Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

A field of nine line up for this three-year-old handicap over 2403m.

Despite a great week, SING US A SONG was one of the disappointments Wathnan Racing experienced at Royal Ascot. Starting second favourite for the competitive King George V Stakes over 2392m, the Qatari owners unfortunately knew their fate early on as the Camelot colt got upset at the start and lost any chance when giving the entire field 10 lengths leaving the stalls. He finished to good effect and did well to finish as close as he did. Having previously broken his maiden at Goodwood over 1979m, before following up in a strong 1990m handicap at Sandown, his pedigree does suggest that he was always going to be more effective over this 2403m trip, and it wouldn't be a surprise to see him bounce back here.

Joseph O'Brien's OMNI MAN is an interesting runner here, considering the options he has throughout the week at Goodwood and Galway. He won his maiden easily over 2057m at Roscommon and improved when upped in trip for what looked a very hot King George V Stakes over 2392m at Royal Ascot. He finished a creditable fifth behind MERCHANT in that race, and a reproduction of that effort will put him right in the mix.

SUDU was gelded in the winter and quickly left his modest all-weather form behind when returning at Newbury over 2400m in June, though he suffered a nightmare run through, finishing an unlucky fourth. He duly gained his just reward at Epsom over 2405m three weeks later when scoring a runaway success. That earned him a big hike up the handicap, but he could still be capable of defying the weight-rise.

CAPE BRETON, an expensive yearling purchase, has also improved for being gelded. He ran his best race yet when justifying favouritism at Salisbury, where the step up to 2405m clearly suited him. The further they went the bigger the winning distance became, and he'll be a hard horse to pass.

Alan King rates KURAKKA highly, and he has the perfect blend of speed and stamina. He improved for stretching out to 2359m at Haydock, where he powered away in the last 200m for a convincing first handicap success. Though subsequently only third over 2000m at Newmarket's July meeting, a combination of the drop in trip and faster ground found KURAKKA out. He will be more at home back over this trip.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This G3 race is open to fillies and mares aged three years or older, and is run over a distance of 1409m.

Ralph Beckett's filly, TABITI, outran her odds when third in this year's Sandringham Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. Prior to that, she ran below par in the G1 Fillies' Mile over 1600m at Newmarket, which may have simply been a step too high in class. She now returns to G3 company, the level of her last win in the G3 Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes over 1200m at Salisbury, and is back racing against her own sex, which are both positives. Ryan Moore takes the ride for the first time, which is an eye-catching booking.

Roger Varian returns with JABAARA for another bite of the cherry. She crossed the line first in this contest last year but lost the race in the stewards' room after drifting in the final 200m, so will be out for redemption this year. She has been busy in 2025 with five runs already, winning just once in June when landing a Listed race at Musselburgh over 1414m.

Godolphin and Charlie Appleby are represented here by ROMANTIC STYLE. The 4YO disappointed in the G3 Abernant Stakes over 1200m in April, but she did not seem to handle the Rowley Mile all that well. You would like to think she will come on for the run. She looked much sharper in both her starts at Meydan earlier this year, including a Listed win over 1200m.

FAIR ANGELLICA lines up for the Richard Hughes team. She comes in off the back of a solid run in the G3 Hackwood Stakes over 1200m at Newbury, where she found traffic but still managed to finish fourth. She stayed on strongly inside the final 200m, so this slight step up in trip should suit. She's definitely one to keep an eye on.

There is also a French raider in the mix in the form of JASNA'S SECRET. The Wathnan Racing-owned filly has been consistent enough in France. In May finishing just a neck behind LAKE FOREST, who runs in the G2 HKJC World Pool Lennox Stakes on Tuesday, so she could be up to this level.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G3 HKJC World Pool Molecomb Stakes looks a fascinating renewal of this juvenile sprint over 1000m.

LADY IMAN is a very fast filly and must be respected as a three-time winner. She debuted with a sparkling win at Dundalk over 1000m and was immediately thrown into Listed company, where she defeated future Royal Ascot star TRUE LOVE over the same trip at the Curragh. A 1186m G3 victory followed at Naas and despite defeat when last seen over 1200m back at the Curragh, she is the one to beat with top jockey Ryan Moore on board.

AMEEQ could arguably bring the best form into this contest. Kevin Ryan's colt came to the G2 Norfolk Stakes as a maiden winner at Nottingham over 1000m, and did very well to only be beaten three-and-a-half lengths behind CHARLES DARWIN. He was racing on the wrong side of the track that day too, and so that effort can be upgraded, and he can trouble the principles again.

