Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Maiden for unraced 2YOs at 1800m turf track at Hanshin.

My favorite is DYNAMIC by KITASAN BLACK, trained by Mitsumasa Nakauchida. The colt bred by Northern Farm is second foal out of SIMPLY RAVISHING, winner of G1 Alcibiades Stakes, and was bought by Susumu Fujita at JRHA Select Sale for 264,000,000yen, approximately HK$12.89 million. He has been trained at Ritto Training Center since middle of May and I am impressed with his breeze on 4th June, when he was breezed for 6 furlongs with Yuga Kawada in the irons and clocked 83.8 seconds. I judge the course and distance of this maiden is very suitable for DYNAMIC, I believe he has a good chance to make successful racecourse debut on Sunday.

My second choice is PRIMA ALBA by RULERSHIP, winner of G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin in 2012. The half-brother to DIVINE FORCE, winner of G2 Stayers' Stakes, was bought at JRHA Select Sale by Asuka Shiraishi for 19,800,000yen, HL$966,744. Though his price at the sale was less than one tenth of DYNAMIC, he has been trained well at woodchip course at Ritto Training Center and I assess PRIMA ALBA has similar potential as DYNAMIC. He is a straightforward and I believe he is ready to run his race on Sunday.

My third choice is G T ATSUMORI, who is colt by RULERSHIP as well. And he was bought at JRHA Select Sale by Toshihiko Tabata for 83,600,000yen, HK$4.08million. I am impressed with his track work on 4th June, when he was breezed at woodchip course for 6 furlongs, with Kohei Matsuyama in the irons, and clocked 84.3 seconds. He is from the family which has sent many precocious horses, and I assess he has a good chance to finish within first-three in this field.

My fourth choice is ON YOUR MARKS, who is colt by KIZUNA and out of TREND HUNTER, who finished third in G1 Oka Sho. He was bought at JRHA Select Sale by North Hills for 66,000,000yen, HK$3.22 million. He has been trained well at woodchip course and uphill track at Ritto Training Center, and I have a feeling that ON YOUR MARKS ha sharp turn of foot. As like G T ATSUMORI, he is from the family which has sent many precocious horses, and I am sure he is ready to run his race on Sunday.

My fifth choice is MEMORIA DEL RE, who is colt by EPIPHANEIA out of REGINETTA, winner of G1 Oka Sho. While I have a feeling that he is still green and needs time to mature, he has a good speed, and I assess he is able to finish within first-five in this field.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Allowance for one time winning 3YO and upper at 1200m dirt track at Hanshin.

My favorite is ARMS LEGEND, 3YO colt by DANON LEGEND. Although he finished third in maiden at Kyoto on 2nd November 2025 and disappointed punters who supported him as 3 to 5 hot favorite, the winner, MEISHO KAKUUCHI, is already two-time winners and I assess it was not a bad effort. And I had a feeling that the distance of the maiden, 1400m, was too long for ARMS LEGEND. He won maiden over 1200m at Hanshin on 8th March and finished second in Allowance for one-time winners over 1200m at Hanshin on 29th March. I am sure he has an ability to graduate the class for one-time winners and select him as my favorite with confidence.

My second choice is LOVE NEVER DIES, 3YO colt by MIKKI ISLE. Distance of his first 2 starts were longer than 1200m and he was well beaten in both starts. Kunihiko Watanabe, who trains LOVE NEVER DIES, selected the race over 1200m for his third start and it paid off. His performance in maiden over 1200m at Kyoto on 12th January was much better than the first 2 starts, finishing second. And he won maiden over 1200m at Hanshin on 21st March, covering final 3 furlongs for 36.8 seconds, which was the quickest in 13 runners. I assess he can finish within first-two in this field, as he re-produces his form of previous start.

My third choice is GRANDE SFIDA, 6YO horse by DURAMENTE. He finished second in Allowance for one-time winners at Kyoto on 16th May and finished second again in Allowance for one-time winners at Niigata on 24th May. Though this is the third start in 4 weeks for him, he has been trained well at Ritto Training Center since the last start and I believe he is kept in top form.

My fourth choice is ERIKA VERONA, 5YO mare by QUALITY ROAD. After having 5 starts at NAR, he was transferred to JRA last autumn. While his first 2 starts were disappointing, he finished third in Allowance for one-time winners at Kyoto on 7th February and I assess it was a good effort. I understand 1200m is the most suitable trip for ERIKA VERONA, who has hot temperament.

