Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1200m maiden is restricted to colts and geldings who have not run more than once.

NEW MONARCH was beaten by an opponent who had previous racecourse experience when runner-up on his debut over 1300m at Newbury last month. Sharply out of the stalls, the Andrew Balding-trained colt travelled sweetly until giving way deep in the final 200m. That was a solid debut and Balding-trained 2YOs tend to improve for their first run.

Trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam has her horses in great form at the moment and she runs a very interesting debutant here in DARK SHORE. He is the most expensive runner in the line-up from those sold at public auction and his half-sister was a winner over 1400m as a 2YO.

Trainer Charlie Appleby has two runners with his stable jockey William Buick choosing to ride WORDS OF TRUTH. The son of LOPE DE VEGA has been gelded since promisingly staying on without ever threatening to get in the mix when eighth on his debut over 1200m at Newbury in May. However, that race looks strong in retrospect with the winner going on to win at Royal Ascot and several others out of the unplaced runners also winning since. WORDS OF TRUTH is a well-bred half-brother to ANCIENT TRUTH, a G2-winning and G1-placed 2YO last season who was a classic contender coming into 2025 only to suffer a fatal injury in the spring.

Appleby also runs the James Doyle-ridden debutant HARBOR LOCK, a gelded son of PALACE PIER whose dam was a G2 winner over 1000m as a 2YO. His half-brother won at G1 level over 1800m when five in the UAE.

WECHAAD looked to be learning as the race unfolded when staying on for sixth in a 1200m maiden at Leicester in May. He definitely has the potential to improve.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Princess Margaret Stakes is a G3 event for 2YO fillies over 1200m.

DANCE TO THE MUSIC has a big reputation and could be hard to beat in this. Charlie Appleby's filly debuted at Newmarket in May over 1200m with a sparkling performance, promisingly pulling clear of her rivals in the style of a top horse. She didn't make it to Royal Ascot where plenty of the best juvenile fillies showed their best, but she is so highly regarded by the Godolphin operation that she demands the utmost respect here.

MIDNIGHT TANGO was behind DANCE TO THE MUSIC when they debuted but has since progressed. Ed Walker's filly won a low-key 1205m Hamilton maiden in June before a fine second in Listed company over the same trip at Newmarket earlier this month despite a poor start. That form looks strong as the fifth came out and won a valuable juvenile contest at Newbury, and if MIDNIGHT TANGO can leave the stalls on terms this time, she can be there at the finish.

FLOWERHEAD catches the eye as one who ran behind a star at Royal Ascot. After her first win over 1015m at Chepstow in June, burgeoning trainer Charlie Clover dropped his filly in the deep end in the G2 Queen Mary Stakes over 1000m, where she massively out-ran her odds to finish second to TRUE LOVE. That filly has gone on to win a juvenile G2 over 1200m against the colts, which gives the Ascot form an even stronger look. FLOWERHEAD is yet to run over this 1200m trip, but it should be no issue, and she can hit the frame.

STAYA was fifth behind FLOWERHEAD at Ascot and ran with plenty of credit. Since then George Scott's filly narrowly won a Listed event over 1009m at Sandown in early July, battling well to defeat a Charlie Appleby-trained colt. That form, coupled with her run at Royal Ascot, is enough to suggest she can trouble the principles here.

FITZELLA is another filly who ran behind a smart horse at Royal Ascot. She arrived at that meeting having won a 1200m maiden impressively at Haydock and did well to be beaten only three lengths in fourth behind VENETIAN SUN in the G3 Albany Stakes over 1200m. That winner has gone on to win a Newmarket G2 over the same trip, and Hugo Palmer's filly can fill the places here.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Ascot's Valiant Stakes is a G3 contest run over 1600m open to fillies and mares aged three and over.

CHANTILLY LACE was a winner on debut at Salisbury over 1400m for trainer Ralph Beckett last season. This season, Beckett's filly has come fifth twice from two starts in G1 company, both over 1600m. She ran well in the G1 1000 Guineas, only finishing two-and-a-half lengths behind the winner, and took to the round course at Ascot well in the G1 Coronation Stakes last month. Her course-and-distance form and fillies' weight allowance could give her the edge here.

