Overseas Expert Column by Catrin Nack

S2-3 is another Handicap, this time run over a distance of 2000m. Starting stalls are very close to a bend, so the very inside draw might not be helpful, nor will be the outside ones as riders will have to use of energy to get a good position. As is the case with every Handicap at Munich racecourse, this race is very much a “them vs. us” affair. Munich trainers vs. “outsiders”. Munich still has a very vibrant training centre and local trainers naturally take any chance they get to run their horses with no travel costs involved. Werner Glanz, Jutta Mayer and Michael Figge all train here and run half the field.

There is not such a wide gap in ratings as in the mile race, but horses No. 1 - 4 all carry claimers. These are the best horses in the field though, and NERIO and KELANI must get a mention. As said in S2-2, Esentur Turganaaly Uulu is worth his claim in gold and rides with a lot of confidence.

OUI NO SI has a very patchy record but won this year, his jockey booking is eye-catching though. In fact Jutta Mayer secured the services of some of Germanys top jockeys and it's hard to know which is her most fancied runner, but NAJEM SHALGHODA carries Thore Hammer-Hansen so must be noted.

Jan Korpas and Pavel Vovcenko are shrewd handlers who have to travel a long way to be here, so but ARAL, another winner with a very patchy record otherwise, and MENUETT must be noted.

Frank Fuhrmann runs two horses at the bottom of the handicap, of which NO STOPPING HER must get a mention. She hasn't yet won in 2025 but is on a very handy mark as a result and Anna van den Troost is one of the strongest women in the saddle over here. Similar comments apply for CITY CAT, winless for quite a while her mark has plummeted and she surely must be competitive of her current rating.
