Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Thursday's G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot is the feature race of the meeting and is run over the marathon trip of 4000m.

Aidan O'Brien is the winning-most trainer in the race's history and saddles the progressive ILLINOIS in this year's renewal. He won the G2 Queen's Vase over 2800m at this meeting last year, which is often a race won by a future star stayer, and followed that up with second-placed finishes in G1 company at both Longchamp over 2400m and Doncaster over 2900m. Victory in slow conditions over 3000m on Arc Day at Longchamp after that suggested he could handle an extreme stamina test. He is only a 4YO and the big step up to 4000m poses a question, but he races like the trip won't be a concern and he is the one to beat.

TRAWLERMAN has no such stamina concerns. John and Thady Gosden's 7YO has become a mainstay in longer distance races in recent years and was second in this event last year. A fine fifth on seasonal debut at Meydan over 3200m was followed by dominant victory in his Sandown prep over 3200m for this, showing his wellbeing now as a veteran. He might not have the potential upside of ILLINOIS, but he ought to be there at the finish.

CANDELARI is a very lightly raced type and has already announced himself on the big stage. Francis-Henri Graffard's FRANKEL gelding only has five starts to his name but has won four of them. Three all-weather 2700m victories kickstarted his career and despite defeat in an April Longchamp G3 over 3000m, he subsequently won a Longchamp G1 over 3100m a month later. That win marked him out as a serious stayer in the making, and his trainer is said to have him primed for a big effort.

SWEET WILLIAM, like TRAWLERMAN, is an established operator in the staying sphere. Third in this race last year, John and Thady Gosden's 6YO was last seen when an admirable third to top international runner REBEL'S ROMANCE at York over 2800m, demonstrating he still retains his zest for racing. He has never been outside of the first three in five outings at Ascot and has the ability and experience to make the frame again.

COLTRANE is now an 8YO, and while his best days are likely behind him, Andrew Balding's gelding wasn't disgraced behind TRAWLERMAN last time out over 3200m and can run with credit.

As good as ever when landing a valuable Meydan G2 over 3200m in April. But more stamina required, and that may be a problem.

Not typical of a Gold Cup winner as he competes most on all-weather tracks but an improver who easily won his last two starts.

Better than ever when making a winning start for this stable – and after more wind surgery – in a G3 here in April. But this longer trip could be an issue.

A super consistent stayer, advertising his wellbeing when landing a G3 at Chester. Strong at the end of races providing hope that he can also excel at this marathon trip.
