Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

SOLDIER'S HEART progressed into a smart juvenile sprinter last year and this 1200m Listed race gives him a good opportunity to make a winning return to action. He took his tally to three wins from five races when making all the running to easily land the Listed Ripon Champion 2YO Trophy over 1200m last August. The speed he showed in those three victories makes him an exciting prospect for sprints this year and he could be a good deal better than this Listed level. Fitness shouldn't be a huge issue with the British father-and-son training partnership of Simon and Ed Crisford in good form.

ESTEPONA won his first two races – both over 1200m at Deauville – as a juvenile last year. Although he was found out in 1200m Group races later in the season, he kicked off this term with a decent effort when second behind ARIZONA BLAZE in a G3 at Chantilly over 1100m. He wasn't helped by racing furthest away from the stands' rail and the slightly longer distance of today's race should help.

RAYEVKA came up short when tried at the top level in the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes over 1200m at Newmarket last season but she remains a filly with a decent amount of potential. She was a bit too fresh and pulled too hard on her first start of this season when fourth behind ARIZONA BLAZE in the aforementioned 1100m Chantilly G3 in April. That run should have sharpened her up.

British raider ARABIE is unbeaten in two previous visits to Chantilly for Karl Burke. He landed back-to-back victories over this course and distance as a two-year-old last year. His success in the G2 Prix Robert Papin over 1200m last July made him one of the most promising juvenile sprinters in Europe and he ran a sound race in the G1 Prix Morny over 1200m at Deauville the following month. Things have not gone to plan in two starts this season but it's too early to write him off.

MIDNIGHT STRIKE looked likely to improve a lot for his comeback fourth behind smart sprinter WHISTLEJACKET in an April 1200m Listed race at Navan in Ireland. He showed plenty of pace and just faded up the final climb to the line, but should be fitter as a result.

Showned high class form in France by winning at G2/G3 level as a juvenile. Not disgraced when keeping on for fifth in a G3 Royal Ascot trial race in April. Any give in the ground should improve the chances of the classy British raider.

Posted a career best on his reappearance (28-1) when a running-on second in a G3 sprint behind a very smart Irish colt over course and 1100m in April. Clearly a contender if able to back that up.

Some of the form of this smart British raider makes for very good reading. Unraced this year but trades on the back of three juvenile wins, and yard has enjoyed plenty of international success so far this season.

Ran a fair race to be fourth in competitive G3 over course and 1100m last time. Held every chance – only to lose place inside the final 200m – but certainly one of the better chances on paper.

Has yet to recapture last season's sparkle when enjoying Deauville Listed success. Not disgraced when third in Class One race at Chantilly last time, but does need to take a step forward.

This juvenile Listed winner hasn't been at her best so far this season. However, the 1400m may have stretched her stamina (fifth) at Longchamp last time, and the drop back to 1200m may see her in a better light.
