Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

VESTAS should have no question marks alongside her name regarding her ability to handle this track despite the fact she's competed here only twice. Her fast closing third in the G3 HKJC World Pool Northwood Plume Stakes was one of the runs of the day, against the tracks slight on speed bias, before she began slowly in the G2 McEwen Stakes last start. She's draw nicely nearer the outside rail which entitles her to cover throughout, and with a touch of luck thereafter she be able to burst through to win.

DE BERGERAC continues raising his output level throughout this campaign and is extremely deserved of the opportunity to stand up at listed level. He possesses all the statistics required over this course and trip, can adapt to any conditions underfoot and is trained by an outstandingly prudent horseman in Grahame Begg. Jockey Declan Bates also has a terrific understanding of what this guy needs so if he handles the rise in class he can win.

BIG SWINGER boasts an imposing record of four wins from six starts and must be treated with genuine respect. He hasn't been to the races since a win at Caulfield over 1200m at the end of May but has been involved in two jump outs and a trial leading in. He wasn't exposed in any of the three lead up gallops referred, but at the same time hinted he's feeling well. A positive parade ring report is the key.

DISNECK has plenty of ticks alongside his name in this competitive contest and rates one of the many chances. He was superb cutting down all opponents to win a Bm94 at Randwick three runs back before being held up at a crucial point in the G3 Sydney Stakes. He then cope extremely well with limited opportunities nearer the inside rail in the G3 Rising Fast Stakes but gained valuable recent experience at Flemington. Continues to apply himself well and right in the mix.

KING OF ROSEAU resumes from a freshen up following three consecutive wins. His effort to win here at Flemington over 1200m in the G3 Aurie's Star Handicap was a polished performance. It also rated a career high but gave the indication he's still to fully mature, so it's anticipated better efforts are to follow. A trial at Rosehill two weeks ago was graded solid, making him the x-factor component to this tricky contest.