DICKENSIAN was only one-and-a-half lengths behind another smart juvenile at Royal Ascot and on that form-line ought to be respected here. Kevin Ryan's juvenile was a winner on debut at Musselburgh over 1001m, and after a commendable sixth at Ascot over 1000m later that month, he earned a run in the Listed Windsor Castle Stakes over 1000m, where he was second. That effort suggests he can be competitive here.

MILITARY CODE is a two-time winner and has recovered from his disappointing effort in the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m at Royal Ascot. Godolphin's runner has won over 1000m at both Newmarket and Ascot, with the second behind him at Ascot coming out and winning a G3 at the track last weekend. His run in the G2 Coventry Stakes was poor, but it was encouraging to see him bounce back to form to be only beaten a head in Listed company at Sandown over 1009m last time out. A similar effort would certainly make him competitive here.

SANDS OF SPAIN is another nice juvenile. Andrew Balding's charge finished eighth on debut over this course and distance in May, and then went on to win over 1000m at Newcastle and Carlisle. His latest effort, a fine third in a valuable Newbury event over 1031m, suggests he can hit the frame again.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G1 Sussex Stakes is the headline contest on Wednesday, open to 3YOs and above and run over 1609m.

John and Thady Gosden's FIELD OF GOLD holds the key to this contest and looks the horse to beat. After kicking off the season with a win in the G3 Craven Stakes over 1600m, he finished a half-length second in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas over 1600m. Later that month he produced a dominant win in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas over 1600m followed by another commanding performance in the G1 St James's Palace Stakes over 1594m, defeating HENRI MATISSE. Top jockey William Buick has notably been booked to ride him for the first time and will be looking to secure a hat-trick of G1 victories for this talented colt.

There are a couple of other G1 winners in the field that could pose a threat, chief among them being Richard Hannon's ROSALLION. Although he hasn't yet replicated the electric form that saw him land last season's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace Stakes, there's been enough to suggest his ability remains. While his third on seasonal reappearance in the G1 Lockinge Stakes over 1600m was slightly disappointing, he stepped up on that and was unlucky when narrowly denied in the G1 Queen Anne Stakes over 1600m, beaten a nose by DOCKLANDS. If he steps forward from those runs, he could give FIELD OF GOLD a run for his money, and a return to his best form is certainly within reach.

HENRI MATISSE also can't be ruled out. Though beaten three-and-a-half lengths by FIELD OF GOLD in the G1 St James's Palace Stakes last month, Aidan O'Brien's WOOTTON BASSETT colt was on a roll having won the G3 Ballylinch Stud 'Red Rocks' Stakes over 1427m and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over 1600m on his two preceding runs. With Ryan Moore aboard, don't be surprised if you see him involved in the finish.

The 5YO CARL SPACKLER reopposes both DOCKLANDS and ROSALLION after his sixth-place finish in the G1 Queen Anne Stakes. There are question marks as to whether he can replicate his US G1-winning form against this calibre of runners on British soil, but that recent run should have brought him on.

DOCKLANDS was an unexpected winner of the G1 Queen Anne Stakes for trainer Harry Eustace, showing tenacity to edge out ROSALLION at the line. A repeat of that effort could see him spring another upset.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

SERENGETI didn't lead at his last start but he should lead in this race. CARL SPACKLER likes to go forward and he can come across from his outside draw. ROSALLION and DOCKLANDS should settle midfield. HENRI MATISSE and FIELD OF GOLD should be at rear.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Course form is always important around the twists and turns of Goodwood.

MUSIC PIECE lines up in this 1984m 3yo+ Fillies & Mares 0-105 Handicap, having put in an excellent performance when runner-up in the Listed Height Of Fashion Stakes over this course and distance in May. The form of that Listed contest looks very solid, as she finished just in front of subsequent Sandringham Stakes winner NEVER LET GO. MUSIC PIECE was the only one to let that form down as she was disappointing at Ascot last month but the 2392m distance was clear to blame. She will appreciate returning this shorter trip.

MODEL YUKO makes her handicap debut following an impressive novice victory over 1729m on Wolverhampton's all-weather track. She had previously run well when third at Leicester over 1648m when she gave clear indication she would improve when stepping up in distance. Today's trip should help her improve on last month's victory and that could easily make her well weighted as she steps into handicaps for the first time.

