Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

TREANMOR holds strong claims of maintaining his unbeaten record in the Listed Chesham Stakes over 1400m at Royal Ascot. Plenty was expected of the Charlie Appleby-trained FRANKEL colt on his debut in a 1200m novice event at Newmarket, and he backed up the promise he'd shown at home with a convincing victory. He will need to take another step forward if he is to win here, but with ground conditions, and the extra distance, likely to play to his favour, he looks set to put in another bold show in the race.

Aidan O'Brien is the leading trainer in the race and he appears to have another solid contender in MOMENTS OF JOY. The daughter of JUSTIFY sprung a minor surprise when beating better fancied stablemate MINERVA in a 1500m maiden at Leopardstown. She showed good battling abilities on that occasion after being headed and those qualities will stand her in good stead here. With her stamina already proven over slightly further she is likely to play a leading role here for Ballydoyle master O'Brien and jockey Ryan Moore.

HUMIDITY is another horse that arrives on the back of a debut success following a front-running victory in a 1200m maiden at Newbury. The form of that race is working out well with four of those finishing down the field that day winning since, along with DO OR DO NOT filling the runner-up slot in the G2 Coventry Stakes on Tuesday. This slight step up in distance should help him unlock further improvement.

The Charlie Johnston-trained VENETIAN LACE showed plenty of courage to beat more experienced rivals in a 1200m maiden at Chelmsford City. Given how she finished on her last start she will be well suited to this new trip, while runners from her yard have to be respected with Johnston's father Mark winning it on three occasions.

BRAVE HUNTER did plenty wrong on his debut, including unseating his rider before the race, before finishing third in a 1200m maiden at Yarmouth. Having appeared outpaced that day he stuck to the task well to indicate this sort of trip would be much more suitable.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Hardwicke Stakes over 2400m, open to 4YOs and up, has produced seven different winning trainers in the past seven years.

REBEL'S ROMANCE lines up for Charlie Appleby and Godolphin, and on recent evidence, this could be his race to lose. The 4YO son of DUBAWI arrives in fine fettle after landing the G2 Yorkshire Cup Stakes over 2800m just over a month ago. Although he handled the step up in trip with ease there, his record over 2400m is formidable with seven G1 victories to his name at the distance. He should appreciate the drop back in trip here, and while the Appleby yard hasn't been firing this week, REBEL'S ROMANCE can help them get a winner on the board.

CANDLEFORD returns from a lengthy layoff for William Haggas, his last start being in this very race 12 months ago. He finished a credible fourth that day and returns fresh, as he did when winning the Listed Orby Stakes over 2400m at the Curragh on similar ground last season. Haggas appears to have targeted this again, and with a 364-day break behind him, he should be ready to go close once more.

Joseph O'Brien saddles AL RIFFA, who was last seen in Britain finishing second to CITY OF TROY in the G1 Eclipse Stakes over 2000m. The son of WOOTTON BASSETT has since been campaigned overseas and ran a solid fourth in the G1 Prix Ganay over 2100m at Longchamp in April. He may well improve for firmer ground and has the tactical versatility to feature.

PALLADIUM was the subject of much discussion when bought for €1.4 million last October having won the G1 Deutsches Derby over 2400m a couple of months prior. The 4YO has since moved to John and Thady Gosden for a return to the Flat. The booking of Ryan Moore is a positive and he has the class to be involved if the ground isn't too quick for him.

EPIC POET put in a stellar performance at this meeting last year to finish second in the Duke Of Edinburgh Stakes over 2400m. He's placed in all his last three starts, which all came in G2 contests, and clearly knows how to find the frame for trainer David O'Meara. He's a consistent type who can stay on well late so will be one to keep an eye on in the closing stages.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The final G1 of Royal Ascot, the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes over 1200m, features some of the world's best sprinters. This year's renewal looks wide open, and many have live chances.

SATONO REVE is a fascinating contender from Japan. Noriyuki Hori's runner is already a 1200m G1 winner in his home country, having landed the Takamatsunomiya Kinen at Chukyo in March. He showed he can compete on the international stage when twice placed behind Hong Kong's star sprinter KA YING RISING over 1200m at Sha Tin. Provided he has travelled over to the United Kingdom well, he ought to be there at the finish, with fast ground conditions set to suit him.

FLORA OF BERMUDA is a talented filly who could make her presence felt. Andrew Balding's filly was a G2-placed 2YO and stepped forward last year to run well in three G1 events, including when third over this course and distance in October's British Champions Sprint Stakes over 1200m. Her May return last start behind INISHERIN over 1200m was promising and she can run well again.

