Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Yorkshire trainer Karl Burke has an excellent chance of adding this year's trophy to his collection with ZELAINA. She was heavily backed before her debut over 1000m at Nottingham two weeks ago and her supporters hardly had a moment of worry as she showed lightning-fast speed to run out an impressive winner. The form has not really been tested but the placed horses were both well-bred fillies from top yards. She clearly has loads of pace and the demands of this 1000m should be ideal.

SOCIETY KISS made a successful debut over course and distance last month. She travelled well through the race before unleashing an impressive turn of pace to storm right away in the closing stages. Several of her rivals went into that maiden contest with some promising efforts behind them, so to take apart a field containing those more experienced fillies was a really good starting point to her career. She looks very smart and it's always a help to have course form in the book.

SPICY MARG had reportedly been working well before her debut and the confidence in her was spot on. She made smooth progress to lead 200m from home in that 1000m Newmarket fillies' novice and she stormed clear for an imposing victory. Although she only had three rivals to beat, it was hard not to be impressed by the manner of her win.

Irish raider CARDIFF BY THE SEA faced an extremely stiff task when taking on top prospect CHARLES DARWIN on her debut. She showed some decent pace to put it up to the long odds-on favourite in that 1000m Naas contest and she looks to have plenty of potential.

HARRY'S GIRL put in an impressive finishing burst when making a successful debut over 1000m at Newmarket in April. The form of that race is good and it was no surprise to see her trainer, Richard Hannon, opt to send her to York's Listed Marygate Stakes over 1000m for her second race. She travelled smoothly that day, looking likely to keep her unbeaten record until SECRET HIDEAWAY grabbed her right on the line. This stiffer track should play to her strengths.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

CARMERS arrives here with a perfect two-from-two record and has already proved that he should be suited by the 2800m of this G2 contest for 3YOs. Paddy Twomey's contender made a winning debut over 2600m at Ballinrobe last month, impressing with his attitude as he chased down the leader in the closing stages. He improved markedly from that effort to land the Listed Yeats Stakes over 2600m at Navan last time out, staying on powerfully in the closing stages to finish three lengths clear of his rivals. There should be more improvement to come, and with the trip and ground to suit he could well land the hat-trick.

Aidan O'Brien-trained SCANDINAVIA must be respected. He has yet to be tested outside maiden company, but O'Brien has taken this race with similar types in the past. SCANDINAVIA was defeated in his three starts as a 2YO, which all came over 1600m, but readily brushed aside his opposition when stepping up to 2000m at Navan on his seasonal return. He was strong at the finish there, hitting the line well, and could find more improvement now stepping up further in trip.

DEVIL'S ADVOCATE brings some of the best form into this contest after finishing fourth in the G2 Dante Stakes over 2100m at York. He made the running that day and looked outpaced when the tempo lifted, but the way he stuck to his task in the closing stages suggested a challenge of this nature should suit him.

French raider ASMARANI already has winning form over 2400m on very soft ground, which indicates he should have no issues with this trip. Francis-Henri Graffard's colt looked to find the trip on the short side when running on late to finish second in the G3 Prix Hocquart over 2200m at Longchamp when last seen. That form has been franked too, with the winner going on to win a G3 subsequently, so he is definitely one to include on the shortlist.

SHACKLETON is another runner for the Ballydoyle team. He won a 1800m maiden at the Curragh last season but underperformed on his next start in the G3 Zetland Stakes over 2000m at Newmarket. His seasonal return at the Curragh in the G3 Gallinule Stakes over 2000m was similarly underwhelming and he will need to step forward a lot over this new distance.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Duke Of Cambridge Stakes, run over 1600m, is open to fillies and mares aged four and above. Charlie Appleby's CINDERELLA'S DREAM headlines the field for Godolphin. This improving filly brings strong international form, with Group wins over 1900m last summer. She followed up with second-place finishes in the G1 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf over 2200m at Del Mar and the G2 Balanchine over 1800m at Meydan. Her commanding four-and-a-half length win in the G2 Dahlia Stakes over 1800m at Newmarket last month was most impressive and she sets the standard.

Her main rival looks to be FALLEN ANGEL, last year's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas over 1600m winner. Karl Burke's filly, carrying the Wathnan Racing silks, disappointed in the G1 1000 Guineas over 1600m at Newmarket the race prior but likely needed that run. She was last seen when a fair sixth against the boys in the G1 Lockinge Stakes over 1600m at Newbury in May, and that performance should sharpen her up for this drop in grade over her preferred distance.