QUEBELLA wasn't suited by the steady pace when fifth in a Listed race over this track and trip in June. It was a similar story on her handicap debut over 2221m on Southwell's all-weather course and she also ran into plenty of traffic problems. The prospect of a stronger gallop to aim at today makes her an interesting contender.

BINTJEDDAH has looked in need of this step up to this distance. She has been a bit hit-and-miss this season but her second over 1600m at Newmarket in June was a step in the right direction. That effort is something to build on and today's longer distance looks sure to help.

KAYHANA probably paid for chasing the strong pace when well beaten in the Kensington Palace Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. Gavin Cromwell's Irish raider is much better judged on her head second behind GOTOMYLOVELY in a fillies' handicap over 1891m at Gowran Park on her return to action two weeks earlier. She twice finished fourth in Listed races over 1600m and 1800m last season and she's only had two starts for her current trainer. There's no doubt she is worth persevering with over today's 1984m distance.

Best performance in Listed race over this course and distance in May. Lesser display since. Not ruled out.

Creditable midfield finish in Listed race over course and distance in June. Fair effort since. Respected.

Improved to win ordinary Maiden race easily over 1729m. Likely to appreciate further. Decent chance.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1000m Conditions race for 2YO fillies has been dominated by fancied runners with three favourites winning in the six renewals.

ZELAINA only needed to be pushed out for a comfortable debut win at this distance at Nottingham early last month. Upped in class in the G2 Queen Mary Stakes over 1000m at Royal Ascot later in the month, ZELAINA broke from the stalls sharply and showed plenty of early speed to lead for the first 800m before fading into eighth. Goodwood is a speed-favouring course compared to Ascot so that should play to ZELAINA's strengths.

After being narrowly beaten on her debut over 1255m at Listowel early last month, Irish raider LUNA MIA was thrown into a hot G2 contest over 1200m at the Curragh four weeks later. She was not disgraced in fourth and will appreciate this drop in class. LUNA MIA has shown speed in her races and wears blinkers for the first time. Her trainer Michael O'Callaghan has had winners at this meeting and the booking of Rossa Ryan is a positive sign.

Despite being behind ZELAINA at Royal Ascot, SPICY MARG should still be in the mix. Her two defeats since a comfortable debut win at Newmarket over 1000m in May have both come in G2 races and she will be more comfortable in this grade.

LEBRON POWER was a debut winner over 1211m at Windsor last month. She was slightly hampered when fourth after stepping up to Listed class and dropping back to 1009m at Sandown earlier this month.

REVIVAL POWER, who disputed the lead with ZELAINA in the G2 Queen Mary Stakes for the first 800m, also should be in the mix again. She made up a lot of late ground to win impressively on her debut over 1000m at Thirsk in May, and it's worth giving her another chance after failing to fire at Royal Ascot.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

NATIVE WARRIOR can gain compensation for his near miss at Goodwood 12 months ago by securing victory in the 1409m World Pool Bet With The Tote Handicap. The Karl Burke-trained 4YO finished a close second when sent off favourite for an 1810m handicap at the meeting last year. After tasting defeat on his first two starts this year, the WOOTTON BASSETT gelding opened his account last time out back at 1413m in a handicap at Newcastle in a first-time visor, which is retained here. Although he is slightly higher in the weights than last year, conditions will be ideal and from a good draw in gate six he looks to hold every chance.

BILLYJOH is facing a quick turnaround having finished eighth in a 1400m handicap at Ascot on Saturday, but he has shown before he can string three quick runs together. The Michael Appleby-trained gelding arrives slightly lower in the weights this year, and although his draw in gate 14 is not ideal, he shouldn't be as inconvenienced as others given his hold-up style of running.

LEADMAN appeared to have turned a corner when winning a 1400m handicap at Newmarket last time out. The KINGMAN gelding is seen at his best coming through rivals late on, so he will require plenty of fortune in running at a track where there can often be hard luck stories. The booking of jockey William Buick is a plus, as is the perfect position in gate three.

DEFENCE MINISTER hinted last time out that his turn could be around the corner after finishing second on his first start over 1400m in a handicap at Sandown Park. He is the choice of Wathan Racing's first choice jockey James Doyle and although he is out in gate 12, he should be capable of making an impact from that draw given how he has to be played late.

MR CHAPLIN has yet to feature in either start this season since being gelded, but he was a winner over 1400m at the meeting last year which makes him of interest back at his optimum trip.

Good record at Goodwood. Third in this race last year, Decent effort last week. In the mix.

