Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 2391m handicap for 3YOs and older horses offers another good opportunity for the Andrew Balding-trained MOUNT ATLAS. Oisin Murphy's top-weight followed a solid fifth in the 2392m Duke Of Edinburgh Handicap at Royal Ascot in June by winning a less competitive race back at the track last month. He has developed into a consistent performer who stays well and acts on the fast ground he will race on here.

THIS SONGISFORYOU is an Irish challenger from a stable that commands maximum respect with the runners that it sends to Britain. Emmet Mullins's gelding has been tried over a variety of trips since winning a competitive 2000m handicap at the Curragh in September. He showed encouraging signs when making late ground to finish fifth in a 2400m G3 race at Leopardstown earlier this month. His trainer is very shrewd and he can be there at the finish.

Trainer Roger Varian has won this race twice in the last 10 years, including 12 months ago. He runs FRENCH DUKE, who has blown his chance with slow starts on his two runs this season when eighth over 2400m at Royal Ascot in June and tenth over 2800m at Glorious Goodwood earlier this month. James Doyle's mount is capable of better and will be competitive if he can get close to his form last summer when he won a 2398m handicap at Glorious Goodwood and finished second in a race over 2,392m distance at Ascot.

MARHABA THE CHAMP has been lightly raced since he won this race in 2023 but he produced his best performance for some time when second in a 2039m handicap at Doncaster last month. He has since joined a new stable in the shape of Sophie Leech, a move which will hopefully have given him a refreshing boost.

NAQEEB was placed in the 2392m Duke Of Edinburgh Handicap at Royal Ascot in June and last time out was runner-up in a 1979m handicap at Glorious Goodwood last month. He is in good form but lacks a decisive turn of foot and has been beaten in 12 races since his last victory in September 2023. He appeals more as one to be placed rather than win.

A consistent and probably still improving performer who defied a big weight to land an Ascot handicap over a similar trip to this last month. Well worth considering.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Lonsdale Cup is one of the most prestigious long-distance races in Britain, ran over 3271m and features six runners.

With KYPRIOS now retired, TRAWLERMAN looks to have established himself as the best stayer around. He has been in excellent form this year, landing the G3 Henry II Stakes at Sandown over 3245m ahead of COLTRANE and AL NAYYIR. The Gosden-trained runner then produced a superb performance in the G1 Gold Cup over 3,991m at Royal Ascot, defeating ILLINOIS by seven lengths. ILLINOIS was initially entered here but not declared and looked the likeliest challenger. Given TRAWLERMAN'S dominance in this sphere, and the clear margin he has established over his rivals, it is hard to see him being beaten.

AL QAREEM represents Karl Burke and arrives in excellent form, winning three of his five starts this year and hitting the frame on each occasion. Crucially, he brings recent course form, having landed both of his last two starts here at York. He first struck in a Listed contest over 2800m in June, before following up in style in the G3 Silver Cup over the same trip, asserting impressively in the closing stages. On current form, he looks the most credible challenger to the Gosden star.

SWEET WILLIAM also lines up for the John and Thady Gosden team. The 6YO is a model of consistency, often in the frame without quite managing to get his head in front this season. Still, he gives the impression that his turn is coming. His most recent victory came in the G2 Doncaster Cup over 3579m last September, and he has continued to shape well in defeat since. York should play to his strengths as the long, galloping track will give him every chance to stay on strongly in the closing stages.

An intriguing addition to the line-up is SHACKLETON, the sole representative from Aidan O'Brien after ILLINOIS was not declared. SHACKLETON is the only 3YO in the field, but the trends are firmly against him as no horse of that age has won this race in the last 30 years. The colt is being tested again over further, having contested the G1 Irish Derby over 2400m earlier this season where he finished eighth, never really landing a blow and appearing outpaced. More encouragement came last time in the G2 Curragh Cup over 2815m, where he stayed on well to take second, suggesting this distance could play more to his strengths.

Continues to be formidable in these races, gaining his ninth career win with a runaway front-running G1 victory at Royal Ascot in June. He got into a comfortably rhythm then and no doubt that will be the plan again.

