Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Chesterfield Cup, run over 1984m, features several horses with good course form.

ANCIENT ROME won this race two years ago before taking his chance in Group races the following season. His best run came when beaten just half a length in the 2024 G2 Summer Mile over 1600m at Ascot. Since returning from a stint in Dubai earlier in the year, he has been running in good handicaps. The race didn't pan out for him in the John Smith's Cup over 2051m at York last time and this contest should suit him better.

CASTLE COVE is completely unexposed after just four races. He beat the useful KITTY FURNIVAL on his debut last year at Leicester over 2000m and was far from disgraced in two subsequent novice starts under a penalty. There was a huge amount to like about the way he made a successful handicap debut over 2064m at Chester. Having raced in the rear in the early stages, he was forced to come wide to mount his challenge around the tight track, but he still had more than enough in hand to run out a good winner.

DEFIANCE spent last season in Listed and Group races. He didn't look out of place at Listed level when runner-up in the Blue Riband Trial over 2015m at Epsom in the spring, but he struggled in stronger races later in the season. His first start of this season came fourth in a 2015m handicap at Epsom on Oaks Day in June. That race didn't set up for his hold-up style and he should be sharper today.

SIR BUSKER has been a cracking performer down the years. He's still capable of smart form, as he showed when winning a hot York handicap over 2100m at the Ebor Festival last August. He necks second to FLYING FRONTIER over 1990m at Sandown three weeks ago, when ANCIENT ROME was third, was another excellent effort. He's got plenty of form around Goodwood.

MASOUN is on a roll. He won well from the front over 1800m at Leopardstown in June and he followed up when ridden more patiently over 2000m at the Curragh two weeks ago. The hat-trick is a distinct possibility.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Vintage Stakes is a race for 2YOs run over a distance of 1409m.

HUMIDITY sets the standard with an unblemished two-from-two record for Andrew Balding. Winning by a short head on debut in a maiden at Newbury over 1200m, Balding's colt then stepped up in trip to 1409m and landed the Listed Chesham Stakes at Royal Ascot. James Doyle has been handed the reins again and will be looking to continue the winning streak aboard this son of Ulysses.

It's never easy to disregard an Aidan O'Brien runner, and DORSET is no exception. Beaten narrowly on debut at the Curragh over 1400m, this WOOTTON BASSETT colt improved plenty when justifying favouritism and obliging next time out over the same course and distance. It's clear he's got a sharp turn of foot and with Ryan Moore set to ride again, the pair should go close to recording another victory.

LAUREATE CROWN produced a taking victory on debut at Ascot earlier this month over 1400m and has to be considered here. Hugo Palmer's colt weaved through from towards the back of the field inside the 400m finding another gear to pass his rivals and win by half a length under jockey Jamie Spencer, who takes the ride again here. Clearly comfortable over this trip, he'll be happy to sit behind the pace and use his turn of foot towards the finish.

Eve Johnson Houghton's ZAVATERI is an interesting contender and the only one in the field to have picked up a Group race win. That came in the G2 July Stakes over 1200m at Newmarket where he won well, a length ahead of DO OR DO NOT in second. That win came a month after his win on debut at Salisbury over the same trip, and stepping up in trip here shouldn't be a problem as he looked to have something left in the tank last time out.

DO OR DO NOT did hit the line strongly that day, however, and looks set to be suited by this step up to 1409m. Ed Walker's charge has been tested in two G2 contests in his last two starts, both over 1200m, the first of which being an eye-catching second in the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m. Should he improve on those last two runs, he could finally get his head in front.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The HKJC World Pool Lennox Stakes is a G2 contest over 1409m for 3YOs and up, and this year's renewal brings a familiar cast of high-class milers.

KINROSS returns in search of a third Lennox crown, having lifted this prize in 2021 and 2023, and finishing in the frame in both the 2022 and 2024 editions. Now an 8YO, he showed the fire still burns bright with a strong seasonal reappearance in the G3 John of Gaunt Stakes over 1434m at Haydock, only denied by a head but pulling clear of AUDIENCE. This race has long been a target for the Ralph Beckett-trained contender, and with conditions to suit, he looks primed for another big run.

