close. Montien is a top-class front-runner who stays on resolutely and he will probably have no option but to seek the lead from a wide draw.

William Robertson has had a tremendous season over sprints, including winning the G1 Computaform Sprint (1000m) last time out. Oriental Charm is courageous and although preferring further he has won a Group 2 over this trip this season. Great Plains, Cafe Culture and Royal Aussie are all capable of strong finishes.

The G2 HKJC World Pool Stakes (1400m) is not an easy race to decipher.

Lucrative was on the up when winning over this trip in fluent style in January. She returns from a five-month layoff, but trainer Dean Kannemeyer gets his horses fit and she is in pole over an ideal trip. The G2 KZN Fillies Guineas (1600m) did not pan out well for Oxalis Gold but she will appreciate the step down in trip.

Bevies Delight has won the last two times she has run over this course and distance and beat Sohot Sowhat by a head last time and is now better off at weights. Sohot Sowhat is officially way out at the weights, but her last start win showed her to be potentially top-class. Green Sapphire was caught hopelessly wide in the KZN Fillies Guineas and can bounce back over this more suitable trip from a good draw.

Sovereign Grant should be running on. Minogue has class so can't be ignored from a wide draw with champion jockey Richard Fourie up. Scarlet Macaw is one of the two highest-rated runners and can't be ignored despite a wide draw. Summer Lily and Be Merry have form chances but wide draws are against them. Callmegetrix has been in fine form but looks held by Scarlet Macaw. Magical View and Sonic Jet look held.

The G3 Cup Trial (1800m) gives horses a last chance to earn a berth in the G1 Durban July (2200m) and gives others the opportunity to have a good build up run.

Pomodoro's Jet is well regarded and has proved why this season with three comfortable wins in succession from 1400m to 1600m. He can prove he stays this trip here from pole position. Pacaya is well weighted on his excellent G1 Cape Town Met (2000m) performance and has a plum draw. Madison Valley has had excuses for his last three runs and is capable of a strong finish from off the pace. Wild Intent ran a cracking second in the G1 SA Derby (2450m) and can confirm his position on the July log.

Zeitz had a cracking win over this trip in a Group 3 three-year-old event in Cape Town, but has the widest draw of all. Regulation is under sufferance, but is on the up and has a good draw. Underworld ran a cracking third in the G3 Greyville 1900 (1900m) and if it pans out as well this time, he could be in the shake up, but he has a tougher draw. Hotarubi is a frustrating sort but very capable on his day and is well drawn. Those are the ones that make most appeal.

The last race is a handicap for fillies and mares over 1000m. Tara Star is hard-knocking and is among the winning chances.

Ayuwi Yuwi is in good form too. Daphnes Daughter has some useful form in the strong centre of Cape Town and will enjoy the step back to the minimum trip. Million Voices is useful but has a wide draw here. Siesta Sunset was not disgraced in the G3 Strelitzia Stakes (1100m) and could make a bold bid here from pole position against older horses. Midnight Fusion is capable and from a good draw might bounce back to form.

Those are the ones who make most appeal.
