Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Lowther Stakes is a G2 event for 2YO fillies over 1200m and has attracted some of the better European juvenile fillies.

Trainer Ed Walker has had a fantastic season, and ROYAL FIXATION looks like she has a fine chance of winning this race. She debuted at Thirsk in June and caught the eye with a smart victory over 1200m, before being stepped up significantly in class next time out in the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge Stakes at Newmarket over 1200m. There she encountered Royal Ascot heroine VENETIAN SUN, who was the only one too good for the Walker filly. That form looks rock solid and with expected natural progression, she could provide Walker with back-to-back winners in this race.

There haven't been many more impressive maiden winners this year than AMERICA QUEEN. Richard Hughes' filly was sent off favourite in an ordinary 1200m Haydock event in July and duly romped home by a staggering 12 lengths. She hasn't been seen since, and the form hasn't been franked, but the manner of her win that day marked her out as a seriously talented proposition. She could be anything.

STAYA has more experience under her belt than most of her rivals and that could serve her well. George Scott's filly has won two of her four starts, first at Yarmouth in May and then Sandown in July. Smart efforts have come in between those victories too, firstly when she was a narrow fifth to a top Ballydoyle filly at Royal Ascot over 1000m before not being beaten far again in another Ascot Group race over 1200m. Those runs will make her more battle-hardened than most and she can hit the frame.

ARGENTINE TANGO is the most experienced of the field with seven runs to her name. She is a three-time winner over trips from 1000m to 1200m and has bumped into some smart fillies in defeat too. She has twice finished closely behind the aforementioned VENETIAN SUN, the second time when also behind ROYAL FIXATION. Her most recent 1000m second behind G1 Nunthorpe Stakes contender LADY IMAN reads particularly well, and she can trouble the leaders again.

Brian Ellison is a talented trainer, and his runners often go under the radar in big races, so don't rule out his Listed-winning WOR FAAYTH from filling the places.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Top jockey Hollie Doyle has always thought the world of TADEJ, and this course and distance winner, who only just missed the frame in the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m at Royal Ascot, is without doubt the class horse in this race. TADEJ has to give weight away all round, but he dug deep to win a G3 at Deauville over 1200m last time and had previously been an unlucky third in a three-way photo-finish for the G2 Prix Robert Papin over 1200m at Chantilly.

Clive Cox is keen on the chance of SONG OF THE CLYDE, who looked a cut above-average when turning over a short-priced favourite at Chester over 1215m on only his second start. The first two pulled five lengths clear of the rest there, and the runner-up advertised the form when winning easily at Windsor next time. And with SONG OF CLYDE subsequently producing another decent effort when finishing second to the smart EGOLI at Newbury over 1200m, he could be the main danger to the favourite.

RAAKEB, only sixth to ANTHELIA in the Weatherbys Super Sprint over 1031m at Newbury, would have finished closer had he not met interference at the 200m mark. Though beaten in all his five races since he won on his debut, RAAKEB's form stands up to the closest inspection. He was not disgraced in the G2 Superlative Stakes over 1400m at Newmarket's July meeting, especially as sprinting looks his strength, as we saw when he finished third in the Woodcote Stakes over 1203m at Epsom on Oaks day.

ITALICA has steadily climbed the ladder, winning minor races at Chepstow and Salisbury over 1200m before finishing third in Listed company at Ascot over 1400m. The Ascot runner-up subsequently finished second to MORRIS DANCER – one of the best juveniles we've seen so far this season – at Salisbury, providing a form boost to ITALICA's chance here.

We can put a line through RIKKI TIKI TAVI's sole disappointment at Ayr over 1200m as he got stuck in the mud. Either side of that RIKKI TIKI TAVI ran two splendid races on fast ground, chasing home EGOLI over this course and distance and then when winning a shade cosily at Thirsk over 1000m.

SELECTIONS: 1. TADEJ, 16. SONG OF THE CLYDE, 13. RAAKEB, 2. ITALICA, 15. RIKKI TIKI TAVI

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This is a competitive 1582m handicap for 3YO's and older which has only been won by one favourite in the last 10 years during which time there have been plenty of big-priced winners.

The draw is significant with eight of the last 10 winners starting from a single-figure stall so BULLET POINT, a winner over 1600m at Newmarket in April, has a good draw in stall three. He was runner-up in the 1600m Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot in June and just beaten again back over that course and distance in another competitive handicap last month. BULLET POINT has shown improved form with every run this season and should be in the shake-up again.