AUDIENCE reopposes for the Gosden yard, having taken this race last year, but hasn't managed a win in four subsequent starts. He was well held behind KINROSS at Haydock last time, beaten five lengths, and needs to bounce back to form if he's to defend his crown, but that's a possibility in first-time cheekpieces.

JONQUIL takes a drop in class and slight rise in trip after contesting the G1 Commonwealth Cup over 1200m at Royal Ascot, where he never threatened. Prior to that, he ran a big race in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over 1600m, when only just denied in second. He shaped like a horse in need of 1400m that day at Longchamp, and should find this trip at Goodwood much more to his liking.

Royal Ascot winner NOBLE CHAMPION lines up fresh from victory in the G3 Jersey Stakes over 1400m. Ed Walker's 3YO looks progressive and well-suited by this trip. With proven ability to handle a big field, he's an intriguing younger rival stepping into open-age company.

LAKE FOREST also features here for William Haggas. The 4YO hasn't won a race in Britain since the G2 Gimcrack Stakes over 1200m at York in 2023. However, he did capture the Golden Eagle over 1500m in Australia at the end of 2024, finishing ahead of LAZZAT, who has since proven himself to be a top-class sprinter. His form has dipped since then, most recently running below par in the G3 Criterion Stakes over 1400m at York. That effort may have come too soon after his run in the G1 Queen Anne Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot, just 11 days earlier.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ILLINOIS looks to hold all the cards to take the G1 Goodwood Cup over 3209m back to Ballydoyle.

The G3 Ormonde Stakes over 2700m winner was subbed in for KYPRIOS in the G1 Gold Cup over 3991m at Royal Ascot and fell short to TRAWLERMAN. After the race, Aidan O'Brien stated that he hadn't been trained for this race, and with that in mind, he ran with credit behind a very strong rival in TRAWLERMAN. With that run behind him and his preparation geared toward this contest, he will be spot on for this assignment. The drop back to the 3209m trip will suit, there isn't a TRAWLERMAN in here for Illinois to beat, so he looks to have a strong chance.

SCANDINAVIA is the only 3YO runner in the field. After taking four runs to break his maiden, he looked to have his limitations exposed when finishing just fifth in the G2 Queen's Vase over 2831m at the Royal meeting. He was an absolute revelation last time out however, when blowing apart the G3 Bahrain Trophy Stakes over 2600m at the Newmarket July Festival, winning by eight-and-a-half lengths that day. Upped to the 3209m for the first time, and receiving a very handy weight allowance from his rivals, he's an intriguing runner and should go close.

FRENCH MASTER is an interesting runner stepping out of handicap company. A decisive winner of the Copper Horse Stakes over 2831m at Royal Ascot, he was value for more than the two-and-a-half lengths he won by that day and looked every bit a Group horse in a handicap. He missed the start and was keen in the run, but his finishing effort was most impressive when pulled out to the centre of the track. On ratings he looks to have it all to do, but he is an unexposed type who is on the up and we may see further improvement as he steps up to the 3209m trip for the first time.

SWEET WILLIAM has been a model of consistency at this level for several years. The 6YO has mixed it with the best of the stayers at this trip and further and always runs his race. His four-length second to KYPRIOS in this race last year would have him right at the top of proceedings if repeating that effort, and he must be taken into consideration here.

SUNWAY has never raced over this trip, but some of his form suggests staying trips will be up his street, such as his third in the 2905m G1 St Leger Stakes at Doncaster last year, and he can run well.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

SCANDINAVIA has early speed and he should go forward and take the early lead. ILLINOIS from his draw should get into the trail. SWEET WILLIAM and SUNWAY both like to be positive and they will not be far away. DUBAI FUTURE should go back in this small field.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

There will be many horses in with a chance in this competitive 1000m handicap for 3YO's and above.

