Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

In this Listed race over 1600m, my top choice is I SALUTE YOU, who has a pole position draw and comes off a solid run over this course and distance in the Listed Thukela Handicap, where he may have been short of room late. He should be competitive from a likely handy position.

BUSSTOPINHOUNSLOW has shown tremendous improvement and performs well for Piere Strydom. He should be finishing strongly, although this is his first time at this track, and he might be better suited to a more galloping venue.

WINTER GAMES is a capable contender, and with a good draw over a suitable distance, he is a strong runner. He came from last with a wide draw in the Listed Thukela Handicap to finish fifth, just 0.3 lengths behind I SALUTE YOU, and they meet on the same terms.

GUY GIBSON has been in fine form over shorter distances and is capable of staying this trip. With a good draw and Gavin Lerena riding, he could be a significant contender.

NARINA TROGON has a solid record over this course and distance. Although he faces another wide draw, he won the Listed Thukela Handicap from a similar position last year.

SELECTIONS: 1. I SALUTE YOU, 7. BUSSTOPINHOUNSLOW, 2. WINTER GAMES, 3. GUY GIBSON & 13. NARINA TROGON

Is a reserve runner and if getting into the race will have to find a few lengths for the win. In saying that, he is an evergreen eight-year-old that was victorious just three starts back. Place chance at best.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

PRINCESS OF GAUL made a strong debut, winning effortlessly by 9.5 lengths over 1100m, and her form has been validated since.

ELEGANTRIX was disappointing in the G2 Golden Horseshoe over 1400m, but she came close in the G1 Allan Robertson Championship over this distance. She should appreciate the step back in trip and is a strong contender.

MYSTICAL MISS won easily on debut, and her form has turned out exceptionally well, although her time was not particularly impressive.

KEUKENHOF has performed well against top competition in her last three starts. If she can overcome a tricky draw, she could be right in the mix.

CAPTAINS ENVY has also shown good form in her last three starts against strong opposition, and if she can navigate a wide draw, she could be a contender.

SELECTIONS: 1. PRINCESS OF GAUL, 6. ELEGANTRIX, 3. MYSTICAL MISS, 8. KEUKENHOF & 10. CAPTAINS ENVY

Thrashed the opposition by a steeplechase margin on debut and was well supported into favoritism. She clearly has gears and could end up being absolutely anything. Big winning chance.

Boasts some fair form and clearly has talent and after winning on debut emphatically has competed in some strong feature fields acquitting herself with aplomb. She has a bright chance.

Made a smart winning debut and with natural progression can make her presence felt. It would be silly to ignore this filly from any bets.

Is a raider for Port Elizabeth who was an impressive winner of her last start but in a weak Handicap. A bit tough to assess how she will go against these but she might be able to threaten at the finish.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

ARISTOCRATIC appears to be a classy contender and should finish strongly.

RACHEL WALL is very quick and will appreciate the step down in trip. From pole position, she has a good chance under Gavin Lerena.

ZALATORIS has shown solid form in recent starts and was beaten by just 1.35 lengths in the G1 Gold Medallion over this distance, so he should be in contention.

TITAN OF THE TURF made a promising debut with a respectable time, and from a good draw, he has a chance.

VANAKKAM delivered an impressive performance over course and distance in her penultimate start, making her an interesting runner from a similarly wide draw.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

GOLDEN PALM has proven class as a G2 winner and is drawn in pole position for a step up in trip, which she should manage. She is the one to beat under Richard Fourie.

A BIT OF CLASS won impressively in her second start and is an intriguing runner in this slight step up in trip, which should suit her.

TINA LOVELACE has faced top competition over 1400m without any disgrace and is a noteworthy contender here.

LIMITLESS SKY delivered a strong performance in the G2 Splashout Golden Slipper over 1400m, finishing three lengths behind two top-class fillies. If she can overcome a wide draw, she should be a threat.

ALTA CAPITANA has good form from the Highveld Winter Juvenile Fillies Stakes. Although this presents a tough challenge, it's not a vintage G1 field, and she could be involved.

SELECTIONS: 1. GOLDEN PALM, 6. A BIT OF CLASS, 4. TINA LOVELACE, 12. LIMITLESS SKY & 2. ALTA CAPITANA

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

JAN VAN GOYEN is a promising contender who is drawn well here. With plenty of scope for improvement, he could be right in the mix.