My fifth choice is MOUNTAIN BAROWS, 3YO colt by KITASAN BLACK. He has run 3 turf races, and this is the first-time for him to run race on dirt. He is a big and powerful horse and has been trained well at dirt track in the morning. I believe he runs better on Sunday than his last 2 starts.

SELECTIONS: 11. ARMS LEGEND, 16. LOVE NEVER DIES, 7. GRANDE SFIDA, 9. ERIKA VERONA & 15. MOUNTAIN BAROWS

Made an immediate impact on debut, travelling prominently before asserting late to score in convincing fashion at Chukyo in December. However, showed little at this level in two starts this season.

Unable to make an impact during his first stint at JRA, he flourished after switching to NAR. Building a solid record in dirt sprints, he accumulated five wins and retransferred to JRA this year.

She opened her account after returning to dirt and later posted two respectable fifth-place finishes at this level. However, she failed to make an impact on her seasonal return and will need to rebound from that disappointing effort.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Allowance for one time winning 3YO and upper at 2000m turf track.

My favorite is PIKA KIWI, 3YO filly by EPIPHANEIA. She is half-sister to OPEN FIRE, who finished second in G3 Kisaragi Sho, and was bought at JRHA Select Sale by Susumu Fujita for 143,000,000yen, approximately HK$6.98 million. She finished second in L Wasurenagusa Sho at the same course and same distance as this race on 12th April, and the winner was JURYOKU PIERROT, who subsequently won G1 Japanese Oaks at Tokyo on 24th May. It is obvious that the standard of L Wasurenagusa Sho was very high and regard the form of PIKA KIWI highly. The competition here is much weaker than L Wasurenagusa Sho and I understand it is easy task for PIKA KIWI to win this Allowance on Sunday.

My second choice is DANON THAMES, who is 3YO colt by DANON KINGLY and out of SHORYU MOON, winner of 3 Graded Stakes. He won maiden at Hanshin on 18th April and it was impressive performance. I assess he is competitive at the class for one-time winners.

My third choice is MEISHO HUNTER, 3YO colt by INDY CHAMP. He won maiden at Fukushima on 11th April, which was his second start. It was much better performance than the first start and I understand he learnt many things from his first start. He has been trained well at woodchip course at Ritto Training Center since the last start and I am sure he is improving significantly.

My fourth choice is NARITA ESPERANZA, 3YO colt by KITASAN BLACK. He won maiden at Kyoto on 11th January, which was his fourth start, and it was a good effort. Though he was beaten seventh on L Sumire Stakes and I assess the competition was too tough for him. The field of this allowance is much weaker than L Sumire Stakes and I assess he is able to finish within first-four, as he re-produces his form when he won maiden.

My fifth choice is LONG HOLIDAY, 3YO colt by KITASAN BLACK. who was bought at HBA Selection Sale for 66,000,000yen, HK$3.22 million. He won maiden at Kyoto on 26th April, covering final 3 furlongs for 35.7 seconds, which was the quickest in 12 runners. I regard this form highly, as it was first start for him since 24th January. While I understand he is still immature physically, I assess he should be competitive running against one-time winners.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Sakasegawa Tokubetsu is stakes for two-time winning 3YO and upper fillies and mares at 1800m dirt track at Hanshin.

My favorite is VENT AGREABLE, 4YO filly by LE VENT SE LEVE. Since she graduated the class for one-time winners at Kyoto on 22nd November 2025, she started at the class for two-time winners for four times and finished within first-four in three of them. I assess she is one of most consistent runners and should be competitive in this field. Though she was beaten seventh in Allowance for two-time winners at Kyoto on 28th February, she stumbled immediately after the break and I understand she was unlucky loser there. While she was beaten second in Allowance at Hanshin on 19th April, the winner, WINTER DAPHNE, was a very good horse, as she finished third in Sanjo Stakes for three-time winners at Niigata on 2nd May subsequently, and VENT AGREABLE carried 2kg more than WINTER DAPHNE in the Allowance at Hanshin on 19th April. I believe VENT AGREABLE should have a good chance to graduate this class on Sunday.

