Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

SIR DELIUS is a lightly raced son of FRANKEL who's ready to make his Australian debut following two strong barrier trial wins at Randwick. The former French galloper was a G3 winner at Chantilly before finishing eight in the 2024 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at his most recent race start. There's plenty of hype and confidence floating around to suggest he'll be too good for this opposition first up, and despite the heavy top weight to shoulder, I agree.

IMMEDIACY arrives in career best form. With wins over 2000m at both Mornington and Caulfield leading in, he's now ready and well equipped to again take on the challenge. There are questions to be asked surrounding his record in races run in the clockwise direction but a low favorable draw should allow him to follow the rail.

CABOCHE is going to be in the hunt for the early lead after drawing low and has built himself a strong record in Brisbane, and over this course and trip. With a moderate tempo anticipated Jamie Melham may potentially look to lead, but at worst settle forward of mid-field. The wet track conditions won't be any concern for this durable and honest campaigner and fitness is now ready to peak at his fifth run back.

MANZOICE can often be overlooked in races similar to this but it's worth remembering he's a previous G1 winner. He's tactically versatile and can often be difficult to assess but with Craig Williams booked to ride I'd be putting him. He'll go around a decent price and can definitely cope with the wet, but most importantly, his latest performance clearly underlined his readiness to win.

ALEGRON hasn't won for almost a year but he possesses the credentials to work his way into the finish. He was in desperate need of his first up run in a G3 at Hawkesbury but was noted making headway towards the end. The second up syndrome is a potential problem, so an additional outing would be preferred, but he has the depth, character and class to feature.

IN FLIGHT can burrow through from the low barrier draw and position up perfectly on the back of a hot speed. Her two runs this campaign have shown pace and closing power which confirms that she's returned a better horse. Jason Collett has now presumably called up for the ride and he doesn't miss too often when that's the case. Her record on wet tracks is clearly the best of this bunch and that'll make her difficult to defeat.

NAVYONTHEHIGHWAY resumed with a tiring sixth placing first up from a long spell but remains the most fascinating runner competing in this event. Her four wins earlier in her career, of which three were at Doomben, displayed talent, progression and a turn of speed. Her track work leading up has been top notch from what I've seen and there's been money go on early to back that up.

KIN should end up with a lovely run in transit behind a strong tempo and that'll allow her to drag up nicely into the race. James McDonald also jumps back aboard which creates confidence considering he hasn't been atop this mare in sometime. Her first up third at Hawkesbury was good in a race that changed shape through the concluding stages so expect her to be amongst the numbers at the end.

TIGER SHARK draws a wide gate but has the natural speed and brilliance to offset that challenge early doors. Her win first up at the Sunshine Coast over 1000m was classy whilst carrying weight and she can only be further improved by the run. Her second up record is enviable and she's displayed a genuine affiliation for softness in the track, so expect her to be in for a long way.

MISS HELLFIRE is untrustworthy but has rated highly on various occasions. Her two runs back this preparation have been typical of her inconsistent output but I'd suggest she is worthy of throwing in. A perfect draw, and ace jockey and a fast run race from the outset all mix together nicely, which in turn could create an environment she'll adore.

Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

BENEDETTA hasn't won a race since her brilliant victory in the G1 The Goodwood at Morphettville in South Australia which was run almost twelve months ago to the day. Nevertheless, her form line since returning this campaign is showing signs of a peak following a hearty effort recently in the G1 All Aged Stakes in Sydney. A preferred mid-range barrier draw and blinkers reapplied shall provide her with tactical options in the run, and with regular rider Jamie Melham aboard there shouldn't be to many excuses.

JEDIBEEL ran an excellent race first up to win the G2 Challenge Stakes at Randwick over 1000m with his closing sectionals the stand out from the event. No clear galloping room at a vital stage in the G1 The Galaxy and G1 T J Smith Stakes dampened his closing momentum but the runs were rated solid in defeat. An almighty hard finishing second behind LIBERTAD in the G2 Victory Stakes recently has topped him off superbly for this pending assignment, plus, with the wet track conditions confirmed and re-booking of familiar jockey Tyler Schiller, he definitely receives a great opportunity.