A familiar contender in top class staying encounters and has won at a G3 and G2 level. But does tend to find one or two rivals too strong in the very best events, like this one.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G2 Gimcrack Stakes is open to 2YO colts and geldings, and run over 1200m at York.

Following several notable defections from this race at the declarations stage, DO OR DO NOT looks to be the leading contender here. Despite the fact he's still a maiden after five races, he's run multiple creditable races in deep company. He finished second in the G2 Coventry Stakes over 1200m to GSTAAD at Royal Ascot, before a pair of placed efforts at Newmarket's July Festival and Glorious Goodwood. Both of those efforts were against good opposition, and as this engagement doesn't look as taxing on paper and it could be the perfect opportunity for him to deservedly get off the mark.

RECIPROCATED looked extremely promising on his first two runs. The son of HAVANA GREY burst onto the scene at Nottingham in June when recording a debut victory over 1216m. He backed that up the next time at Carlisle over 1165m, when winning impressively by four lengths from a handful of winners, and looked to be an extremely promising. His step into Listed company in the Pat Eddery Stakes over 1400m was disappointing to say the least, when finishing a detached sixth of six runners, however his jockey cited that the step up there wasn't to suit. Back down to the 1200m, and under arguably the best 2YO handler around in trainer Karl Burke, there's no reason to believe he can't bounce back and fill the frame at the least.

Similar comments apply for Ralph Beckett's EGOLI. The two-time winner, including at York, didn't look to take the step up to Group company very well in the G2 Richmond Stakes over 1200m. However, he's back in calmer waters here, at a track he runs well at, and can fill the frame.

Thirsk over 1200m debut winner LIFEPLAN shouldn't be overlooked here. Trainer Declan Carroll wouldn't have the most debut winners, so he commands respect. Leading home a well-fancied type of Simon and Ed Crisford's, he kept on well and will likely step forward for that experience.

ROCK ON THUNDER has run with credit on all three of his starts. Last seen when beaten by WISE APPROACH, who was a warm order for this race prior to declarations, he commands a good level of form. He should run his race and be involved in the shake-up.

From the stable that won this last year. But this colt will need to race in a more relaxed manner than when much too free in front at Newmarket last time.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Friday's feature race is the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes, a sprint open to 2YOs and above, run over 1000m.

This will be a real speed duel, and anything ridden with a bit of restraint will have an advantage, and that should be the case with ARIZONA BLAZE. Adrian Murray has tried ARIZONA BLAZE over 1000m and 1200m this season but the former looks his optimum distance. After being touched off by a neck in the G1 Commonwealth Cup over 1200m, he then got the job done nicely in the G2 Sapphire Stakes back down in trip. After that performance, he is entitled to plenty of respect back up to G1 level.

2YOs get a significant weight allowance in this contest, and both LADY IMAN and SPICY MARG can make real use of it. LADY IMAN has been prolific for Ger Lyons this season, only beaten once in five starts. Since her second in the G2 Airlie Stud Stakes over 1200m, she picked up her second Group win in the G3 Molecomb Stakes over 1000m at Goodwood last month. She's handy over this distance and should be in contention once again.

SPICY MARG is also worth keeping an eye on. She ran a respectable race at Royal Ascot in the G2 Queen Mary over 1000m to finish 10th, but didn't enjoy the step up to 1200m on her next appearance in the G2 Duke Of Cambridge Stakes, when weakening inside the final 200m. Last seen at Goodwood back down to 1000m, she sat behind the pace and then showed a devastating turn of foot inside the final 300m to surge past her rivals and win. She could be capable of surprising under Harry Bentley.

Jack Davison's filly SHE'S QUALITY hasn't been able to get her head in front recently, coming second in each of her last four starts, all over 1000m. Those include the G3 HKJC World Pool Palace House Stakes, the G2 Temple Stakes, the G3 Sprint Stakes and most recently seen losing by a neck in the G2 King George Stakes at Goodwood. It's hard to imagine she won't be involved in the finish, but the question is whether or not she can find the extra gear to finally get her head in front.

