Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This G2 contest over 1600m on dirt has seen some big-priced outsiders win in recent years, but this renewal appears to favor the top contenders.

RAGING TORRENT, ridden by Frankie Dettori, enters with G1-winning form after his victory in the G1 Malibu Stakes over 1400m at Santa Anita in December. He worked hard early but showed resilience to pull clear at the finish. While he's unproven at this distance, this performance suggests he should handle it. However, there's some concern as the strength of his Santa Anita form has diminished since.

In contrast, MUFASA won the G3 Mr. Prospector Stakes over 1400m, defeating former Breeders' Cup Classic winner WHITE ABARRIO, who has since won impressively. Transferred to Dubai-based trainer Bhupat Seemar, MUFASA may prove too strong for RAGING TORRENT.

LITTLE VIC finished 1.5 lengths behind MUFASA in the G3 Mr. Prospector Stakes and followed with an impressive win in the G3 Fred W. Hooper Stakes over 1600m. As only his second start at this distance, there's potential for more improvement, especially with John Velazquez aboard.

PEPTIDE NILE could also be a factor after two solid G1 performances in Japan. Hidenori Take's 7YO was narrowly defeated in the G1 Champions Cup over 1800m and G1 February Stakes over 1600m, showing good stamina and form.

French-trained NO LUNCH lacks dirt experience but has made significant progress on polytrack. He recently defeated a G1-winning rival in a 1600m conditions race at Chantilly. If he can adapt to the dirt surface, he should not be overlooked.

LITTLE VIC from the outside gate can come across and take the lead. SWORD POINT likes to go forward and he can get into the trail. STEAL SUNSHINE has a low draw and will not be far away. RAGING TORRENT has drawn awkwardly and he may be trapped wide.

Returning to the dirt and ridden by this superb Irish-based jockey for the first time, he travelled nicely and faced the kickback well to score a surprise victory in a G3 over this course and distance last month. Dylan McMonagle will try to repeat that trick again.

This four-time dirt winner has his first run outside Japan here. Last two starts have not been his best, however, Cristian Demuro's mount will probably trade as one of the outsiders.

This veteran is versatile, gaining his second win on an artificial surface when surging late under this rider to land a big surprise victory over this course and distance, edging out last year's Dubai World Cup winner in that January G3. Needs to repeat that.

First time outside the US but put in a sparkling performance when winning a 1600m G3 at Gulfstream Park in January. The second has enhanced that form with a subsequent victory. But his wide gate looks an issue.

In hot form over this course and distance last December when leading throughout to comfortably win a G2. Couldn't get to the front here on his latest start and finished well beaten. A return to that December performance needed.

A prolific winner over a variety of trips – including this one – when trained in Chile, and subsequently also thriving in the US, most recently upsetting a multiple G1 winner and eight others at Gulfstream Park in December. Deserves plenty of respect.

Always behind in this last year though there may have been physical reasons for that poor show. Some decent efforts in the last few months including a G3 Jebel Ali Mile win under this jockey. But it would be a surprise if a few rivals weren't too good for him here.

Strongest at the finish then and though yet to win at 1600m his trainer – who won this last year – reckons this one-turn mile will be ideal.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Al Quoz Sprint over 1200m is the first G1 race on the card, showcasing top sprinters from abroad on Meydan turf. It's worth noting that only one favorite has won in the last 10 renewals, highlighting the competitiveness of this sprint.

WEST ACRE, trained by George Scott, has been in exceptional form since his debut win at Newcastle last September. As the sole 3YO in the race, he has impressively claimed victories in the G2 Blue Point Sprint and the G3 Nad Al Sheba Turf Sprint, both over 1000m at Meydan. With Callum Shepherd aboard, he aims for a hat-trick while benefiting from a weight-for-age allowance against his rivals.

HOWDEEPIYOURLOVE, under the guidance of Hong Kong trainer John Size, last finished third in the G1 Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin, just over a length behind the world's fastest horse, KA YING RISING. James McDonald is set to ride, making him a contender to watch.

BELIEVING is an intriguing entry for British trainer George Boughey, making her Meydan debut after being absent since last October. She has placed in all three of her recent G1 appearances and will be partnered with top jockey William Buick, which could lead to a strong performance in their first outing together.