My second choice is MEISHO KOMACHI, 3YO filly by LE VENT SE LEVE. She made a successful racecourse debut on 20th December 2025, when she won maiden at the same course and same distance as this race. Though she was beaten 9th in Allowance for one-time winners at Hanshin on 8th March, her tank was already empty when the field got into homestretch, as she was too keen before the race and all way through the race. Her next start was Allowance for one-time winner at Kyoto on 10th May. In contrast, she was relaxed and settled well at rear of field and delivered very strong challenge on homestretch to win by 4 lengths. It was impressive performance and I am sure MEISHO KOMACHI is competitive running against two-time winners.

My third choice is HAGINO CORAZON, 4YO filly by MIKKI ISLE. She had started five times in the class for one-time winners since the beginning of this year and finished within first-three in all those 5 starts. It means she ran well, while it was tantalizing and fretting. However, she was a different horse at Niigata on 23rd May, when she won Allowance for one-time winners by 3.5 lengths, Provided she re-produces her form in the last start, I believe she should be competitive at this class.

My fourth choice is EYE BLINK, 4YO filly by MOZU ASCOT, who won Allowance for one-time winners at Chukyo on 29th March, covering final 3 furlongs for 36.9 seconds, the fastest in 13 runners.

My fifth choice is MEISHO LILY, 5YO mare by GOLD SHIP, who finished fourth in Sakihana Tokubetsu, stakes for two-time winners at Niigata on 3rd May.

She won so convincingly last time that it was hard to believe she had struggled to win the lower class. Versatile track-wise and the consistent type against the level of opposition she faces. Although this will be her first start in this class, she should be fully competitive in a race for fillies/mares only.

She has struggled since moving up to this class, but last time she finished fifth, beaten 4.8L, over 1800m. If the race develops into a fast-paced test of stamina, the conditions should play more to her strengths.

Her defeat two starts ago was largely due to pulling too hard and failing to settle. Last time, however, she traveled smoothly, advanced from the outside without urging, and when drew clear in the stretch to win by four lengths. She has a strong chance of making it back-to-back victories.

The horse broke through the 1-win class last time out, producing a strong late run from a midfield position. Having already recorded two wins over 1800m at Chukyo, the distance should be her best.

The only time she finished well below expectations at this level came three starts ago, when she stumbled at the start. Versatile and with a reliable finishing kick, she should once again be considered a leading contender in this fillies/mares-only event.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Mukogawa Tokubetsu is stakes for two-time winning 3YO and upper at 1200m turf track at Hanshin. There is no outstanding runner in the field, and it looks wide open race.

My favorite is HERO IN CHIEF, 5YO gelding by DISCREET CAT. He is a very good horse on his day, for example, HERO IN CHIEF finished 3rd in Nagashino Stakes for three-time winners at Chukyo in August 2025. And he finished fourth in Dainichidake Tokubetsu, stakes for two-time winners, at Niigata on 23rd May. I regard this form highly, as it was first start for him since 1st March and the tempo was not quick enough for HERO IN CHIEF, who is a closer. In fact, He finished second in Allowance for one-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 14th June 2025, when the track condition was soft. As this is rainy season and track on Sunday could be wet, it is encouraging factor that HERO IN CHIEF is able to handle all kind of surface, including softish ground.

My second choice is MAXIMUM DRIVE, 4YO colt by LORD KANALOA. He graduated the class for one-time winners at Fukushima on 26th April, when he won Allowance over 1200m. As TAMAMO BROWN TIE, who was runner-up to MAXIMUM DRIVE in the Allowance, won Allowance for one-time winners at Kyoto on 10th May by one and a quarter of length next start, I believe the standard of Allowance at Fukushima on 26th April was high. Though this is first time for MAXIMUM DRIVE to run at Hanshin, I believe it is more suitable track for him than the course with sharp bend, such as Fukushima and Chukyo, as he is a big horse with long stride.

My third choice is MARGOT MIST, 3YO colt by BIG ARTHUR. In fact, he is still belonging to the class for one-time winners, however, he has run well against strong opponents. For example, DEA VELOCE, winner of Allowance for one-time winners at Hanshin on 11th April, when MARGOT MIST finished fourth, won G3 Aoi Stakes at Kyoto on 30th May next start. And he finished third in Allowance for one-time winners at Kyoto on 24th May and I understand he ran well, as his body weight was 16kg heavier than previous start.

My fourth choice is MEISHO MIGLIORE, 5YO mare by RULERSHIP, who started at this class for four times since March and finished within first-five in 3 of them.

My fifth choice is MIROIR, 7YO mare by LORD KANALOA, who finished fifth in Allowance for two-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 4th April.