SAYIDAH DARIYAN finished 1.3-length behind ARIZONA BLAZE to come fourth in the G1 Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot. Her win in the G3 Summer Stakes over 1200m here last month proves she's an improving filly and she can be a challenger back at York again.

Responded to persistent jockey pressure to win a Listed sprint at Chantilly. Struggled in G2 company last time, and this looks an uphill battle also.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

There are a number of fillies in this 2071m handicap with Group-race potential.

ZGHARTA is one of them. She found all sorts of traffic problems when fifth in a 1600m fillies' handicap at Goodwood last month. A slow start didn't help her cause, and she was sluggish from the stalls on her only previous handicap run when not disgraced in the Sandringham Stakes over 1600m at Royal Ascot. It's interesting that both those races were over 1600m as she had won a fillies' maiden over Friday's 2000m distance at Newmarket's Guineas Meeting.

WONDER STAR came close to winning on her handicap debut when runner-up behind prolific ASHARIBA over 1979m at Goodwood last month. She had come up short when tried in a Listed race on her previous start over 2000m at Newbury but that race didn't really set up for her style of racing. There's every chance she can progress to that level, and it is encouraging that she seems to be getting better with every start.

CAPE FLORA has been a slow learner. She had been disappointing in novice races and on her handicap debut over 2000m at Newmarket when she reared coming out of the stalls. Her troubles at the start seemed behind her when the hood she had worn on her three previous starts was taken off over 2000m at Leicester last month. John & Thady Gosden's 3YO was a lot slicker from the gates, and she was never in any trouble as she ran out an impressive six-length winner. This well-bred filly from the family of Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner WALDGEIST could easily take another step forward today.

BRIELLE steps into handicaps after making all the running for a comfortable victory over 1662m at Hamilton last month. She had previously finished second over 2407m at Thirsk and today's 2071m distance could be perfect.

CIARA PEARL made all the running to land quite a hot 2000m fillies' handicap at Nottingham in May. She hasn't been allowed to dominate in three subsequent starts but she is not one dimensional regarding race tactics. There was a fair bit of promise in her midfield effort at Ascot last month but she didn't seem to see out the 2392m distance. The return to 2000m suits her better and it is likely to be a help if she is ridden aggressively.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

NEW MONARCH appears to hold leading claims of finally opening his account at the third attempt of asking in this 1400m maiden. The son of ACCLAMATION backed up his debut second in a Newbury over 1300m novice when filling the same spot in a 1200m maiden at Ascot last time out. On the second occasion the Andrew Badling-trained colt stayed on well enough to suggest that this step up in trip could unlock the improvement needed to get off the mark. Those previous outings will serve him well here and should take plenty of beating if seeing out the new trip.

NAVAL LIGHT arguably brings the strongest form into the race having finished eighth in the G2 Norfolk Stakes over 1000m at Royal Ascot on his penultimate start. However, the Karl Burke-trained HAVANA GREY colt failed to take advantage of what appeared a good opening in a 1200m maiden at Goodwood last time out. He was slow to leave the stalls that day, which possibly cost him late on, but the way he finished suggested he wanted a longer trip. With a host of big race entries next to his name he is evidently held in regard and should be on the premises.

BENY NAHAR has shaped with plenty of promise in both of his starts after finishing second in a 1413m maiden at Newcastle before filling the same spot in a 1393m novice at Haydock. His prominent style of racing should play to his strengths on a track where it often pays to race handily. William Buick is a positive jockey booking, and with Charlie Johnston-trained horses known for their battling ability, he could prove tough to pass.

Any horse that Aidan O'Brien sends to run in Britain merits consideration, which makes FRESCOBALDI of significant interest. The step to 1400m at Fairyhouse really seemed to benefit the NO NAY NEVER colt last time as he was beaten only a head at the finish, a significant improvement on his fifth on debut at the Curragh over 1200m. With Ryan Moore set to take over the ride he could easily take another step forward and put his previous experience to good use.