James Tate's 5YO ROYAL DRESS arrives fresh from her impressive Listed win over 1605m at Pontefract earlier this month. She was a G3 winner at the Curragh over 1800m last season, so is already proven at this level. Her experience at this level could stand her in good stead.

William Buick is booked to take the ride on CAJOLE for John and Thady Gosden. The Gosdens saddled a 3YO filly to win this race last year and their sole charge fits a similar profile here. CAJOLE came second in the Sandringham Stakes Handicap (1600m) last month, and has since placed second over 1600m at Sandown in a Listed contest. She stays this trip well and her trainers know how to win this race, so she's one to keep an eye on.

JANCIS steps onto English soil for the first time having been campaigned exclusively in Ireland over the past year. Willie McCreery's filly has G1 experience and although yet to get her head in front, dropping back in trip and class after her fifth in the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes over 2000m should bring out some further improvement. She ran against some smart fillies that day and looked to run out of gas in the closing 400m, so she should hit the line stronger over this 1600m trip.

PINA SONATA has hit form of late for trainer James Fanshawe. With two wins under her belt from two starts this season over 1600m and 1700m, this filly shouldn't be underestimated. Stepping into Group company and having her first start at Ascot will be a tough ask but she looks a potentially smart type.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

AALTO thrives in these competitive, big-field handicaps over this 1400m distance. Ian Williams' consistent handicapper went agonisingly close to winning the prestigious Bunbury Cup over 1400m at Newmarket for the second successive year when touched off a nose by hot favourite MORE THUNDER two weeks ago. He didn't get the clearest of passages when only ninth in this race last year, but he was still only beaten just over two lengths. It is likely to set up better for his hold up style this time.

NORTHERN EXPRESS made all the running to win this race 12 months ago. There's no doubt he was helped by getting his own way out in front, but he does look to be running into form. Like many horses from Michael Dods' stable, he struggled in the first few months of the season but, his fourth behind KING'S LYNN over 1400m at Haydock three weeks ago, was a big step in the right direction. He has become nicely handicapped.

AKKADIAN THUNDER won well over 1400m at Doncaster in June and he backed up that victory with an even better performance when runner-up in the Buckingham Palace Stakes over 1400m at Royal Ascot. He did have a helpful draw at the Royal meeting, but he didn't have anywhere near as much luck in the Bunbury Cup. David O'Meara's runner was drawn on the far side and he could never get into a challenging position in a race dominated by those racing towards the stands.

BILLYJOH was hampered at a crucial time when third behind MORE THUNDER in the Bunbury Cup over 1400m at Newmarket two weeks ago. His tricky far-side draw in the Buckingham Palace Stakes over 1400m at Royal Ascot had previously given him a stiff task over today's course and distance. He is the type that needs things to drop perfectly but he has the ability to make a big impact when they do.

FRESH has plenty of decent Ascot form. He landed this race three years ago and he won here over 1200m on soft ground in September last year. He is sure to be sharper for his return to action at the end of last month over 1200m on Newcastle's all-weather track. Today's quicker ground is not an issue.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This handicap over Ascot's straight 1600m includes some nice types.

There is no doubt that BULLET POINT bumped into a potential Group horse in MY CLOUD when worn down in the final 100m in last month's Royal Hunt Cup over this course and distance. As is often the case, that cavalry charge split into three groups, but BULLET POINT bossed the smaller far side contingent throughout. However, on the uphill climb to the finish he had no answer to MY CLOUD, who powered home on the stands side for what was his fourth win in a row. BULLET POINT has taken another small rise in the weights but still looks a step ahead of the handicapper.

It is not easy for 3YO to beat the older horses in these handicaps, but TEROOMM and FEARNOT are two from the younger generation who are both improving fast. A line can be drawn through TEROOMM's unplaced effort in the competitive Britannia Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot last time as he suffered a nightmare run in the last 400m. His jockey accepted that there was no way through the pack, yet he was still beaten less than seven lengths. TEROOMM had won all his three previous races this season over this 1600m trip, so has to be seriously considered.

FEARNOT won impressively over this same 1600m here in May, and, despite then stepping up in grade for the Britannia, he produced a career-best performance, sticking on for third in a blanket finish.

