Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The draw has been crucial in this big 1081m sprint in recent years, with the far side low numbers traditionally holding an advantage.

Richard Spencer has proved the trainer to follow in these cavalry charges this season, and his representative here, THE MAN, ticks a lot of the boxes, not least starting from stall four. This race has clearly been the target for THE MAN since he blitzed a big field here over 1000m in May. The wind operation he had before Christmas certainly seemed to work and it is significant that he has not raced since, thereby protecting his handicap mark. He hit the line strongly last time, so this extra distance won't be a problem.

JORDAN ELECTRICS has been drawn on the wrong side for his last race over 1200m, but he has good form, notably when finishing second to JM JUNGLE in this race 12 months ago. That form received a boost when JM JUNGLE won the G2 King George Stakes at Goodwood last time. The rain-softened ground found JORDAN ELECTRIC out at Goodwood over 1200m on his most recent start, and in his previous race he was apprentice-ridden, but with underfoot conditions riding faster and Paul Mulrennan, who knows the 9YO so well, back on board this 16-race winner, he should again be in the mix.

AIR FORCE ONE has age on his side and he took advantage of a slipping handicap mark when winning here over 1000m last time. He has plenty of early speed, and, though he tackles stronger opposition here, he is a lightly-raced 4YO who might be even better over 1200m.

BERGERAC is running in this race for the fourth consecutive year. And 12 months ago, BERGERAC was first home on the stands side, being beaten only two and a half lengths by five who raced on the far side. He loves this course and has remained in good form this season, winning at Hamilton over 1006m in June, so he, too, has solid claims.

SQUEALER has won twice over this course and probably found the 1003m at Pontefract too sharp when only fourth there last time.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Favourites have a bad record in the G3 Acomb Stakes over 1400m in recent times, with only one winning in the last 10 renewals. That record may be improved by Charlie Appleby's DISTANT STORM, who did well to win on debut at Newmarket over 1400m. DISTANT STORM pulled over three lengths clear with an Aidan O'Brien-trained rival that day and deserves plenty of credit for battling back to lead after being headed. The second has gone on to win since, as has the third-placed horse, giving the form a strong look to it. DISTANT STORM looks very much the one to beat.

Once again, his main danger looks to come from the Aidan O'Brien yard in the form of ITALY. He was a winner on debut at Leopardstown over 1447m, when looking strong at the finish, and afterwards was stepped up into G2 company at Newmarket over 1400m. Having stayed on well to finish second, this son of WOOTTON BASSETT has already proved himself at a higher level, but he looked ready for a step up in trip there and he could find DISTANT STORM has too much speed for him at this trip.

GOODWOOD GALAXY improved on his maiden win over 1394m at Salisbury to finish a very respectable fourth in the G2 Vintage Stakes over 1400m at Goodwood last time. Held up at the rear, he caught the eye by finishing strongly and was beaten by about two lengths at the line. That from received a boost with the second going on to win a Listed race since, so along with ITALY, David Menuisier's colt brings the highest level of form into this race. He was given a prominent ride on debut, and with a return to those tactics at York, it would be no surprise to see him go close.

Andrew Balding's GEWAN comes here after winning a 1400m maiden at Newbury last month. He looked green after hitting the front at Newbury but ran out a convincing winner at the line. Good-to-firm ground appeared fine for him there, so similar conditions on a flat track like York should suit. With more improvement, he can find the frame at least.

Another winner on debut, ROCHFORTBRIDGE got the better of a short-priced rival to win on debut at Ayr over 1445m. The rival he beat there has since won a Listed race in Ireland, so that form looks strong, and he shouldn't be overlooked.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes is a contest for 3YOs run over a distance of 2371m.

Paddy Twomey's colt CARMERS has a perfect record to his name, with three wins from all three of his runs. Most recently, this son of WOOTTON BASSETT showed real heart when picking up the G2 Queen's Vase over 2831m at Royal Ascot. He was positioned behind the leadings that day but went to the front around the turn and managed to stay on the rail to keep his rivals behind him. Stepping back in trip shouldn't be an issue and he likes this quick ground. Should he make good use of his stamina, he can seriously challenge LAMBOURN.

