Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

TREASURETHE MOMENT was the star 3YO filly of Australia last season after winning the G1 VRC Oaks, G1 Vinery Stud Stakes and G1 Australian Oaks. She returned to racing a 4YO mare in the G1 Memsie Stakes at Caulfield and destroyed a supremely talented field of gallopers. A colic issue set her back a few weeks thereafter before chasing home the front running power of PRIDE OF JENNI in the G2 Feehan Stakes. A tactical and slowly run affair in the G1 Caulfield Stakes made it difficult to catch winner GLOBE but she bounced back with a fabulous third place in the G1 Cox Plate. Should secure the run of the race just off speed.

PRIDE OF JENNI can never be overlooked in a race of this nature because she has a freakish ability to dominate. We all witnessed her unique greatness last Saturday in the all girls G1 Empire Rose stakes here at Flemington. At 1600m, she can lead with relative ease before busting up the field with a hard-core gut busting sectional climate. She delivered that to MR BRIGHTSIDE in 2023, then first up she flattened emerging super star TREASURETHE MOMENT. The initial speed around her is vital to the outcome of her results, so let's hope she enjoys another comfortable first 200m.

MR BRIGHTSIDE needs no introduction after notching up his tenth G1 victory in the G1 Makybe Diva Stakes in September before narrowly going under to CEOLWULF last start in the G1 King Charles III Stakes at Randwick. Now returning back to the comfort and advantage of his home ground he'll take a power of beating following a comfortable week on the training track. A gallant second in this event in 2023 behind PRIDE OF JENNI was followed by an incredible win in 2024, where he narrowly defeated ANTINO and FANGIRL.

LEICA LUCY was defeated only once before winning the coveted G1 New Zealand Oaks in March with her best racing results potentially still to come. She transferred to Chris Waller's stable in April before running strongly first up in the G2 Let's Elope Stakes to finish fourth. A return to Flemington last start in the G1 Empire Rose Stakes so her rate almost a career peak, but unfortunately she bumped into PRIDE OF JENNI. She's ready to win and the quick back should be assessed as positive.

CEOLWULF enjoyed a solid and similar preparation to what he encountered last season before making it back-to back wins in the G1 King Charles III Stakes. A superbly executed ride on both occasions by former Hong Kong Jockey Chad Schofield was the key to success after positioning perfectly in transition. It's his first trip away from home, and likewise his first encounter with the anti-clockwise direction, but we know he adores a strong tempo to chase and can handle any prevailing track conditions.
