Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

King's Plate Day 2026 gets underway with the opener for juveniles, named after Charles Dickens, one of the greatest milers in recent South African history. Unbeaten at 2YO, formidable as a Cape Guineas winning 3YO, he then won the King's Plate as 4YO and was rated as the 7th Best Racehorse in the World by Longines in his prime.

Juveniles can be hard to call accurately as they are prone to make dramatic improvement from one start to the next. And horseplayers must form opinions about these babies on maybe just a start or two. Debutants add even more mystery to proceedings. Irish great, Oisin Murphy is in Cape Town, riding for trainer Justin Snaith, who has a very powerful string and uses these marquee days to bolster his reputation.

SWEET GREEN is by outstanding sire, GIMMETHEGREENLIGHT and though beaten on debut there was plenty of market support and she could step up big time with the experience of a race.

Snaith also saddles the RAFEEF's filly, CHAMPAGNE CASTLE, who won at odds on at her second start. On debut she clocked in under two lengths off QUERARI DANCER in one of the key Juvenile races to date. Richard Fourie sticks solid.

Glen Kotzen's BUFFALO BILL CODY's colt, CATWALK KING defeated SWEET GREEN when making her second start. He too had run decently at his first start behind QUERARI DANCER so is right in the mix.

KIARTAY chased MARSEILLES all the way on debut. He is trained by Herman Brown and will be ridden by Rene Piechulek, who famously guided TORQUATOR TASSO through the mud to win the 2021 Prix de l' Arc de Triomphe.

Trainer Vaughan Marshall is renowned for his handling of naturally gifted juveniles and developing them into Classic 3YO's. He saddles WORLD SERIES (by One World – a Sun Met victor when trained by Marshall) and a market watch is advised. Meaningful support must be taken seriously.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

13 runners load up in this closely rated contest down the Kenilworth straight course. Whilst there are no tearaway speedballs, several entries go best racing handy so the pace should be good.

WILD APPLAUSE ran on determinedly in the Laisserfaire Stakes in early November despite a slipped saddle, earning a career top speed figure. Trainer Justin Snaith has rested her since and booked Oisin Murphy for the ride in a sign of positive intent. She also has a neat record over the course and distance using hold-up tactics.

Stablemate PINK PIGEON was right next to her in the same race won by DISTING and there should again be little separating them. PINK PIGEON prefers to stalk the speed and should give her running under Richard Fourie who excels on those sorts of horses.

SOHOT SOWHAT is tactically adaptable. She can race forwardly but has also done well when conserved for a late dash. Gavin Lerena has a good record on her and is a 19.6% strike rate jockey on current National stats.

MISS WORLD is intriguing as a mere one-time winner from 21 stars who is still rated in the mid 90's by the official handicapper. Greg Ennion's filly has placed 12 times, including in stronger fields, which accounts for her current mark. She is not the soundest (reported as feeling amiss or hanging on a few occasions) yet she usually gives of her best and is now dropping down to a weaker class level than what she has been facing recently.

VROOM VROOM is a progressive 3YO who thrashed a subsequent winner, SILVER SALUTE when winning her second start. She is hard to peg accurately but could make her presence known under Muzi Yeni.

Has hardly put a foot wrong in her first two career starts, finishing second on debut before winning at the second time of asking. Will need to improve off that victory in maiden grade but looks to have something in hand.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

Another wide-open, big field sprint with 15 gallopers carded. There are no clear and obvious leaders but given the size of the field, the pace should at least be decent.

The faster the early tempo the better though for IRELAND FOREVER, who turns back to 1200m after finishing strongly over 1400m to win his last start with a career top speed figure. He has been raised four points for his troubles, yet such was the fluency of that win (after being held tight in a pocket for a long way up the straight) that he might handle the merit rating increase and go in again. Sean Veale, adept on hold up horses is engaged by Vaughan Marshall, a perennially successful conditioner who is trying to snap a short-term, cold streak (winless in December).

AZZURRI has solid credentials at this level off his current mark. And, unlike IRELAND FOREVER who will be weaving past tiring horses, he can make his own luck stalking the pace.

LOVING PRAGUE got a useful speed figure at his penultimate and duly followed up with a Maiden win. He is respected on handicap debut for the Andre Nel yard who maintain high strike rates when engaging clever race-rider, Aldo Domeyer (31% win and 62% places).