RUNNING LION bids to defend her crown for John and Thady Gosden. Connections opted to step her up in trip in her preceding runs last year which seemed to work out nicely for their mare on the day, and the same can be said again this year. She recently had a quiet appearance in the G2 Dahlia Stakes at Newmarket coming fifth behind winner CINDERELLA'S DREAM over 1800m but took her foot off the gas well before the winning post. She took a step forward in a Listed race at Haydock over 2100m, so the step back down to 1600m here should see Oisin Murphy utilise her big engine to full effect.

Roger Varian's filly ELMALKA beat both CINDERELLA'S DREAM and FALLEN ANGEL in the G1 1000 Guineas over 1600m last year but hasn't managed to get her head in front since. She's been a model of consistency in her five Group races after that win, but more will be needed from her to reverse the G2 Dahlia Stakes form with CINDERELLA'S DREAM from last month.

George Boughey has been aiming SOPRANO at this race since her Listed Snowdrop Fillies' Stakes over 1600m win at Kempton in early spring. As a winner at this meeting last year in the Sandringham Stakes over the same trip, she knows how to peak at Ascot and can't be overlooked.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The feature race on Wednesday is the G1 Prince of Wales's Stakes over 2000m and this trip looks ideal for LOS ANGELES, who represents Aidan O'Brien. He's enjoyed an unbeaten 4YO campaign so far, with two wins from two starts, both at the Curragh last month. The first came in the G2 Mooresbridge Stakes over 2000m, where he finished ahead of WHITE BIRCH. Most recently, he contested the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup over 2100m, where he edged out ANMAAT in the closing stages to win by half-a-length.

ANMAAT and trainer Owen Burrows will be aiming to turn the tables on LOS ANGELES. A seasoned performer with nine career wins, Anmaat boasts two G1 victories, including a standout triumph in the G1 Champion Stakes over 2000m here at Ascot in October. However, history isn't on his side as no 7YO has ever won this race, and the trends suggest the Shadwell-owned runner faces a tough task.

The main French hope rests with the Wathnan-owned MAP OF STARS, who is seeking a first G1 win. Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, he's already a dual Group winner this season, landing the G3 Prix Exbury and G2 Prix d'Harcourt, both over 2000m. He was narrowly denied in the G1 Prix Ganay over 2100m last time, finishing a close second after a delayed run. He's one to watch out for on his English debut.

Andrew Balding's filly SEE THE FIRE has been supplemented for the race and is also chasing her first G1 win after landing the G2 Middleton Fillies' Stakes over 2000m at York in May. She will need a career best against the boys, but with the weight allowance and past filly successes in this race, she cannot be ruled out.

OMBUDSMAN went unbeaten as a 3YO with four wins. That included the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange over 2000m at Longchamp, where he finished a length and three-quarters clear of MAP OF STARS. His perfect record ended on seasonal return in the G3 Brigadier Gerard Stakes over 2000m at Sandown, but he lost little in defeat and remains a genuine G1 contender.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Irish-trained horses have won this prestigious cavalry charge over Ascot's straight 1600m course twice in the last nine years and in the heavily-backed THE LIFFEY, Joseph O'Brien has a big chance of recording another victory for his homeland.

THE LIFFEY, the least-experience horse in the field, won twice over 1200m and 1600m for Joseph's father, Aidan, before joining his new stable. He immediately had him gelded, and less than a month later THE LIFFEY, returning after a 350-day absence, finished an eye-catching fourth in a Listed race over 1400m at Naas. He has since been the subject of a serious ante-post gamble, and with Ryan Moore booked and John Magnier and Derrick Smith having remained as part-owners, THE LIFFEY looks set to go well.

Another for whom there has been plenty of money is MY CLOUD, who boasts three wins (all over 1600m) plus two seconds in just five races. Those fast ground victories this season at Newbury and Ascot have seen MY CLOUD's handicap mark rise significantly, which enables him to creep in towards the bottom of the handicap.

BULLET POINT has a similar profile, also being on a hat-trick here. He won two 1600m handicaps at Newmarket on contrasting ground and looks ready to run a big race again.