() Domestic Rating

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Goodwood is one of the most spectacular and unique racecourses in the world. The track is right-handed with two home bends, and all races over 1400m, 1600m and 2200m enter the straight via the lower bend, whilst all other races enter via the top bend. The run in from the top bend is approximately 900m and 750m respectively, but given the nature of the turns and the downhill gradient, it is considered a sharp track, favouring those on the speed, particularly in shorter races. Horses that are held up off the pace can run into trouble, particularly those on the rail. The track has a straight course with starting points over 1000m and 1200m.

This year's Sussex Stakes Day sees seven races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Sussex Stakes (1609m)

For the feature race 1609m G1 Sussex Stakes, the field will jump from halfway up the back straight where they briefly go downhill before climbing uphill then onto the lower loop into the 750m straight. It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1600m have an advantage in larger fields.

Other Races

3yo 0-105 Handicap (2403m)

Over 2403m they start from a chute on the left-hand side of the course and have a decent straight run before turning right. Like most starts on the round course, there is no draw bias and horses are afforded every opportunity.

G3 Oak Tree Stakes & World Pool Bet With The Tote Handicap (1409m)

It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1409m have an advantage in larger fields.

G3 HKJC World Pool Molecomb Stakes & 2yo Fillies Conditions (1000m)

On the straight course the low barriers are drawn on the far side with high numbers closest the grandstand rail. Over the 1000m horses with speed tend to dominate due to the downhill nature of the course, which is considered one of the fastest in the country. Horses that break slowly can find their race all over at the start. Speed horses are better suited to a low draw.

3yo+ Fillies & Mares 0-105 Handicap (1984m)

From the 1984m they have a long straight run before turning right and like most race starting points on the round course; the draw is of little consequence.

Over the last ten years the Sussex Stakes has been run seven times on going with good in the description. With only a low chance of light rain being forecast on the Sunday prior race day, it is likely that good will be in the going description this year.

Field Of Gold stakes his claim to be the best horse in the world

Tuesday, 29/7/2025

Field Of Gold, the highest rated three-year-old in the world, bids to officially become the best horse of any age by winning the G1 Sussex Stakes (1609m) at Goodwood on Wednesday (30 July).

The grey colt has been the star of the season in Britain. A misjudgment by his rider was blamed for a narrow defeat in the G1 2000 Guineas (1600m), leading to Colin Keane taking over when Field Of Gold was the impressive winner of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas (1600m) at The Curragh and G1 St James's Palace Stakes (1594m) at Royal Ascot.

Keane is currently suspended for a whip offence, and William Buick will be aboard the short-priced favourite in the Sussex Stakes.

For the first time, Field Of Gold takes on older horses, led by the highly rated four-year-old Rosallion. Neither has run at Goodwood before – a notably undulating track – but John Gosden, joint trainer with his son Thady, is confident that Field Of Gold will not be disadvantaged by it.

He said, "The track is very different from Ascot or The Curragh but the horse is athletic, he's got great balance, and hopefully he'll handle the track well. He's in great order and we're looking forward to running him."

So are the connections of Rosallion, who won last year's Irish 2000 Guineas and St James's Palace Stakes. This year, Richard Hannon's star returned from a long break to finish third, then a close second in Group 1 contests.

Hannon said, "I'm very happy with him. He did a very good piece of work last week. I haven't seen him work like that for a long time. It's going to be an extremely good race and he's taking on extremely good three-year-olds, giving them weight, which makes it hard, but I think he is peaking now."

In a fascinating contest, Aidan O'Brien, who has won the race six times, runs Henri Matisse, who boasts a fine record, including victory in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (1600m), but was soundly beaten by Field Of Gold at Ascot.

O'Brien said, "You're never happy when you get beaten, but Henri Matisse ran a good race and we've been happy with him since. He's progressing."

The race is eagerly anticipated, but while race fans wait, two Group 3 contests will engage them, the HKJC World Pool Oak Tree Stakes over 1409m and the HKJC World Pool Molecomb Stakes over 1000m.

In the latter, attention will focus on Lady Iman, who looked a special filly but lost her unbeaten record to another filly, Beautify, in a Group 2 race over 1200m last month.

Trainer Ger Lyons said, "It was trainer error. Colin Keane's been telling me that she is a 1000m horse, but I refused to listen to him. We'll drop back in trip now."

In Keane's absence, Ryan Moore, arguably the world's best jockey, has been booked to ride Lady Iman.

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.

	All Up Betting (same betting pool in each leg)	Cross Pool All Up Betting (different betting pools in each leg allowed)