AUDIENCE, trained by John and Thady Gosden, is familiar with success at Meydan. The 6YO, a son of G1-winning sprinter IFFRAAJ, boasts strong ratings but has a five-month layoff to contend with. Having been gradually stepped down from 1600m, he has the potential to excel over this shorter distance.

MARBAAN appears to be an improving contender this year, having won both of his last starts over 1400m at Meydan, including the G2 Al Fahidi Fort and the G3 Ras Al Khor. This sprint represents a significant test for him, and it remains to be seen whether he can adjust to the shorter trip effectively.

His last two starts have been comfortably his best, winning a 1400m G2 and G3 here, racing prominently each time. This drop back to 1200m is a bit of a concern though he did win a minor event over it much earlier in his career.

Showned some dazzling speed from the gates when landing a 1200m G1 at Haydock in 2023. Plenty of other classy sprinting performances also and this course and distance look ideal for the speedster who tends to perform very well after an absence.

This veteran Japanese sprinter is still capable of some big performances and wasn't beaten far – giving weight to all his rivals – in a 1200m G3 handicap at Kyoto in February. But without a win since early 2023 and looks vulnerable.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 UAE Derby is the premier race for 3YOs on dirt over 1900m in the Middle East. This year features several promising contenders, including FLOOD ZONE, who has two wins from three starts. He last impressed with a victory in the G3 Gotham Stakes over 1600m at Aqueduct in March, showcasing his Kentucky Derby potential. With top North American trainer Brad Cox shipping him to Meydan, he is a key contender.

SHIN FOREVER, trained by Hideyuki Mori, represents Japan and has been consistent with a touch of class. He last finished a credible second in the G3 Saudi Derby over 1600m, where he was narrowly beaten by the highly regarded GOLDEN VEKOMA. This form could see him challenge FLOOD ZONE.

HEART OF HONOR, the only British-trained runner, has made Meydan his home after finishing second in a novice stakes last October. He won his first two starts at Meydan over 1600m before facing GOLDEN VEKOMA in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas. After narrowly losing to GALACTIC STAR in his next race over 1900m, he should be able to utilize his stamina here.

GALACTIC STAR, trained by Bhupat Seemar, is lightly raced but has shown promise, winning over 1200m at Jebel Ali and finishing third at Meydan over 1600m. His form improved when he beat HEART OF HONOR in his last race, making him competitive over this 1900m distance.

DRAGON should also be considered, as Mikio Matsunaga's colt finished only 5.3 lengths behind Kentucky Derby hopeful LUXOR CAFE in his last race over 1600m at Tokyo in February.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Five of the last seven winners of this G1 contest over 1200m on dirt have been American-trained, and STRAIGHT NO CHASER could continue that trend. The Californian speedster was impressive in last season's G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint, making him a worthy favorite.

He dominated the G2 Riyadh Dirt Sprint last month, but his standout performance at Del Mar, where he surged ahead in the final 200 meters, truly impressed. STRAIGHT NO CHASER is versatile, having secured five wins on four different dirt surfaces. He faces a tough challenge against defending champion TUZ, who is unbeaten in six races here over the last 14 months.

Described by his trainer as "a streetfighter," TUZ presents a fascinating matchup. However, STRAIGHT NO CHASER holds an advantage on official ratings and may prove too classy.

NAKATOMI has faced both top contenders before, finishing five lengths behind STRAIGHT NO CHASER at Del Mar and 7.3 lengths behind TUZ in this race last year. He was hampered at the start in that race, but with Jamie Spencer riding again, he may improve.

Japanese challenger REMAKE, who finished just a length behind NAKATOMI last year, met traffic problems up the home straight. He won a G3 over 1200m in Korea last September, and Frankie Dettori's booking adds to his appeal.