INISHERIN was one of Britain's best sprinters last year. He powered to a G2 victory over 1200m at Haydock last May. He followed that with a dominant display in the G1 Commonwealth Cup over 1200m at Royal Ascot, followed by a fine effort in the G1 July Cup over 1200m before disappointing on his final outing. His seasonal comeback saw him beat FLORA OF BERMUDA, showing he retains his ability, and he could be hard to beat once again.

TOPGEAR and LAZZAT bring a French flavour to the race. TOPGEAR showed he stays further than 1200m with his G2 win at Newmarket in October over 1400m. Returning to action with a G3 win at Longchamp over 1400m again, this 1200m will be a speed test, but he should handle it and hit the frame.

LAZZAT, trained by Jerome Reynier, stepped back in trip and won the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 1300m last August. After that, his trainer campaigned him over 1500m and 1600m at Rosehill and Sha Tin respectively where he ran with credit, notably behind VOYAGE BUBBLE in Hong Kong. He got back to winning ways over 1200m at Chantilly in May and the stiff track at Ascot should suit.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

LAZZAT led all the way at his last start and he should try to repeat the same tactics. He may be joined by TOPGEAR who also likes to lead in his races. STORM BOY has drawn the outside gate and he can sit behind the leaders. INISHERIN and SATONO REVE should settle in midfield.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G3 Jersey Stakes is run over 1400m on Ascot's straight course.

Joseph O'Brien looks to have a strong contender in SARACEN, who comes here after a win and a third from his two starts to date. He was an impressive four-length winner of a maiden at the Curragh over 1200m in October and then stepped up on that on his return in the G3 Greenham Stakes over 1400m at Newbury. SARACEN chased home JONQUIL and RASHABAR in that contest and both of those horses have gone on to run well in G1s since. What made it particularly impressive was the fact it was only his second career start and there should still be a lot of improvement to come from this son of SIYOUNI.

COMANCHE BRAVE also brings strong form into this contest. Donnacha O'Brien's 3YO finished a close second TO HENRI MATISSE in a G3 at Leopardstown over 1400m on his return to action this season. The winner went on to win the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains on his next start, so that clearly was a big performance. He then ran to around the same level when not disgraced in fifth in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1600m, perhaps finding the trip a shade too far. This drop back to 1400m should suit him better and he's expected to be involved in this lower grade.

REMMOOZ is the only horse that comes here with an unblemished record, having won his two starts to date. A narrow winner on debut at Doncaster over 1400m in April, he stepped up on that last month over the same course and distance, winning convincingly by three lengths. That marked Owen Burrows' colt out as a Group-class horse in the making, and he looks well worth his place in this contest.

One horse that could outrun their likely big odds is the James Moore-trained BRIAN, who looks a progressive horse for his small yard. Placed in the G3 Sirenia Stakes over 1200m on the all-weather at Kempton last season, he was a good fourth in the G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial Stakes over 1200m at Ascot on his reappearance in April. He's definitely up to this level and can run another solid race back up in trip.

CALIFORNIA DREAMER outran her odds to finish second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas over 1600m last time out, but this requires more dropping back in trip to take on the colts.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1200m handicap is one of the most competitive races of the Flat season and one where the draw can play a major part with runners drawn middle to high having the best winning record over the last 10 years.

Trainer William Haggas has won the Wokingham Stakes twice, including last year with the improving UNEQUAL LOVE. His contender MORE THUNDER, who is drawn in stall 23, has a similar progressive profile. MORE THUNDER has won 1200m races at Newmarket in April and May since switching to the Haggas yard, beating the consistent ARAMRAM both times. His strong finishes in those contests suggest this stiff track should suit his style of racing.

Since clashing with MORE THUNDER, ARAMRAM, drawn 19, ended a frustrating sequence of second places when successful in a 1200m sprint at Newbury last month with COVER UP sixth. That was the first time Ryan Moore had ridden ARAMRAM – he took over from an apprentice jockey – and he is booked again for this consistent contender.

JARRAAF, drawn 12, has run three times at Ascot, winning 1200m handicaps in July and August last year before finishing second in the G3 Bengough Stakes over 1200m on soft ground in October. He was fourth on his comeback run in a 1200m Listed race at Salisbury last month, when ZOUM ZOUM was second, but that run should sharpen him and he remains a colt with scope to improve.

