Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

French challenger BEST SECRET is on a retrieval mission in Britain, having been a fast-finishing third in a similar handicap over 1993m at Royal Ascot. Bought by Wathnan Racing after winning on good to soft ground at Longchamp over 2000m in April, BEST SECRET did well to reach a place at Ascot as he had a wall of horses in front of him turning for home. James Doyle had to switch left and right to find daylight, but the top-weight is clearly very talented, and if he avoids another traffic jam BEST SECRET has the class to defy his welter burden.

The Johnston family have a great record at this meeting, and MARHABA GHAIYYATH has done the stable proud, finishing in the first two in all but one of his seven races. He is climbing up the handicap, but his second to KING'S CHARTER at Newmarket's July meeting over 2000m was his best run yet. Like so many from this yard, he will gallop all day, and he has to be on the shortlist.

A form line through KING'S CHARTER gives HIGH DEGREE a similar chance to MARHABA GHAIYYATH. HIGH DEGREE, whose stable won this race last year, pushed KING'S CHARTER all the way at Doncaster over 1600m. He then made hard work of winning his maiden at Ffos Las over 1600m, but his pedigree suggests he will appreciate this longer trip.

PAROLE D'ORO finished eighth in the Britannia Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot, and FIFTH COLUMN, who finished a short head ahead of him, franked that form when going on to win a big handicap at Newmarket's July meeting. There were traffic problems galore in that race, and PAROLE D'ORO did well to finish as close as he did. He subsequently improved to produce a career-best performance at Newmarket, failing by a whisker to peg back DUTCH DECOY over 1600m, who has won again since. Ryan Moore has been booked to ride PAROLE D'ORO for the first time, so Michael Bell's colt will be a big danger if he stays this extra 400m.

There was a lot to like about CALLA LAGOON's win in a maiden at Ascot over 1400m last September. He maybe found the Listed Dee Stakes over 2064m too stiff a task on his seasonal debut at Chester, but it was his first run since October, so he ought to improve.

A very progressive French-trained handicapper who – despite looking a difficult ride – finished strongly for third in a hot Royal Ascot handicap. Chance.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Richmond Stakes is a G2 contest for the two-year-olds colts & geldings only over 1200m.

COPPULL took a marked step forward from debut when finishing third in the G2 Coventry Stakes at Royal Ascot over 1200m. Following a cosy victory on debut at Leicester over 1000m, he was beaten just three and more lengths by one of the best juveniles in GSTAAD, which is no mean feat. That run puts him right towards the top of this company and his run over 1200m at the Royal meeting displayed his appetite for this trip. It's hard to see past him here.

HAVANA HURRICANE hasn't missed a beat so far this season and is worthy of consideration here. You could make the case that Eve Johnston Houghton's son of HAVANA GOLD should be an unbeaten four from four, after two unlucky defeats in the Woodcote Stakes over 1203m and the Super Sprint at Newbury over 1031m. A win at Royal Ascot in the Windsor Castle Stakes over 1000m came between the two, showing the level he can run to when travelling strongly in rear before pulling clear to beat the 23-strong field home. It's not certain that he'll stay the 1200m, but if getting the breaks his run style requires, he'll surely go close.

MAXIMIZED is clearly talented but arrives with something to prove. The Godolphin colt looked a smart prospect when landing the Woodcote Stakes on Oaks Day at Epsom, taking up the running just over 400m from home before fending off all challengers, including the reopposing HAVANA HURRICANE. He was disappointing next time out when beaten in the G2 July Stakes over 1200m but possibly sat too close to a ferocious early gallop. If back to his best, he's a strong contender.

Despite being winless after three goes, PUERTO RICO is one of the best 2YOs maidens around. You'd be hard pressed to find a horse with better form yet to get his head in front, with his second behind Royal Ascot winner TRUE LOVE in the G2 Railway Stakes over today's distance of 1200m a notable effort. That form is rock solid, and he should hit the frame.

AZIZAM stepped forward from victory on debut when third in the Windsor Castle. Evidently doing his best work late that day, he flew up the near side and clearly appreciated every bit of the 1200m. He should be finishing to good effort again here.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This G3, run over 2403m for 3YOs, has produced some high-class winners in the past.