SUPER CHOW had the speed to make a winning debut over 1000m at Gulfstream Park. Jockey Chantal Sutherland has previously won on SUPER CHOW, but stepping up in class here, the 5YO faces a stiff task.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

As long as the exertions from February's G1 Saudi Cup haven't taken a toll, this 1800m G1 contest offers a prime opportunity for Hong Kong champion ROMANTIC WARRIOR to shine on the international stage. The 7YO, trained by Danny Shum, was narrowly beaten by Japan's FOREVER YOUNG in the G1 Saudi Cup, showcasing his potential in his first dirt race. He was just worn down after looking like a winner, and the result might have differed if he hadn't raced wide. Now returning to turf at the same course and distance where he won the G1 Jebel Hatta in January, he looks formidable, with HOLLOWAY BOY trailing in third that day.

HOLLOWAY BOY was less decisively beaten when finishing second to NATIONS PRIDE in the G2 Singspiel Stakes over the same distance last month. The Charlie Appleby-trained NATIONS PRIDE holds a strong Meydan record, with a third in this race in 2023, making him a respected contender.

FACTEUR CHEVAL narrowly won this race last year and maintained high form upon returning to Europe. However, his performance dropped in his first two runs on dirt this year, including a seventh in the G1 Saudi Cup. The return to turf could trigger a resurgence in form.

The Japanese contingent includes the consistent SOUL RUSH, who finished a close third to ROMANTIC WARRIOR in the G1 Yasuda Kinen last June and was second to VOYAGE BUBBLE in the G1 LONGINES Hong Kong Mile in December.

LIBERTY ISLAND, the runner-up in the 2023 G1 Japan Cup, was third to REBEL'S ROMANCE in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic last year. He finished second to ROMANTIC WARRIOR in the G1 LONGINES Hong Kong Cup but may struggle to find the necessary speed at this shorter distance.

MALJOOM has talent but has not been straightforward, often losing ground with slow starts. In contrast, GHOSTWRITER is expected to thrive on the fast ground after competing well against top 3YO colts in Britain and Ireland last year.

Plenty of success in Bahrain – including in Listed company last month – and his third in a G2 in Saudi Arabia in February looked to represent a career-best effort. Seems in great form, but his rating suggests that there are others in this hot field with more ability.

Usually slow from the gates but can put in some big performances with his second in a 1600m Goodwood G1 last July being the best example. But he is without a win since May 2022 and looks unlikely to suddenly put that right in this G1 spectacular.

No.7

A terrific performer who has won a clutch of G1s amongst his eleven career victories. Following two rare below-par efforts he set himself up for this when too strong for seven rivals in a G2 over this course and distance. Likely to race close to the speed.

This incredible and courageous ten-time G1 winner shaped brilliantly in narrow defeat in February's Saudi Cup, tackling dirt for the first time. Surging to the front after making a big move five-wide he looked certain to win until just grabbed by Forever Young. A runaway G1 winner over this course and distance previously and another memorable victory is likely.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

REBEL'S ROMANCE has strong claims to become the first horse to win consecutive G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic titles over 2410m at Meydan. The DUBAWI gelding returned in impressive form, winning the G3 H H The Amir Trophy by a length over 2300m. Last year, he overcame a wide draw in gate 11 to win this race. With a run already this season, he remains the horse to beat, despite only two previous 7YOs winning this race.

SHIN EMPEROR arrives race fit after an impressive front-running victory in the G2 Neon Turf Cup over 2100m. Last year, he competed well against top middle-distance horses in Japan and Europe, with his only subpar effort in the soft ground of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. While his best form is over shorter distances, he may thrive at this trip, especially on a quicker surface.

CALANDAGAN established himself as a top middle-distance horse last year, highlighted by a win in the G2 King Edward VII Stakes at Royal Ascot. He finished second in both the G1 International Stakes and the G1 Champion Stakes, showing he excels late in races. Although lacking a recent run, moving back up in trip could enhance his chances.

GIAVELLOTTO demonstrated he's getting quicker with age by winning the G1 LONGINES Hong Kong Vase over 2400m at Sha Tin. That victory was boosted when the runner-up, DUBAI HONOUR, won the G1 Tancred Stakes recently. This presents a different challenge, but his assured stamina and recent racecourse gallop at Southwell put him in contention.

DUREZZA dead-heated with SHIN EMPEROR in the G1 Japan Cup over 2400m in November, proving his effectiveness at this distance. While his fitness is uncertain, the booking of Christophe Soumillon, who won the race in 2015, is noteworthy.