SUPIDO is interesting, having only just missed the frame in a 1400m G3 in Germany last year. He joined Ian Williams in the spring and belied huge odds when finishing fifth at Royal Ascot over 1600m, only a length behind FEARNOT.

BOPEDRO is in the veteran stage at the age of nine, but his form this season is better than ever. He was only half-a-length behind BULLET POINT in third place at Ascot, and he has since run close to his best when third in a big 1600m handicap at York where the slower gallop did not play to his strengths. With another fast pace assured here, BOPEDRO has to be on the shortlist.

SELECTIONS: 1. BULLET POINT, 9. TEROOMM, 8. FEARNOT, 7. SUPIDO & 3. BOPEDRO

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Ascot's feature race is the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes and is one of Britain's most prestigious open-age Flat races, run over a distance of 2400m.

Last year, the spoils were claimed by France's GOLIATH, who ran out an impressive winner under Christophe Soumillon for trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. The prize could very well be travelling back to France again, and once more to the Graffard yard, courtesy of CALANDAGAN. He dominated the G2 King Edward VII Stakes over 2400m at Royal Ascot last year and came close to winning there again, finishing second by half-a-length in the G1 Champion Stakes over 2000m last October. He was beaten by JAN BRUEGHEL in the G1 Coronation Cup over 2400m but didn't look to handle the Epsom test well. He has since won the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud over 2400m impressively and looks set to turn the tables back at a track he prefers.

KALPANA also features for the Andrew Balding team with Oisin Murphy on board. She enjoyed a light but successful 3YO campaign winning both the G3 September Stakes over 2400m on the all-weather at Kempton before taking out the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes over 2300m here at Ascot. This season she's put in two solid performances at the Curragh in both the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup over 2100m and the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes over 2000m, finishing third and second respectively. She looks set to get her ideal good ground, with a bit of rain making conditions even more suitable. That's another big plus, and now stepping back up to this distance, she looks a serious threat.

JAN BRUEGHEL is a standout contender for Ballydoyle and Aidan O'Brien, with five wins from six starts, four of those coming at Group level. He showed real grit when edging out CALANDAGAN in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom, over this trip, and it wouldn't be a surprise to see the pair go head-to-head again in another thrilling finish.

The oldest runner in the field at seven is REBEL'S ROMANCE, a proven middle-distance star with 18 career victories to his name. He reminded everyone of his quality with a commanding win in the G2 Hardwicke Stakes over 2400m at Royal Ascot, and if he turns up in that sort of form again, he's a serious player in what looks a competitive renewal.

Pace: GOOD

CONTINUOUS is the recognized leader in this small field and he should dictate the pace. Stablemate JAN BRUEGHEL can be positive and get into the trail. KALPANA has drawn the outside and she should go forward and not be far away. CALANDAGAN went back last start when winning and he should repeat those tactics.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

TENABILITY looks to hold strong claims of recording a second career success upped in distance in the 2400m handicap. After meeting with defeat on his first two starts, the FRANKEL gelding built on those efforts with a facile win in a 2000m novice at Windsor on his last outing. The form of that race is yet to really work out, however he could not have been more impressive in the way he won, while his trainer Wiliam Haggas has his team in red-hot form.

KUREDU KING left his previous form behind when reacting well to wearing first-time blinkers, which he retains here, to win a 2300m handicap at Haydock Park. Having appeared to be outpaced on a number of his earlier starts, the John and Thady Gosden-trained gelding travelled much better with the application of the new headgear. This will be his first time running right-handed, and having hung slightly left last time that could be a slight issue, but with his stamina assured expect him to play a part at the end.

VENZUELAN is yet to win in five starts, but he has run some solid races in defeat. Having appeared in need of his first run back in a 1600m novice contest at Southwell, the Ralph Beckett-trained gelding has since finished in the frame twice. After finishing second in a 2000m handicap at Newmarket, he was then third in a 2000m novice event at Redcar when shaping as if this sort of trip would play to his strengths.

There will be no stamina concerns regarding BUXTED TOO, who should be more suited to this track than when finishing fourth in a 2400m handicap at Epsom last time out. While he has done most of his winning on the all-weather, he has previously run respectably over course and distance which suggests he could be on the premises.