MERCHANT could be the next in that line for the William Haggas yard. This son of TEOFILLO looks a Group race winner in waiting after running out a good winner of the ultra-competitive King George V Stakes over 2392m at Royal Ascot last time. The second from that race has since gone on to finish runner-up in the G1 Irish Derby, so there's no doubt it is high-class form. Before that he had finished over two lengths ahead of RAHIEBB in a handicap at York over 2371m, and while he received weight from that rival, he was a clearcut winner on the day. There looks to be more to come from MERCHANT, who is on a steep upward curve, and he can confirm that York form and be hard to beat.

RAHIEBB came out of that York contest to finish a close up third in the G2 Queen's Vase over 2831m at Royal Ascot. His stamina didn't look an issue there so this drop back in trip on a sharper track might not be ideal. However, he has shown a strong level of form to date and should be involved in the finish.

Aidan O'Brien won this race last year with JAN BRUEGHEL and fields GALVESTON here. This son of FRANKEL kept on well to win a rated race at Naas over 2076m in May and was then stepped up into the G2 King Edward VII Stakes over 2392m. He was given an aggressive ride from the front that day, sharply increasing the tempo 1000m out, but was only beaten three lengths into third at the line. Stamina looks a strong suit, and if Ryan Moore employs similarly aggressive tactics on this sharper track, he could prove hard to catch.

SIR DINADAN has run with credit in all three starts this season. A fourth at Sandown over 1990m was followed by a second at in the Listed Cocked Hat Stakes over 2240m at Goodwood. He was then beaten just over three lengths in the G1 Irish Derby over 2400m on his first start over this trip. This drop in class should help and he can run well again.

WIMBLEDON HAWKEYE has been consistent all season, but keeps bumping into one or two better rivals. He finished close behind GALVESTON at Ascot two starts ago, before a second in the G2 Princess Of Wales's Stakes over 2400m at Newmarket last time. That's decent form, but he lacks the potential for progression of his main rivals.

Proven over this trip and on an upward curve. His rousing surge up the straight to win a Royal Ascot handicap suggested that he is Group class Chances.

Improving as he has risen in distance and class. Did most things right in a Royal Ascot G2 just failing to deliver a winning kick after wandering off a straight line. Wants a strong gallop.

Running well in some hot contests this year without managing a win, latterly only finding one stronger finisher too good in a 2400m Newmarket G2. Quick ground suits best.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Nassau Stakes is a 1984m G1 open to fillies and mares aged three or older and is Goodwood's feature on Thursday.

G1 winner WHIRL lines up for Aidan O'Brien. She was last seen on British soil in the G1 Oaks Stakes over 2405m at Epsom, narrowly beaten by stablemate MINNIE HAUKE, who headed her in the closing stages. She then produced a standout performance in the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes over 2000m at the Curragh in June, defeating KALPANA, who pushed CALANDAGAN all the way in the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes. The shorter trip clearly suits her better and she should be hard to beat returning to this distance.

SEE THE FIRE returns for another try at winning this coveted prize. Andrew Balding's filly has been in strong form this season, including a dominant performance in the G2 Middleton Fillies' Stakes over 2051m at York, where she won by a remarkable 12 lengths. She followed that with a creditable effort in the G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes over 1993m, finishing third to the top-drawer OMBUDSMAN. Back against her own sex here, she looks well placed to go one better this year.

BEDTIME STORY also lines up for Aidan O'Brien. One of Ballydoyle's standout 2YOs last season, she went unbeaten in her first four starts. However, she didn't progress as hoped when stepping up to top-level company, finishing fifth in both the G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes over 1400m at the Curragh and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp. Her seasonal return in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches over 1600m was more encouraging. Although only sixth, she finished strongly from the rear, appearing to relish the quicker ground. That run suggests this trip looks ideal, just as it was in her latest outing, when a close second in the G1 Prix de Diane over 2100m.

CERCENE also makes the trip to Goodwood for Joseph G Murphy. The G1 Coronation Stakes over 1594m winner arrives from Royal Ascot and will be aiming to upset the 'bigger' yards once again. She finished strongly at Ascot, so this step up in trip looks a logical progression. The forecasted quick ground will suit her perfectly, and there's no indication that Goodwood will pose any problems. She certainly cannot be discounted.

Almost reeled in Opera Singer to land a surprise victory in this last year so clearly happy with this unusual track, and distance. Her last two runs suggest she's at the top of her game with this her prime target. Fast ground ideal.

Improved on some already improved performances when surprising better fancied rivals with a G1 success at Royal Ascot, rallying courageously to beat a high-profile French-trained filly. This rise in distance is a worry, according to her pedigree.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This competitive 1000m sprint for 3YOs is wide open.