INISHBEG lacks prior race experience, but this 500,000 guineas purchase is bred to be smart. Trainer Kevin Ryan targets this meeting and it wouldn't be a surprise if this son of GHAIYYATH produced big run on debut.

An interesting and well-bred newcomer – changing hands for a hefty 500,000 gns – and from a stable traditionally strong in the 2yo division.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Clive Cox is delighted how well FEARNOT has strengthened through the season, both physically and mentally, and the trainer feels that he is a Group horse. Not surprisingly, having won two big 1600m handicaps at Ascot, either side of finishing third in a blanket finish to the Britannia Stakes over 1600m at the Royal meeting, FEARNOT has rocketed up the weights. However, he has a potent finishing kick, so, despite his welter burden, he remains the one they all have to beat.

Unraced at two, MONTPELLIER has made rapid strides after being gelded. He won his first two races over 1400m at Thirsk and Newbury but really caught the eye when a fast-finishing fourth (1400m) at Glorious Goodwood, despite an unfavourable high draw. On pedigree there might be doubts as to whether MONTPELLIER will stay this 1600m as his dam won the Prix de l'Abbaye over 1000m at ParisLongchamp. But he powered home at Goodwood, which gives cause for optimism, as does the fact that Ryan Moore rides for the first time.

Since being gelded and moved up to 1600m, FIFTH COLUMN has made phenomenal improvement, winning three of his five races. Having justified strong support on his seasonal debut on Kempton's polytrack over 1600m, FIFTH COLUMN captured two big handicaps over the same trip at Sandown and Newmarket July Course. He had no luck in the Britannia over 1600m at Royal Ascot, winning his race down the centre but having to be content with seventh place. He has relished the fast ground this summer, so connections feared the worst when the ground turned soft at Goodwood, where he still ran respectably to finish fifth in the ultra-competitive Golden Mile Handicap over 1600m.

TEROOMM won his first three races this season, at Bath, Thirsk and Haydock (all over 1600m), but he saw no daylight in the Britannia and then ran too free behind FEARNOT at Ascot in July. He loves fast ground and is rated highly by his trainer, so could still bounce back.

BIG LEADER has come a long way in a short space of time. Unraced at two, he did not make his debut until the end of May but is now unbeaten in three races. He has been brought along steadily, winning his maiden, then a novice and three weeks ago landing a 1600m handicap in impressive fashion at Thirsk. There should still be more to come from him.

SELECTIONS: 1. FEARNOT, 4. MONTPELLIER, 7. FIFTH COLUMN, 8. TEROOMM, 9. BIG LEADER

Probable excuses for a modest show here last year but generally on an upward curve, most recently with a close fourth of 30 at Royal Ascot. But this looks challenging.

Four times a handicap winner this year, looking to thrive on racing. Repeatedly failed to get a clear run when a close third at Goodwood. Looks interesting here.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

York is a left-handed track. Races over 1000m and 1200m are run on a straight course whilst races over 1400m start from a chute that joins the main straight in a dog leg shape. The same chute is used for races over 4400m. Races over 2800m and 3251m also start from a chute whilst all other starting points are on the round course. Barrier 1 is always drawn on the inside of the track.

York is a high-quality large course with sweeping turns and no undulations. Considered one of the fairest tracks in Great Britain, the straight is approximately 900m and although the layout of the course suits strong galloping types, horses who get to the front early in the straight often will not run down, especially on testing ground.

There are seven races for coverage on Nunthorpe Stakes Day.

Feature Race

G1 Nunthorpe Stakes (1000m)

Over 1000m it is considered that there is little draw bias, although they do normally look to go to the centre of the track but can drift to the far side over the concluding stages. Most winners have come predominately down the middle or grandstand rail.

Other Races

3yo+ Handicap (2391m)

Over 2391m the start is on the far-right hand side of the course and runners have a decent straight stretch before going around a slight bend then heading down the side straight and around the swooping turn into the lengthy home straight. Whilst barriers are of little importance, keep in mind they are likely to come down the middle or even head to the grandstand rail on straightening, especially on rain-affected ground.