CHRONICLE KING comes off a strong win in the G2 Golden Horseshoe over 1400m at this course. He should handle the step up in trip and is well drawn again.

WORLD OF ROYALTY impressed last time out, achieving a good time. He has significant potential for improvement and a fair draw of six.

TIN PAN ALLEY has 1.6 lengths to make up on CHRONICLE KING from the G2 Golden Horseshoe last start but benefits from a better draw this time.

SOLDIER BOY was beaten by just 2.5 lengths in the G2 Golden Horseshoe from a very wide draw. Now drawn in pole, he could be a strong contender here.

Was a tad unlucky last time when finishing half way back behind Chronicle King and with a smooth, clean run in transit, can go very close to winning. He has been selected as the each way value play.

Has raced three times for two most impressive victories and rates a serious winning chance. He was narrowly beaten in the second run probably by shortage of distance as when cranked up to 1400m he won well. Today he goes 1600m which should suit even more. Big win claims.

Won at long odds last time but won with authority. It would be foolish to discount his chances and not include him on the shortlist. A huge run can be expected and it would come as no shock if he went back-to-back.

Beat Carnival Park in a maiden last time and now faces much tougher opposition which makes it tough to predict how he will go. A likely outsider that might battle against these. Prefer others.

Had it all to do from a deep draw last time but still managed to run a very good race finishing a close up third to Chronicle King. From a slightly kinder draw today, he should be very competitive. Bright chance.

Is rated by his trainer, won his maiden in convincing fashion but does face a huge task today. His high draw is naturally a concern and it is difficult to predict how he will go first time in Group company. Prefer others for today.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

TENANGO is a top-class contender who, unfortunately, is widely drawn. However, his racing style involves coming from well off the pace with a blistering finish, so he could still succeed.

WILLIAM ROBERTSON is a top-class sprinter and a G1 winner this season. If he can put behind him his G3 Post Merchants run, where he was beaten by 8.9 lengths from a wide draw, he will be a significant factor despite another tough draw, as he possesses a very strong finish.

I AM GIANT won convincingly over course and distance in the G3 Post Merchants last time out. Although this is a tougher task, it marks his third run after a layoff.

MIA MOO won the G1 South African Fillies Sprint last time out and is now drawn in pole, giving her a good chance.

MRS BROWNING was narrowly beaten by a head in the G1 South African Fillies Sprint, and with a favorable draw of 2 and Richard Fourie riding, she is a strong contender.

Unlucky when touched off by Mia Moo in the G1 SA Fillies Sprint when arriving just too late. Her last run over a mile is best ignored. Draw is a concern but Hong Kong-based Keagan de Melo should be able to get her over.

Comfortable winner of the G2 Golden Horse Sprint coming from a long way off the pace to win as he liked. Wide draw should not be a factor and with some luck in the running will go close.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

SHOOT THE RAPIDS was unlucky to lose this race last year and is better than his last run, where he was beaten by 4.85 lengths by KING PELLEES in the G3 Gold Vase over 3000m. He could bounce back here.

MADISON VALLEY finished a strong fifth in the G1 Durban July, and with a favorable draw, he has a good chance, especially considering his superb run last year from well off the pace.

KING PELLEES is a top-class stayer who performs well for S'Manga Khumalo, making him the one to beat in his bid for a fourth G3 staying race this season.

HOLDING THUMBS is a classy stayer who has finished second to KING PELLEES in his last two starts. Now 1kg better off after a three-length defeat in the G3 Gold Vase, he could get closer this time. FUTURE SWING has been slightly off form, but when at his best, he could be a factor in this race.

FIELD MARSHALL was beaten by 3.6 lengths in the G3 Tote Derby, giving this progressive contender an outside chance as he is now better off. However, he does face the challenge of the widest draw.

Has hit form at the right time. He was most impressive in the G3 Gold Vase over 3000m quickening up smartly in the straight and had the race in the bag a long way out. The one to beat.

Nearly caused a major upset last run in a strong field. He is likely to start at long odds as he goes this trip for the first time but comes from a stable renown for preparing stayers.

Steps up to this trip for the first time and is better than his last run effort. He should struggle at these weights but has a money chance should he stay the distance.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

DAVE THE KING comes in fresh, and as a horse with a giant stride capable of unwinding a finish from 800m out, he is hard to beat at this track. He has proven this by winning the G1 Gold Challenge over 1600m for the past two years and this race last year.

