Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

GETTA GOOD FEELING is the standout selection for this contest for 3YO fillies following a hard fought third place in the G1 Thousand Guineas at Caulfield. That win elevates her rating to an all-time high and positions her to a distinct advantage in this G2 event at the set weights and penalties scale. The rise in distance to 2000m does come under notice but she should race handy to the speed early on without burning any gas. Shall take a power of beating.

PRESTIGE SNITZEL gave the indication in the G2 Fillies Classic that she'll handle the rise to 2000m with confidence. She lacked the necessary turn of foot to stay with the winner over 1600m and benefits here by a reduction in weight. She has raced at Flemington in the past on two previous occasions with a positive performance recorded both times.

FREEDOM FLAME won the listed Hill Smith Stakes over 1800m in Adelaide leading in which has provided subsequent winners during the spring carnival in the past. She's a likeable type residing in a powerful stable that actually won the Victoria Derby in 2024 with GOLDRUSH GURU. Furthermore, she's a half-sister to multiple group race winner DALASAN.

FASHIONABLE won her maiden at Hawkesbury in early October over 1800m by digging deep in the home stretch. She settled just behind the speed early before producing a strong sustained effort over the concluding stages. Like most competing, she has plenty to find if she's going to roll the favourite, but she'll run out the trip and has plenty of scope on her side.

ETHEREUM GIRL comes back in class from a performance in the G1 Thousand Guineas and rises in distance to 2000m. Her effort prior, in the G2 Thousand Guineas Prelude was actually very good before a disappointing run last time. She's drawn to do no work and is bred to run the distance so she's certainly in the running for a piece of the prize.
