Overseas Expert Column by Brett Davis

GIGA KICK hadn't produced a win since the G1 Doomben 10,000 in May 2023 but was back to his brilliant best in the G2 Schillaci Stakes in October 2025, and G1 VRC Champions Sprint in November 2025. The multiple Group 1 winner wasn't involved in a great deal of racing leading into those events with all efforts being focused on getting him physically and mentally stable. That approach paid fully dividends at both Caulfield and Flemington late last year with the identical approach being undertaken again this campaign. His jump-out at Caulfield under Ethan Brown two weeks ago was sensational so it won't be a surprise to watch him upstage the younger brigade.

TENTYRIS is raced by the power of Godolphin and secured his position at stud with an almighty runaway victory in the 3YO's G1 Coolmore Stud Stakes at Flemington during the 2025 Melbourne Spring Carnival. He completely overwhelmed the opposition through the final 300m that afternoon with a blasting and explosive turn of foot under the confidence of a Mark Zahra ride. This emerging super-star son of STREET BOSS must now stand up to the older horses under the scale of weight for age, with it highly anticipated, following a solid preparation, that he'll cope. A brief freshen up over the Australian summer has been followed by two conservative Mornington trials, the later with race-day rider Damien Lane aboard.

BEIWACHT holds a rating of 109 handicap points following his victory in the G1 Golden Rose 1400m at Rosehill last September where he led from start to finish. The option to lead throughout would've increased his confidence however he was unable to fully cope with the new experience of a straight race at Flemington in the G1 Coolmore Stud Stakes. With options to potentially travel overseas in the future being discussed, a strong first up performance is anticipated following two Randwick barrier trials, the later in which he won. His strength is high speed running, in comparison to fellow Godolphin owned TENTYRIS, who is renowned for a late explosive turn of speed.

MY GLADIOLA ran a career best in the G1 Coolmore Stud Stakes behind TENTYRIS in the spring but was no match for the star 3YO colt in the run to the line. She then went to Caulfield and finished third in a strong edition of the G3 Thoroughbred Club Stakes before being spelled across the summer. Her lead up trial win at Caulfield Heath was a solid piece of work where she was asked to extend in the straight to hold off the surging challenge offered by GIGA KICK. She's drawn the right part of the track and clearly enjoys racing at Flemington so expected her to produce a high-quality effort.

BARAQIEL is a fully seasoned 7YO who returns to racing this campaign following an outstanding 2025 spring where he pocketed the weight for age G1 Moir Stakes. With 8 wins from only 13 starts to his name, he hasn't been overly taxed and should therefore be given some compensation for his age. It's clear, that his best results have come at Moonee Valley but he has been placed twice previously down the Flemington straight. Two barrier trials here have been more than satisfactory leading in which implies that his presence should be respectfully acknowledge.

SELECTIONS: 1. GIGA KICK, 4. TENTYRIS, 5. BEIWACHT, 7. MY GLADIOLA & 2. BARAQIEL

Pace: GOOD

With the lack of a leader in this race MILITARY TYCOON can go forward and take the early lead. BEIWACHT has speed and should follow the leader. GIGA KICK should settle midfield. TENTYRIS does not have much early speed and should be at rear.

Very good 1000m horse who has won both of his first-up runs. Had a Listed and G1 victory and then a G1 second, all at Moonee Valley, at end of last campaign. Has had two jump-outs to prepare for this. Worth consideration.

Track Analysis by Brett Davis

Flemington Racecourse is the headquarters for racing in the city of Melbourne and is located approximately six kilometres from the city's CBD. As a racecourse, it's renowned for its vast expanses and long home straight, by Australian racing standards, which in theory means that every horse gets their opportunity to win there. Racing anti-clockwise on turf, the main course at Flemington has a circumference of 2312m and a home straight of 450m in length. It also has a 1200m straight course, starting from the left grandstand, re-joins the course proper at the top of the home straight, on which all sprint races are run on.