GREEK ORDER is another interesting runner. He was gelded last spring and made the return journey across the Atlantic last month to join Michael Bell in Newmarket. His handicap mark has dropped slightly since he was here last, so he could be in the mix with Christophe Soumillon booked to ride.

Richard Hughes-trained WHIP CRACKER could outrun his odds. Though his only success came on the all-weather at Chelmsford as a 2YO, WHIP CRACKER has twice finished second in Listed races at Newmarket over 1800m and 2000m. He has also come down the handicap and in first-time cheekpieces ran a cracker to finish second over 1600m at Sandown last time.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This handicap for fillies over the straight 1600m has only been run four times, but producing big-priced winners on all four occasions, it is quickly establishing a reputation for unpredictability.

The fast ground is perfect for Irish raider SERIALISE. She was caught in the final 200m after trying to make all the running in a hot 1600m handicap at the Curragh last month. SERIALISE was just behind SNELLEN when they were second and third in a 1600m handicap at Leopardstown in September but has a significant weight pull with that rival here.

Stamina can play a part in this race which will be run at a high tempo and that brings KAYHANA into it. She went clear of the rest of the field before narrowly losing out after a sustained duel in the final 200m when second in a Gowran Park handicap over 1900m. She's entitled to take another step forward from that on her second start of the season.

RAINBOWS EDGE carries the colours of the King and Queen and will have had this meeting high on her agenda since the start of the year. Her only defeat in four starts came in a 2000m Listed contest at Salisbury in August last year and she took her form to new heights when beating ARISAIG over this course and distance in May.

SKY SAFARI is also lightly-raced with three wins from five runs. She is a filly with size and scope and she came up against a well-handicapped rival when runner-up in a 1600m handicap at Salisbury last month having won in great style at this distance at Kempton in April.

AROLLA has only run five times, winning twice. She has won at this distance and there was a lot to like about her return from an absence of over four months when second in a 1400m Fillies Listed contest at Musselburgh earlier this month.

Others to consider include MISS INFORMATION, who was squeezed out at the start and never in a place to challenge in a 1400m handicap at the Epsom Derby meeting a couple of weeks ago.

INDEPENDENT EXPERT was a comfortable winner of a 1600m Naas handicap last month and she gets the stiff mile and fast ground that she needs to perform at her best here.

VIENNOISE, winner of a 1600m handicap at Doncaster earlier this month, remains well-handicapped on the best of her old form.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ROGUE LEGEND holds strong claims of making it a hat-trick of wins for the year in the Listed Windsor Castle Stakes over 1000m at Royal Ascot. Since finishing second on his debut, the Paddy Twomey-trained 2YO has posted back-to-back wins following the switch to front running tactics. After getting off the mark in a 1000m maiden at Cork, he then followed that up when conceding weight to all of his rivals over 1000m at Tipperary. Although this is the quickest ground he will have encountered, he should cope with it fine given his breeding and if winning the early battle for the lead, he could be hard to peg back.

HAVANA HURRICANE should appreciate the drop back in distance, having run a fine race to finish second on softer ground in the Woodcote Stakes over 1200m at Epsom Downs. On that occasion he appeared to make what looked like a race-winning move midway through the contest only to get out battled late on. The switch back to 1000m, a trip which he won over on his debut at Goodwood, and the return to a faster surface make him a lively contender.

OLD IS GOLD is one of the few runners in the field that have course and distance form to their name having finished third in a 1000m novice event at the track on his debut. He built on that effort in a 1000m conditions event at Beverley on his next start, where he travelled well before finishing the race off strongly. A repeat of that performance at a course he has run well over before makes him of strong interest.

JAN STEEN failed to see out 1200m in a novice event at York, but he had previously looked a talented type with a front running success in a 1000m maiden at Thirsk. While he will face competition for the lead here, he can play a prominent role if he doesn't use up too much energy early on.

NUEVO SLOVO looked a tricky customer when rearing at the start before eventually finishing sixth on his debut at Dundalk over 1000m. He looked much more professional when winning a 1000m maiden at Ayr last time out. Given how he was well in command that day he could be one that has slipped under the radar.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

Prince of Wales's Stakes Day, day 2 of the Royal Ascot meeting see's seven turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Prince of Wales's Stakes (1993m)

For the feature race, the 1993m G1 Prince of Wales's Stakes, they start in back straight and travel downhill for approximately 200m before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that sees a steady rise to the home turn, then enter the 500m home straight and run uphill until the finish. Statistically speaking, barriers are of little consequence, but like most races on the round course, horses ridden with patience tend to do well.

