Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

VIA SISTINA commenced her season as an 8YO mare with a tradesman like performance to win the G1 Winx Stakes at Randwick under James McDonald. Since then, she's had to navigate a changing itinerary to her spring campaign but hasn't given much away in defeat. Her defence of the 2024 G1 Cox Plate victory was always the long range target and she delivered the goods with an epic victory in the recently run 2025 edition. Her grit and determination, should again assist her in making it back-to-back wins in this coveted G1 event.

LIGHT INFANTRY MAN was a surprise leader in the G1 Cox Plate and eventually overpowered by the class of VIA SISTINA in the run to the line. He'll be much better suited to the 2000m of famous Flemington which is where he won the G1 Australian Cup in March. He's enjoyed racing so far this current campaign and is now ready to strike a blow fourth run back from a spell. I wouldn't expect him to attempt a leading run today, it'll be more a conservative energy saving approach, before joining in with power at the end.

TOM KITTEN arrives ready to peak fourth run back from a winter spell and is now trained by Anthony & Sam Freedman. The two-time G1 winner is ready to step up in trip to the 2000m following three improving performances over the mile. He won the G1 The All-Star Mile here at Flemington in March defeating MR BRIGHTSIDE, before testing VIA SISTINA in the G1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes over today's journey of 2000m in April.

ATTRITION won the G1 Toorak Handicap in 2023 before the 2024 G2 Hill Stakes at Rosehill almost a year down the track. Numerous high class performances have since been witnessed, at various venues around Australia, but no major victory sealed along the way. Nevertheless, there's been nothing but admiration following his three runs back this campaign with his recent fourth placing in the G1 Cox Plate the pinnacle reference of Australian racing.

GOLDEN PATH is a high cruising on pace conveyance who can be entertained under the expected conditions of this event. His third placing in the G1 Underwood Stakes behind SIR DELIUS and BUCKAROO was an excellent on speed display and there is no apparent opposition, on paper, to contest this race for the lead. With a superb record on rain affected tracks also on his curriculum vitae he can potentially run a strong race in front.

Likely Positions After Settling

Pace: GOOD

With the lack of a leader LIGHT INFANTRY MAN who led at his last start and has a low draw might take the early lead. GOLDEN PATH has early speed and can get into the trail. ZAMBARDO will not be far away. TOM KITTEN and VIA SISTINA should settle midfield.