REDORANGE should be respected as a progressive 3YO sprinter. Clive Cox's contender was a winning juvenile over 1203m at Yarmouth but has run only over 1000m this term. A fine comeback third at Sandown in April was followed by a commanding victory at Chester two weeks later, where his fast start from the stalls made the difference. He was inconvenienced by racing away from the draw bias next time in the Palace Of Holyroodhouse Stakes over 1000m at Royal Ascot, losing out by only a length to the reopposing ADRESTIA. He was unluckily narrowly beaten again at Ascot earlier this month, and a reproduction of that form plus a more favourable draw bias should see him hard to beat.

JAKAJARO has been running in Group races for most of his career and catches the eye here. Last season, he was a regular in smart Irish sprints, such as when two-and-a-half lengths behind star mare BELIEVING at the Curragh over 1000m in July 2024. He has since moved to Robert Cowell, a trainer known to do well with sprinters, and JAKAJARO is coming here a little under the radar. Two fair 1000m runs at Meydan have been followed by a trio of encouraging efforts over the same distance at Windsor, Newcastle and Ascot. With a better trip, he can get closer.

ADRESTIA is a speedy filly with smart handicap form to her name. Simon and Ed Crisford's 3YO started her season with a fine third at Windsor over 1019m before takingly winning the aforementioned Palace Of Holyroodhouse Stakes at Royal Ascot. Since then, she ran admirably to be fourth in G3 company at Sandown over 1009m, and she has all the tools to be there at the finish in this contest.

SHAGRAAN is only a 4YO but has become a mainstay in sprint handicaps for Michael Appleby. He hasn't been out of the first four home in all four 1000m starts this season, including a course and distance third back in May. He won a course and distance handicap last season at this meeting and has every chance of going close again.

ENCHANTING has plenty of form at Goodwood, including when close behind SHAGRAAN last year, and her course and distance win from May suggests she can hit the frame.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Eight of the last 10 winners of this valuable 1200m maiden had had a previous run, so it may be best to first look at those with prior experience.

Karl Burke's NAVAL LIGHT was slowly away on his debut at Beverley over 1000m but made eye-catching progress in the last 100m to suggest he was a colt with plenty of ability. That was confirmed on his next run at Royal Ascot in the G2 Norfolk Stakes over 1000m, where he ran a fine race to finish eighth, beaten just over five lengths. The form of that contest is working out well. NAVAL LIGHT was seen doing his best work at the finish there, so this step up to 1200m should bring out more improvement. He brings the highest level of form into this and could be hard to beat back in maiden company.

Another Wathnan Racing runner with strong claims is HIGH APPROVAL, who has run two good races to date. He bumped into two smart rivals when finishing third on debut at Nottingham over 1216m. Next time out at Yarmouth over 1203m, he hit the front entering the final 200m but was passed by another potentially useful newcomer in the closing stages. This sharper 1200m might suit him better and he can run another big race. Christophe Soumillon is a notable jockey booking, despite retained rider James Doyle seemingly preferring NAVAL LIGHT.

ANASHHAD ran a good race to finish third on his debut at York over 1200m in May, finishing behind two horses that have placed in Group races since. He was stepped up to 1400m at Ascot last time, and looked to be coming to challenge entering the final 200m, only to fade into fifth at the finish. A return to this trip may be more suitable and he is likely to be capable of better.

STELLAR SUNRISE has placed second and third in his two starts to date. The first of those came over this course and distance, so he holds the advantage of course experience over his rivals. The form of his subsequent third at York over 1200m has been franked by the winner, and that makes him another for the shortlist.

Richard Hannon is capable of readying a newcomer to win a maiden. VINTAGE HEAT may be the pick of his two debutants, and it wouldn't be a surprise to see a big run from this son of TOO DARN HOT.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

PROTEST can take full advantage of a drop in class and secure a first win this year in the 1609m handicap for fillies and mares at Goodwood. Since making a winning debut at Chelmsford in a 1600m maiden in October, the Roger Varian-trained filly has raced exclusively at Listed class in three subsequent outings. The form of her fourth in a 2000m Listed event at Newbury last time out reads well with the winner QILIN QUEEN winning the G2 Prix du Malleret over 2400m at Longchamp last time out. The time before that she ran well over course and distance behind CRIMSON ADVOCATE, who went on to win the G2 Duke Of Cambridge Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. A repeat of either of those efforts back in calmer waters should see her go close.

