Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G1 Queen Anne Stakes over 1600m is the curtain-raiser at Royal Ascot and features some of the world's best 1600m horses.

ROSALLION is one of them and looks ready to run a big race here. Richard Hannon's colt was an outstanding 3YO last year, winning the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1600m at the Curragh and the G1 St James's Palace Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. The style of both those wins marked him out as a top-class talent, but injury after Ascot disappointingly ruled him out for the season. He made a more than encouraging comeback in the G1 Lockinge Stakes over 1600m at Newbury last month behind LEAD ARTIST and with fitness under his belt, he will be hard to beat.

LAKE FOREST is a fascinating contender and is totally unexposed over 1600m. Campaigned by William Haggas over 1200m for almost all his career, he was second in the G1 Commonwealth Cup over 1200m at Royal Ascot last year. He could well be the fastest horse in the field, and can hit the frame if he settles under Tom Marquand on his first go over 1600m.

DOCKLANDS is a rock-solid international campaigner with a touch of class. Harry Eustace's gelding was far from disgraced in his G1 runs over 2000m and 1600m in Australia and Hong Kong respectively in the winter, and his UK comeback at Ascot in April over 1600m showed he retains all his ability. He was unlucky when a narrow third on Derby Day at Epsom in a 1700m G3, and back to a track he loves, he can replicate the form that saw him finish second in this race last year behind CHARYN.

LEAD ARTIST defeated ROSALLION in the aforementioned Lockinge Stakes at Newbury last month and with that win showed he's a serious 1600m operator. John and Thady Gosden's colt landed his first G1 on his first attempt last month. He had race fitness on his side that day, but he ought to be competitive again here.

NOTABLE SPEECH has also beaten ROSALLION, doing so in last year's G1 2000 Guineas Stakes at Newmarket over 1600m. Charlie Appleby's Classic winner was said to be a bit rusty when fourth behind LEAD ARTIST and ROSALLION in the G1 Lockinge Stakes, but should improve for that run enough to see him there at the finish.

QUDDWAH led all the way at his last start and he may take the lead once again. He may be joined by DIEGO VELAZQUEZ who went forward in his last two starts. CAIRO and LEAD ARTIST should sit behind the leaders. ROSALLION, LAKE FOREST and NOTABLE SPEECH should be near the rear.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The defection of ALBERT EINSTEIN, who would have been a firm favourite, has made the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m a much more open race. In fact, punters have burned their fingers in the last five years, with two winners returning at huge odds during that period.

We have to start with Coolmore. Aidan O'Brien has a high opinion of GSTAAD, who surprised him when beating a better-fancied once-raced stablemate on his debut at Navan over 1200m last month. GSTAAD looked to relish the uphill finish when wearing down TRUE LOVE close home. Consequently, this stiff track should suit him, and he has apparently come on a lot for that first run.

However, GSTAAD might need to improve as Wathnan Racing, relatively new owners with big ambitions to challenge Coolmore and Godolphin, look to have an exciting youngster in POSTMODERN. Connections confessed before POSTMODERN made his debut in what looked a hot novice over 1200m at Yarmouth, that they were not expecting too much as the colt had not been asked too many questions at home. However, to their delight, POSTMODERN always travelled strongly, and the explosive gear-change that saw him shoot five lengths clear in the final furlong suggested he was well above average.

Godolphin have never won this prestigious race, but in MILITARY CODE they, too, look to have found another potential star. He never looked like getting beat first time out at Newmarket over 1000m and then defied a penalty without breaking sweat here last month over 1000m. He is very speedy, but William Buick is confident that this extra 200m won't be a problem.

Archie Watson, who did win the race with BRADSELL in 2022, is convinced that UNDERWRITER, also owned by Wathnan Racing, is the real deal. He certainly looked very professional when winning that same Ayr race over 1200m and this has always been his prime target.

Paul Cole won this race three times in the 90's, and he looks to have another speedball in AMERICAN GULF, who landed some hefty bets when justifying favouritism at Windsor over 1200m earlier this month.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G1 King Charles III Stakes is a competitive sprint over 1000m.

BELIEVING has travelled all over the world for British trainer George Boughey and comes here on a high. Last seen finally hitting the bullseye in a G1 Al Quoz Sprint over 1200m at Meydan, will be looking to add another to her resume. The slight step back down in trip is no cause for concern, as both of her wins last season were over 1000m. The second of those was in the G2 Sapphire Stakes at the Curragh with Ryan Moore on board, who's notably booked again, and BELIEVING looks the one to beat.