SPIRIT won gamely last time meeting the speed score par standard for this class and should go nicely. He was observed running on in that race from off the pace after a sluggish get-away. AZZURRI also comes out of that key form line, and they should all be in the mix again.

CATCH A PENNY did especially well when pipping PINK PIGEON on the 6th December and missed narrowly at her follow up after a sluggish start. She needs to pull off a clean break this time to make her closing rally count.

Has been ordinary in four starts since winning in April and connections would need to orchestrate a miraculous form reversal to be competitive. Drops in trip.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

Behind Cape Fillies Guineas heroine, QUICKSTEPGAL is a feel-good success story. The filly has transformed the fortunes and profile of low-profile trainer, Tienie Prinsloo. The 3YO has won five of eight starts, likes to press forward then kick gamely to see off pursuers. She is effective between 1100m and 1600m. This will be her biggest test as she turns back to sprints and faces accomplished older fillies and mares.

MON PETIT CHERIE is one such formidable rival. James Crawford's entry won the SA Fillies Guineas in May 2025 and has been given an official merit rating (OMR) of 120. She is officially the best weighted under the terms of this race and whilst at her absolute best between 1400m and 1600m, can sprint well, too.

SYMPHONY IN WHITE mixes her form and is a winner of just three of her 16 starts. Those are not strong selling points yet when all parts are in working order she can produce top notch performances, witness a cracking second to ASIYE PHAMBILI in the Southern Cross Stakes a month ago. A stiff six furlongs run at a solid pace will suit her ideally.

MIA MOO nearly always hits her numbers. Sean Tarry's filly has run to her rating in all three major SA centres – Johannesburg, Durban and Cape Town. She ought to again be right there at the wire.

PRINCESS OF GAUL is a 3YO to reckon with.

SELECTIONS: 1. MON PETIT CHERIE, 10. QUICKSTEPGAL, 14. SYMPHONY IN WHITE, 2. MIA MOO & 13. PRINCESS OF GAUL

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

There is seemingly no clear leader in this 1800m race so it could be slow run early with a premium placed on positioning and the ability to quicken in the straight.

Under the anticipated circumstances, classy NATIVE RULER who has a smart turn of foot, gets the nod. He was the fastest finisher in the Durban July and dashed home more recently in the Green Point Stakes. He and jockey Juan Paul Van Der Merwe have a special affinity, and they should get a good trip from the inside alley.

Justin Snaith trained stablemate, REGULATION is drawn alongside at 2. He is forging ahead this summer now that breathing issues have been remedied, running escalating figures. The warning to his foes is that this son of LEGISLATE may not yet have reached a ceiling. Richard Fourie rides.

Snaith also brings back G1 Daily News 3rd OKAVANGO after a two month's freshening. Taking their last clash literally, he has NATIVE RULER cold at the weights but that may not be a true representation of their merits. Instead, NATIVE RULER who produced a superior performance in the Durban July is preferred.

Wherever REGULATION finishes, MAJOR MASTER should be nearby. He made a sharp move from the back of the field in the energy sapping Peninsula Handicap, briefly looking like he would go on and win, only for REGULATION to outduel him in a tense struggle. If the Premier Trophy plays out in a jog early or sprint late scenario, then MAJOR MASTER's powers of acceleration will stand him in good stead.

The grey, ZEITZ can make the board on his best runs though was well held by REGULATION and MAJOR MASTER last time. In mitigation, he choked up on that occasion, and now trainer Andre Nel slaps blinkers back on.

SELECTIONS: 1. NATIVE RULER, 10. MAJOR MASTER, 2. REGULATION, 7. OKAVANGO & 3. ZEITZ

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

DOUBLE GRAND SLAM defends her G1 Paddock Stakes crown and is again best weighted by three points over RED PALACE with quite a gap to the next on the official ratings, REET PETITE and RAINBOW LORIKEET. DOUBLE GRAND SLAM has won nine of 19 starts; is high class between 1200m and this 1800m journey; has enjoyed a good prep and tends to go best second up after a freshening; plus, she gets the services of Irish wizard, Oisin Murphy. Those are all important boxes to tick, and she could be hard to beat.