THE REAL PRINCE proved his class in the G1 Durban July and will be a strong contender from pole position, provided he's at his best, as he is equally effective over this distance. However, the G1 Durban July is a tough race, and he may not be as fresh as DAVE THE KING.

FIRE ATTACK comes in fresh and possesses a tremendous finishing kick, but he does need to overcome a wide draw.

GLADATORIAN was slightly unlucky when beaten by just 0.35 lengths by DAVE THE KING in the G1 Gold Challenge. He should be well-suited to this trip and has a favorable draw for a change, so he could be right there. However, having also run in the G1 Durban July, he may not be as fresh.

SEE IT AGAIN missed the G1 Durban July due to an abnormal blood count, so he comes in fresh, having returned to his best form before that race. He appears to have settled down after being gelded at the beginning of the season and will be a strong contender if he's at his best.

MONTIEN had a disappointing run last start, but if he can reproduce his performances from the G1 King's Plate and G1 Cape Town Met, he could be the dark horse coming in fresh.

Pace: GOOD

DAVE THE KING likes to lead in his races and although he didn't lead at his last start he should lead this race. MONTIEN from his good draw can get into the trail. SON OF RAJ will not be far away. GLADATORIAN has a good draw however he normally goes back in his races.

Seldom runs a bad race but does tend to take a while to warm up in the straight. He finished strongly behind The Real Prince last time out but the Greyville straight is a tad short for him in top company. Definite money chance.

Won the G1 HKJC World Pool Premier's Champions Challenge under an enterprising front-running ride to hold off Royal Victory who loves the long Turfontein straight. He is 7lb worse off with Royal Victory but likely pace setter along with Dave The King.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

MY SOUL MATE has the advantage of coming in fresh, having not run on Durban July day. With a plum draw, she could reverse form with LOCK AND KEY, who has always looked full of promise and was impressive over 1750m last time. She should stay this trip and could well be better than her rating suggests.

LITTLE SUZIE won the G2 Woolavington 2000 over the same course and distance this season. She is on the up and comes in fresh, but she does have a tricky draw.

RAINBOW LORIKEET is capable of winning this race, as she was unlucky in the G2 Woolavington 2000. She has a fair middle draw, but running in the G1 Durban July might have taken a bit out of her.

MOCHA BLEND comes off a good third in the G2 Woolavington 2000 and is 1.5kg better off than LITTLE SUZIE, but she does have a tricky draw.

Won the G2 Woolavington 2000 last time out under a handy weight. She has a lot more to carry this time around with a number of runners set to turn the tables. However, she comes from a very strong stable and has the champion jockey aboard.

Steady form over shorter distance. She does look to be outclassed and should battle at these weights.

Overseas Expert Column by David Thiselton

OUTLAW KING has plenty of ability and should be right there from a middle draw.

FUTURE VARIETY is on the rise, and his class could help him overcome a wide draw. SYMPHONY IN WHITE has strong G1 sprint form, and with a reasonable merit rating, he should be in the mix.

KING OF THE GAULS has a lot of pace and could repeat his win in this race last year from a similarly wide draw. However, there is a lot of pace in this race, making it harder for him to get to the front this time, and he also carries a big weight.

LION RAMPART is a capable contender, and although a wide draw makes it tough, he could still be involved. CHOCOLATE SOLDIER has plenty of pace and could be a factor if he can overcome a tricky draw.

UN BEL DI comes off a good run and, from a favorable draw, should be a factor. NO FILTER has plenty of pace, and with pole position and a reduced merit rating, he can bounce back.

Quick filly who has not been far back in recent outings. Whether she is good enough to feature here only the race will tell but she gets Keagan de Melo aboard which is a big plus.

Ran his best recent race at his penultimate outing when second over course and distance starting at odds of 100-1. From his deep draw he will need to repeat that performance coupled with some luck in running if he is to make an impression.

Track Analysis by Andrew Harrison

Durban's Greyville Racecourse is a clockwise venue with a 2800m turf course that envelopes another synthetic strip. It imitates a triangular configuration of Great Britain's Ascot Racecourse, with a 430m homestretch.