Strong favourite LAMBOURN is also in a rich vein of form for Aidan O'Brien's Coolmore team, picking up three Group wins on the bounce. Starting off the hat-trick was his G3 Chester Vase Stakes over 2457m win in May, followed by a resounding victory of nearly four-lengths in the G1 Derby Stakes at Epsom over 2405m. Just three weeks later, he produced yet another gutsy performance to land the G1 Irish Derby over 2400m at the Curragh consolidating himself as one of the best 3YOs around. Whether or not those hard races have had an effect on him remain to be seen, but after a decent break, he looks the one to beat.

STAY TRUE is a Group debutant for Aidan O'Brien and hasn't been seen since his second in the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial Stakes over 2321m in May. This GALILEO colt won on debut at Leopardstown back in April over 2000m on quick ground which he should get again here. Unexposed at this trip and in this calibre of company, he could spring a surprising challenge.

Since his G2 Dante Stakes over 2051m win at York in May, Ralph Beckett's PRIDE OF ARRAS has been disappointing in his last two starts. Having looked out of sorts at Epsom in the Derby Stakes and then again in the Irish Derby at the Curragh, both times over 2400m, he needs a return to this track to rejuvenate him. He has since been gelded, which coupled with some time off the track, could see him return to his old self.

Son of LOPE DE VEGA, ARABIAN FORCE, lines up for William Haggas. With only one run under his belt in Group company, this will be a real test, but he showed improvement when stepping up to 2214m in a Listed race on his last run and could find himself in the mix.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This renewal of the G1 International Stakes over 2051m has attracted a very competitive six-runner field.

DELACROIX arrives here off the back of his victory in the G1 Eclipse Stakes over 1990m. It was a very impressive performance from the 3YO colt at Sandown that day, who was given a lot to do to win by jockey Ryan Moore. The turn of foot he showed in the final furlong was striking, passing reopposing rival OMBUDSMAN in the process, and a repeat of that form would make him very hard to beat.

Japanese raider DANON DECILE could be the one to put it up to DELACROIX. Shogo Yasuda's runner arrives to race in the UK for the first time and has some very strong form to his name. He was last seen when beating a talented field at Meydan in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic over 2410m, including subsequent G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner CALANDAGAN. He can be the chief danger to DELACROIX if up to his best on his first go on British soil.

Connections of OMBUDSMAN would have felt unlucky following his narrow defeat in the G1 Eclipse Stakes. He looked to have the race won when going for home two furlongs from home but was just edged out by DELACROIX. Whilst it's difficult to see the form being turned around, the Godolphin colt was in front plenty soon enough, and maybe set the race up for the fast-finisher DELACROIX. A return to more patient tactics, like those employed in his G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes over 1990m win at Royal Ascot, might see him in a better light.

French raider DARYZ is unbeaten in four runs. Francis-Henri Graffard's 3YO confirmed the promise of his first three runs when winning Saint-Cloud's G2 Prix Eugene Adam over 2000m. Due to his age, he has the benefit of a handy weight concession from his elders, and he could take a big step forward this time around.

This race lacks a leader and DARYZ can be positive and go to the front. BIRR CASTLE from the outside gate may go forward and share the lead. DELACROIX settled midfield last start and won so he should repeat those tactics. OMBUDSMAN was trapped wide in that race and he should go back in the early stages.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

SANTORINI STAR has come up short on her last two starts, however she can regain the winning thread now back down in handicap company. The William Haggas-trained filly made the perfect start to the season with victories in a 1988m handicap at Brighton and a 2398m Goodwood handicap before being upped in grade. After finishing fourth in a Listed race over 2405m at Pontefract she then filled the same position on her first try over 2800m in the G3 Stanerra Stakes at Fairyhouse. Although she never really travelled well through the race, she stayed on strongly to suggest she can offer even more once upped further in distance. While she has stamina, she is still lightly raced and should have further improvement to come.

Should SANTORINI STAR fail to see out this 3251m distance then ALPHONSE LE GRANDE could be the one to profit. Stamina is no issue for the A J Martin-trained gelding, whose last victory came over 3600m in the Cesarewitch at Newmarket in October. Although he is yet to win either of his two starts on the flat this season, he wasn't beaten far in the Ascot Stakes over 3991m where he was denied a clear run late on. He should be primed for this, and the booking of William Buick is a plus.

DANCING IN PARIS is a model of consistency and he can be expected to be on the premises once again after finishing a close second in a 2800m handicap at Goodwood last time out. Although he has been nudged up slightly in the weights, he should appreciate the extra distance on offer here while he was a winner over 2400m on his only previous visit to the track last year.

