Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

No jockey has enjoyed a better record in this G3 race for 2YO fillies than Jamie Spencer, who has definite prospects of landing the prize again, courtesy of GOLD DIGGER. GOLD DIGGER impressed when winning a fast ground maiden over 1200m on her debut at Yarmouth. She was an expensive Breeze-Up purchase and clearly knew her job. Despite being slowly away, GOLD DIGGER still won cosily.

Aidan O'Brien pitched SIGNORA straight into a Group race for her debut at Naas over 1200m rather than taking in a maiden. He stressed that he needed to find out if SIGNORA was Ascot material, and she finished an eye-catching third behind two smart fillies in LADY IMAN and GREEN SENSE. Strong cases can be made for both, but SIGNORA, though green early on, was closing down fast on the first two inside the last 200m without being given a punishing introduction. She will be sharper for that experience.

However, Aidan will be well aware of the ability of GREEN SENSE, who was previously an impressive winner of her maiden at the Curragh over 1200m and who is trained by his son, Joseph.

VENETIAN SUN ran green when justifying short odds first time out at Carlisle over 1000m. Trainer Karl Burke says it was the first time this expensive filly had been off the bridle. Her trainer expects a big improvement now that she steps up to 1200m.

Another who commands respect is FITZELLA, who received lavish praise from her trainer, Hugo Palmer, after making all for an easy win in a maiden at Haydock over 1200m. FITZELLA had given the more-experienced, odds-on favourite MILITARY CODE a fright when beaten only a neck at Ascot over 1000m first time out, though MILITARY CODE flopped in the Coventry Stakes here on Tuesday.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1200m event for 3YOs is the newest G1 at Royal Ascot, having been first run in 2015.

Charlie Appleby and Godolphin have never won this contest, but they look to have a standout contender here in SHADOW OF LIGHT. He finished the season with two G1 wins, a commanding defeat of WHISTLEJACKET in the G1 Middle Park Stakes over 1200m and then stepped up to 1400m to win the G1 Dewhurst Stakes, often the top juvenile race of the year. On his seasonal return, he stepped up further to 1600m in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket and ran with huge credit to finish third. He faded slightly at the finish there, suggesting this drop to a stiff 1200m should be ideal, and he will take plenty of beating now back sprinting.

BIG MOJO finished last season with a fine effort when fourth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint over 1000m. On his return to action in April, Michael Appleby's contender proved he handled both this track and the 1200m when winning the G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial Stakes. He looked a bit unlucky on his latest start in the G2 Sandy Lane Stakes at Haydock over 1200m, when getting caught behind rivals before running on well at the finish. With a strong pace likely here, he should get a better trail into the race and it would be no surprise to see him go close.

Ger Lyons-trained filly BABOUCHE was also a G1 winner last season, landing the G1 Phoenix Stakes over 1200m at the Curragh, beating WHISTLEJACKET in the process. She returned with an adequate fourth in Listed company at Cork over 1100m before again accounting for WHISTLEJACKET, in the G3 Lacken Stakes over 1200m at Naas. She has proved she can beat the colts at the highest level already and must be firmly in the mix here with Colin Keane in the saddle.

JONQUIL is another Juddmonte-owned runner that is interesting here stepping down in trip. He was a winner of Newbury's G3 Greenham Stakes over 1400m on his return and then finished a close second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over 1600m at Longchamp. That's high-class form, but whether he has the raw speed for 1200m remains to be seen.

WHISTLEJACKET was a G1 winner as a 2YO, but has work to do to get the better of SHADOW OF LIGHT and BABOUCHE.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

IDES OF MARCH went back last start however from the outside gate he can also opt to go forward as he did in the past. WHISTLEJACKET can be positive and sit behind the leaders. JONQUIL should settle in midfield. SHADOW OF LIGHT and BABOUCHE should be at rear.

(Information as at 18 Jun 2025, 7:00pm)

Returned to form when third in Group 3 over this course and distance in April. Needs more.

Did well as 2-y-o. Well held all three runs this year. Tough task.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ALMOSH'HER is just the progressive-type you need for this hugely-competitive 2400m handicap. He is completely unexposed after four races and his only defeat came when beaten a head in a 2200m novice contest on Kempton's all-weather track in January. Since then, he's won both his starts in handicaps by narrow margins despite refusing to settle in the early stages. There was a lot to like about his attitude when holding off subsequent Haydock winner STRESSFREE to land a 2400m handicap at York last month. The bigger field and likely sound pace should help him settle better.

FRENCH DUKE hasn't been seen since last September when runner-up over this course and distance. That came on soft ground and he seemed much better suited to a faster surface when successful over 2400m at Goodwood's big summer festival. His sixth place in the King George V Stakes over 2400m at last year's Royal Ascot was another creditable effort, especially as he was hampered early in the race and forced to switch to the wide outside.