Plenty of winning form over shorter including a 2000m winning G1 strike in Munich last year. His good late work to finish second over 2100m in Saudi Arabia in February suggests he is worth a try at this trip. But the quality of these rivals makes this look hard.

Showed his quality again when dead-heating for second and only just behind the winner in last November's Japan Cup, his rider injecting some pace into that race in the backstraight as he is long on stamina. A brisk gallop would help his chances here.

Fourth – though never a serious threat – in last year’s Derby at Epsom. Has only raced three times since and, though from an astute UK stable, is likely to be outclassed here.

Very effective at this trip and led some of the way when forcing a dead-heat for second in last November’s Japan Cup. Led throughout to win a hot G2 in Saudi Arabia in February after which this became the obvious target. Much respected.

Progressive in Japan last year with two G1 victories, including Tokyo’s Japanese Oaks over this trip. Started favourite for a G2 at Kyoto in February but disappointed, and will clearly need to do better in this red-hot G1 contest.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

IMPERIAL EMPEROR has thrived since switching to dirt and looks poised for success in the G1 Dubai World Cup over 2000m at Meydan. He has excelled on dirt, winning two 1600m handicaps at Meydan last year. He stepped up further as runner-up to WALK OF STARS in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge over 1900m. The longer distance will suit him, and the expected contested pace should help him reverse the form with his stablemate. He looked even better when winning the G2 Al Maktoum Classic by over eight lengths at the World Cup distance five weeks ago, and that was a perfect preparation for this race.

Japanese star FOREVER YOUNG has already claimed a major prize, courageously beating top Hong Kong challenger ROMANTIC WARRIOR by a neck in the G1 Saudi Cup over 1800m in February. The runner-up faced difficulties during the race, but that was a tough race to FOREVER YOUNG. He should adapt well to the dirt surface, having won the G2 UAE Derby over 1900m on the same day last year.

WALK OF STARS finished tailed off in the G1 Saudi Cup but has strong form at Meydan. His victory over IMPERIAL EMPEROR in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge gives him a solid chance, though he may find it harder to secure an early lead in this race.

Japanese trainer Noboru Takagi's WILSON TESORO finished fourth in the G1 Saudi Cup, just behind stablemate USHBA TESORO. Both will benefit from the extra 200m of the Dubai World Cup, but preference is for WILSON TESORO, who previously outperformed USHBA TESORO when runner-up to FOREVER YOUNG in the G1 Tokyo Daishoten over 2000m in December. There's little between the Takagi pair, but WILSON TESORO's ability to sit more prominently could give him the edge.

SELECTIONS: 4. IMPERIAL EMPEROR, 1. FOREVER YOUNG, 10. WALK OF STARS, 11. WILSON TESORO & 9. USHBA TESORO

Proved himself on the Meydan dirt track when winning last year's UAE Derby, and the way he grabbed Romantic Warrior late on in that thrilling finish to February's Saudi Cup confirmed his top quality and great courage. Holding an edge on ratings here, he looks hard to beat.

Twice an 1800m G2 winner in the US last year, and earlier this year he outclassed his rivals in a G3 at the Fair Grounds. However, although making late headway to finish third in a G1 at Santa Anita last month, plenty more needed for success in this huge prize on his Meydan debut.

The latest of his five career wins came in an 1800m G2 at Santa Anita in January. However, he could never threaten to make a big move from off the pace in a G1 there subsequently. Hard to fancy in this first start outside of California.

Ratings and his low winning strike-rate suggest that his chances here are not strong. Admittedly he won a 2000m G1 at Del Mar last August but some of the better fancied contenders appeared to underperform that day.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Meydan Racecourse opened in 2010, consists of two left-handed circuits, turf and dirt, with the turf track on the outside. The turf track, which is noted for its large roomy layout and fairness to all runners, is a flat course, 2400m in circumference and approximately 30m in width, with a straight of 450m. There are two chutes, one at the top of the back straight for races held over 1800m to 2000m, and one at that connects to the top of the home straight, which sees all races from 1000m to 1200m held over a straight course. Although the ground conditions are mostly good on race day, the thick lush well maintained Bermuda grass covering means that horses who like a bit of give underfoot tend to enjoy the ground.