CRIMINAL is making his first start since finishing fourth in an 1800m novice at Wolverhampton in May, so his fitness and stamina have to be taken on trust following a near two-month absence.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Ascot's finale is a competitive Class 2 sprint over 1000m.

ARAMRAM has been in excellent form this season, only finishing out of the first four in one of his seven runs. Richard Hannon's 4YO produced an eye-catching effort at Newmarket over 1200m in May, when beaten a short-head by a potential Group-class horse. That hinted he was close to a win and so it proved as he landed a competitive 1200m Newbury handicap on his next start. He then wasn't beaten far in the Wokingham Stakes over 1200m at Royal Ascot and went close off this handicap mark when beaten half-a-length at Newcastle over 1200m last time. That suggests he's handicapped to run another big race.

TROPICAL STORM is making his handicap debut, having been kept exclusively to Group and Listed company in seven starts since stepping out of novice and maiden races. Three runs this season have yielded a victory in the Listed Westow Stakes over 1000m at York, when he kept on well to get up close home. The G1 King Charles III Stakes over 1000m over this course and distance proved too hot for him last time out, but this represents a significant drop in class and it will be disappointing if he isn't competitive off a workable handicap mark.

VINTAGE CLARETS has run several good races at Ascot in the past. This 6YO has been coming to form for a while, having finished less than three lengths behind subsequent G1 winner AMERICAN AFFAIR at York over 1200m in May. Most recently, he was beaten only a nose at Newcastle over 1000m last month, and despite a rise in the weights he looks set to go well under promising claimer Warren Fentiman.

A three-time winner on the all-weather, MESAAFI has finished second and third in two starts at Ascot, both times beaten less than a length. Horses that have a good record on the all-weather often transfer their form to Ascot, and are worth following in sprints here. MESAAFI battled well all the way to the line last time out over this course and distance and had many of these reopposing rivals in behind him, so looks a strong contender for the frame once more.

EMPEROR SPIRIT made a winning return to action after over 300 days off the track at Newmarket over 1000m this month. Michael Keady's 7YO has run multiple good races at Ascot in the past and remains feasibly handicapped.

SELECTIONS: 1. ARAMRAM, 2. TROPICAL STORM, 5. VINTAGE CLARETS, 11. MESAAFI & 8. EMPEROR SPIRIT

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Ascot is a large right-handed galloping triangular shaped track, just over 2800m in circumference, with a straight run of 500m on the round course. There is a straight 1600m course, which all races below 1600m are held. There are two start points for races run over 1600m, one on the round course and the other on the straight course.

The track was redeveloped in 2005 and the ground in the straight drains quicker than the rest of the course, meaning ground descriptions can vary. Being a large track with an uphill finish dragging almost the entire straight (including the length of the straight course), Ascot suits hold-up horses, and front-runners need to be ridden conservatively to ensure they save energy, although on-pace runners do tend to perform strongly over the 1000m.

King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes Day sees eight turf races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (2392m)

For the featured race, G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes over 2392m, they start at the top of the back straight and have a nice long downhill run before levelling out at Swindley Bottom and turning into a steady straight rise down the side of the course onto a sweeping home turn entering the 500m uphill straight. Horses on the front will be afforded every opportunity in steadily run races, but races run at a decent gallop will suit back-markers as the uphill rise will take its toll on those ridden aggressively.

Other Races

2yo Maiden & G3 Princess Margaret Stakes (1200m)

For the 1200m 2yo Maiden and G3 Princess Margaret Stakes, they will look to come down the centre, but can split into two and three groups in larger fields. The draw results will vary, but it is advisable to look for the speed angle, especially in larger fields, as the winner usually comes from where the pace is, and results are more pace-dependent than draw-dependent.

G3 Valiant Stakes (1594m)

For the 1594m G3 Valiant Stakes, they start from a chute at the top of the course on the right-hand side of the track. They then run in a straight line with a steady rise before meeting the home bend and entering the 500m straight, which is uphill to the finish. There is no draw bias, but horses ridden with restraint usually do well.

International Handicap (1400m)

For the 1400m International Handicap, in smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

3yo+ 0-105 Handicap (1600m)

For the 1600m 3yo+ 0-105 Handicap, in smaller fields they tend to come down the middle, but in larger fields they can split into two and even three groups. With the straight course being uphill nearly all the way, the further they go the more it suits horses ridden patiently, and those ridden with restraint normally do well.