The course is deceptive as there is a significant climb before the final bend. From the 1600m mark to the 1200m mark there is a gradual drop of 3m. From the 900m mark to the 400m mark on the final turn there is a gradual climb of 4m. There is also a four-degree fall/ camber from outer to inner on the turn. The rest of the track has a one-degree fall/ camber. The sweeping final bend with its camber allows wide runners to slingshot themselves into the thick of the fray. All races from the 1600m mark to the 1000m mark start on the bend.

Ten turf races from the Champions Cup Day will be simulcast to Hong Kong this year.

Feature Race

G1 HKJC Champions Cup (1800m)

For the featured G1 HKJC Champions Cup over 1800m, the field will start on the back straight and runners can generally sort themselves out before hitting the turn before the 1600m mark.

Other Races

Listed Michel Nairac Appreciation Stakes & G1 Douglas Whyte Stakes & G1 World Pool Moment Of The Day Champion Stakes (1600m)

There are three races over 1600m, including the Listed Michel Nairac Appreciation Stakes, the G1 Douglas Whyte Stakes and the G1 World Pool Moment Of The Day Champion Stakes. Draws 1-6 are optimum. Horses drawn wider can often be caught out wide.

G2 World Pool with Race Coast Debutante & G2 Follow @WorldPool on X Stakes & G1 Mercury Sprint (1200m)

Three races over 1200m which are the G2 World Pool with Race Coast Debutante, the G2 Follow @WorldPool on X Stakes and the G1 Mercury Sprint. In sprints 1200m to 1000m wide draws are less significant as runners can be aimed at the apex of the turn.

G3 World Pool Gold Cup (3200m)

For the 3200m G3 World Pool Gold Cup, the race starts at the 400m mark in the home stretch. Runners will have a 450m chute to find a favourable position, therefore wide draws only cause little harms on their winning chances.

G2 Bet With The World Gold Bracelet (2000m)

The 2000m G2 Bet With The World Gold Bracelet also plays likewise to the 1800m trip, only that runners have an extra 200m stretch of the backside to wiggle before entering the first turn.

Listed HKIR in December Umngeni Handicap (1000m)

There is one race over 1000m which is the Listed HKIR in December Umngeni Handicap. The track characteristics are similar to those of the 1200m race.

Dave The King aims for back-to-back G1 HKJC Champions Cup glory

Thursday, 24/7/2025

Mathew de Kock isn't underestimating the formidable task facing stable star Dave The King in his quest to achieve back-to-back victories in Sunday's (27 July) G1 HKJC Champions Cup (1800m) at Greyville.

After returning from a successful training stint in Australia, de Kock now trains in partnership with his father, Mike, who has accumulated the most Group 1 wins of any South African trainer.

Following unplaced runs as favourite in two races at the end of his last campaign, Dave The King has won both of his races this year, including his most recent assignment in the G1 Gold Challenge (1600m) at Greyville on 7 June.

De Kock said the stable couldn't be happier with the five-year-old gelding, noting he has improved since his last-start victory when he again started favourite.

"He has come on from his last start, which is great because it was really only his second run after a rest," de Kock said.

"He seems to be peaking for this race, which is fantastic.

"He won very well last year, so it looks like everything is coming together for him to kind of put in a similar performance."

In last year's victory, Dave The King – the reigning South African Horse of the Year – cruised to the lead at the 1000m mark and opened up a handy margin while holding off fast-finishers from back in the field.

De Kock said the gelding, who will be ridden by Callan Murray, was a free-striding horse with a big action and a high cruising speed whose strength is placing his rivals under pressure during the middle stages of races.

While there are only nine runners in Sunday's race, de Kock said it's a tricky field. He rates Dean Kannemeyer's last-start G1 Durban July (2200m) winner, The Real Prince, as the biggest danger.

"He is obviously in good form and has beaten most of the rest before, and I would probably be most worried about him from (barrier) number one," de Kock said.

"The Durban July is our biggest race, which he won two weeks ago. It's a handicap, though.

"See It Again is also a good horse on his day."

Keagan de Melo, now based in Hong Kong, returns home for the ride on See It Again, who was injured in the lead up to the Durban July and goes into Sunday's race fresh.

Kannemeyer said he didn't hesitate to target Sunday's race after The Real Prince's last start – and most significant – victory on 5 July.

"This Champions Cup will be his third run post a break, and it may well be that the 1800m suits him down to the ground," he said.

"We will let the others worry about us."

Gladatorian finished seventh, beaten five lengths, to The Real Prince in the Durban July, but the five-year-old's earlier form gives him a chance of figuring in the placings.