NAD ALSHIBA GREEN brings some of the strongest form to the table and looks progressive. Her second in the 1009m handicap at Sandown last time out was a personal best and she could still be on the up, while the third from the same race, GETREADYTORUMBLE, has to be respected too. His handicap mark rose markedly before that Sandown run as a result of his dominant win over this course and distance and he is also one with scope to improve further. Of the two, NAD ALSHIBA GREEN gets the nod.

RUBY'S PROFIT may also get in on the act. She brings form from the ultra-competitive Royal Ascot meeting having finished seventh over 1000m in the Palace Of Holyroodhouse Stakes. She showed bundles of early speed to lead from the gates before fading in the final 200m. In slightly calmer waters and on a track that suits speed horses, she is worth having on the shortlist.

THE MAN is an interesting contender on his second start following a wind operation. He made an impressive winning debut as a 2YO over 995m on Southwell's all-weather surface but then ran down the field in his three subsequent starts when tried at a higher level. After almost nine months off the track and having undergone a wind operation, he kicked off his 3YO season with a dominant display over 1000m at York. He travelled nicely in behind the leaders before producing an impressive turn of foot to win by over two lengths, while it's worth noting that the third horse home that day has gone on to win off a higher mark since.

One of the most intriguing contenders has to be DYONISOS, who is set to make his debut on British soil having previously been trained in France. Purchased for €97,000 by Ian Williams following a string of good runs as a 3YO this season, connections will have hopes of taking advantage of his opening British handicap mark. This will be the first time he's run over 1000m, with his three wins this season coming over 1200m (twice) and 1100m, but he is worth noting on stable debut.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

AMERICAN GULF can make the most of a significant drop in class and return to winning ways in the 1409m 2yo Handicap at Goodwood. After winning first time out in a 1211m novice event at Windsor his chances of adding to that win in the G2 Coventry Stakes at Royal Ascot were compromised after becoming restless in the gates and proving keen early on. He could prove a cut above his rivals here up in distance, despite having to give weight away all round.

VICTORIOUS ONE is yet to register a victory in three starts to date, but he has proven form at the track having finished second in a 1200m maiden on his debut. And he clearly has no problems handling an undulating track having also just been denied victory in a 1403m maiden at Epsom last time out in first-time blinkers. The same headgear has been retained, and, given the manner of his latest effort, he shouldn't be too far away.

Any runner from the Charlie Johnston yard has to be feared at this track which makes CHAMPION ISLAND of immediate interest. Having appeared to appreciate stepping up to 1400m in a novice event at Chelmsford City he was only reeled in late on by SIR ALBERT in a 1401m handicap at Chester last time out. He is now better off in the weights with that rival, and he has been handed a good draw in gate two, which could make him hard to pass. The booking of William Buick is another plus.

SIR ALBERT arrives chasing a hat-trick of wins and he is likely to make a bold go of things having only received a small rise in the weights for his latest success. However, he will have to be sharp away from the gates to get a good track position after being handed one of the widest draws in gate 10.

AMAZING JOURNEY is another in good form after securing victories in a 1215m novice at Chepstow and 1200m handicap at York. Given the way he finished last time this small step up in distance should suit him, but he will need things to fall right given his hold up style of running.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 1409m fillies' maiden has been won by some smart horses in recent years, including multiple G1 winner RHODODENDRON.

DICTAL has run with credit on both her starts but she gives the impression she is capable of even better. She was stuck out in the middle of the track when fourth on her debut over 1211m at Windsor and she pulled a bit too hard out in front when third in a 1200m fillies' novice at Newbury. A slightly more patient ride over this longer distance should suit Andrew Balding's well-bred filly.

Not much went right for UNCERTAINTY on her debut in a 1200m restricted fillies' novice at Newbury three weeks ago. She showed her inexperience in the early stages of the race and she met traffic problems when trying to throw down a challenge from the rear. To finish runner-up behind BRISK SYMPHONY, who came into the race on the back of a victory, was a promising effort. She is likely to have improved a lot for her first run and her pedigree suggests she will love the step up to 1409m.

AYLIN was backed into odds-on favourite ahead of her debut and she couldn't have gone much closer to winning when beaten a short head over 1200m at York. The winner, BOSA NOVA, had the edge of experience having previously made a winning debut, so it was a good starting point for Karl Burke's youngster. She was an expensive yearling and she has a nice blend of speed and stamina in her pedigree.

