Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

ILLINOIS looks to hold all the cards to take the G1 Goodwood Cup over 3209m back to Ballydoyle.

The G3 Ormonde Stakes over 2700m winner was subbed in for KYPRIOS in the G1 Gold Cup over 3991m at Royal Ascot and fell short to TRAWLERMAN. After the race, Aidan O'Brien stated that he hadn't been trained for this race, and with that in mind, he ran with credit behind a very strong rival in TRAWLERMAN. With that run behind him and his preparation geared toward this contest, he will be spot on for this assignment. The drop back to the 3209m trip will suit, there isn't a TRAWLERMAN in here for Illinois to beat, so he looks to have a strong chance.

SCANDINAVIA is the only 3YO runner in the field. After taking four runs to break his maiden, he looked to have his limitations exposed when finishing just fifth in the G2 Queen's Vase over 2831m at the Royal meeting. He was an absolute revelation last time out however, when blowing apart the G3 Bahrain Trophy Stakes over 2600m at the Newmarket July Festival, winning by eight-and-a-half lengths that day. Upped to the 3209m for the first time, and receiving a very handy weight allowance from his rivals, he's an intriguing runner and should go close.

FRENCH MASTER is an interesting runner stepping out of handicap company. A decisive winner of the Copper Horse Stakes over 2831m at Royal Ascot, he was value for more than the two-and-a-half lengths he won by that day and looked every bit a Group horse in a handicap. He missed the start and was keen in the run, but his finishing effort was most impressive when pulled out to the centre of the track. On ratings he looks to have it all to do, but he is an unexposed type who is on the up and we may see further improvement as he steps up to the 3209m trip for the first time.

SWEET WILLIAM has been a model of consistency at this level for several years. The 6YO has mixed it with the best of the stayers at this trip and further and always runs his race. His four-length second to KYPRIOS in this race last year would have him right at the top of proceedings if repeating that effort, and he must be taken into consideration here.

SUNWAY has never raced over this trip, but some of his form suggests staying trips will be up his street, such as his third in the 2905m G1 St Leger Stakes at Doncaster last year, and he can run well.

Pace: GOOD

SCANDINAVIA has early speed and he should go forward and take the early lead. ILLINOIS from his draw should get into the trail. SWEET WILLIAM and SUNWAY both like to be positive and they will not be far away. DUBAI FUTURE should go back in this small field.