ORAZIO, who starts from stall 26, was third last year when he flashed home and was beaten less than a length under Saffie Osborne. Osborne is once again in the saddle and while ORAZIO comes here without a prep-run, this race has been his target for some time. He has also slipped a few pounds in the handicap and should be capable of another big run.

The 3YO SYMBOL OF HONOUR, drawn 15, has a touch of class and holds an entry for the G1 July Cup at Newmarket next month. He has won five of his six races at 1200m, most recently decisively landing a Listed race at Newbury before just scraping home in a G2 contest at Haydock. Both of those wins came last month, so he arrives here in excellent form.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This competitive 2000m handicap is usually won by a progressive 3YO with the potential to hold their own in Group races, and SERAPH GABRIEL fits the bill. He had no trouble seeing off the useful BEST ADVENTURE in a Lingfield 1400m maiden and made a promising return to action when second in a 1600m handicap at Sandown, when he was squeezed out leaving the stalls and left further back than was ideal. The way he finished that race suggests the step up to 2000m for the first time should suit Ralph Beckett's runner and that is backed up by his pedigree.

French raider BEST SECRET showed an impressive change of pace to go from last to first when landing a 2000m handicap at Longchamp in April. That was the performance of an improving colt and his trainer Stephane Wattel has clearly saved him for this race. He was recently bought by the powerful Wathnan Racing team and their retained jockey, James Doyle, takes the ride.

The form of Newbury's London Gold Cup is always strong. ERNST BLOFELD finished fourth behind SADDADD in that 2000m handicap and he looks capable of better. He only made his debut in April and he has since progressed into a useful prospect. After finishing third in a Listed race over 2000m at Newmarket in May on his turf debut, he came home strongly at Newbury last month.

QUAI DE BETHUNE finished just in front of him in the London Gold Cup over 2000m. That was his handicap debut, and he looks more than capable of playing a hand in the finish today, but he just lacks the potential of ERNST BLOFELD.

GLEN TO GLEN makes his debut for Joseph O'Brien having shown a good level of ability for Jim Bolger. He made all to win a 1200m Curragh maiden in March on his first run of the season. It was promising that he was quick enough to win over that sprint distance as he is bred to need further. He only just failed to last out the 2000m when ridden too aggressively in front when third on his handicap debut at Leopardstown nearly two months ago, and a slightly more patient ride should help.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

At 4300m, this finale to five wonderful days is the longest race to be run in the UK. The last four runnings have all been won by the Irish, with champion trainer Willie Mullins claiming two with STRATUM. However, this looks one of the strongest recent renewals, with several runners having proved themselves against the best.

Mullins now relies on SOBER, his recent recruit from France who won two G2 races for French trainer Andre Fabre in 2023. He justified short odds when making a winning debut over hurdles for his new connections at Killarney over 4000m last month and, though unproven on fast ground, his class might be enough to see him home.

No 4YO has won this race for 16 years, but DALLAS STAR and WILD WAVES are both quality performers capable of stretching their elders. DALLAS STAR, who was thought good enough to run in last year's G1 Derby at Epsom over 2400m, was runner-up to KYPRIOS in this year's G3 Saval Beg Levmoos Stakes over 2800m, only beaten a length-and-a-half. He then ran well enough to finish third in a Listed race over 3200m, putting his stamina to the test here.

WILD WAVES, who was a creditable sixth to JAN BRUEGHEL in last year's G1 St Leger Stakes over 2900m at Doncaster, could also be in the mix if he has the stamina for this extreme trip. Even though he was last of four in a Listed race in Italy over 2400m three weeks ago, WILD WAVES looked to be returning to form.

SAMUI is as effective on the Flat as he is over hurdles and will relish this fast ground. On the opening day of this meeting, SAMUI stayed on well up the straight to grab third place in the competitive Copper Horse Stakes over 2800m. That excellent run suggests stamina will be no problem here.

TROOPER BISDEE will also be at home on the ground. He has stamina in abundance, too, having won six races between 2300m to 3600m. He was impressive at Pontefract, hitting the line strongly over 3600m and he made a pleasing return when fifth at Goodwood over 3200m last month.