SUKHUMVIT, winner of the race where RED PALACE flopped, may pose a bigger threat to DOUBLE GRAND SLAM. Trainer Alec Laird says she has improved since then and ought to put up a career top. The mare likes to free wheel along on, or up with, the pace and could be hard to run down if given too much leeway.

Of the 3YO's, REET PETITE, WISH LIST and KEUKENHOF could be factors receiving 6kg's from the older champion.

REET PETITE, who won her first three starts in some style, chased QUICKSTEP GAL all the way around the track when second in the Cape Fillies Guineas and could enjoy a true run 1800m.

WISH LIST also races as if a longer route should be well within her compass – a prediction given added credence by her stamina- laded pedigree.

KEUKENHOF clocked the fastest 400m to finish sectional in the Cape Fillies Guineas after being dropped out from a wide draw. When others are gasping for gas, she might only then be getting into full stride, so is a late-running threat.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

Will BUFFALO STORM CODY confirm his status as South Africa's highest rated galloper (OMR 132) by winning the G1 Cape Flying Championship, a G1 sprint over 1000m run at Weight for Age against 14 opposing speedballs? Since being gelded in March 2025, he has triumphed in seven of eight starts. His only loss came at Greyville in the G3 Post Merchants when behind I AM GIANT and O' TENIKWA, who take him on again.

Candice Bass's sprinter TENANGO (rejuvenated since a wind op) rushed past O' TENIKWA, who is himself no sluggard, in the G1 Golden Horse Sprint so there are lines of form which suggest that Tony Peter's charge, brilliant as he may be, is not invincible. BUFFALO STORM CODY must also undertake a 1400km road journey to get to Kenilworth.

OUTLAW KING got a perfect steer from Craig Zackey to win the G2 Cape Merchants. He is reliable with a nice turn of acceleration yet may struggle to repeat as I AM GIANT was gaining rapidly, only just missing after a tough trip. And I AM GIANT is 3.5kg's better off at the weights for a neck beating.

A winner of six of his 28 starts, the six-year-old has mixed his form of late and enters the race off a second two runs back and a last-start 15th. Looks unlikely to figure.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

14 of South Africa's finest milers and middle-distance thoroughbreds (eight of them have already won G1's) contest a hot 165th renewal of the prestigious, G1 King's Plate.

3YO's JAN VAN GOYEN will be trying to beat off elders and win this historic prize, first offered in 1861 when Queen Victoria donated a silver plate and 500 sovereigns to the victor. He won the Cape Guineas convincingly over this course and distance. The speed map is in his favour – he should get a perfect stalking trip behind DAVE THE KING and LEGAL COUNSEL from his low draw.

SAIL THE SEAS might be more of a threat. He has beaten EIGHT ON EIGHTEEN before at level weights over this trip and has enjoyed a perfect prep coming into this race. A good comeback after an injury to 1400m specialist GREAT PLAINS was followed by a staying on 4th, under a length off DAVE THE KING in the Green Point Stakes. He also figures to get a smooth run in transit from draw 5.

THE REAL PRINCE was slightly ring rusty when needing it in the Green Point Stakes and was noted running on steadily from too far back. Previously, this high-class talent won the Durban July over 2200m but has extremely smart form over 1400 or 1600m and is an established G1 performer. Trainer Dean Kannemeyer revealed that his charge "is flying after an 800m sprint last week sharpened him up and is a contender in a great race."

Speaking of acceleration, GARRIX's run in the Green Point Stakes was remarkable. Dead last with 300m to go, it took a turbo boosted finish to get within a neck of DAVE THE KING. He has specifically targeted this race in a long-term project by father son, Piet/Elbert Steyn. Elbert Steyn says, "GARRIX is in very good condition and will run big on Saturday."

SEE IT AGAIN showed signs of rejuvenation, running a similar race to GARRIX last time. He was a champion in his prime, and a reversion to the pick of his multiple G1 winning past performances makes him dangerous, but he is an unreliable starter and at his absolute best over longer routes.