G2 Lonsdale Cup (3271m)

Over 3271m there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into, especially on rain affected ground.

G2 Gimcrack Stakes (1200m)

Over 1200m they tend to mostly come down the centre of the track but will normally look to head to the grandstand rail when the ground is soft, thus high draws are favourable on rain affected ground in larger fields.

3yo+ Fillies & Mares 0-105 Handicap (2071m)

Over 2071m they start from the far side of the course and although there is a slight bend not long after leaving the gates, barriers are of little importance, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

2yo Maiden (1400m)

Over 1400m, although the advantage looks minimal, horses from middle to high gates have a good record overall, but this switches around when the ground is rain affected.

3yo 0-105 Handicap (1590m)

Over 1590m there is no draw bias, but keep in mind they do tend to head to the middle and sometimes the grandstand rail when they come into the straight, especially on rain affected ground.

The last ten renewals of the Nunthorpe Stakes have seen good in the going description, with six of those years being good to firm ground. The weather forecast this year is suggesting clear sunny days in the lead-up and on race day, and if correct the going is likely to be good with a strong possibility of good to firm going.

Harry Bentley hoping two-year-old speed can deliver Nunthorpe Stakes glory

Thursday, 21/8/2025

It is a very rare but enjoyable storyline when two-year-olds take the plunge against their elders, but it only occasionally happens in the sprinting showdown of the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes (22 August) over York's speed-favouring 1000m.

Two fast young fillies have been supplemented at £40,000 each, with their supporters hoping that weight and sex allowances will lead to glory in one of Europe's most prestigious sprints.

International interest is added by Harry Bentley's booking for Spicy Marg, with the other youngster – the Irish-trained Lady Iman, who may start favourite – partnered with 54-year-old veteran Joe Fanning, who is one of very few top UK-based jockeys who can ride at 8 stone 2lbs (51.7kg).

Coincidentally, Spicy Marg and Lady Iman both booked their Nunthorpe tickets with 1000m victories at Goodwood on 30 July; Spicy Marg's victory in the Alice Keppel Stakes coming in a slightly faster time than Lady Iman's success in the G3 Molecomb Stakes.

Hong Kong-based Bentley has cut short a holiday to ride the Michael Bell-trained Spicy Marg and said: "It is a while since a two-year-old won the Nunthorpe but not many have tried. Her time was really fast at Goodwood and she gave me a 'push-button feel' when I rode her in work. All the signs are positive."

Fillies and mares have thrived in recent times, capturing eight of the last 14 runnings from limited representation. This year they are well represented, including the Group 1 winning Australian mare Asfoora who needs to bounce back from a modest showing in the G2 King George Stakes (1000m) at Goodwood earlier this month, where four of Friday's rivals – Jm Jungle, She's Quality, Night Raider and Frost At Dawn – finished in front of her.

Richard Hughes is no stranger to winning the Nunthorpe; the difference between then and now is that the three-time British champion jockey is eyeing it as a trainer.

Hughes has booked Ryan Moore, who gained a thrilling last-gasp victory for him in a York handicap on Wednesday (20 August), to do the steering on Sayidah Dariyan. Drawing on his two Nunthorpe riding victories, he has firm views on how this famous sprint is best won. "I have always thought that it is a race that you need to get your fractions the same every furlong in a sprint in which they can go too fast early and resulting in a pace collapse."

Renowned for his patience in the saddle, Hughes thinks that those tactics played a key role in Sayidah Dariyan's stylish 1200m victory here last month. "She was ridden quietly and then she just exploded. That is the way we see her best. I wouldn't swap her for anything," says the 52-year-old who last month landed his first training Group 1 when No Half Measures recorded a 66-1 shock in Newmarket's July Cup (1200m).

Meanwhile, trainer Ed Walker gave a bullish shout for both his contenders, Mgheera and Celandine. Of the former, Walker said: "She'll be suited by this flat fast track and we've always thought that this would be her race." And of Celandine, he commented: "Fast ground will play to her strengths and she returns to the track where she has run her two best races."