FIREBLADE was a good winner in a 3190m handicap at Ascot last time out on only his second start over the trip. He has been given a small rise in the weights for that win, but he remains unexposed as a stayer and he could have plenty more to offer on ground which will suit.

SPIRIT MIXER finished behind FIREBLADE last time out, but he had previously shown his love for a stamina test when winning the Northumberland Plate over 3251m at Newcastle. While he has to bounce back from defeat at Ascot last time, he is more than capable as there should be more pace on here which will suit him better.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

There's a need for speed on York's 1000m track.

RUBY'S PROFIT is a quick filly and she should love this sharp course. She made all the running to win a decent race for the grade over 1000m at Goodwood in May and she has run well in three subsequent starts. The heavy ground would not have been ideal when returned to Goodwood three weeks ago but she still ran really well. She showed her usual pace and was only worn down in the closing stages when finishing third in that 1000m handicap.

A slow start and testing ground didn't held NAD ALSHIBA GREEN when she put in a rare below-par run over 1000m at Goodwood last month. She had won nicely over 1000m at Nottingham in June and backed it up with a solid second over Sandown's stiffer 1000m course. The return to quicker ground is a big positive for Michael Appleby's filly.

WOOLHAMPTON looks to be running into form. She missed the break from the inside stall over 1211m at Windsor nine days ago, which meant she had to pick her way through the field and forced her to challenge wider than ideal. The return to 1000m is a help and she has become well handicapped.

LUNA A INBHIR NIS has been in incredible form this season. She has won five of her last six races and her most recent victory came at York over 1081m. Her only defeat on that sequence also came at this track over 1000m but it was far from a bad effort as she was drawn in the middle of the track when the four horses to finish in front of her raced towards the far side. It was good to see her show a determined attitude when successful last month. There's no telling how far she can progress the way she keeps putting in personal-best performances.

NOVAMAY is progressing into a smart sprinter. She landed a hat-trick of wins – all over 1200m – when successful at Windsor last month. This is a significant step up in grade, but she has earned a crack at this decent prize. The return to 1000m will not be a problem and it could suit Michael Dods' filly even better than the longer distance she has been winning over.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This competitive 1200m handicap for 2YOs is always a tricky puzzle to solve with only two favourites successful in the last 10 years. Horses drawn in single-figure stalls have won in eight of those 10 runnings.

Richard Fahey-trained UTMOST RESPECT got a confidence-boosting win in a 1006m Hamilton maiden last month. Before that, he was unlucky not to win on his debut at this track over 1000m in May when having to be dramatically switched to get a clear run and then was a respectable seventh in the Listed Windsor Castle Stakes over 1000m at Royal Ascot in June. He looks ready for this longer distance and is drawn well in stall eight.

Trainer Kevin Ryan has a good chance with MO OF CAIRO. He was a good third in an Ayr maiden over 1200m in June before dropping back to 1000m to narrowly open his account in a maiden at Beverley last month. He looks like a colt who can thrive now he is thrown into handicaps.

After creating a good impression on her debut when winning a 1000m maiden at Beverley last month, TEMPLE OF ATHENA was a respectable third in a 1000m fillies' conditions race at Goodwood nine days later. She should take the step up in distance in her stride and is also ridden by an apprentice who is having a good season.

DUBLIN BAY was gelded after his 1000m debut at Ascot in April. He seemed to take time to get over that but has thrived since being entered in handicaps, decisively winning twice in four days in 1200m races at the end of last month and beginning of this month. He has risen in the weights as a result, but should be involved again.

After disappointing when fifth in a 1200m Ayr maiden on his second run at the beginning of last month, RIVER SPEY was gelded. He produced a significantly better performance when third in a good 1200m Goodwood maiden later in the month. He has a tricky draw but has been given a good racing weight and it's a positive that Oisín Murphy takes the ride.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

York is a left-handed track. Races over 1000m and 1200m are run on a straight course whilst races over 1400m start from a chute that joins the main straight in a dog leg shape. The same chute is used for races over 4400m. Races over 2800m and 3251m also start from a chute whilst all other starting points are on the round course. Barrier 1 is always drawn on the inside of the track.

York is a high-quality large course with sweeping turns and no undulations. Considered one of the fairest tracks in Great Britain, the straight is approximately 900m and although the layout of the course suits strong galloping types, horses who get to the front early in the straight often will not run down, especially on testing ground.

