Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

MIEWA is another exciting 3YO to emerged onto the scene this spring and shouldn't be underestimated. His runner-up finish behind OPTIONS in the listed Super Impose Stakes was as good a run as the winner, with only luck separating the pair at the end. Another luckless narrow defeat in the G3 Caulfield Classic over 2000m followed but in the process confirmed his ability range for this classic 3YO event. He's an extremely professional gelding, capable of conserving energy early on before finding the extra gear when it's later required. Furthermore, he holds vital experience around this big spacious track which is a component best required to win.

OBSERVER showed plenty of upside and talent as a 2YO by winning his second start at Sandown by a decisive five lengths. He was then transferred to the stable of Ciaron Maher, following a short winter spell, before producing a fantastic final 400m first up to just miss the win. A crack at the G1 Caulfield Guineas was his next assignment where he stood up incredibly well by finishing third, before an all the way victory in last week's G2 Moonee Valley Vase confirmed his status as the G1 Victoria Derby favourite.

PROVIDENCE has produced sectional data that gives him a great chance but he's a horse with plenty still to learn. James McDonald jumped back aboard last start, after two previous tries, and together they produced an outstanding final 300m sectional in the G2 Moonee Valley Vase to just miss. It would be quite easy to get excited about that exceptional piece of work, particularly with a transfer to the open spaces of famous Flemington tipped to assist.

AUTUMN MYSTERY arrives with the appropriate winning form, and pedigree, to be right in amongst the battle. With a powerful finishing burst his biggest asset he'll be perfectly suited to the long home straight at Flemington. Furthermore, he displayed versatility most recently when winning the G3 Caulfield Classic at Caulfield after racing handier to the speed. In another exciting edition of the G1 Victoria Derby he's expected to run a great race, but the wide barrier has made his task challenging.

SAVISANTA is yet to break his maiden status but can't be overlooked judge on his third placing in the listed Geelong Classic over 2200m. He made significant headway through the final 300m, when the tempo suited those in the first half, which normally indicates an ability to cope with extra ground. He's still to prove his authenticity at this high level but there's every chance he'll thrive at the opportunity to run 2500m.