Last year's victor ASFOORA, however, poses a big threat. On her reappearance this season, Henry Dwyer's mare produced a stellar run to land a G3 over 1100m in Australia but failed to back it up last time out against tougher G1 opponents over 1200m. All of her Group wins have come over either 1000m or 1100m, so stepping back to the former here looks a plus and she can prove a worthy contender to retain her crown with Oisin Murphy in the saddle.

Karl Burke's NIGHT RAIDER has a go over this trip for the first time. Since running in last year's G1 2000 Guineas over 1600m, he's slowly been dropped back down in trip and seems far more comfortable at sprinting distances. There could be more improvement to come after his third in the G2 Duke Of York Stakes over 1200m on his seasonal reappearance last month.

MGHEERA has drastically improved since switching yards to Ed Walker having been campaigned in France previously. She recently flew home to land the G2 Temple Stakes over 1000m at Haydock last month having picked up a G3 over the same distance in France a few weeks prior. She prefers it on the quick side and there could be more to come.

Edward Bethell's REGIONAL was second to ASFOORA 12 months ago and more recently a narrow third to BELIEVING in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint. We know he's got talent, as seen when beating the latter in September of 2023 in the G1 Sprint Cup Stakes over 1200m at Haydock. With more G1 experience under his belt since, he could find himself in the mix here.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This G1 contest brings together the best 3YO 1600m horses around and this edition features the winners of the English, Irish and French 2000 Guineas.

FIELD OF GOLD looked unlucky not to win the G1 2000 Guineas over 1600m at Newmarket, when travelling like the best horse but having too much ground to make up on RULING COURT in the closing stages. John and Thady Gosden's contender was only beaten half-a-length and the disappointment of connections was clear afterwards. However, FIELD OF GOLD readily made amends on his next start in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1600m, when ridden closer to the pace and powering clear of his rivals to win by nearly four lengths. If well positioned from the off, he looks to have a strong chance of reversing form with RULING COURT and is the one to beat.

HENRI MATISSE represents Aidan O'Brien. He displayed top-class form when stepped up to 1600m for the first time in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Del Mar and has continued his winning form this season. A reappearance win in a Leopardstown G3 over 1400m was followed by a tough performance to land the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over 1600m at Longchamp. That victory took his record over 1600m to two from two, but this will be the stiffest test he has faced over the trip.

RULING COURT has taken his form to a new level this season, winning a Listed race over 1600m impressively in UAE before stepping up to win the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. This is his toughest assignment to date and with FIELD OF GOLD looking to have improved since their Newmarket clash, he will have to take another step forward.

RASHABAR won last year's G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m at this meeting. He was then stepped up into G1 company and went down by half-a-length in the G1 Prix Morny over 1200m at Deauville and then only a neck in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere over 1400m at Longchamp. He hasn't quite found those levels in two starts this season, but there was enough promise in his fourth behind FIELD OF GOLD in the Irish 2000 Guineas to suggest he can find the frame here.

OFFICER finished further back in seventh in the Irish 2000 Guineas. He remains lightly raced after only four starts but needs to take a major step forward now.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This competitive 4004m handicap is always one of the stiffest tests of stamina of the season.

MANXMAN is an extremely strong stayer, and he's progressed at an incredible rate since stepping into handicaps. His seven victories have come in just 16 races, and he came within a nose of landing the prestigious Cesarewitch over 3600m at Newmarket last October. He warmed up for a crack at the Ascot Stakes with a Goodwood win over 3200m last month when his stamina saw him get up close to home. This longer distance is right up his street.

Champion jumps trainer Willie Mullins has won this race four times in the last 13 years and his REACHING HIGH has been popular in the last week. Owned by the King and Queen, he won a 2799m handicap on Wolverhampton's all-weather track for now-retired Sir Michael Stoute last season. His debut for Mullins came in a 2400m lady riders' race at Leopardstown. He stayed on strongly but couldn't quite force his nose in front of NOT JUST ANY EAGLE when going down by a shorthead. His pedigree suggests the step up in distance is just what he wants. His dam, ESTIMATE, won the G1 Gold Cup in the Royal colours at this meeting 12 years ago.

EAST INDIA DOCK developed into one of the top 4YO hurdlers in his first jumps campaign and he made a successful return to the Flat when landing the competitive Chester Cup over 3727m last month. This marathon distance is clearly no problem and he makes plenty of appeal. He suffered his first defeat over jumps in the G1 Triumph Hurdle over 3363m at the Cheltenham Festival. The shock winner of that race was PONIROS.

PONIROS was not only making his hurdles debut in that top-level contest, but it was also his first start for the Mullins yard. He had shown useful Flat form for Ralph Beckett last year and he has obvious potential now he steps up in distance.