STRESSFREE has been incredibly consistent over the last 12 months. He was a winner over hurdles (3100m) at Musselburgh in February and he's taken his form to another level since returning to the Flat. After running ALMOSH'HER to a head despite his jockey Daniel Tudhope putting up overweight over 2400m at York, he overcame a wide draw to land a competitive Haydock handicap over 2400m. It's hard to see why he won't go well again.

HAND OF GOD was unbeaten in two starts last season after switching to handicaps. He wasn't seen after landing the Golden Gates Stakes in good style over 2000m at Royal Ascot last year. The long absence might well have been to blame for his below-par comeback when well beaten at Newmarket early last month. The 1800m distance was also a contributing factor and we are likely to see a much-improved performance now he steps up to 2400m for the first time.

ETHICAL DIAMOND was fourth in this race last year and this will be his first run on the Flat since then. He did land a 3200m maiden hurdle at Punchestown in February before finishing fourth behind Willie Mullins stablemate KARGESE in the G3 Hurdles over 3400m at the Cheltenham Festival. There's no doubt he has the pace for this distance.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The second of Friday's two G1 races is the Coronation Stakes, open to 3YO fillies and run over 1600m.

One particularly intriguing contender is Owen Burrows' unbeaten filly, FALAKEYAH. She's drawn attention not only because she's been supplemented for the race, but also due to her impressive recent win in the Listed Pretty Polly Stakes over 2000m at Newmarket. Connections have opted to drop her back in trip to 1600m, which poses a question, but the fact she won over 1700m on debut last season provides cause for optimism. The decision to supplement suggests there's plenty of confidence in the camp.

French ace ZARIGANA is being brought by trainer Francis-Henri Graffard for this. She boasts an almost perfect record, with four wins from five starts. That includes two G3 victories – both at Longchamp over 1600m – in the Prix d'Aumale and the Prix de la Grotte. Most recently, she was awarded the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches over 1600m in the stewards' room at Longchamp. While the result may be slightly controversial, there's no doubt about her quality. Jockey, Mickael Barzalona, dropped his whip that day and she still finished strongly.

Another unbeaten filly in the field is KON TIKI, trained by Jane Chapple-Hyam. She impressed in a novice race over 1600m at Kempton in April, beating some well-regarded rivals, and backed that up with a stylish turf debut in a Listed race for fillies, run over the same trip, at York. She handled quicker ground well there, so the drying conditions at Ascot should be in her favour.

One of the more experienced fillies in the field is Aidan O'Brien's EXACTLY, who has raced nine times. O'Brien's filly was a model of consistency during her 2YO campaign, winning or placing in six of her seven starts in strong company. She capped off the season with an impressive six-length victory in the G3 Killavullan Stakes over 1400m at Leopardstown. On her most recent outing, she was somewhat unlucky to finish fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches over 1600m, having encountered traffic in the closing stages behind winner ZARIGANA.

FLIGHT lines up for up-and-coming trainer Ollie Sangster and must be respected after a standout second in the G1 1000 Guineas over 1600m at Newmarket in May. While she hasn't won since breaking her maiden at Sandown over 1400m last August, she remains a solid contender for the placings.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

SUPERMODEL can continue her progression in what looks like an ultra-competitive renewal of the Sandringham Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. The William Haggas-trained filly showed plenty of promise on her return to action when running out an easy winner of a 1700m handicap at Nottingham. That was her first start on quicker ground with both of her outings at two having come on a heavy surface, and she clearly appreciated the switch to faster conditions. In each of her three starts she has been slow away, but provided she makes a reasonable break from the gates here she has strong claims of securing a third career success.

SILVER GHOST arrives in the form of her life having won 1400m handicaps at Newmarket and last time out at Goodwood. This will be her first start over 1600m, however with the way she has finished out her last two races the extra distance looks like it will play to her strengths. On both of her two wins she has shown a good battling attitude to come from the back of the field which will stand her in good stead here.

George Boughey-trained BOUNTIFUL, the daughter of ZOUSTAR, looked to be in need of her comeback in the Listed Spring Cup over 1400m at Lingfield back in March, however she appears to have been kept fresh for this race. This will be her first start at the trip, but she has plenty of stamina on her dam's side to suggest it will be within reach.

ZGHARTA won a 2000m maiden at Newmarket last time out, however her stamina appeared to be stretched on that occasion so the drop back in distance looks a smart move. Although really quick ground is a slight unknown, the form of her last win has since been boosted with both the third and fourth coming out and winning on their next starts.

TABITI secured G3 honours on her second start last year in the Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes at Salisbury over 1200m before finishing a well-held fifth in the G1 Fillies' Mile over 1600m at Newmarket on her final start. This race marks a sharp drop in grade and, with ground conditions similar to when she won her maiden over 1400m at Newmarket last year, she could prove a cut above these if seeing out the new trip.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The King Edward VII Stakes is a 2400m G2 for 3YOs and is often referred to as the "Ascot Derby".