The dirt track is 1750m in circumference and approximately 25m in width, with a home straight of 400m. The chute which is located on the back straight and links to the main circuit in a dog-leg shape, which races over 1400m to 1600m are held. The dirt track replaced the tapeta surface in 2014 and it saw a distinct bias to those handy to the speed that made it difficult for those at the back to win. However, it has improved in recent times with different run styles now able to win, but it is considered that front-runners in evenly run races still hold an advantage.

Seven races from Dubai World Cup Day will be simulcast to Hong Kong this year, four on the dirt track and three on the turf track.

Feature Race

G1 Dubai World Cup (2000m Dirt)

The feature race, the 2000m G1 Dubai World Cup, has runners jumping from halfway up the home straight and a run of approximately 250m to the first bend before turning into the 400m back straight, then onto the second bend and into the 400m home straight. Since the dirt was first used in 2015, there have been nine editions of the race (not run in 2020 due to Covid), and the average winning barrier has been 8. Of the nine winners, three have been held up off the pace, four have tracked the speed, and two have made all.

Other Races

G2 Godolphin Mile (1600m Dirt)

For the 1600m G2 Godolphin Mile, where they jump from a dog-leg shaped chute that links up to the back straight, and horses who like to go forward are better drawn middle to low.

G1 Al Quoz Sprint (1200m Turf)

For the 1200m G1 Al Quoz Sprint, low barriers are on the far side with high numbers toward the grandstand rail. They tend to come down the centre of the track on the straight course, but they can also go toward the rail on either side, but rarely hard up against either rail. It is a fair straight course and winners can come from anywhere, thus judging the pace and when to make your move is key to success.

G2 UAE Derby (1900m Dirt)

For the 1900m G2 UAE Derby, runners start from the main straight which close to the winning post and have a short run before heading onto the first turn. Horses who like to go forward will prefer low to middle barriers, but there is no draw bias as such.

G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen (1200m Dirt)

For the 1200m G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, runners jump from the back straight and have a decent run before the first turn. Horses who like to go forward are better drawn low to middle, but overall, the draw is of little consequence.

G1 Dubai Turf (1800m Turf)

For the 1800m G1 Dubai Turf, they start from the end of a chute just before it joins the back straight and have a long run before the first bend, which affords all horses every opportunity, thus barriers are of little importance.

G1 Dubai Sheema Classic (2410m Turf)

For the 2410m G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, they start just before the winning post and although the first turn comes up quickly, barriers over this trip are of little consequence, although those wanting to push forward would prefer to be drawn low to middle.

The weather forecast for Dubai predicts warm days and no rain, which, if correct, will mean that races are run on fast going on the dirt and good going on the turf.

Romantic Warrior leads Howdeepisyourlove, Sword Point in search of Dubai glory at Meydan

Wednesday, 2/4/2025

Hong Kong racing phenomenon Romantic Warrior faces ten rivals in Saturday's (5 April) G1 Dubai Turf (1800m) and everything looks right for another mighty exhibition over the same course and distance which saw him shatter the track record in January's G1 Jebel Hatta (1800m).

But his jockey James McDonald sees this as a strong field, quipping at trackwork this week: "I wish it was a bit weaker!". Like trainer Danny Shum, he envisages most danger coming from the four-strong Japanese contingent.

Of those, McDonald, who has ridden Romantic Warrior to nine of his ten Group 1 wins, picks out Yuga Kawada's mount and Japanese Triple Tiara winner Liberty Island: "I believe she has had a better lead-up here than prior to her run at Sha Tin in December," said the New Zealand-born rider referring to Liberty Island's preparation before her late-closing one and a half lengths second to Romantic Warrior in the 2024 HK$40 million G1 LONGINES Hong Kong Cup (2000m).

Of Romantic Warrior's own Meydan preparation, McDonald said: "He seems more relaxed than he was in Saudi and the guys who live and breathe him every day say that he hasn't missed a beat. They are very happy with him."