Horses with jumps form often win this race given it is an extreme test of stamina. LIARI lost his way over hurdles for Paul Nicholls but he made a winning debut for Michael Bell when successful over 2800m at Newmarket last month. It was an impressive victory from a horse with the potential to still be well handicapped.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

With only four favourites or joint-favourites successful in 23 runnings and four winners returning at double-figure odds in the last eight years, it has paid to look beyond the market leaders in this 2000m Listed race.

MEYDAAN looks interesting. He ran in some decent races last year, winning a 2200m Listed race at Goodwood before his stamina ran out when fourth to ILLINOIS in the 2800m G2 Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot. Gelded over the winter, Simon and Ed Crisford's contender showed promise at this track in May over an inadequate 1600m before a strong-finishing, career-best when narrowly beaten by LIBERTY LANE in a 2000m Listed race at Goodwood last month. MEYDAAN, who should relish Ascot's stiffer uphill finish, now receives weight from LIBERTY LANE, who will not be suited by the drying ground and has a tricky wide draw.

ENFJAAR, re-fitted with the hood which he wore when improving last year after being stepped up to 2000m, will be a popular choice after his promising fifth behind useful rivals in the G3 Brigadier Gerard Stakes over 1990m at Sandown last month. He should be much sharper for that seasonal debut and this race looks to have been the aim for the Roger Varian stable that have won two of the last five renewals of this contest.

SONS AND LOVERS is also down in grade after sticking on well in G3 and G2 2000m races this season, most recently when fourth to the talented LOS ANGELES in the G2 Mooresbridge Stakes at the Curragh last month. The booking of Ryan Moore aboard the Joseph O'Brien-trained 4YO catches the eye.

ECUREUIL SECRET, placed in G3 company in Ireland last year at this distance, was an easy winner of a competitive 2000m handicap at Epsom's Derby meeting this and must enter calculations.

CHECKANDCHALLENGE was seventh in this race in 2023 and sixth last year, finishing well both times. He will also appreciate returning to this grade after taking on Europe's best milers when fifth to LEAD ARTIST in the G1 Lockinge Stakes over 1600m at Newbury last month.

AMBIENTE FRIENDLY, runner-up in last year's Derby over 2400m, and HAATEM, winner of G3 1400m Jersey Stakes at last season's Royal Meeting, have both been well below par so far this season.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

FRENCH MASTER appears to be progressing at a fast rate, and he can continue on his upward curve in the Copper Horse Stakes over 2844m. The John and Thady Gosden-trained 4YO has only had five starts to date and he could prove to be a cut above this field. Shaping as though he was in need of his comeback in a 2400m handicap at Newmarket, the son of Frankel appeared to appreciate the step up to 2800m at Goodwood last time out. The small rise in the weights for that victory looks perfectly manageable.

Trainer Willie Mullins has won the last two renewals of the race, and he once again holds strong claims with CHARLUS, who returns to the Flat after two starts over jumps. Before moving to his current connections, he had shown a useful level of form on the Flat including when finishing second in a Listed race over 1900m on his final start for Jean-Claude Rouget. Although he is yet to race over this far on the Flat, he shapes as though he will stay, and the booking of Ryan Moore is a big positive.

CABALLO DE MAR has made giant strides this season winning four of his five starts, including last time out when carrying a big weight to victory in a 3242m handicap at Haydock. This race marks a drop back in trip, but he didn't look like he would struggle going back down in distance when showing good speed for a stayer late on, while he won twice over 2819m on the all-weather at Southwell earlier in the year.

FAIRBANKS finished sixth at the meeting last year in the Duke Of Edinburgh Stakes over 2392m, but he built on that when stepped up to 2800m in a handicap at Newmarket on his next start. He arrives race fit following a spell over jumps and the booking of Chris Hayes is an eye-catching one on his first start on the Flat for trainer William Durkan.

JESSE EVANS gets the final vote at the grand old age of nine. There wouldn't be a more versatile horse in training than this veteran who has mixed fences, hurdles and the Flat in three of his last four runs. The key to him is the likely strong pace and decent ground, so it would be no surprise to see him in the mix at massive odds.

Looked to appreciate Ascot when second in a handicap here last year. Raced too keenly at York last month.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

Queen Anne Stakes Day, day 1 of the Royal Ascot meeting see's seven turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Queen Anne Stakes (1600m)

For the 1600m G1 Queen Anne Stakes, in smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well over this trip, however, in this particular race, whilst there have been no leaders win in recent times, horses that have tracked the pace have been successful in eight of the last ten years, whilst those waited with have won twice.