There's lots to like about Ralph Beckett's AMILOC. He was undefeated as a juvenile over 1400m and 1600m and made a fine reappearance this season when winning a conditions race at Goodwood over 1600m in May. Beckett then stepped him up in trip and class successfully as he took the Listed Cocked Hat Stakes over 2200m at Goodwood in fine style. He looks progressive, ought to handle the quick going and can be his trainer's first win in the race with Rossa Ryan doing the steering.

PUPPET MASTER represents the all-powerful Aidan O'Brien stable. The CAMELOT colt was a Galway Festival 1700m maiden winner as a 2YO and was considered forward enough to contest the G2 Royal Lodge Stakes over 1600m, in which he was fourth. He reappeared alongside his stable's main Derby hope at Leopardstown over 2000m before dourly landing the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial Stakes over 2300m in May. With Ryan Moore on board, he can hit the frame in what should be a suitable stamina test.

WIMBLEDON HAWKEYE has been a model of consistency for James Owen. After a G2-winning juvenile campaign, in which he defeated PUPPET MASTER, Owen set his colt difficult Newmarket tasks over 1600m in the G3 Craven Stakes and G1 2000 Guineas. He ran admirably behind FIELD OF GOLD and RULING COURT on those occasions, and after an encouraging third in the G2 Dante Stakes over 2100m in May, he should represent his connections admirably yet again.

ZAHRANN comes here as more of an unknown quantity. John Murtagh's colt landed his first win over 2100m at Cork in May and followed that up with a dominant success in the Listed King George V Cup over 2400m at Leopardstown. Murtagh is no stranger to Royal Ascot success, and while this event is a notable jump in grade, he can be there at the finish.

NIGHTWALKER was fancied by many to run a big race at long odds in the Derby Stakes over 2400m. John and Thady Gosden took over the training of this FRANKEL colt at the end of last season, and he showed promise in his first two runs for the yard over 1800m at Newmarket and the 2100m of the G2 Dante Stakes behind WIMBLEDON HAWKEYE. He was no match for his rivals in the Derby but ought to improve for the more conventional track.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

In the five runnings of this 1000m handicap for 3YOs, there has been one winning favourite and there is a good chance that this year's market leader REALIGN is a class above his opponents. He was placed behind some useful 2YOs in 2024, including when second to dual G1 winner SHADOW OF LIGHT on debut at Newmarket over 1200m. He returned this year over 1200m to brush aside inferior rivals in a Salisbury maiden last month and looks to have plenty of raw pace to handle this drop back to 1000m. With lots of untapped potential, REALIGN is the one to beat.

Trainer Archie Watson-trained ZAYER, looked ring-rusty on his return after a five-month break in April over 1009m at Sandown when fourth behind a fast-improving winner. He subsequently made eye-catching late headway after a slow start when seventh over this distance at York last month. Hollie Doyle's mount, who wears cheekpieces for the first time, will be suited by a fast-tempo race on this stiff track where he can be ridden to pounce late.

Irish raider BODHI BEAR had a little in hand when he won a conditions event over 1000m at Cork in April and that race's runner-up boosted the form when winning a 1000m Listed race at Sandown last weekend. Last time out BODHI BEAR finished fourth in a 1200m G3 contest at Naas last month but that was a respectable effort given the first two home, BABOUCHE and WHISTLEJACKET, were both G1 winners as 2YOs.

REDORANGE, fitted with a tongue strap for the first time, finished just in front of ZAYER when third the 1009m Sandown race in April. He stepped up on that performance when professionally beating RUBY'S PROFIT over 1014m at Chester in May, breaking from the stalls quickly and settling the race with an impressive turn of foot.

STORMY IMPACT was badly outpaced in the early stages but flew home in a 1000m 3YO handicap at Epsom on Derby Day earlier this month, when the horses immediately chasing him home were the reopposing LEXINGTON BLITZ and RUBY'S PROFIT. If he can stay in contact over the first 600m, this stiffer track should suit STORMY IMPACT who is again ridden by promising apprentice Warren Fentiman.

SELECTIONS: 12. REALIGN, 7. ZAYER, 10. BODHI BEAR, 9. REDORANGE, 8. STORMY IMPACT

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

Commonwealth Cup Day, day 4 of the Royal Ascot meeting see's seven turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Commonwealth Cup (1200m)

The Commonwealth Cup is a recent edition to the Royal meeting, with the first running held in 2015. The race runs on the straight course, over 1200m they will look to come down the centre, but can split into two and three groups in larger fields. Winners have mostly come from off the pace with seven having been held up or in mid division, two have tracked the pace and only CAMPANELLE, in 2021, has made all, which is the only time the race has been run on heavy going.