3yo+ 61-80 Handicap (2392m)

The 2392m 3yo+ 61-80 Handicap is the same distance as the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes.

3yo+ Handicap (1000m)

For the 1000m 3yo+ Handicap, in smaller fields they tend to come down the centre of the track, but can split into two, and sometimes even three groups, in larger fields. Although uphill nearly all the way, speed horses do have a decent record over this trip, but if they go too quickly on the front, the closers will dominate.

The weather forecast suggests mostly fine days in the lead-up, with only a slight chance of light rain including on the morning of the race. There has been Good in the going description in nine of the last ten years, and if the forecast is correct, it's likely that there will be Good in the going description once again this year.

Courageous Jan Brueghel likely to shine in Ascot's most valuable race

Friday, 25/7/2025

Saturday's (26 July) King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (2392m) will be the most valuable race ever run at Ascot and four of its five declared runners are world-class quality middle-distance performers by any measurement.

In terms of courage to match brilliance, Jan Brueghel is heading in the direction of awesome status. He often looks like he's beaten, only to pull victory out of the fire. The same could also be said of his legendary rider Ryan Moore.

Trainer Aidan O'Brien blamed himself for the son of Galileo's sole career defeat in a Group 3 at The Curragh (2000m) in April, saying that the race was too soon for his 2025 return. But that setback was quickly forgotten when Jan Brueghel rallied after a thrilling battle up the Epsom straight with Saturday's opponent Calandagan (Mickael Barzalona) to win June's G1 Coronation Cup (2405m).

O'Brien says of Jan Brueghel who will be fitted with cheekpieces. "He doesn't surrender and if you pass him slowly you're in trouble."

After four consecutive seconds – albeit all in Group 1 company – Calandagan's will to win was questioned. Of those defeats, his Chantilly-based trainer Francis-Henri Graffard says: "He has finished second to some brilliant horses and each time with some excuses. I keep my faith with this horse."

Admittedly, the field was not that strong, but Calandagan's subsequent winning acceleration away from four rivals in last month's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud (2400m) suggested that Jan Brueghel will have another battle on his hands on Saturday. A searching pace could suit both horses and that is expected with Wayne Lordan no doubt sending O'Brien's Continuous steaming from the gates.

Rebel's Romance (William Buick) has been a huge money-spinner for Godolphin with the Charlie Appleby-trained gelding's achievements (18 wins from 26 starts) including a stylish victory in last year's G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (2400m) at Sha Tin. But, at seven years old, he would be the oldest-ever winner in the long history of this Ascot spectacular.

The Andrew Balding-trained Kalpana gets a handy fillies' allowance. She ended last season with a sparkling victory in the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes (2321m) at Ascot and has lost out only narrowly in two Group 1 starts at The Curragh over shorter distances this year. Back at this longer trip, and back at Ascot, Oisin Murphy's mount is not easy to dismiss from King George calculations.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.

	All Up Betting (same betting pool in each leg)	Cross Pool All Up Betting (different betting pools in each leg allowed)
Select 2 to 3 races	• Forecast, Trio e.g. Forecast → Forecast	• Win, Place, Quinella, Quinella Place, Forecast, Trio e.g. Forecast → Trio → Win
Select 2 to 6 races	• Win, Place, Quinella, Quinella Place e.g. Win → Win	• Win, Place, Quinella, Quinella Place e.g. Win → Place → Quinella

To experience the betting entertainment and increase the challenge, you may consider the multi-race pools.

Multi-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
DOUBLE TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in each of the two nominated races
DOUBLE	• 1st in each of the two nominated races • Consolation: 1st in 1st nominated race and 2nd in 2nd nominated race
TREBLE	• 1st in each of the three nominated races • Consolation: 1st in first two Legs and 2nd in third Leg of the three nominated races

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Plenty of speedy prospects line up in the 1200m 3yo+ 0-105 Handicap.

