Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

The Hoppegartener Fliegerpreis is a Listed contest over the straight 1200m, and it is quite a spectacle.

Archie Watson-trained KYLIAN, who already won over here this year. Luke Morris knows the horse well and travels to Germany to keep the partnership intact.

The picks of the local brigade are SCHUTZENZAUBER and DHITJARI. The former is very closely matched with KYLIAN, whom he met twice this year already. The score is one-each, conditions favour KYLIAN this time.

DHITJARI is lightly raced and was placed in the G2 German 2000 Guineas. He drops back in trip for the first time, not exactly ideal, but is bred for this and is clearly an improving sort, even though his latest venture to Royal Ascot was the proverbial step too far. He can make amends.

ATLANTA CITY won this race last year. This good-looking mare comes here on a nearly identical path as last year, when, largely out of form earlier in the season, she came into this on the back of a confidence booster at a small eastern track. Trainer Stefan Richter did just that this term, so you have been warned.

Stuart Williams sends HUMAM and brings Marco Ghiani for good measure. Marco Ghiani bits to add to his international tally. HUMAM, one of the three 3YOs in the race, won a Handicap at York when last seen. He has a bit to find on ratings against the top two, but clearly can make his presence felt.

Relatively lightly raced 4yo and C&D winner last season. Finished ahead of Kylian in Hamburg but that rival is better off at the weights now. Has chances nonetheless.

Highly capable mare who had a confidence booster last weekend, exactly what she did last season before winning this very race. Chances again, even if this year's edition may be slightly tougher.

Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

Highest-rated NEWKIDONTHEBLOCK does have a top jockey booked and is actually shouldering top weight, but is competitive of this mark and has run well at the track before.

Top trainer Andreas Wohler, always one to note when he ventures into handicap class, sends QUIARA, who is largely in good form. Her last race, when favourite, was a rare blip though, but she can correct that here. She may be a tad high in the handicap though.

Henk Grewe's VAMOS A MARTE is a regular in World Pool Handicaps and has been tipped in this column before. She is another one from a yard not known for exploiting handicappers, and must again have a good chance.

Pick of the local runners may well be TAMINO, who carries his trainer's Roland Dzubasz' colours and is very well in, with jockey Lili-Marie Engels in the saddle.

A mention must be given to bottom weight BOHERNA VISTA though; it will be the sole 3YO's third start for the yard. The filly had excuses on her German debut and she may build on her midfield finish last time under her dangerously low weight.

Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

Onto the 2000m Handicap. Thirteen horses line up, again one 3YO takes on the elders. Quite a few runners come here in excellent shape.

Topweight CHERUB ROCK is in fact unbeaten in four races this season, and has a very talented claimer on board. Naturally, as is the nature of the handicap system, things are not getting any easier.

SKY EMPEROR is a fresh winner too; he scored just last week and is racing again quickly. He is also a two-time winner in 2025 and this is his 11th start of the year already.

ROMANCE OF LIPS is very lightly raced and won last time, only her second ever race.

PASHA AL GUNAY is a fresh winner as well and created a stunning visual impression when scoring last time, albeit under a claimer.

Last but not least is Henk Grewe-trained THEKINGOFMYHEART. Everything that can be said about him has been said the last time, and now that he is not mentioned, he will no doubt prove us all wrong again.

SELECTIONS: 10. PASHA AL GUNAY, 5. ROMANCE OF LIPS, 3. SKY EMPEROR, 9. THEKINGOFMYHEART & 1. CHERUB ROCK

3RD DOUBLE SELECTIONS (4 unit bets):

Sprang quite a surprise when beating Pasha Al Gunay (among others) on last start. In with a chance but seems to like some ease in the ground.

Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

The Grosser Preis von Berlin is a G1 race, run over the classic Derby-trip of 2400m. No 3YO will take on their elders.

The only lady has been supplemented into the race. NASTARIA, from Anna Schleusner-Fruhriep, may be lowest in the ratings and looks to have it all to do; but this 6YO mare has a bit of a cult following in Germany and you will not find a more genuine – and generous – horse in training. This is a horse who thrives on training and racing, and always gives her all. She will be there to pick up the pieces if any of the boys shall call enough.

NARRATIVO, trained by Marcel Weiss, was one of the fancied runners in last year's Derby, where he was a complete no-show. He then finished second in this very race behind runaway winner AL RIFFA, and that form naturally gives him another chance here. He had two runs this term, contesting the same races as COLD HEART, and though winless, improved nicely past him and will make his presence felt here again.

REBEL'S ROMANCE and JUNKO, two foreign raiders, geldings both, bring the best form to the table and are the highest rated contenders. The mighty French Andre Fabre-yard sends JUNKO. The now 6YO, won the G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern over 2400m as a 4YO in 2023, and followed that win with a stunning success in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase, over the same trip. Not everything went right since, and JUNKO was restricted to just six runs in total since the end of 2023. His latest 3rd behind CALANDAGAN and AVENTURE was very encouraging though and clearly a step back in the right direction. He may be better on softer ground, but clearly acts on good too.

Last and by no means least then is REBEL'S ROMANCE. In fact he is unbeaten in this country and has won three G1s here. His triumphs are too many to count, and he had JUNKO well behind when they met in Meydan early in 2024. Stamina is no issue – he won over further this season but connections think he is far more comfortable at this trip. He does have a new pair of hands on his reins though, as regular pilot William Buick is on duty in the US and young rising star Billy Loughnane is in the saddle. REBEL'S ROMANCE is clear on rating and the logical favourite.