ICE SOVEREIGNS was beaten more than eight lengths when fourth on her debut over 1400m at Newmarket two weeks ago. Charlie Johnston's runner has a fair bit of potential and her half-sister, GALLERIA BORGHESE, was placed at G2 level at the Curragh.

PROPOSAL is the most interesting of the newcomers. She has an impeccable pedigree as a daughter of FRANKEL. Her trainer William Haggas won this race with another debutante, SPIRIT OF BERMUDA, five years ago and he doesn't often pitch his 2YOs into such a tough race first time out.

A 600,000gns yearling purchase, she didn't quite manage to justify odds-on favouritism on her debut, at York. That experience and the rise to 1400m make her look a player.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Some exceptionally well-bred runners with scope to improve line up for this competitive 1609m handicap. It's not impossible to win from a high draw but a low to middle stall is generally favoured.

KALEIDO has been handed a good starting berth in stall eight. The contender from the John and Thady Gosden stable was third behind ANTIPODES in a 1628m Windsor maiden last month but gets significant weight from him today. Oisin Murphy's mount dropped back to 1403m to easily win a Yarmouth maiden earlier this month, hitting the line strongly.

KALEIDO'S Gosden-trained stablemate WICKED is arguably even better bred. He got off the mark in a 1600m Sandown handicap in May, taking a long time to quicken but eventually winning easily. WICKED has had time off to mature since that run and looks to be one of several horses targeted at this meeting by owners, Wathnan Racing. It is a bonus that he is perfectly drawn in stall six.

WAR SOCKS is an interesting runner from Norway. He was highly-trying in Dubai over the winter, finishing third in the Listed Jumeirah 2000 Guineas over 1600m at Meydan in March. After an easy win in a 1600m conditions race in Sweden in May, he was sixth in an Ascot handicap over 1993m last month. He will be better back at this shorter distance.

SEA FORCE won with more authority than the narrow margin suggests when he beat ANTIPODES in a 1668m maiden at Nottingham last month. He was then gelded before finishing a close third on his handicap debut at over 1594m at Ascot earlier this month behind KNIGHTS GOLD. SEA FORCE will be better suited by the high tempo this race is likely to be run at and meets KNIGHTS GOLD on better weight terms.

ATHERSTONE WARRIOR has a tricky wide draw, but he showed eye-catching promise when third in a course and distance handicap in May.

() Domestic Rating

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Goodwood is one of the most spectacular and unique racecourses in the world. The track is right-handed with two home bends, and all races over 1400m, 1600m and 2200m enter the straight via the lower bend, whilst all other races enter via the top bend. The run in from the top bend is approximately 900m and 750m respectively, but given the nature of the turns and the downhill gradient, it is considered a sharp track, favouring those on the speed, particularly in shorter races. Horses that are held up off the pace can run into trouble, particularly those on the rail. The track has a straight course with starting points over 1000m and 1200m.

This year's Nassau Stakes Day sees eight races for coverage.

Feature Race

G1 Nassau Stakes (1984m)

For the 1984m feature race G1 Nassau Stakes, the field start from the top of the loop on the left-hand side and run in a straight line mostly downhill before meeting rising ground on to the top bend and entering the straight which is approximately 900m.

Other Races

3yo Handicap (1984m)

This race is run over the same distance as the G1 Nassau Stakes.

G2 Richmond Stakes (1200m)

On the straight course the low barriers are drawn on the far side with high numbers closest the grandstand rail. A few years ago, there was a definite draw bias for horses drawn high in big fields over 1200m, but the draw seems to have evened out after work was carried out in 2008 to move the far side rail.

G3 Gordon Stakes (2403m)

Over 2403m they start from a chute on the left-hand side of the course and have a decent straight run before turning right. Like most starts on the round course, there is no draw bias and horses are afforded every opportunity.

3yo 0-95 Handicap (1000m)

On the straight course the low barriers are drawn on the far side with high numbers closest the grandstand rail. Over the 1000m horses with speed tend to dominate due to the downhill nature of the course, which is considered one of the fastest in the country. Horses that break slowly can find their race all over at the start. Speed horses are better suited to a low draw.

2yo Handicap & 2yo Fillies Maiden (1409m)

It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1409m have an advantage in larger fields.

World Pool Bet With The Tote Handicap (1609m)

Over 1609m they will jump from halfway up the back straight where they briefly go downhill before climbing uphill then onto the lower loop into the 750m straight. It is generally considered there is no draw bias on the round course, but my own research suggests horses drawn middle to low over 1600m have an advantage in larger fields.