Other Races

G3 Albany Stakes (1200m)

The 1200m G3 Albany Stakes is the same distance as the G1 Commonwealth Cup.

Duke of Edinburgh Stakes & G2 King Edward VII Stakes (2392m)

Both G2 King Edward VII Stakes and the Duke of Edinburgh Stakes are over 2392m. The draw on the round course is of little consequence, although high drawn horses do have a good record in both of these races in recent years. Over 2392m they start at the top of the back straight and have a nice long downhill run before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that gently rises down the side of the course onto a sweeping home turn entering the 500m uphill straight. Horses on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, but races run at a decent gallop will suit back-markers as the uphill rise will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

G1 Coronation Stakes (1594m)

For the 1594m G1 Coronation Stakes, they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side, and re-joins the course proper midway through the Swinley Bottom. In other words, from the lowest point of the entire Round Course, they will attack straight up a steady incline before hitting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, meanwhile racing continuously uphill, all the way to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

Sandringham Stakes (1600m)

For the 1600m Sandringham Stakes, the race runs on the straight course. In smaller fields they tend to come down the centre of the track, but can split into two and sometimes even three groups in larger fields. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, speed horses do have a decent record over this trip, but if they go too quickly on the front, the closers will dominate for 1000m. However, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

Palace of Holyroodhouse Stakes (1000m)

For the 1000m Palace of Holyroodhouse Stakes, the race runs on the straight course. In smaller fields they tend to come down the centre of the track, but can split into two, and sometimes even three groups, in larger fields. Although uphill nearly all the way, speed horses do have a decent record over this trip, but if they go too quickly on the front, the closers will dominate.

Day 4 of the Royal meeting has seen Good in the going description in nine of the last ten years. The weather forecast suggests sunny weather in the lead-up and on race day. If the forecast is correct, then the going should be good, and could be good to firm as has been the case three times in the last four years.

Rising stars battle for sprint crown in Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot

Thursday, 19/6/2025

Godolphin and Juddmonte, global powerhouses of horse racing, test their claims to having the best three-year-old sprinter in Friday's (20 June) G1 Commonwealth Cup (1200m).

Godolphin's Shadow Of Light is expected to be favourite after ending last year with victory in two prestigious Group 1 races. He was also a creditable third when stepped up to 1600m in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket in May.

Trainer Charlie Appleby has decided to drop Shadow Of Light back to 1200m. He said: "I'm not saying he doesn't get a mile (1600m). Far from it. He could go for a mile again some time in the future but we are working towards running in the City Of York Stakes at York over 1400 (metres) in August. That is now a Group 1 race and this route seems best."

Appleby added: "Shadow Of Light shows a lot of natural pace, and he has a turn-of-foot. He's come out of the Guineas in good order and should acquit himself very well."

Expected fast ground at Royal Ascot and rising temperatures across Great Britain presents a fresh challenge which Juddmonte hopes will favour Babouche. It was fast ground when the filly won a Group 1 race in Ireland last year and soft when disappointing the following month.

After a modest display on her return, Babouche was back to form when readily winning a Group 3 race over 1186m at Naas. Trainer Ger Lyons, said: "It was 'welcome back Babouche' after that win because her work at home hadn't been her best. I was training her for the Commonwealth Cup and that was her trial for it. If she hadn't won. I wouldn't have brought her. Now I think she's got a good chance."

Whistlejacket is also likely to be favoured in betting despite having been beaten twice by Babouche and has previously shown a liking for softer ground.

A bigger challenge may come from Jonquil. Colin Keane, who recently became Juddmonte's retained jockey, has chosen to ride Babouche but Jonquil, partnered by Christophe Soumillon, is a useful back-up. Last month he was narrowly beaten in a Group 1 race over 1600m. This is Jonquil's first race at less than 1400m.

One runner who will relish fast ground is the United States of America's challenger, Shisospicy, the winner of three races over 1000m and 1100m this year. Trainer Jose D'Angelo's Gabaldon finished an excellent second in the 2024 Listed Windsor Castle Stakes (1000m) at Royal Ascot and D'Angelo believes he learnt a lot from that experience.

"It's a hard decision to make but coming over is a good opportunity to show our skills. Shisospicy has done everything better than good so far, has been preparing in France and I'm excited," he said.

The G1 Coronation Stakes (1600m) for three-year-old fillies is Friday's second Group 1, featuring Zarigana, carrying the late Aga Khan's colours. It will be Zarigana's first encounter with fast ground but she is a high-class performer with more experience at a higher level than rival Falakeyah.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.

	All Up Betting (same betting pool in each leg)	Cross Pool All Up Betting (different betting pools in each leg allowed)
