Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Metropolitan Stakes is Listed Race for 4YO and upper at 2400m turf track at Tokyo Racecourse.

My favourite is MEINER CHRYSOLA, 6YO horse by SCREEN HERO. He finished fifth in G2 Nakayama Kinen at Nakayama on 25th February 2024, and fifth again in G2 Nikkei Sho at Nakayama on 29th March 2025. I am impressed with his performance in last start, as he finished within 0.1 seconds from the winner and covered final three furlongs for 36.4 seconds, which was the fastest in 15 runners. The competition here looks much easier than those Graded Stakes. And Tokyo is his favourite track, where he has started for eight times, finished within first three in six of them. I reckon MEINER CHRYSOLA has a good chance to become a Listed Race winner on Sunday.

My second choice is BRAVE ROCKER, 5YO horse by DURAMENTE. He finished third in a 2600m race at Hanshin on 13th April, and I think it was a good effort, as he covered final three furlongs for 34.8 seconds, which was the fastest in 11 runners, and finished within a length from the winner. As he re-produces that form, I believe he should be competitive in the field of Metropolitan Stakes on Sunday. While he has not started at Tokyo, the track with long homestretch should suit for BRAVE ROCKER, who has strong late kick.

My third choice is WIDE EMPEROR, 7YO horse by RULERSHIP. Tokyo is his favourite track as he started there for ten times and finished within first two in six of them. Although this is first start for WIDE EMPEROR since October 2024, he has been breezed at uphill track at Ritto Training Center twice a week since middle of April and I believe he is ready to run his race on Sunday. And it is another factor that Christophe Lemaire is booked for him.

My fourth choice is MEINER CAMPANA, who won a race at same course and same distance as Metropolitan Stakes on 8th February. I believe this is the course and distance where the 5YO horse by GOLD SHIP is able to exhibit his best performance.

My fifth choice is GRUNER GREEN. It looks he is only horse who has speed in the field, and the 5YO horse by LOVELY DAY should be able to control the race at front.

Third start after returning after nearly two years of rehabilitation. Coming off a sixth over Nakayama 2500m. Has two wins over Tokyo 2400m, albeit at lower levels, but stayer blood a plus. Could surprise.

Has raced primarily in 1800-2000m range with a G3 win in 2yo, then no top three finish in subsequent 14 starts. On the board five times from seven starts at Tokyo. Worth a longshot wager.

Racing in the open class for eight starts now, six graded, with best a third. Returned late Jan after 6 months off and notched 9-5 in two G2 events, only 0.8L off winner last start. Six of eight finishes at Tokyo in first three. Return to listed race company, venue bode well.

Highly consistent over Tokyo 2400m. Won by a neck in early October, over a runner then finished third in G2. Has speed. Returns after seven months, a plus with Christophe Lemaire on the saddle.

In poor form after being gelded, gradually recovered since May 2024. Beaten 2.5L in G2 and G3, following three good performances in Listed, including two placings in last two starts. Tokyo suits with one win, one second and two thirds, three of those over same distance. Promising.

Best second in open-class competition, while best 6th in five graded stakes. Showed improvement last out in third start from return, posting third despite traffic in open-class test over Hanshin 2600m. First time at Tokyo. Best 5th in only three left-handed starts. Could surprise.