Over the last ten years the Nassau Stakes has been run eight times on ground with good in the description. With only a low chance of light rain being forecast on the Sunday prior race day, it is likely that good will be in the going description again this year.

See The Fire and Whirl set to dominate in Glorious Goodwood's Nassau Stakes

Wednesday, 30/7/2025

See The Fire's potent late surge saw her get to within a neck of winning the G1 Nassau Stakes (1984m) at last year's Glorious Goodwood meeting and, on Thursday (31 July), Oisin Murphy's mount has a first-rate chance of setting that record straight.

Goodwood's undulations do not suit every horse with balance a crucial requirement, but by delivering one of her career-best performances on her only previous start here, See The Fire announced that the 1984m trip at this racecourse was right up her street.

It was Aidan O'Brien's front-running Opera Singer who posted herself between See The Fire and the sunshine that day. O'Brien also appears to be the chief obstacle for four-year-old See The Fire on Thursday, sending high powered three-year-olds Whirl (Ryan Moore) and Bedtime Story (Wayne Lordan) to the beautiful Sussex racecourse.

O'Brien has already been in Group 1 winning form at this meeting when Lordan's mount Scandinavia ran down stablemate Illinois, partnered by Moore, climaxing a thrilling stretch duel in Tuesday's G1 Goodwood Cup (3209m).

And Andrew Balding, who also had a Goodwood winner on Tuesday (29 July), saw his brilliant filly Kalpana come close to Group 1 glory in last Saturday's (26 July) G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (2392m) at Ascot.

Of See the Fire – who had quickened to a 12 lengths winning verdict in the G2 Middleton Fillies' Stakes (2051m) at York in May, Balding says: "She's a very exciting filly and we have always fancied going back for the Nassau."

Whirl had only narrowly failed to steal the G1 Oaks Stakes (2405m) from the front at Epsom in June, showing that to be no fluke after courageously rallying to beat Kalpana in the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes (2000m) at the Curragh in June.

O'Brien says of this resilient daughter of Wootton Bassett: "She was coming back in trip and when you are trying to outstay a rival as good as Kalpana that is very difficult but Ryan (Moore) got it spot on. And as we had seen in the Oaks, Whirl wasn't for surrendering."

O'Brien's Bedtime Story is not to be ignored either having delivered a clear personal best – despite having to challenge wide and late – when second in the G1 Prix de Diane (2100m) at Chantilly in June.

In a race jam packed with fillies who relish a battle, Cercene must also not be forgotten. An outsider for Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation Stakes (1594m), she looked beaten when high-profile French-trained filly Zarigana accelerated past her. Instead, she rallied magnificently for Thursday's jockey Gary Carroll and in the process gave her trainer Joseph G Murphy a first Group 1 winner in his many decades as a trainer.

Another intriguing contest on Thursday is the G3 HKJC World Pool Gordon Stakes (2403m). The fast-improving William Haggas-trained Merchant is sure to be popular, given a 42-day break since he had accelerated stylishly from off the pace under Tom Marquand to defeat 18 rivals in Royal Ascot's King George V Stakes (2392m).

Pari-Mutuel Pools — Betting Guide

Dividend will be shared by the number of winning combinations of a particular pool. Winners will share the percentage of pool payout in proportion to their winning stakes.

Single-race pools are the simple and straight-forward betting pools for beginners to enjoy betting entertainment.

Single-race Pools	Dividend Qualification
WIN	1st in a race
PLACE	1st, 2nd or 3rd in a race, or 1st or 2nd in a race of 4 to 6 declared starters, or first four places in an overseas race of 21 or more declared starters
QUINELLA	1st and 2nd in any order in a race
QUINELLA PLACE	Any two of the first three placed horses in any order in a race
FORECAST	1st and 2nd in correct order in a race
TRIO	1st, 2nd and 3rd in any order in a race
TIERCE	1st, 2nd and 3rd in correct order in a race
FIRST 4	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in any order in a race
QUARTET	1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in correct order in a race

All Up or Cross Pool All Up Betting

You can enjoy greater flexibility by choosing All Up or Cross Pool All Up bet. Simply by placing bets in the same or different betting pools for 2 races to a maximum of 6 races. Any dividend entitlement from a winning Leg will be automatically carried forward and reinvested in the subsequent Leg specified in your bet selection.