OVERPASS was narrowly defeated by GIGA KICK in the 2023 edition of this classic G1 event before bypassing this race last year in order to spell. He returned to racing this campaign with an excellent second in the G1 T J Smith Stakes in early April, before a slightly below par performance in The Quokka at the Ascot racecourse in Perth. He's since returned to Sydney and reports suggest he's prepared well, so expect him to press on early for the lead.

SUNSHINE IN PARIS arrives ready to strike at her fourth run back from a break following an encouraging third behind JIMMYSSTAR in the G1 All Aged Stakes. The dual G1 winner has continued to look good during morning exercise this week and has the advantage of previous experience around the Doomben track. This year's edition appears to hold plenty of high-quality speed early on which shall suit her closing style perfectly, whilst also assisting her to navigate freely through the field from the unattractive draw.

SCHWARZ elevated himself to a career high handicap rating of 111 following his all the way victory in the G1 William Reid Stakes at Moonee Valley last start and appears a dangerous runner to oppose. Agreed, it was difficult to make ground from back in the field that afternoon but the performance overall displayed a high level of strength and speed. His continued wellbeing has since been franked by two comfortable barrier trial wins under James McDonald at Randwick and Warwick farm, but intriguingly he doesn't take the ride.

HIDDEN WEALTH and ZARASTRO like to go forward and they should come across from their draws and take the early lead. OVERPASS has drawn awkwardly and may have to work in the early stages. SCHWARZ, ROTHFIRE and LADY LAGUNA who have drawn the outside should slot in behind the leaders.

Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

FIRM AGREEMENT is the winner of only the one race to this point but he's a quality individual with multiple placings at G1 and G3 level. His runner-up finish behind AELIANA in the G1 Australian Derby has been the highlight of his career so far but it won't be long before he strikes again. The G1 Queensland Derby in two weeks time over 2400m is the ultimate target, as it is for most competing, but I expect him to thrive in the wet conditions and handle the push for home better than the rest.

BELLE DETELLE showed plenty of strength and determination to win the G3 Adrian Knox Stakes in early April before a credible fifth behind TREASURETHE MOMENT in the G1 Australian Oaks at Randwick. It's clear, she's still learning her craft after pulling ferociously over the 2400m last start so the drop back in trip to 2000m is expected to be advantageous. She's untried at Doomben, which may be of some concern, but possesses a good turn of foot which is capable of getting her out of trouble.

KING OF THUNDER has been freshened up following his six-length defeat in the G1 Australian Derby where for the second time he appeared to unsuccessfully run out the trip. Therefore, reverting back to 2000m seems the appropriate distance to tackle with his record clearly indicating that fact. He's an attractive and highly progressive individual who's trialed nicely under James McDonald leading in, but he's still a long way from the fully furnished product and susceptible to making mistakes.

SHANGRI LA SPRING has score on the board with four wins from eight career starts and has already proven he can adapt to changing track conditions. He's a natural free runner with a high cruising speed and it's anticipated he'll control this event for a long period of time. His recent fourth placing in the G2 Queensland Guineas underlined his weakness to a superior turn of foot but that contest was at a distance short of his ideal trip.

MAISON LOUIS is the other runner to keep safe following a comfortable win against inferior opponents over the 1900m at Canterbury last start. With a record of three wins from five starts he's emerging as a potential Derby candidate and shall need to run well today if he's to make the cut. The booking of Jamie Melham to ride is almost a tip in itself but he's still yet to prove himself at the level and set weights.

Track Analysis by Brett Davis

Doomben is one of the two racecourses located in Brisbane, the capital city of Queensland in the northeast part of Australia. As a track, it's not too dissimilar from Happy Valley, as it's a tight turning, right-handed track with a home straight of 350m in length but a larger circumference of 1750m. Doomben's major races are the Doomben 10000 and the Doomben Cup, which are both held during the Queensland Winter Racing Carnival.

The Doomben 10000 is the feature event on Saturday's simulcast and has been won by top class horses like TAKEOVER TARGET, APACHE CAT, BOBAN and GIGA KICK in years gone by. Since 2017, the race has been run over 1200m, making it one of the first of the feature sprint races, and leading into other feature events later in the carnival like the Kingsford Smith Cup and the Stradbroke Handicap.

