Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The season's first Classic race for fillies, the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches over 1600m, could provide the Aga Khan family with a notable success thanks to MANDANABA and ZARIGANA, two well-bred fillies who have both won their prep races.

MANDANABA is the daughter of the dual G1-winning mare MANDESHA, who won over 2000 and 2400m. As a winner of the G3 Prix Vanteaux over 1,800m on her seasonal reappearance, one must assume that the Prix de Diane over 2100m would be MANDANABA's ultimate target, but she will have sufficient speed to take the Poule d'Essai Des Pouliches in her stride.

ZARIGANA, who like MANDANABA is trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, also has no stamina issues, as she has won twice already over the 1600m and was only beaten a nose in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac last year. She is the more experienced of the two fillies, but as a granddaughter of the champion ZARKAVA, she can be a bit tricky. There is no doubt though that she is the class act here.

This G1 is shaping into a real competition between some of the oldest racing dynasties, as Juddmonte will be hoping that the Andre Fabre-trained BETTER TOGETHER can deliver here. She has a typical profile for Fabre horse, as she was brought up slowly through the ranks to win a 1400m Listed on her final start last season, before being stepped up in class on her seasonal return in the G3 Prix Imprudence over 1400m. It's thought that she may be even better over longer distances, but she will have improved since her last start and looks a really classy filly.

Aidan O'Brien's horses have not been at their best in the English Classics, but his horses have run to form more recently and EXACTLY, one of his four runners, looks a promising prospect. She has already run over the 1600m at ParisLongchamp where she finished third in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. She was beaten on her first start this season in a G3 at Leopardstown over 1400m, but should have improved since.

The Charlie Fellowes-trained SHES PERFECT will be a worthy outsider here after finishing a very close second to ZARIGANA on her first start this season. She found herself in front in a race with little pace and if she gets a lead this time, she must have a great chance to go close again, especially since she has reportedly improved a lot since her prep race.

SELECTIONS: 2. ZARIGANA, 1. MANDANABA, 11. BETTER TOGETHER, 7. EXACTLY & 4. SHES PERFECT

She warmed up for Sunday's classic by winning its recognised G3 trial, shrugging off a 189 day absence. Possessed with a powerful turn of foot she is a worthy likely favourite.

Aidan O'Brien's raider had a busy two-year-old campaign, and was at one stage ante-post favourite for the English 1000 Guineas and Epsom Oaks. She ran poorly when trying to make all but finishing last of the five runners in a G1 on her penultimate start in September, reportedly lame after the race.

One of the more battle-hardened fillies in the field. This American-bred Irish visitor turns out for her eighth race evidently in need of the run when only ninth on her seasonal bow. A G3 winner at two with give in the ground.