SELECTIONS: 1. SOBER, 11. WILD WAVES, 8. DALLAS STAR, 3. SAMUI, 6. TROOPER BISDEE

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes Day, day 5 of the Royal Ascot meeting see's seven turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (1200m)

For the feature race, G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes over 1200m run on the straight course. In smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. This race can be difficult to predict with five of the last ten running's seeing the field split into two groups, whilst the other five running's saw them come down the straight in one group. Of the last ten winners, four have tracked the speed, five have been mid division or held up, and only one winner has made all. Looking for the pace angle is always helpful, as if they go too quickly, the uphill drag will see those ridden with restraint come to the fore, but if they don't go a strong pace, those on the front will continue to gallop up the hill.

Other Races

Listed Chesham Stakes & G3 Jersey Stakes (1400m)

For the 1400m Listed Chesham Stakes and G3 Jersey Stakes, the races run on the straight course. In smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

G2 Hardwicke Stakes (2392m)

For the 2392m G2 Hardwicke Stakes, the draw on the round course is of little consequence. Over 2392m they start at the top of the back straight and have a nice long downhill run before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a steady straight rise down the side of the course onto a sweeping home turn entering the 500m uphill straight. Horses on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, but races run at a decent gallop will suit back-markers as the uphill rise will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Wokingham Stakes (1200m)

The 1200m Wokingham Stakes is the same distance as the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes.

Golden Gates Stakes (1993m)

For the 1993m Golden Gates Stakes, they start in back straight and travel downhill for approximately 200m before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a straight that sees a steady rise to the home turn. They then enter the home straight (500m) and run uphill until the finish. Statistically speaking, barriers are of little consequence, but like most races on the round course, horses ridden with patience tend to do well.

Queen Alexandra Stakes (4330m)

For the 4330m Queen Alexandra Stakes, they start toward the top of the straight course and have a long uphill run before meeting the first turn. After passing the winning post they head downhill, turning right onto the far side straight, before heading onto Swindley bottom and turning onto another straight, that gently rises. Then enter the 500m home straight, and run uphill until the finish. Barriers are of no consequence, but it is a stamina testing contest and although those on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, backmarkers are suited in races run at a true tempo as the uphill rise in the straight will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Day 5 of the Royal meeting has seen good in the going description in nine of the last ten years. The weather forecast suggests sunny weather in the lead-up and on race day. If the forecast is correct, then the going should be good, and could be good to firm as has been the case the last three years.

Japanese superstar Satono Reve bids for breakthrough success at Royal Ascot

Friday, 20/6/2025

Horses from Ireland and France have made the journey to Royal Ascot to contest the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (1200m) but Satono Reve has travelled over 13,000km from Japan.

No horse has made the journey and won but no Japanese contender has been as good as Satono Reve.

The six-year-old is a Group 1 winner in Japan but better known for finishing second to Ka Ying Rising in the HK$22 million G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) at Sha Tin in April. That is a strong recommendation because Ka Ying Rising is the best sprinter in the world.

Satono Reve arrived in Newmarket on 2 May to give him plenty of time to prepare and has been stabled at James Horton's yard.

Trainer Noriyuki Hori explained: "After arriving from Hong Kong, Satono Reve had some time to recover before steadily building up his training. He had his final gallop on 11 June, a five-furlong (1000m) piece of work on the July Course at Newmarket, ridden by Ryan Moore.

"Although it's a different environment from what he's used to, he's been coming along well thanks to the warm support of James Horton, his team and everyone involved."

Satono Reve will be ridden by the 'Magic Man', Joao Moreira. He was in the saddle when Satono Reve won March's G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen (1200m) at Chukyo in Japan. "He's such a good horse," Moreira said. "I'm excited about riding him at Ascot. He just needs to bring that type of form here to be competitive."

The French-trained Lazzat leads the opposition. Trainer Jerome Reynier is confident of a good performance. He said: "He has such a high cruising speed. His last run was his first over as short as 1200 (metres), but he can take a good grip but stay on well. I think he is the perfect match for the race."

Last year, Inisherin was the easy winner of a Group 1 sprint at Royal Ascot on fast ground. He was subsequently rather disappointing but returned to win a Group 2 race last month. Afterwards trainer Kevin Ryan said: "That's a relief. I was nervous but it went well. He'll improve for that run. I'm delighted because he's such a loveable, sensible horse."

Trainer Aidan O'Brien and jockey Ryan Moore are a formidable team and their representative, Storm Boy, has to be respected. The only three-year-old in the race, Storm Boy moved from Australia to Ireland this year. Last year he won sprints at up to Group 2 level but finished last when favourite on his stable debut last month in Ireland.

He will surely do better as O'Brien would not run him if he was not confident of a better performance. The race in which Storm Boy was last was won by James's Delight, a live outsider at Ascot.