Pace: GOOD

DAVE THE KING likes to lead and he can go to the front from his inside gate. LEGAL COUNSEL has good early speed and he can come across and share the lead. JAN VAN GOYEN has a good draw and he can get into the trail. SAIL THE SEAS will not be far away. EIGHT ON EIGHTEEN may be trapped wide from his tricky draw. SEE IT AGAIN should be at rear.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

There is little emphasis on stayers' races on the South African racing program, so the true endurance specialists have only a few chances to show their worth under suitable tests of stamina. One such race is the Chairman's Cup, now run over 2500m. This year's showdown stars well established marathon runners like Java Stakes winner, DAIMYO who mixes his form due to respiratory issues; SA Oaks 'bridesmaid' and officially best weighted here, WORLD OF ALICE; Cape Summer Stayers Handicap winner plus narrow runner up, the giant-sized galloper, HOLDING THUMBS and emerging long-distance force, AHEAD OF THE FACTS.

MASTER OF PARIS, placed over 2400m is a light weight with no stamina doubts. The grey is conditioned by Justin Snaith who saddles four of the nine entries on potentially a banner day for Cape Town biggest stable.

Another one of Justin Snaith's relay team is MAGIC VERSE who is untried this trip and has been set the steady burden of 62kg's. On a positive note, he has strong form over slightly shorter, including a fastest-finisher showing over 2200m in the G3 July Consolation at Greyville in July. If extra ground is in fact what he has been yearning for, then MAGIC VERSE can win this. Juan Paul Van Der Merwe rides - an ideal partnership given MAGIC VERSE's preferred running style and Juan Paul Van Der Merwe's skill on hold up horses.

That said, if MAGIC VERSE has winning claims, then so too must TRIPLE TIME on the weight shift from their clash in mid-October, as well as their meeting in the Premiers won by RASCALLION in January 2025. Problem is the often-placed, grey doesn't do much winning (just two salutes from 24 starts) and supporters are running short of alibis.

Overseas Expert Column by Mark van Deventer

Compiling a short list here is challenging as plausible cases can be made for most of the full field of 15 going 1400m. Two well drawn 3YO's exiting the Cape Guineas are appealing – BEWARE and ROLAND GARROS.

The former was dropped out from an outer barrier to last before staying on belatedly and is perhaps better assessed on the good speed figure earned at his penultimate. He was ridden handily by the excellent, Richard Fourie on that occasion, (on board at both his wins) and has again been booked by Lucinda Woodruff.

ROLAND GARROS raced forwardly in the Cape Guineas before giving way after a bumpy passage and might also be better ranked on his fine second to very promising, GREEN GATEWAY at his previous start.

PLEASE BE TRUE has back form which brings him into the picture, too. All three wins have come on soft going, though which is unlikely to apply on Saturday in the middle of a dry summer. Nevertheless, with the flamboyant, Grant Van Niekerk riding, he might be a dark horse, "lurker" as he can also handle a firmer surface and still finish with zest.

S'Manga Khumalo on DAWN TILL DUSK should also be kept onside. The fickle sort is hard to catch right with patchy records due to physical problems. But he can mix it at this level on a going day.

High number draws are at a disadvantage over 1400m with the start close to a sweeping bend. There is a long straight to make progress if there is a pace meltdown, but fast-developing 3YO, TOUCHED BY ANGELS, HAT'S PRIDE and the spirited, deep closer, CHASINGTHERAINBOW will need to get lucky breaks.

SELECTIONS: 1. BEWARE, 2. ROLAND GARROS, 6. PLEASE BE TRUE, 8. DAWN TILL DUSK & 13. TOUCHED BY ANGELS

Three-year-old hasn't done much wrong early in his career and could certainly have saluted more than just the once through his first five starts. Can make an impact here.

Track Analysis by Mark van Deventer

Kenilworth is situated in the Southern Suburbs of Cape Town on a large expanse of land with mountains framing a beautiful backdrop. The infield is a Green Belt preserve of natural flora, and the racetrack itself has a reputation for being one of the fairest galloping courses in South Africa.

The Winter (old) course has a shorter run-in (450m) than the Summer (new) track. Racing handy on the Winter track with an inside rail trip is usually the preferred tactic, especially when the going is soft to heavy. However, the 600m, flat and wide open straight of the summer course gives off-pace closers a fair shake.

Feature Race

G1 King's Plate (1600m)

G1 King's Plate takes place on the summer course. The left-handed turns for races around the bend are gradual and sweeping which makes for fair racing. There is a long back straight but races over 1600m can be draw sensitive – inside or low numbers are favoured.