The only three-year-old in the field is Fire Attack, who will carry 129lb, 3lb less than his older rivals, but has a tricky draw in barrier eight.

Montien, trained by Piet Botha, is sure to have some admirers for a place at decent odds.

Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

The HKJC World Pool Handicap over 1400 is a Class 3 race. This is very much sprinting by German standards, and a near full field of 15 runners are set to line up on Sunday. Prizemoney is very good by local standards, so this race has an atypical feel to it than your average handicap run at this track.

Trainer Jiri Broz travels all the way from Czechia; he saddles NOELLE and STORM KODI. Both horses are winners in Germany, NOELLE over C&D, and both are very much on a winning mark. Choosing between them is a matter of taste. Andreas Wohler, Andreas Suborics and Henk Grewe are top-drawer trainers in Germany, so any Handicap runner of theirs must be noted.

GREY SPARKLE will love any rain, and Trainer Sascha Smrczek teaming up with Andrasch Starke smells business. Ex-Irish John David Hillis is one of the mentioned local Munich trainers; very shrewd he can never be ignored in these types of races.

ROYAL ICE is open to a lot of improvement and has a top-jockey booking, while DJARIYA is at the bottom of the weights (in fact she is one pound wrong in) but is owned by Hillis' daughter. Talk about family pressure.

One last mention must go to LUCIA ARATORI. Trainer Jean-Pierre Carvalho, a Frenchman based in Germany, operates on a smaller scale nowadays. His charge is largely out of form this season (so subsequently on a handy mark), but one bit of form – when second in a Handicap to DAYDREAM EXPRESS (who is Group-class now) – may well be the best bit of form of any runner in the race. If LUCIA ARATORI can get her act together, she simply cannot be ignored.

Slightly 'wrong' at the weights but still looks to have a decent chance.

Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

Germany welcomes the World Pool for the second time in 2025, two races will be broadcast from Munich racecourse, alongside racing from South Africa. The feature, the Group 1 Grosser Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen, is run over 2000m and has attracted a top-class international field. Major international racing stables such as Wathnan Racing and Godolphin are represented, the race and intriguing mix of fillies and colts, 3YO and elder horses – you name it, it’s there. Five domestic runners look set to take on six rivals from abroad, four French and two English. Two female trainers, both masters of their craft, send out a runner, and Nina Baltromei, fresh from her sensational win in the Deutsches Derby, is given another chance for Group 1 glory. Note that with sex and weight-for-age allowance four kg divide the whole field, while there is an 8kg gap between the highest and the lowest rated horse in the race. ATOSO is the lowest rated runner so not favoured by the weights. He represents the small yard of Sarka Schutz, and has been boxing above his weight season after season. The 6YO gelding loves his racing and is effective at any trip between 2000 and 2400m. He will love the ground, but is most likely to find a few of these too good.

CALIF and MAP OF STARS are two of the French raiders. Both represent major French trainers and come here with a favourites chance. The former won this race in 2024 and has been in flying form since. Adrie de Vries knows this horse like the back of his hand; the ground was soft last year too. James Doyle is equally familiar with MAP OF STARS. This relatively lightly raced 4YO has already won twice in 2025 and wasn’t disgraced in two international Group 1 outings. He too has a favourites chance of course. Two 3YOs take on their elders, and both should be bang there on rating.

TORNADO ALERT hasn’t won this year, but lightly raced and on the up; his trainer won this race in 2018. German runner LAZIO ran a fine race to finish a slightly surprising 3rd in the Deutsches Derby just three weeks ago; he is flying the flag for the local Classic crop and is a fascinating contender. Three 4YO fillies try their luck, two travel over from France.

Ex-top jockey Gerald Mosse is in his first year as a trainer and tries his luck at top level. His filly GRAND STARS represents a major British owner-breeder, is progressive and has a squeak on ratings. Richard Hannon, one of the top addresses in his native Britain, sends PERSICA. Tough and durable, his ventures into the highest class have met with hefty defeats twice. He has run well fresh though and comes from a nice break, jockey Sean Levey is both international top class and knows his partner very well. And let’s not forget the elder statesman of the party, QUEST THE MOON.

Trained by Sarah Steinberg, who won the Deutsches Derby in 2023 and is one of the top names in German Racing, this 9YO doesn’t know how to run a bad race. Trained at the track for a local owner, a win would clearly bring the proverbial house down. On ratings, he has a couple of pounds to find though.