Other Races

G2 Queen Mary Stakes & Listed Windsor Castle Stakes (1000m)

For the 1000m G2 Queen Mary Stakes & Listed Windsor Castle Stakes, in smaller fields they tend to come down the centre of the track, but can split into two, and sometimes even three groups, in larger fields. Although uphill nearly all the way, speed horses do have a decent record over this trip, but if they go too quickly on the front, the closers will get their chance.

G2 Queen's Vase (2831m)

For the 2831m G2 Queen's Vase, they start from halfway up the straight course and have a long run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they head downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading onto Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. They then enter the home straight (500m) and run uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at an honest tempo as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

G2 Duke of Cambridge Stakes (1594m)

For the 1594m G2 Duke of Cambridge Stakes, they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side. They then run in a straight line with a steady rise before meeting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, which is uphill to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

Royal Hunt Cup Stakes (1600m)

For the 1600m Royal Hunt Cup Stakes, it runs on the straight course. In smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

Kensington Palace Stakes (1600m)

For the 1600m Kensington Palace Stakes, they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side, and re-joins the course proper midway through the Swinley Bottom. In other words, from the lowest point of the entire Round Course, they will attack straight up a steady incline before hitting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, meanwhile racing continuously uphill, all the way to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

Day 2 of the Royal meeting has seen good in the going description in eight of the last ten years. The weather forecast suggests sunny weather in the lead-up and on race day. If the forecast is correct, then the going should be good, and could be good to firm as has been the case three times in the last four years.

Los Angeles aims to prove he's champion in Prince Of Wales's Stakes

Tuesday, 17/6/2025

The formidable combination of trainer Aidan O'Brien and jockey Ryan Moore bids to win the G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes (2005m) for the fourth time in nine years with Los Angeles.

It is a fascinating contest. Los Angeles arrives at Royal Ascot better than ever, having battled well to hold off the challenge of Anmaat in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup (2100m) in Ireland last month.

O'Brien said: "Los Angeles is a good, hardy, tough horse. At his best when there's a strong pace. He's a big, idle, relaxed horse but no horse likes a fight better than him."

He added. "Ryan was brilliant on him. He was waiting for someone to come to him because he felt he had plenty left when they did come, and that's exactly what happened. You couldn't be happier."

At the age of seven, Anmaat has also never been better, having ended last year by winning the G1 Champion Stakes (2000m) at Ascot. Whereas Los Angeles was race-fit for the race in Ireland, Anmaat, who briefly looked likely to beat his rival, was returning from a break.

Trainer Owen Burrows is hopeful of turning the tables on Los Angeles with Anmaat.

"The lack of a run just made the difference. Now that Anmaat has a run under his belt I'm looking forward to taking Los Angeles on again," Burrows said.

While those two rivals boast the best credentials, the French-trained Map Of Stars, representing the big spending Wathnan Racing, has improved with each race and was only narrowly beaten in the G1 Prix Ganay (2100m) at ParisLongchamp in April. Trainer Francis Henri-Graffard, who has a good record at Ascot, will be hoping for rain as Map Of Stars seems to perform best on a soft surface.

Faster ground will suit See The Fire, perhaps the most interesting contestant. The only filly in the race was supplemented at a cost of £70,000 (approx. HK$745,000) after a spectacular performance when winning a Group 2 contest by 12 lengths last month.

Rider Oisin Murphy was impressed: "She was always comfortable and always in control." Trainer Andrew Balding was equally pleased. He said: "We've always had a very high opinion of See The Fire and she's improved since last year. She's a very exciting horse."

In a race that looks to be between five of the nine runners, Godolphin will be hoping that Ombudsman, who lost his unbeaten record in a Group 3 race last month but was not disgraced, may bounce back.

Trainer John Gosden remarked: "He got tired and I think the winner of that race, Almaqam, is very smart. Almaqam was receiving weight and got the run of the race. Ombudsman needs to come from off the pace. Ryan Moore was very pleased with him."

The second French-trained contender, Facteur Cheval, a six-year-old with a fine career, has a good record at Ascot but over 1600m. He has never run beyond 1800m on turf and seems unlikely to be suited by the longer distance.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.