DASH OF AZURE ran a solid race in defeat when finishing fifth on her first start over 1600m in the Sandringham Stakes at the Royal meeting. On that occasion she was denied a clear run mid race before finishing to good effect which suggests her run can be upgraded slightly. She remains completely unexposed at this trip and provided she handles the track she is likely to be on the premises.

MAHRA'S LOVE appears to be going in the right direction after winning her last two starts in a 1400m handicap at Kempton and a 1575m handicap at York last time out. Before both of those victories the William Haggas-trained filly finished a solid third at Goodwood in a 1400m handicap where she looked like the extra distance would suit her. Although receiving a slight rise in the weights for her last win, she still looks capable of more improvement.

RUMBA NUMBA hands Newmarket handler Roger Varian a strong hand in the race and she still looks to have plenty to offer after just three career starts. Although beaten into second last time out she had previously run out a good winner over 1729m in a fillies maiden at Wolverhampton which offers plenty of hope here.

A slow start in the Sandringham Stakes over 1600m at the Royal meeting arguably cost ZGHARTA any chances of victory last time. She was drawn on the wrong side that day and did well to finish as close as she did in seventh. Granted a better getaway here she could be more at home over an easier 1609m.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Tuesday's finale is a competitive 1200m handicap for fillies and mares aged three and over.

DUBAI TREASURE's two wins have been on the all-weather track, but this lightly-raced filly has plenty of speed and looked the winner 200m out at York over 1400m last time. Eventually fading into fourth place, DUBAI TREASURE might be better suited by sprinting. She chased home the classy SACRED ANGEL on her 2YO debut at Newmarket over 1200m, and none of her younger rivals can match that sort of form.

Andrew Balding's horses are in great form, and MUSICAL ANGEL, a big filly but certainly not devoid of pace, looks made for this fast track. MUSICAL ANGEL showed plenty of promise in her two runs over 1200m on turf as a juvenile, and, having not taken to the all-weather, she broke her maiden back on grass at Brighton over 1195m in June. Forget her subsequent disappointment at Chester over 1215m as she was drawn wide and trailed throughout. Hollie Doyle is a great jockey booking with the filly's low weight.

SHALLOW has had a busy season, but she is very tough and in eight races she has won three over this 1200m trip and only finished out of the frame once. Although a four-time winner on an artificial surface, SHALLOW produced a career-best performance last time out when switching to turf and winning at Newmarket over 1200m. If she reproduces that form, she'll be right there at the finish.

LADY OF ANDROS, who was with Andre Fabre last year, is also a model of consistency, having rattled the crossbar in all her four races this season for her new connections. She was a close third to SHALLOW at Newmarket over 1200m, having been pipped in photo-finishes at Chester and York. Significantly, LADY OF ANDROS has also looked more at ease on the fast ground in the UK than she did the testing conditions she encountered in France.

Less experienced but equally talented is EASY PEELER, who got first run on LADY OF ANDROS when beating her a neck in a stronger fillies-only handicap over 1200m at York in June. EASY PEELER has run just the seven times and has only finished out of the frame once. That was at Chester over 1215m last time, when she never looked happy on the turning track, so there could be more to come from her.

SELECTIONS: 1. DUBAI TREASURE, 14. MUSICAL ANGEL, 12. EASY PEELER, 6. SHALLOW, 4. LADY OF ANDROS

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Goodwood is one of the most spectacular and unique racecourses in the world. The track is right-handed with two home bends, and all races over 1400m, 1600m and 2200m enter the straight via the lower bend, whilst all other races enter via the top bend. The run in from the top bend is approximately 900m and 750m respectively, but given the nature of the turns and the downhill gradient, it is considered a sharp track, favouring those on the speed, particularly in shorter races. Horses that are held up off the pace can run into trouble, particularly those on the rail. The track has a straight course with starting points over 1000m and 1200m.