Feature Race

G1 Doomben 10000 (1200m)

The 1200m start at Doomben for the G1 Doomben 10000 is located along the back straight. From here, the field will gallop for around 300m before they reach the first turn. They'll then race along the side of the track for 550m before entering the home straight with 350m to go. History says that horses drawn wide barriers in the G1 Doomben 10000 are at a distinct disadvantage, as the race has only been won by horses drawn inside barriers at Doomben since the distance of the race was reduced to 1200m.

Other Races

G3 Chairman's Handicap & G3 HKJC World Pool Rough Habit Plate (2000m)

The G3 Chairman's Handicap and G3 HKJC World Pool Rough Habit Plate are over 2000m. Races over this distance begin at the 300m mark in the home straight. The field will race for 400m before turning out of the straight and will then enter the back straight with 1300m to go. When they come off the back, they'll be at the 900m as momentum builds before heading into the home straight once again. Horses drawn inside to middle barriers are at an advantage in these races, but the statistics suggest that you can't automatically discount those drawn wider.

Listed Bright Shadow Quality (1110m)

On pacers will also be at an advantage Listed Bright Shadow Quality over 1110m where they only have a short run of 200m before reaching the first turn.

The rail for Doomben 10000 Day will be in the true position. At the time of writing, Doomben was rated as a soft track and with further rain forecast, it's likely that the meeting will be held on a rain affected course.

Craig Williams chases another G1 Doomben 10000 success

Thursday, 15/5/2025

Champion jockey Craig Williams will chase a third consecutive victory in the AU$1.5 million (approx. HK$7.33 million) G1 Doomben 10000 (1200m) at Doomben Racecourse in Brisbane, Australia on Saturday (17 May) after replacing Blake Shinn on Schwarz.

Having his last start before being retired to stud, Schwarz will attempt to emulate the feats of Giga Kick (2023) and Bella Nipotina (2024), who both won the feature under Williams.

Winner of the 2025 BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) on Cap Ferrat for Francis Lui in March at Sha Tin, Williams will have his first ride on Schwarz after Shinn was suspended.

Trained by John O'Shea & Tom Charlton, Schwarz will jump from barrier 9 as he attempts to add the Doomben 10000 to the G1 William Reid Stakes (1200m) he won at Moonee Valley on 22 March.

The four-year-old faces 14 rivals on Saturday, including Sunshine In Paris, who will be ridden by James McDonald, who won on the mare in the G1 VRC Champions Sprint (1200m) at Flemington on 9 November.

Trained by Annabel & Rob Archibald, Sunshine In Paris has been freshened since finishing third to Jimmysstar in the G1 All Aged Stakes (1400m) at Randwick on 19 April.

"Sunshine In Paris is great," Archibald said. "James galloped her last week and was very happy with the mare."

The Archibalds are also represented by Lady Laguna (Mark Zahra) and Libertad (Jamie Mott).

Jamie Melham will partner Benedetta for Jason Warren as the pair attempts to avenge William Reid Stakes defeat at the hands of Schwarz.

"He (Schwarz) had the track in his favour at Moonee Valley (in the William Reid Stakes), it was a terrible track that day," Warren said. "Hopefully, he's not getting that advantage this week."

"We're going there (Doomben) with fresh legs, which will definitely help," Warren said. "She's in great form and she hasn't had an overly taxing preparation so far."

Benedetta finished fifth last start in the All Aged Stakes last month, earning Warren's praise.

"We didn't think we could beat Jimmysstar but in saying that I thought her (Benedetta) run was enormous."

Seven-year-old veteran Rothfire returns to Group 1 level for the first time since finishing fifth in the 2023 G1 Moir Stakes (1000m) at Moonee Valley as he prepares for only the 34th start in a career repeatedly interrupted by injury.

"In all fairness, I will know when he's ready to retire," Heathcote said. "When he gives me the slightest sign that he no longer enjoys training, he no longer enjoys what he does, then I'll know."

Rothfire's only previous Doomben 10000 appearance came in 2022 when he finished fifth in the edition won by Mazu.

Leg injuries kept him out of the 2021 and 2024 Queensland carnivals, but Rothfire has had four runs this time in, the most recent a fourth in the G2 Victory Stakes (1200m) on 3 May.

"Two horses smashed him in the lead, he fought them off and he was still there with 100m to go," Heathcote said. "Under different circumstances, I think he can still win a big one."