Pace: GOOD

ATOSO likes to lead in his races and he should go forward and take up the running. PETIT MARIN went forward when winning in May and he can get into the trail. TORNADO ALERT will not be far away. CALIF has a good draw and he should settle on the rail. EGINA from her outside gate may be trapped wide.

English raider who is fully effective at this trip. In fine fettle this year, and at his best when scoring at Epsom in June. But hasn't won above G3 level and likely to find a few stronger rivals.

Trained at the track and huge fan favourite at the tender age of nine. And no back number, charging late to land a G3 at Hamburg latest. Has been supplemented so clearly ready to run for his life, even if this looks a tough assignment.

Represents the mighty Godolphin empire, and a veteran trainer who is no stranger to German G1 glory. Fine effort in defeat in a G3 at Royal Ascot last month. Has a major chance on ratings and a top international jockey in the saddle.

[] International Rating

Track Analysis by Catrin Nack

Located on the eastern outskirts of Bavaria's capital Munich, Munich racecourse is an oval, lefthanded, flat and very fair with rather sweeping bends. The main track, let's call it the round course, is roughly 1850m in circumference. It joins the 1000m straight course, sparsely used throughout the year, in the final bend for a roughly 600m run-in, making it a long home straight by German standards.

With its close proximity to the Alps, an extended mountain region covering Austria, Germany, Italy and Switzerland among other countries, the area does have its very own micro-climate which can vary greatly from the rest of the country. This none withstanding the track is usually in very good condition and can take a lot of rain.

Grosser Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen Day sees two races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Grosser Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen (2000m)

The race is run over 2000m and open for 3yo and older horses of all sex. The start is shortly before the finishing line and in front of the stands; the horses then race one full circle of the track. While Munich racecourse is not known to have a draw bias, the relative short run to the first bend can make an outside draw a slight disadvantage.

While Bavarias climate can deviate a lot from the rest of the country, extreme ground conditions are rare. The proximity of the Alps can mean ample amounts of rain at all seasons; at time of writing, still some way off race time on Sunday, the ground is a mix of good- soft and proper soft going.

A mix of European equine talent on show in Sunday's Group 1 Munich feature

Friday, 25/7/2025

A high-class field of eleven has been declared to run in the G1 Grosser Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen (2000m) at Munich on Sunday (27 July).

It is an intriguing mix of three-year-olds and older horses, male and female and domestic and international contenders.

Map Of Stars (James Doyle) is the highest-rated, and the Wathnan Racing-owned four-year-old colt is from the Chantilly stable of Francis-Henri Graffard, whose team is in terrific form.

Although slightly below his best when fourth in Royal Ascot's G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes (1993m), the son of Sea The Stars did not look to thrive on the fast ground that day. However, a Group 1 breakthrough seems to be just a matter of time for this winner of five from eight career starts.

Lazio (Martin Seidl) flies the flag for the German Classic crop. An unbeaten two-year-old, he ran an excellent third in this month's G1 Deutsches Derby (2400m) at Hamburg, with hopes that the drop back in trip could be a plus for the Waldemar Hickst-trained colt.

There will be plenty of interest also in the other three-year-old, Godolphin's Saeed Bin Suroor-trained Tornado Alert, who is the mount of in-form jockey Oisin Murphy. He was second to Trinity College in Royal Ascot's G3 Hampton Court Stakes (1993m), and the value of that performance was enhanced when Trinity College got to within a short-head of landing this month's G1 Grand Prix de Paris at ParisLongchamp (2400m).

As a 48-1 outsider, Calif (Adrie de Vries) ran an excellent third to Tastiera in April's G1 FWD QEII Cup (2000m) at Sha Tin. He looks the best of the three six-year-olds in the Munich feature as he bids to become the first horse since the late 1990 to win this prize in two consecutive years.

The most popular winner would surely be the nine-year-old Quest The Moon. He brought the house down, showing that age is just a number, as he surged from the back to win the G3 Grosser Preis von Lotto Hamburg (2000m) earlier this month. The horse and owner are both Munich-based, and trainer Sarah Steinberg says: "He is our heart horse and never disappoints. He is at his best at this time of year and is likely to get his ground on Sunday (with a lot of rain forecast). He came out of Hamburg really well, so why not go on one more adventure together?"