Pace: GOOD

JUNKO is the only leader in this race and he should get to the rail first. REBEL'S ROMANCE from the outside gate can get into the trail. COLD HEART and NASTARIA should settle in midfield. STRAIGHT and NARRATIVO will be at rear.

No stranger to these shores and won a Munich G1 in November 2023 followed by a good G1 Sha Tin success. Relatively lightly raced since and winless in three races this season but latest third looks good enough on paper.

Globetrotting superstar who has more airmiles than most of us. Winner of this in 2022 and has shown that he retains all his ability at the tender age of seven in 2025 with three wins including a G2 at Royal Ascot. Highest rated horse in this, and whatever beats him probably wins.

Tough and durable mare who has a bit of a cult following in Germany. A stout stayer but looks outclassed in this.

Track Analysis by Catrin Nack

Berlins racecourse Hoppegarten is located in the village of the very name, east of Berlin City center – part of a large training centre. Hoppegarten racecourse is privately owned and will stage seven racedays in total, with 11 Blacktype races.

Hoppegarten racecourse is a right-handed galloping, its circumference about 2400m, the distance of Sundays big race. Hoppegarten is more or less an oval, but has a round and a straight course. The track has two chutes, one for the 2200m start, right before the first bend, and one towards the end of the first bend, where races run over 1800m can be started.

Hoppegarten also features – unique to tracks in Germany – a 1400m straight, with not even the slightest bend. The back straight has a slight turn leading to one long elongated bend, the actual home-bend is rather tight and leads into the 500m home straight. Like all racetracks in Germany, Hoppegarten is fairly flat; the straight course does have some slight undulations, and the home straight does rise ever so slightly. Jockeys are advised not to make their move too early, and a true stayer is needed to last the trip.

Feature Race

G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin (2400m)

This year sees the 135th running of the Grosser Preis von Berlin. It is one of seven Group 1 races in Germany, none of which are shorter than 2000m. The race is also one of five Group races to be held at Hoppegarten in 2025, its only one at the highest level. The race is open for 3yo and older horses, of both sexes, with geldings eligible to run too. The roll of honour includes a fascinating mix of international and domestic stars, in fact the last four winners, and six of the last seven, were trained abroad.

The turf is currently riding good, with good to soft in places overall. Light rain is forecast but is expected to clear towards the weekend, with warmer temperatures anticipated. The aim is to provide good ground by Sunday.

Winning machine Rebel's Romance stars at Hoppegarten on Sunday

Friday, 8/8/2025

Germany proudly welcomes the World Pool for the third Sunday in a row with three races from Hoppegarten supporting one of the jewels of the German racing calendar, the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin (2400m).

Two classy operators travel to Berlin for this six-runner encounter – one from England and one from France – and both are unbeaten in a past venture to Hong Kong.

Rebel's Romance won last year's G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (2400m) whilst Junko's Group 1-winning Sha Tin strike came in the 2023 LONGINES Hong Kong Vase (2400m).

Rebel's Romance, who will be ridden by 19-year-old emerging talent Billy Loughnane for the first time, is a true international star. The Godolphin flagbearer is unbeaten in three German Group 1s, including in this race back in 2022, and the Charlie Appleby-trained 18-time winner looks set to start a warm favourite to further enhance his extraordinary record.

The Andre Fabre-trained Junko, a first-time ride for Rene Piechulek, has shown race-by-race improvement this year, with his latest third to two top-class opponents in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud (2400m), representing further encouragement. His only previous start in Germany resulted in a runaway victory from the front in Munich's G1 Preis von Bayern (2400m).

Of the German-trained runners, Nastaria (Jozef Bojko) is a durable and thoroughly likeable mare who has been supplemented into the field. The nine-time winner may have ground to find on ratings, but she always gives her best and, being all about stamina, is unlikely to be stalling in the closing stages.

Higher in the ratings is Narrativo, the mount of Adrie de Vries. Nothing went right when he was well fancied for last year's G1 Deutsches Derby (2400m) in Hamburg, but he bounced back to finish second to Al Riffa in this race, and the Marcel Weiss-trained colt should again give a good account of himself back at Hoppegarten.

The Peter Schiergen-trained Cold Heart has improved nicely in two starts since leaving Brazil, latterly when a close third in last month's G2 Grosser Hansa-Preis (2400m). The drying conditions are expected to be in his favour, and Andrasch Starke takes the ride.

The foreign brigade also looks strong in the Listed Fliegerpreis over Hoppegarten's straight 1200m. They include the Archie Watson-trained Kylian (Luke Morris), already a Listed winner over this trip at Baden-Baden in June, and Humam, a front-running 1400m handicap winner at York in June. He has a first start for in-form Newmarket trainer Stuart Williams, with his go-to rider Marco Ghiani in the saddle.

Lamborghini BF is not only named to be fast but is a top Swedish sprinter with a consistent profile, whilst serious local contenders include Atlanta City and Zerostress – first and second in this last year – along with last-time-out winner Schutzenzauber and Dhitjari. The latter is a class-dropper having finished third in Cologne's G2 German 2000 Guineas (1600m) in May. The hope is that sprinting will deliver further progress for Starke's mount.