APIARIST finished well when eighth in the Buckingham Palace Stakes over 1400m at Royal Ascot in June and was an eye-catching fourth in a 1400m handicap at the Galway Festival in Ireland earlier this month, when suffering trouble in running. Two of his four wins have been at 1600m so the step up in distance will not be a problem.

LEADMAN, trained by David O'Meara, who has been beaten twice since pouncing late to win a 1400m handicap at Newmarket last month. However, on his penultimate start at Glorious Goodwood he was eased after his run was blocked and he would have won in another couple of strides at Newbury last Saturday, so he arrives here in good form. Both those runs were also over 1400m but the way he has been finishing his races it looks like the longer distance should suit him. O'Meara's stable jockey Daniel Tudhope rides.

David O'Meara is also represented by BLUE FOR YOU. Three of his five career wins have been over this course and distance. He hinted at a return to form when eighth from a difficult wide draw in a 1600m handicap at Glorious Goodwood earlier this month.

OLD COCK, a course and distance winner in May, was not suited by a slow pace when fourth over course and distance last month. He should get the pace he needs here to enable jockey Callum Rodriguez to deliver him late.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Yorkshire Oaks is a G1 open to fillies and mares aged 3YOs and older, and is run over a distance of 2381m.

MINNIE HAUk lines up for Aidan O'Brien. It's very difficult to see past the dual Oaks winner here. The FRANKEL filly wasn't the flashiest winner of either Classic but showed her ability to really dig in to get the job done. First, at Epsom, when seeing off stablemate and subsequent G1 Pretty Polly Stakes and G1 Nassau Stakes winner WHIRL in a dour battle to the line. She was a warm order for the G1 Irish Oaks over 2400m in July and displayed similar qualities to get on top late. There's no reason to believe that she isn't still on the improve and it's difficult to see past her adding a third G1 to her resume.

ESTRANGE comes into this off the back of a G2 victory. That came in the G2 Lancashire Oaks over 2359m at Haydock, where she was made to work hard to win by only a neck at the line. Still, she shapes on paper as the main danger to MINNIE HAUk. David O'Meara's filly has now won four of her five starts, including G2 and G3 successes. Her only below-par run came at Yarmouth over 2021m on good-to-firm ground, so connections will be hoping for some rain to avoid testing her again on quick conditions.

GARDEN OF EDEN also features for Aidan O'Brien. She began with victory in the Listed Naas Oaks Trial Stakes over 2076m, before producing an impressive performance in the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes over 2392m, winning by more than three lengths. That success came on quicker good-to-firm ground, proving her effectiveness under those conditions. Her run in the G1 Preis der Diana - German Oaks over 2200m was below expectations, but with the ground likely against her and the track being unconventional, there's every chance she can bounce back to form on a sounder surface at York.

3. MINNIE HAUK

4. QILIN QUEEN

1. ESTRANGE

2. GARDEN OF EDEN

QILIN QUEEN led all the way last start and she can lead again in this small field. MINNIE HAUK was prominent when winning her Oaks double and she should do something similar. ESTRANGE and GARDEN OF EDEN should be next.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The Listed Galtres Stakes is open to 3YOs and above and is run over 2381m.

RAINBOWS EDGE looks the one to beat on recent form, stepping up to this distance for the first time. John and Thady Gosden's filly won on her first two starts last year and got her head in front on her first race this year at Ascot over the same trip. She then finished a respectable seventh in the Kensington Palace Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot earlier this summer and followed that up with a close second in a Listed race here the following week over 2051m. She made good progress in the latter stages of the race so the extra 300m here could well work in her favour and she should go well in the royal silks.

CHARLOTTE'S WEB could be one to mount a challenge for Simon and Ed Crisford. She came third to RAINBOWS EDGE last time out at this track and showed similar grit in the final 200m. She's placed three times since April and with this step up in trip she may be able to more improvement and get closer to RAINBOWS EDGE this time.

BUTTERFLY WINGS is the sole representative for the Ballydoyle yard of Aidan O'Brien. This filly has been pushed this season in Group company, with valuable experience gained on her last start in the G1 Irish Oaks over 2400m. Exposure to this trip is a bonus and she'll appreciate the drop down in grade. She's one to keep an eye on.