It was in February's G1 Saudi Cup (1800m, dirt) that the world's most valuable horse race also provided one of the most unforgettable contests when Romantic Warrior – having his first start on dirt – was grabbed in the shadows of the post by Forever Young.

And in the spectacular finale to Saturday's Meydan card, Yoshito Yahagi-trained Ryusei Sakai-ridden four-year-old Forever Young has a first-class chance of following up that Saudi Cup victory in the 11-runner G1 Dubai World Cup (2000m, dirt).

Like Romantic Warrior, he is unbeaten at Meydan having dominated the closing stages of the G2 UAE Derby (1900m, dirt) at this meeting last year.

Also on this meeting last year, Tony Cruz-trained California Spangle led almost throughout to win the G1 Al Quoz Sprint (1200m), and John Size-trained Howdeepisyourlove, to be ridden by McDonald, will be one of the favourites to gain a follow-up victory in this Group 1 charge up the Meydan straight.

The six-time winner will need to overcome a clutch of highly accomplished UK-trained speedsters including Believing, paired with William Buick, who came close to winning a European Group 1 on each of her last three 2024 starts, and West Acre, who has thrived since arriving in Dubai, showcasing explosive acceleration to win a Meydan Group 2 in January – lowering the track record – and Group 3 here last month. Those were both at 1000m but jockey Callum Shepherd has gone on record saying he thinks the progressive George Scott-trained gelding, the only three-year-old in the race, could be even better over the 1200m of the Al Quoz Sprint.

Frankie Lor-trained Sword Point, also pairing with McDonald, encounters a fiercely competitive and cosmopolitan field for the G2 Godolphin Mile (1600m, dirt). One of the favourites is expected to be California-based and Frankie Dettori-ridden Raging Torrent, a decisive winner of Santa Anita's G1 Malibu Stakes (1400m, dirt) last start.

James McDonald confident Romantic Warrior, Howdeepisyourlove can press for Group 1 success

Wednesday, 2/4/2025

James McDonald believes Romantic Warrior and Howdeepisyourlove are well positioned to snare Group 1 glory at Meydan on Saturday (5 April) after the Hong Kong pair drew neutral gates at the official barrier draw today (Wednesday, 2 April).

Acclaimed as the LONGINES World's Best Jockey last year, McDonald will bid to add to his career haul of 114 Group 1 victories after Romantic Warrior drew barrier nine in the G1 Dubai Turf (1800m) and Howdeepisyourlove also drew gate nine in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint (1200m).

McDonald will also ride Sword Point, who will jump from gate two in the G2 Godolphin Mile (1600m, dirt).

The New Zealander said Romantic Warrior had held his form since his narrow defeat in the G1 Saudi Cup (1800m, dirt) in February – a performance McDonald said was among the best of the globetrotting champion's career.

"He gave his all. I almost believe it's almost one of the best performances he's put on a race track. It's phenomenal to be almost 10 lengths back to third. To gap the field like that was remarkable and I was so proud of the horse and proud of how Danny has prepped him up and how Danny's team has looked after him," McDonald said.

"We're really looking forward to the challenge again. Obviously, he's been here and competed at a high level before and we're very much looking forward to the challenge. This race is a very strong race than what he competed in in January here but he's very good.

"It seems like he's taken no side effects from Saudi, he's bounced out of it well – all guns blazing really.

"He seems to be very happy, healthy and he's working well. He's a horse that thrives on high pressure and obviously the tougher the races, the better he goes as we've found out over the years.

"So, he'll be up for the challenge again. Obviously, it's a very competitive race with some very strong contenders and he'll have to be at his brilliant best but from my point of view, I don't think he's taken a backward step from Saudi so hopefully he runs well."

Returning to Dubai for the first time to race since he smashed the track record in winning the G1 Jebel Hatta (1800m) in January, Romantic Warrior will face 10 rivals this weekend, including last year's Dubai Turf winner Facteur Cheval, who jumps from gate 11.

"I think if he (Romantic Warrior) runs up to the Jebel Hatta run, he'll be very hard to beat," McDonald said. "We're confident he likes the surface, he's got round this track beautifully which he normally does anyway. With the 1800m, it's a long run down the (back) straight. He certainly enjoys the firm surface we're likely to get on the hot day and he copes with everything pretty well. He's a well-seasoned horse."