There are several lightly raced 4YOs in this field and none catches the eye like POCKLINGTON. After only six starts, he has demonstrated a high level of ability and was thought good enough to contest the G1 Commonwealth Cup over 1200m at Royal Ascot last season. His run following Ascot was in a fiercely competitive handicap at York over 1100m, where he performed respectably despite being hampered to be beaten only three lengths at the line. Following that he wasn't seen until returning at Newcastle over 1200m last month, where he showed his well-being with an excellent effort to finish a close-up second. It's likely that run will have brought him forward, and if that's the case, he should hold strong claims here.

Another improving 4YO is James Ferguson's JUBILEE WALK. He was a ready winner of a 1000m handicap at York last season, but a trip to Bahrain over the winter didn't prove fruitful. A wind operation followed that trip and he looked to be back in some kind of form when running on well, having raced wide, on his reappearance at Chester over 1200m. That should have left him ready for this.

ELMONJED was a winner over this course and distance last August, but has yet to add to that win in three starts this season. His first two runs were promising, as he wasn't been beaten far in competitive handicaps over 1200m at Newmarket and Newbury. Last time out he ran in a weaker contest at Windsor over 1200m that he should have been up to winning, so it was disappointing to see him beaten into second place. This will be harder, and he may find a couple too good once again.

STRIKE RED has been kept busy with six starts already this season. Richard Fahey's 7YO has tended to run his race but has probably been in the grip of the handicapper. However, he has slipped down the weights and is now back to his last winning mark. Any rain would be a help to him, as four of his five turf wins have come with soft in the going description.

TOYOTOMI has only made one start for the David O'Meara yard since arriving from France, and it was a good one to finish fourth in the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis at Deauville over 1200m on soft ground. This represents a drop in class but it will still require a big performance off top-weight.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 York Stakes over 2000m is a competitive headliner of York's Saturday card, with a handful of smart 3YOs stepping up to take on the more established older horses.

One such older horse is standout contender ALMAQAM. Ed Walker's runner was last seen winning the G3 Brigadier Gerard Stakes at Sandown in May over 2000m. The second that day, OMBUDSMAN, has since won the G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes at Royal Ascot over 2000m before being just touched off in the G1 Eclipse Stakes at Sandown over 2000m. ALMAQAM's form from Sandown looks top-class as a result, and the forecast ground conditions look set to suit. He is the one to beat.

STANHOPE GARDENS hasn't been seen since an eye-catching run in the G1 Derby Stakes over 2400m. The form of his fifth-place finish at Epsom has since been franked by the winner LAMBOURN following up in the G1 Irish Derby at the Curragh over 2400m. Prior to that, he won on seasonal reappearance at Salisbury over 1600m, doing his best work late on, showing that this 2000m trip holds no concerns. As a 3YO, he is in receipt of a handy weight concession from his elders and should go close.

BAY CITY ROLLER is another 3YO contender. An impressive victor of his first starts as a 2YO, he stepped up when winning the G2 Champagne Stakes over 1400m at Doncaster. Despite being winless this season, he has twice acquitted himself well against strong opposition, stepping forward with each run at Sandown and Saint-Cloud. He ought to go well here.

GREEN IMPACT is another of this year's Classic generation. He twice beat this year's G1 Eclipse Stakes victor DELACROIX as a juvenile, which reads well. His runs this season have been admirable, most recently when finishing sixth in the G1 Irish Derby over 2400m, and this race might be more his level. He may be better suited to dropping to this trip too and is worthy of consideration in receipt of weight from his elders.

CERTAIN LAD is the oldest runner in the field. Still going strong as a 9YO, there's no doubt that Jack Channon's runner still has something to offer at this level. He will appreciate the slower ground here, with his best form coming over this 2000m too. He can fill the frame.

SELECTIONS: 1. ALMAQAM, 7. STANHOPE GARDENS, 5. BAY CITY ROLLER, 6. GREEN IMPACT & 2. CERTAIN LAD

There are three leaders in this field and ECUREUIL SECRET who has drawn the widest may have no choice but to press on and go to the front. BAY CITY ROLLER and ALMAQAM can also lead and they should be positive. CERTAIN LAD and ROYAL CHAMPION should settle midfield.

Lightly raced but highly regarded. Ran a worthy fifth in the Derby at Epsom, running out of steam late on. This shorter trip looks helpful and he remains interesting.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

York is a left-handed or anti-clockwise, was once a “course” that, likewise to Epsom or the Curragh, featuring a run-off area in the end, could card races at only up to 2800m. That took a twist in 2005 when, to temporarily host the Royal Ascot meeting during Ascot’s massive face-lift, the clubhouse turn was extended all the way to connect the backstretch, thus finally made it a full “circuit” out of this venue.