William Haggas' AEOLIAN is another runner in the silks of HM The King & HM The Queen. She only has two runs to her name, picking up a victory in her last start over 2000m at Newmarket. She looks a potentially smart type with a big engine. Whether or not she's ready for this level of race remains to be seen, but she should take the step up in trip in her stride.

ALICE MONET is an intriguing contender having won her last two starts. The step up to 1800m and 1991m the last twice has proven effective for Dermot Weld's filly, with both attempts resulting in victory. She tries 2381m for the first time here, but the additional distance may bring about further improvement.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

JUST A GIRL is on an upward curve and she looks just the right type for this 1400m handicap for 2YOs. She was hugely impressive when making all the running for a six-length success in a novice race at Lingfield two weeks ago. There's no doubt she got the run of the race but it was still an excellent performance to pull so far clear of her rivals upped to 1523m. She had earlier chased home DANEH OF DANDY over 1200m at Ripon and the form of that race looks good after the winner went to on to finish a close fifth in a Newbury Listed race. Charlie Johnston's filly looks nicely treated for her handicap debut.

HEY TRU BLUE appreciated the step up to 1202m when a nice winner at Doncaster in July. He went up to 1400m for his handicap debut at Goodwood three weeks later and ran well to finish fourth despite the heavy ground being far from ideal. Today's conditions should be perfect.

PEEL PARK was very strong in the closing stages when successful on his third start over 1203m at Yarmouth. He looks ready for the return to this longer trip after, earlier, finishing third behind useful A BIT OF SPIRIT and subsequent Listed winner TIME TO TURN over 1300m at Newbury in June.

STELLAR SUNRISE was also held back by slow starts on his first two starts but he was much sharper from the stalls when landing a big-field Goodwood maiden over 1200m last month. That is often a good race and it looked well up to scratch this year. He is bred to appreciate the step up to 1400m for the first time on this handicap debut and he looks the type to keep improving. His high draw in stall 19 is the only negative.

BALLISTIC MISSILE made a promising handicap debut when runner-up at Newmarket two weeks ago. That was his first try at 1400m and he stayed the distance well. It was also his first start since undergoing a breathing operation after finishing well beaten in the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m at Royal Ascot. He did well to finish so close at Newmarket last time as he was poorly positioned in the rear in the early stages behind frontrunning winner HARLEQUIN ANGEL.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

DANCE IN THE STORM was an unlucky loser last time out, but she holds strong claims of gaining compensation here. Having come with what looked like a winning run in a 1400m handicap at Goodwood she suffered late interference from the eventual winner before being beaten into second. She has been nudged up slightly in the weights for that display, but she appears to have plenty of improvement left in her having only had the six career starts. Her draw out wide in gate 16 is not ideal, however it shouldn't prove too much of an inconvenience given she needs to be held up and played late.

FRENCH SAND looks to have a solid chance dropped back in class after finishing a creditable sixth on her turf debut in the Listed Cecil Frail Stakes over 1200m at Haydock Park. On that occasion the Archie Watson-trained filly appeared slightly outpaced before keeping on again suggesting a step up in distance would suit. And, with a good draw in gate one to work from, she can make her presence felt.

BONUS TIME is yet to finish outside the first two in four starts to date. The Paddy Twomey-trained filly was reeled in close home in her, only previous try over 1400m in a handicap at Leopardstown on her penultimate outing. However, she needs to trap smartly from a wide draw in gate 14, but if she does she looks worth another go at the trip on a track which suits prominent runners.

DASH OF AZURE proved a shade keen on her last start in a 1600m handicap at Goodwood, but if she settles better she could fight out the finish dropped in distance. Her only win to date came over 1400m in a handicap at Kempton Park, but then she ran well to finish fifth upped to 1600m in the Sandringham at Royal Ascot. Although the Ralph Beckett-trained filly has an awkward draw in gate 18 to work from, she has the right man on board in Ryan Moore to find a winning passage.

MAYBE NOT gives Classic-winning trainer Ralph Beckett a strong hand in the race after winning a 1600m handicap at Kempton Park last time out. With a decent pace looking guaranteed she can make the most of her stamina late on dropped back in trip and pick off rivals in the closing stages.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

York is a left-handed track. Races over 1000m and 1200m are run on a straight course whilst races over 1400m start from a chute that joins the main straight in a dog leg shape. The same chute is used for races over 4400m. Races over 2800m and 3251m also start from a chute whilst all other starting points are on the round course. Barrier 1 is always drawn on the inside of the track.