Reflecting on Romantic Warrior's barrier draw, Shum said: "Gate nine is not a problem. He's flexible. If he gets a fast pace, (McDonald) can give him a chance to settle. If the race is slow, he can sit close."

Assessing Howdeepisyourlove's chances, McDonald said: "I'm really looking forward to his race. He's a really good horse who's really consistent, so I think that's a really good thing when travelling.

"He doesn't really run a bad one and he's competed against the best sprinter in the world at the moment in Ka Ying Rising - obviously, a fair way back behind him, but he's always second or third duelling it out with Helios Express.

"I think that form line is as good as any sprinting form line around. You could safely say if Ka Ying Rising was in this field, he'd be a very short-priced favourite and probably winning by four or five lengths, so we're in the ballpark and I think he's a terrific hope."

McDonald starred on his Dubai debut in January with a treble crowned by Romantic Warrior's record-breaking Jebel Hatta romp.

With hot conditions forecast on Saturday, the Dubai World Cup meeting will start an hour later with Sword Point to run at 9.45pm (Hong Kong Time), Howdeepisyourlove at 10.20pm (HKT) and Romantic Warrior at 12.15am (Sunday, 6 April HKT).

John Size aims to land first overseas feature with Howdeepisyourlove

Thursday, 3/4/2025

Revered Hong Kong trainer John Size will attempt to fill a rare gap in a bulging career portfolio when the master horseman saddles Howdeepisyourlove in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint (1200m) at Meydan on Saturday night (5 April).

With an unmatched 12 Hong Kong trainers' championships in his keeping, Size continues to search for his first overseas success since being based at Sha Tin, having previously saddled 10 starters in Japan and three in the United Arab Emirates.

The wily Australian's best result came with Armada's second placing in the 2008 G1 Yasuda Kinen (1600m) in Tokyo and Size is hopeful Howdeepisyourlove's recent Group 1 form behind star sprinter Ka Ying Rising will lead to breakthrough success in the Al Quoz after drawing barrier nine in a field of 11.

"It (the barrier) seems okay, he should be able to get a clear run from there. He's not involved in the inside, so the horse gets back in the field a little bit and hopefully he's a late finisher and that should probably suit him," Size said.

"The horse is in pretty good shape and he's travelled well. He looks good and he's done his work properly. He continues to do well, so I think the race is coming up at the right time and it's a matter of circumstances on the day.

"He seems very well, he's been in pretty good order since he's been in Dubai. He's enjoying the fresh, crispy mornings and the hot afternoons. He seems to be adapting quite well. He's eating his food and doing his work and he seems quite relaxed in this environment.

"He tends to wait for the last run, he likes to be ridden quietly early and get into his rhythm and get into his gear and then he normally finishes strongly. So, he's only got a short dash but if he's timed, he might be in front at the line."

"I would love to win a race overseas. We just keep trying."

Howdeepisyourlove has finished third at his past two starts to Ka Ying Rising – in the G1 Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) on 19 January and the G1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m) on 23 February – and Size hopes the Deep Field gelding can produce a stable breakthrough in the Al Quoz Sprint under James McDonald.

Size previously saddled Amazing Kids, who finished sixth to The Right Man in the Al Quoz Sprint in 2017 and Sight Success, who was fourth to Danyah in 2023 and fifth last year to California Spangle, who broke the Meydan 1200m track record, clocking 1m 07.50s, for Tony Cruz and Brenton Avdulla.

Romantic Warrior strode two laps of Meydan's dirt course with Romantic Charm this morning (Thursday, 3 April) as he prepares to face last year's winner Facteur Cheval in the G1 Dubai Turf (1800m) along with fellow Group 1 winners Nations Pride, Soul Rush, Brede Weg and Liberty Island.

Chasing his 19th win at his 25th start, Romantic Warrior will bid for a record Hong Kong 11th Group 1 victory from barrier nine of 11 starters under McDonald. The Hong Kong International Sale graduate is seeking his second win in Dubai after he broke Meydan's track record with a gallop of 1m 45.10s in the G1 Jebel Hatta (1800m) on 24 January.