Races over 1000m and 1200m are run on a straight course whilst races over 1400m start from a chute that joins the main straight in a dog leg shape. The same chute is used for races over 4400m. Races over 2800m and 3251m also start from a chute whilst all other starting points are on the round course. Barrier 1 is always drawn on the inside of the track.

York is a high-quality large course with sweeping turns and no undulations. Considered one of the fairest tracks in Great Britain, the straight is approximately 900m and although the layout of the course suits strong galloping types, horses who get to the front early in the straight often will not run down, especially on testing ground.

There are two races for coverage on York Stakes Day.

Feature Race

G2 York Stakes (2051m)

The G2 York Stakes starts from the far side of the course and although there is a slight bend not long after leaving the gates, barriers are of little importance. After taking the bend, they head down a lengthy straight on the left-hand side of the track before meeting the turn and entering the 900m home straight. Keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground. Horses that are held up tend to do well, with six of the last ten winners having been held back.

Other Races

3yo+ 0-105 Handicap (1200m)

For the 1200m 3yo+ 0-105 Handicap, they tend to mostly come down the centre of the track but will normally look to head to the grandstand rail when the ground is soft, thus high draws are favourable on rain affected ground in larger fields.

The last ten renewals of the York Stakes have seen good in the going description on nine occasions, with five of those years being good to firm ground. The weather forecast this year is suggesting mostly clear sunny days in the lead-up and on race day, and if correct, the going is likely to be good with a strong possibility of good to firm going.

Almaqam primed to pass tough York exam

Friday, 25/7/2025

The stars look aligned for Almaqam to strike in the G2 York Stakes (2061m) at York on Saturday (26 July).

Trainer Ed Walker has had to play a waiting game with his pride and joy, with the four-year-old forced to skip Royal Ascot due to unsuitably fast ground.

Summer rain has finally produced ideal conditions for the likely hot favourite to add substance to his trainer's belief that the colt, ridden by Kieran Shoemark for the first time, is "very special."

Almaqam's last visit to a racecourse was back in May, beating Ombudsman in a 1990m Group 3, with the runner-up boosting the form in style with a subsequent Group 1 win at Royal Ascot.

Walker's patience has been tested to the limit as he kept his potentially top-class colt under wraps, waiting for the right ground.

But the time has finally come for Almaqam to show what he's got and lay down a marker for a tilt at the G1 International Stakes (2100m) back at York next month.

"We have always thought the world of him and he is seriously exciting," Walker said this week.

"When you have high expectations and hopes, that is when the nerves kick in. It makes me quite nervous talking about it. I think he is very special."

Looking back at his eye-catching success at Sandown on his second start in 2025, Walker said: "It was no mean feat beating Ombudsman, but I think now what he has gone on and done, the world thinks Almaqam should do it."

While he may be a short-priced favourite, Almaqam faces some genuine rivals hoping to spoil his day in this generational clash.

The three-year-old Stanhope Gardens merits serious consideration as he aims to build on his fifth in the G1 Derby Stakes (2405m).

The representative of last year's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe-winning trainer Ralph Beckett was only beaten a neck as a two-year-old by Delacroix, this month's G1 Eclipse Stakes (1990m) winner.

Another suited by rain-softened ground, Rossa Ryan's mount has bags of untapped potential, with Beckett declaring: "He's a very straightforward customer. That form with Delacroix is very good."

Bay City Roller is aiming to continue the successful season being enjoyed by trainer George Scott and jockey Callum Shepherd.

They turn up at York in optimistic mood after Bay City Roller's promising second to Daryz in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam (2000m) in France last month.

"On the day he was beaten by a better horse, one with a big reputation. But we're very happy with the way he's progressing," said Scott.

Green Impact, who finished sixth in the G1 Irish Derby on his first attempt at 2400m, is an intriguing contender from Ireland.

Held in high regard by his astute trainer – the leading lady of Irish racing, Mrs John Harrington – the drop back in trip and class point to a prominent run at decent odds.