Other Races

Charles Dickens Stakes and G1 World Pool Cape Flying Championship (1000m)

Races over 1000m are staged down a straight with slight undulations. Most of the time there is no clear bias to the sprint track but that can change suddenly depending on rain, wind or track maintenance. Recently, horses have been making their winning runs towards the middle or inside.

Cape B Stakes, Class 4 Handicap and G2 Sceptre Stakes (1200m)

The route for 1200m Cape B Stakes, Class 4 Handicap and G2 Sceptre Stakes is similar to 1000m. The 1200m sprint can be quite stiff, given those rises in ground.

G2 Premier Trophy and G1 Paddock Stakes (1800m)

In races at 1800m on the summer course, barrier draws are less significant. There is a slight decline heading towards the turn of 600m from where it is quite even throughout. However, as there is just around 150m to 200m before they reach the turn, low number draws are somewhat helpful, but there is plenty of time to manoeuvre and find cover down the back straight.

G3 Chairman's Cup (2500m)

The route for 2500m G3 Chairman's Cup is similar to 1800m.

Cape B Stakes (1400m)

The route for 1400m Cape B Stakes is similar to 1600m.

Wind is an important factor at Kenilworth. During Winter, the rain-bearing, northwester blows down the sprint track as a tailwind. The prevailing, dry, summer wind is the southeaster which can be very strong at times. Runners must tack right into it as a headwind up the straight.

There is a nuanced art to riding Kenilworth when the wind is blowing. Jockeys with a knack for finding optimal, stalking positions with cover, and judging pace well, do best.

Murray opts for rising star Jan Van Goyen in G1 King's Plate showdown

Thursday, 8/1/2026

It's an exciting three-year-old who commands much of the conversation ahead of Saturday's (10 January) G1 King's Plate (1600m) at Kenilworth in South Africa.

While the past two South African Horse of the Year recipients, Dave The King and Eight On Eighteen, are in the field, it is Jan Van Goyen who has tongues wagging ahead of the prestigious feature.

Victorious in the G1 Cape Guineas (1600m) over this course and distance, Jan Van Goyen is the lone three-year-old in the field and, as a result, the colt will carry 11lb less than his 13 rivals.

One of two runners for Mike and Mathew de Kock along with Dave The King, Jan Van Goyen is the choice of leading jockey Callan Murray after posting four wins and two seconds from the colt's six career starts, including two victories at the top level.

Murray, who spent time riding in Hong Kong before departing in 2019, is the only jockey to partner the son of Master Of My Fate on race day.

"I definitely had a decision to make. Obviously, Dave The King's a really good horse. He won well last time considering he got a lot of pressure and it wasn't really run to suit. He had to be very tough," said Murray of a horse he has also partnered to victory at the highest level in 2025, with the pair scooping the Gold Challenge (1600m) at Greyville.

"I also think that with not much rain about in Cape Town the track is going to be quite firm, which plays into his hands.

"Those are the pros with him, but I thought there were a lot of pros about Jan Van Goyen, too. Being the young horse getting a bit of weight from them, I opted that way.

"It's very exciting. We've really liked him from day dot and to see him prove it on the racecourse has been great. It'd be nice to see him pull one off against the older horses."

It was also Murray who was in the saddle for Dave The King's last-start victory in the G2 Green Point Stakes (1600m) at the course and distance of Saturday's contest.

Behind Dave The King, who will be ridden by Ryan Munger this weekend, in that key lead-up contest on 13 December were Garrix, See It Again and Sail The Seas, who should all feature prominently in the King's Plate market.

"Garrix and See It Again were finishing very well, even Sail The Seas I thought was finishing quite well," Murray said.

"Obviously Eight On Eighteen is having his first run (since July) but he's probably the best horse in the race on paper, but a mile is probably short of his best and first up it's probably not going to be easy," added Murray.

G1 victories in the Cape Town Met (2000m), Cape Derby (2000m) and Daily News 2000 (2000m) were enough to see Eight On Eighteen named the 2024/25 South African Horse of the Year, however, he ended the campaign on a slightly sour note when finishing a narrow second behind The Real Prince, who is also among the chances for this weekend's race, in the G1 Durban July (2200m).

Eight On Eighteen races for the first time since that July defeat and star Irish jockey Oisin Murphy has been booked to ride.

The King's Plate is carded as S1-8 and will be run at 10.45pm (Hong Kong time) on Saturday, 10 January.