Freshened since narrow defeat to Forever Young in the G1 Saudi Cup (1800m, dirt) in Riyadh on 22 February, Romantic Warrior will attempt to add to world record prizemoney of HK$206.9 million.

Frankie Lor's Sword Point is the third of Hong Kong's Dubai World Cup night entrants and will start from barrier 2 in the G2 Godolphin Mile (1600m, dirt). He will also be ridden by McDonald.

With hot conditions forecast on Saturday, the Dubai World Cup meeting will start an hour later with Sword Point to run at 9.45pm (Hong Kong Time), Howdeepisyourlove at 10.20pm (HKT) and Romantic Warrior at 12.15am (Sunday, 6 April HKT).

Japanese, Irish raiders loom as Romantic Warrior's main threats in Dubai

Friday, 4/4/2025

Jockey Christophe Lemaire concedes Japan's finest middle-distance horses face a monumental challenge to topple Romantic Warrior in the G1 Dubai Turf (1800m) at Meydan on Saturday night (5 April) but the Frenchman is not ruling out an upset defeat of Hong Kong's global champion.

Bidding for a record 11th Group 1 win by a Hong Kong horse and his fourth Group 1 triumph in an overseas jurisdiction, Romantic Warrior faces a formidable squad of Japanese contenders led by Liberty Island, Soul Rush, Brede Weg and Meisho Tabaru as well as last year's winner Facteur Cheval and fellow G1 winner Nations Pride.

Lemaire will partner G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup (2000m) winner Brede Weg and believes the lightly-raced mare can pose a serious threat to Romantic Warrior.

"I saw her work yesterday and she is a very talented filly," Lemaire said. "I think the mile was a bit short for her (last start), so the extra 200 metres will suit her. "She has got a very good turn of foot and this will be her second run of the year. She should perform very well – even in such a competitive field, she has a very good chance in my opinion."

William Buick is similarly effusive about four-time Group 1 winner Nations Pride.

"He's had a nice break since his last run," Buick said of Charlie Appleby's charge. "I think we can expect a little bit of improvement in him.

"We've got Romantic Warrior in the race and he's going to be a tough opponent, as well as others. Nations Pride always does his best. He's uncomplicated and he's got genuine Group 1 form. He doesn't quite get the credit he deserves but he's taking on one of the world's best."

Buick will also team with Believing, who will contest the G1 Al Quoz Sprint (1200m) against Hong Kong's Howdeepisyourlove.

Trained by George Boughey, Believing was recently purchased by global racing giant Coolmore after returning to form following her ninth behind Invincible Sage in the 2024 G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) last April.

"I spoke to George about her and he seems very happy with her," Buick said. "She's been knocking on the door in Group 1s now and she probably deserves win one. I think the fast ground and the flat six furlongs will really suit her.

"Sprinters at her age develop and improve physically and she looks like she's filled out."

Howdeepisyourlove will attempt to present Hong Kong with a fourth win in the Al Quoz after the successes of Joy And Fun (2010), Amber Sky (2014) and California Spangle (2024).

Frankie Lor is pleased with Sword Point's condition ahead of the gelding's tilt at the G2 Godolphin Mile (1600m, dirt).

"He had the trial before flying over and it was a great trial," Lor said. "The head lad of the stable reported to me he has eaten up and acclimatised well. It's a great sign that he hasn't turned a hair since arriving even though this is his first time travelling to race overseas.

"Some horses might be scared and some horses don't eat well but he's doing well in every aspect.

"With a good gate (barrier two), we should be able to ride him close to the speed. We would want to come out of the gate fast and let's see if there are any other horses eyeing for the lead. If there isn't, we would be happy to lead, depending on the circumstances of the track.

"If he wins, it would be the best result. I think for every trainer sending a horse to race overseas, they would want to win, doing Hong Kong proud."

All three Hong Kong entrants will be ridden by James McDonald.

With hot conditions forecast on Saturday, the Dubai World Cup meeting will start an hour later with Sword Point to run at 9.45pm (Hong Kong Time), Howdeepisyourlove at 10.20pm (HKT) and Romantic Warrior at 12.15am (Sunday, 6 April HKT).
