Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This renewal of the G1 International Stakes over 2051m has attracted a very competitive six-runner field.

DELACROIX arrives here off the back of his victory in the G1 Eclipse Stakes over 1990m. It was a very impressive performance from the 3YO colt at Sandown that day, who was given a lot to do to win by jockey Ryan Moore. The turn of foot he showed in the final furlong was striking, passing reopposing rival OMBUDSMAN in the process, and a repeat of that form would make him very hard to beat.

Japanese raider DANON DECILE could be the one to put it up to DELACROIX. Shogo Yasuda's runner arrives to race in the UK for the first time and has some very strong form to his name. He was last seen when beating a talented field at Meydan in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic over 2410m, including subsequent G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner CALANDAGAN. He can be the chief danger to DELACROIX if up to his best on his first go on British soil.

Connections of OMBUDSMAN would have felt unlucky following his narrow defeat in the G1 Eclipse Stakes. He looked to have the race won when going for home two furlongs from home but was just edged out by DELACROIX. Whilst it's difficult to see the form being turned around, the Godolphin colt was in front plenty soon enough, and maybe set the race up for the fast-finisher DELACROIX. A return to more patient tactics, like those employed in his G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes over 1990m win at Royal Ascot, might see him in a better light.

French raider DARYZ is unbeaten in four runs. Francis-Henri Graffard's 3YO confirmed the promise of his first three runs when winning Saint-Cloud's G2 Prix Eugene Adam over 2000m. Due to his age, he has the benefit of a handy weight concession from his elders, and he could take a big step forward this time around.

This race lacks a leader and DARYZ can be positive and go to the front. BIRR CASTLE from the outside gate may go forward and share the lead. DELACROIX settled midfield last start and won so he should repeat those tactics. OMBUDSMAN was trapped wide in that race and he should go back in the early stages.