York is a high-quality large course with sweeping turns and no undulations. Considered one of the fairest tracks in Great Britain, the straight is approximately 900m and although the layout of the course suits strong galloping types, horses who get to the front early in the straight often will not run down, especially on testing ground.

There are seven races for coverage on Yorkshire Oaks Day.

Feature Race

G1 Yorkshire Oaks (2381m)

Over 2381m the start is on the far right hand side of the course and runners have a decent straight stretch before going around a slight bend then heading down the side straight and around the swooping turn into the lengthy 900m home straight. Whilst barriers are of little importance, keep in mind that they are likely to come down the middle or even head to the grandstand rail on straightening, especially on rain-affected ground.

Other Races

G2 Lowther Stakes & 2yo Allowance (1200m)

Over 1200m they tend to mostly come down the centre of the track, but will normally look to head to the grandstand rail when the ground is soft, thus high draws are favourable on rain affected ground in larger fields.

3yo+ Handicap (1582m)

Over 1582m there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

Listed Galtres Stakes (2381m)

This race is run over the same distance as the Yorkshire Oaks.

2yo Handicap & 3yo+ Fillies & Mares Handicap (1400m)

Over 1400m, although the advantage looks minimal, horses from middle to high gates have a good record overall, but this switches around when the ground is rain affected.

The last ten renewals of the Yorkshire Oaks Day have seen good in the going description, with four of those years being good to firm ground. The weather forecast this year is suggesting clear sunny days in the lead-up and on race day, and if correct the going is likely to be good with a strong possibility of good to firm going.

Minnie Hauk set to dominate the Yorkshire Oaks and make history for O'Brien

Wednesday, 20/8/2025

Aidan O'Brien will be looking to make history again at York on Thursday (21 August). A win in the illustrious G1 Yorkshire Oaks (2381m) will put him level with the great Sir Michael Stoute and Mathew Dawson as the leading trainers in the contest's rich history.

First run in 1849, the Yorkshire Oaks is a premier test for fillies and mares; it acts as a world-class form guide for the major autumn dates and is a gateway to the Arc.

In recent years, it has been dominated by O'Brien and jockey Ryan Moore – the Irish master has won four of the last five runnings, with Moore aboard three times – and their hopes this year lie with Minnie Hauk.

The three-year-old has compelling qualifications. In June, she won the Epsom Oaks (2405m) and, in July, the Irish Oaks (2400m). Now she bids for a Group 1 Oaks treble achieved by Alexandrova in 2006, Enable in 2017 and Snowfall in 2021.

O'Brien has an understandably high opinion of Minnie Hauk. "She's a lovely filly," he said. "She's got a big stride and cruises in the way only good horses do. She's physically well and mentally super. I couldn't be happier with her."

Considering her style of racing, O'Brien added, "She doesn't do a lot once she's in front; she tends to be pulling up. So you see the best of her when there's a strong tempo in the middle of a race."

O'Brien's view that, if all goes well, Minnie Hauk will be aimed at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (2400m) confirms his confidence.

With only four runners, the strong pace O'Brien would prefer for Minnie Hauk is not certain. Stablemate Garden Of Eden is likely to be given the task of ensuring that Minnie Hauk's chance is not compromised by too slow a pace.

Trainer David O'Meara will be hoping to cause an upset with Estrange. This year, the filly has improved to win Group 3 and Group 2 races over 2359m at Haydock. Her only defeat was when she ran disappointingly on fast ground at Yarmouth almost a year ago, and connections have expressed concerns on that front.

O'Meara explained, "She was brilliant last time at Haydock, especially as she was a bit keener than usual – she's usually very relaxed – and was in front a long time. We'd been hoping for a drop of rain so that it wouldn't be good to firm and, fortunately, it did rain. She's not absolutely reliant on heavy ground, but she doesn't really want to be running on very quick ground."

Qilin Queen, Minnie Hauk's other main rival, beat four opponents to narrowly win a Group 2 race in France last month, but needs to improve.

The G2 Lowther Stakes (1200m) features an interesting clash between two talented two-year-old fillies, Royal Fixation and America Queen. On her second appearance, Royal Fixation was narrowly beaten by the short-priced favourite in a Group 2 event, while America Queen was hugely impressive when running away with a maiden race on her only appearance so far.

Many racegoers will be hoping that, later in the day, Rainbows Edge gives the King and Queen a royal winner in the Listed Galtres Stakes (2381m), for which she is expected to start favourite.