This year's Goodwood Cup Day sees eight races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Goodwood Cup (3209m)

In the Goodwood Cup, which is full of 'swoops and loops' – and one of the few routes where horses will race on the same stretch, sequentially to and from, in both directions - runners start on the lower bend and then begin to swoop left before straightening out where they tend to go from the inside to the outside rail before hitting a looping right turn that climbs uphill, reaching the highest part of the track, they then head downhill before climbing again as they hit the top bend prior entering the 900m straight. Horses can come from off the pace if the race has been run truly, but traffic issues are common, especially on the inside.

Other Races

4yo+ Handicap (1984m)

From the 1984m they have a long straight run before turning right and like most race starts on the round course; the draw is of little consequence.

G2 Vintage Stakes & G2 HKJC World Pool Lennox Stakes (1409m)

It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1409 have an advantage in larger fields.

4yo+ 0-105 Handicap (1000m)

On the straight course the low barriers are drawn on the far side with high numbers closest the grandstand rail. Over the 1000m horses with speed tend to dominate due to the fast downhill nature of the course, and horses that break slowly can find their race all over at the start. Speed horses are better suited to a low draw.

2yo Maiden & World Pool Bet with the Tote Fillies Handicap (1200m)

On the straight course the low barriers are drawn on the far side with high numbers closest the grandstand rail. A few years ago, there was a definite draw bias for horses drawn high in big fields over 1200m, but the draw seems to have evened out after work was carried out in 2008 to move the far side rail.

3yo+ Fillies & Mares 0-95 Handicap (1609m)

It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1609m have an advantage in larger fields.

Over the last ten years the Goodwood Cup has been run nine times on ground with Good in the description. With only a slight chance of light rain being forecast on the Sunday before race day, it is likely that good will be in the going description this year.

Illinois bids to become Europe's star stayer

Monday, 28/7/2025

Not many horses shine over a distance as far as the Goodwood Cup's 3209 metres, but trainer Aidan O'Brien, a four-time winner of the Group 1 contest, knows what is required. Illinois is the short-priced favourite to give Europe's most successful trainer his fifth success in Tuesday's (29 July) feature race.

O'Brien said, "The thing about Illinois is that he stays very well, but he's got a bit of class to go with it. We're happy with him; he's been doing everything right at home. He has a good mind, he's relaxed, he's big and he's hardy. Physically, he's done well."

Illinois' regular partner, Ryan Moore, added, "He's never run a bad race. He's a talented horse and there'll be more to come."

Illinois found the extreme distance of the G1 Gold Cup (3991m), in which he finished second, too far and will appreciate the shorter test.

His most dangerous opponent may be French Master. The four-year-old lacks Illinois' experience and record, but is progressive and took another step forward last month when winning a competitive handicap over 2831m at Royal Ascot.

Richard Brown, owner Wathnan Racing's manager, said, "I saw French Master at John and Thady Gosden's yard recently and he seems to have come out of his Ascot race in great condition. You had to be impressed with that performance. He's stepping up from a handicap to a Group 1 race but we're going to pitch him in the Goodwood Cup and see where we are."

French Master is the Gosdens' main hope, but stablemate Sweet William commands respect, having finished second in the race last year and has been extremely reliable. In 17 races, the six-year-old has only once finished out of the first three, when fourth in last month's Gold Cup.

John Gosden said, "It was a tough race and in the end it was a little too far for him, but he ran a brave race. He's in very good form. Robert Havlin rides him every day and he's very pleased with him."

O'Brien also has another runner in the shape of Scandinavia, an improving three-year-old.

Ryan Moore said, "I hadn't ridden him until he won at Newmarket (a Group 3 race on 10 July). He got into a lovely rhythm then and stayed on really well. He was impressive."

The G2 HKJC World Pool Lennox Stakes (1409m) leads the supporting card, with Kinross returning for the fifth time. The eight-year-old boasts a remarkable record in the race, having won it twice and finished second and third.

Age is not on his side, and Jonquil – five years his junior – presents a challenging obstacle. If trainer Andrew Balding's representative reproduces the form he showed when narrowly beaten by Henri Matisse in a Group 1 race over 1600 metres at ParisLongchamp in May, he will be difficult to beat.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.