Other Races

G2 Coventry Stakes (1200m)

For the 1200m G2 Coventry Stakes, they will look to come down the centre, but can split into two and three groups in larger fields. The straight draw results will vary, but it is advisable to look for the speed angle, especially in larger fields, as the winner usually comes from where the pace is, and results are more pace-dependent than draw-dependent.

G1 King Charles III Stakes (1000m)

For the 1000m G1 King Charles III Stakes, over this trip in smaller fields, they tend to come down the centre of the track, but can split into two, and sometimes even three groups, in larger fields. However, in this race they do tend to come down the centre of the course and rarely split into more than one group, but they can drift to one side or the other over the latter stages. Although uphill nearly all the way, speed horses do have a decent record over this trip, with horses that have been prominent winning nine of the last ten renewals, but if they go too quickly on the front, the closers do get their chance.

G1 St James's Palace Stakes (1594m)

For the 1594m G1 St James's Palace Stakes, they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side. They then run in a straight line with a steady rise before meeting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, which is uphill to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

Ascot Stakes (3991m)

For the 3991m Ascot Stakes, they start toward the end of the straight course and have a long run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they head downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading to Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. They then enter the home straight (500m), and run uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at an honest gallop as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Listed Wolferton Stakes (1993m)

For the 1993m Listed Wolferton Stakes, they start in back straight and travel downhill for approximately 200m before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that sees a steady rise to the home turn. They then enter the home straight (500m) and run uphill until the finish. Statistically speaking, barriers are of little consequence, but like most races on the round course, horses ridden with patience tend to do well.

Copper Horse Stakes (2831m)

For the 2831m Copper Horse Stakes, they start from half way up the straight course and have a long run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they run downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading onto Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. They then enter the home straight (500m), and run uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at an honest tempo as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Day 1 of the Royal meeting has seen good in the going description in eight of the last ten years. The weather forecast suggests sunny weather in the lead-up and on race day. If the forecast is correct, then the going should be good, and could be good to firm as has been the case three times in the last four years.

Field Of Gold the standout on Royal Ascot's fiercely competitive Tuesday

Monday, 16/6/2025

With 114 declared runners for Tuesday's (17 June) hotly contested opening day at Royal Ascot, only Field Of Gold in the G1 St James's Palace Stakes (1600m) – third of the afternoon's Group 1 contests – can be rated as a very likely winner.

The striking John & Thady Gosden-trained grey now appears to be Europe's best three-year-old miler after his scintillating victory under Colin Keane in last month's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas (1600m). He posted impressive sectional times then and, not only that, Ascot is a stiffer track than the Curragh which plays to his strengths.

Keane echoes that view, commenting: "He was very good at the Curragh and the stiff mile at Ascot will suit him well. He is growing up and is also very relaxed and straightforward."

Ireland's six-time champion jockey Keane – having recently landed the prestigious number one job with powerhouse operation Juddmonte – will be aware that confirmed hold-up horses like Field Of Gold historically don't have life easy at Ascot, especially on the round course and, there was plenty of evidence of that at the Royal meeting last year.

William Buick, whose mount Ruling Court stole first run on Field Of Gold to win last month's G1 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Newmarket, will be angling to exploit any such issues, much like Ryan Moore, who delivered Henri Matisse right on time to win the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (1600m) at ParisLongchamp the following weekend.

Henri Matisse's outstanding trainer, Aidan O'Brien, adds to the tactical conundrum of the St James's Palace Stakes, commenting: "Henri Matisse doesn't like to be in front too soon so Ryan will be looking to do something similar at Ascot."

Tactical nous will also not have escaped the notice of some of the world's top jockeys in the opening G1 Queen Anne Stakes (1600m). Australian-based star jockeys James McDonald and Mark Zahra have been drafted in to partner Carl Spackler and Docklands, respectively. Christophe Soumillon – fresh from his victory on Gezora in Sunday's (15 June) G1 Prix de Diane (2100m) at Chantilly – partners the fast-improving Sardinian Warrior.

Rosallion (Sean Levey) is the likely Queen Anne Stakes favourite, who delivered a stunning performance when winning the St James's Palace Stakes on this day last year. He re-encounters Lead Artist (Colin Keane) and Dancing Gemini (Kieran Shoemark), who finished just ahead of him in the G1 Lockinge Stakes (1600m) as well as Notable Speech (William Buick) who finished just behind him at Newbury last month.

Speculation surrounds which of these four hugely talented milers – Rosallion, Lead Artist, Dancing Gemini and Notable Speech – will rise to the challenge. Much conjecture suggests that it could be Notable Speech, winner of the 2024 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, who can improve second-up after his effort in the Lockinge Stakes for Charlie Appleby.