There are seven races for coverage on International Stakes Day.

Feature Race

G1 International Stakes (2051m)

The International Stakes starts from the far side of the course and although there is a slight bend not long after leaving the gates, barriers are of little importance. After taking the bend, they head down a lengthy straight on the left-hand side of the track before meeting the turn and entering the 900m home straight. On entering the straight, although the theory is they are likely to look to come down the middle, especially if the ground is rain affected (rarely is it rain affected for this meeting), over the last ten years three winners have been up against the inside rail in the straight, whilst four have been kept off the fence toward the centre of the track, and three winners have come down the grandstand rail.

Other Races

Hong Kong Jockey Club World Pool Handicap (1081m)

Over 1081m it is considered that there is little draw bias, although they do normally look to go to the centre of the track but can drift to the far side over the concluding stages.

G3 Acomb Stakes (1400m)

Over 1400m, although the advantage looks minimal, horses from middle to high gates have a good record overall, but this switches around when the ground is rain affected. During the last ten years the field size of the race has been on the small side, and winners have come from inside and outside draws. The Acomb is a race that has seen several winners purchased by Hong Kong connections in recent times.

G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes (2371m)

Over 2371m there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

3yo+ Handicap (3251m)

Over 3251m there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

3yo+ Fillies & Mares 0-105 Handicap (1000m)

Over 1000m it is considered that there is little draw bias, although they do normally look to go to the centre of the track but can drift to the far side over the concluding stages.

2yo Handicap (1200m)

Over 1200m they tend to mostly come down the centre of the track but will normally look to head to the grandstand rail when the ground is soft, thus high draws are favourable on rain affected ground in larger fields.

The last ten renewals of the International Stakes have seen good in the going description, with four of those years being good to firm ground. The weather forecast this year is suggesting sunny days with very little chance of rain and if correct it is highly likely the going will be good, with a strong possibility of it being good to firm.

Japanese star takes on European champions in top-class International Stakes

Tuesday, 19/8/2025

Champions from Japan, Ireland, France and Great Britain will battle to be acclaimed the champion of champions in a fascinating Group 1 International Stakes (2051m) race at York on Wednesday (20 August).

Shogo Yasuda, trainer of Danon Decile, knows that his star faces a difficult task but has confidence in his ability. "Of course, I respect the European horses," he said. "It is not easy to travel from Japan, and we have a big mountain to climb but I believe, potentially, he can climb it."

Danon Decile has not run since winning the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic (2410m) in April, but Yasuda is satisfied that he is ready. "We have not run him again because of the extreme heat in Japan," he explained, "but I am very happy at how he is now. He can get excited, but he is getting calmer every day he is here in Newmarket, and he seems to be enjoying the different environment. I feel he has a good chance."

Ombudsman and Delacroix are the main – but not the only – obstacles to a Japanese success.

Having won a Group 1 contest at Royal Ascot, Ombudsman was narrowly beaten by Delacroix in a similarly high-class race at Sandown last month.

At York, the Godolphin-owned Ombudsman will have Birr Castle joining him to act as pacemaker.

Ombudsman's joint-trainer Thady Gosden said, "He won at his first attempt in a Group 1 race and at Sandown was beaten by a top-class three-year-old. He's come out of that race well. He's such a genuine horse, has got the required speed, and hopefully will run a good race."

Delacroix's trainer, Aidan O'Brien, will be aiming to come out on top for a second successive year. He was particularly impressed by the colt's performance when making strong progress uphill in the final 400 metres at Sandown. He said, "Delacroix's got a lot of speed and quickens exceptionally well. It's rare to see what he did, and is what sets good horses apart."

Despite having won all four of his races, including a Group 2 contest, French contender Daryz will need to improve. Nemone Routh, racing manager for the owner, Aga Khan Studs, acknowledges the tough challenge. He said, "The field is a strong one and we're under no illusions it's going to be a very tough race but the horse is in great form. It will be fast ground, which he handles well and we'll see how good he is."

By then, O'Brien will hope to have already won the G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes (2371m) with Lambourn. As the winner of both the G1 Derby Stakes (2405m) and the Irish Derby (2400m), Lambourn will be a short price. The trainer explained that the race is preparation for Group 1 races later in the year, the St Leger and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

He said, "He's a straightforward horse and everything has gone well since the Irish Derby. He's had an easy time since then and is in great shape."