The feature race Lightning Stakes is a Group 1 weight-for-age classic held annually over 1000m down the straight track at famous Flemington and renowned for being the first Group 1 sprint of the Melbourne autumn, testing Australia's elite sprinters in February. It often serves as a key lead-up to other major sprints during the autumn including the Newmarket Handicap. Recent meetings at Flemington have been run on good tracks recently so the pattern for the straight 1000m course should be fair to all runners. Generally, the field congregates down the middle of the track or edges out towards the near side rail as the preferred position. Therefore, drawing a high to mid-range barrier can often end up being a slight advantage.

The rail will be in the true position for Lightning Stakes, with relatively dry conditions forecast leading into the meeting, so given the fact that Flemington drains very well, it is anticipated that the race will be run on a good track.

Top colt Tentyris heads small but elite Lightning Stakes field at Flemington

Thursday, 12/2/2026

Boom colt Tentyris is poised to significantly boost his massive value as a highly sought-after future stallion by claiming a second Group 1 victory in Saturday's (14 February) Lightning Stakes (1000m) at Flemington in Melbourne, Australia.

The three-year-old resumes after winning the Listed Gothic Stakes (1200m) on 18 October at Caulfield and then surging to victory in the G1 Coolmore Stud Stakes (1200m) at Flemington on 1 November.

A son of highly-rated sire Street Boss, Tentyris has raced at Flemington three times for two wins and a third, but is yet to win from his two first-up attempts.

Although it's only a field of eight Tentyris faces stern opposition from some seasoned sprinters headed by 1000m specialist Baraqiel and the 2022 The Everest (1200m) winner Giga Kick, whose last race and victory was in the G1 VRC Champions Sprint (1200m) at Flemington on 8 November.

Giga Kick, who shares top weight of 129lb with Baraqiel, has three wins and three thirds from his seven first-up attempts and has done everything right as he aims for his fourth Group 1 win under trainer Clayton Douglas.

"He's in good order," Douglas said. "He hasn't had a lot of time off since (last campaign), but he's had the one barrier trial going into the Lightning and is coming up well."

Sam Freedman, who trains in partnership with his father, Anthony, said they were happy with Tentyris' two jump-outs and the gallop he had in between races at Caulfield last Saturday.

"It was nice work from him, he didn't have his blinkers on, which he obviously races in those, he just settled in behind (galloping mate) and relaxed really well," Freedman said.

"Damian (Lane) switched him on from the 350m … and he was excellent, he seemed to enjoy it out there.

"He's a colt that knows he's a colt, so when you get to those big (race) days – there's people everywhere, you'd rather have him simmering away, ready to go."

Baraqiel's co-trainer Troy Corstens said the seven-year-old had proved his ability by winning the G1 Moir Stakes (1000m) at Moonee Valley in September, but has two places in lower grade races down the Flemington straight from three attempts.

"He has to take on the best sprinters now as a Group 1 winner, and I think he is good enough to match them on his day," Corstens said.

"I think horses get better down the straight as they mature."

Three-year-olds have a good record in the Lightning Stakes, and five of Saturday's field, including the John McArdle-trained filly My Gladiola, are in that age group.

My Gladiola finished second in front of the third-placed Tentyris last spring before the colt scored a two-and-a-quarter length victory from the grey filly in the Coolmore Stud Stakes, but McArdle said that with some luck, the margin could have been closer.

"He (Tentyris) is a very good horse and he's going to be bloody hard to beat," McArdle said.
"In the Coolmore from barrier one, we had to go get back behind him and we couldn't match his turn of foot.

"Hopefully we get a kinder gate and she's going to be in front of him and give him something to chase."

My Gladiola, who is on the light weight here, narrowly defeated Giga Kick in a recent 800m trial. The filly will jump from the outside barrier, while Tentyris is alongside her in gate seven.

While Beiwacht and Marhoona are also given chances, Ciaron Maher warns not to dismiss the chances of his three-year-old filly Military Tycoon and veteran mare Benedetta.

The Lightning Stakes is carded as S1-1 and will be run at 1.10pm (Hong Kong time) on Saturday, 14 February.