Stepping up in class, but he has shown promise against strong opposition. He finished fourth in the penultimate run, while the winner of that race captured the G3 Aoi Stakes (1200m). Fitter now, he could be dangerous.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Hananomichi Stakes for three-time winning 3YO and upper at 1600m turf track at Hanshin.

My favorite is AUFHEBEN, 6YO mare by SATONO DIAMOND. She started at this class for five-time since last November and finished second in 4 of them. It is obvious that she is superior at the class for three-time winners. Her finishing time, 1 minute and 31.8 seconds, in Ritsuunkyo Stakes at the same course and same distance as this race on 19th April, is much faster than standard time. She has been trained beautifully in the morning at Ritto Training Center since the previous start and I am sure she is kept in top form. I select AUFHEBEN as my favorite with confidence.

My second choice is SEVEN MAGICIAN, 6YO horse by JUST A WAY. Since he graduated the class for two-time winners at Kyoto in February 2024, he has finished second for 5 times, third for 3 times, and fourth for 3 times at class for three-time winners, including Nishiki Stakes at Kyoto on 17th May. He is a stabling force at this class. And Hanshin is his favorite track, as he started there for four times, won once, finished second once, and finished third twice. As it is rainy season in Japan, there might be some rain fall at area of Hanshin Racecourse and turf could be softish condition on Sunday. It is encouraging that SEVEN MAGICIAN could handle any type of track, including softish turf.

My third choice is TERRA MERITA, 5YO mare by BRICKS AND MORTER. He graduated the class for two-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 22nd March, when she won Kaike Stakes for two-time winners. It was a good effort, and I assess he is competitive at the class for three-time winners. Though this is first start for her since then, she is a horse who can run well after having break time and she has been trained well in the morning at Ritto Training Center in recent weeks.

COR LEONIS, 5YO horse by RAY DE ORO, who finished within first-six in last 2 starts at the class for three-time winers, is my fourth choice. As he re-produces his recent form, I assess he should finish within first-four in this field, and it is encouraging news that Keita Tosaki is booked for COR LEONIS on Sunday.

My fifth choice is MY ELEMENT, 4YO filly by EPIHANEIA. She is not straightforward and not an easy horse to control during the race, as like her sire. The connections started use Tri-Bit for MY ELEMENT after the last start and I suppose this new equipment should improve her performance.

Despite returning from a nearly five-month break, he was fit enough to score first-up and marked back-to-back win last time in the lower-class in May. Having resumed in excellent order, he appears capable of extending his strong recent run.

Lacking the raw speed of some rivals, he was disadvantaged by the strong time recorded last start. Similar conditions await here on a still-fresh track, so adaptability will be crucial. He could be dangerous if the race is decided by a short burst of acceleration.

Won by 2.5L in the lower-class (1800m) in May 2025. Learned to settle better, allowing him to conserve energy more effectively. Finishing on the board in all three starts over this distance, which may ease previous concerns about his tendency to race too keenly.

A consistent performer at this level, he was outpaced in a sprint to the line last time but still ran to his usual standard. Better suited by a stronger test than a pure speed contest, he would welcome some rain.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

This is the most exciting renewal of Takarazuka Kinen in many years. While we are missing MASQUERADE BALL, who will be shipped to United Kingdom and compete against CALANDAGAN again in G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes on 25th July, many of other older horses with the highest profile at middle distance division are intended runners for Takarazuka Kinen, the race to conclude the first half of the year at JRA.

My favorite is CROIX DU NORD. The winner of G1 Japanese Derby at Tokyo on 1st June and G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at Longchamp on 14th September 2025, when he defeated DARYZ, subsequent Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner, in 2025, turned down the invitation to Dubai Sheema Classic in March, as the connections decided to keep him in Japan this year. CROIX DU NORD won G1 Osaka Hai at Hanshin on 5th April, and G1 Tenno Sho Spring at Kyoto on 3rd May. Although he was a very good horse last year when he was 3YO, it looks he is even better this year, and I have an impression that he is now completed as an athlete. Hat Track of major G1s for older horses in spring has never been achieved, for example, KITASAN BLACK, sire of CROIX DU NORD, was well beaten in Takarazuka Kinen, after winning Osaka Hai and Tenno Sho Spring comfortably in 2017. I assess CROIX DU NORD is able to be the first horse to sweep three G1s in spring season.

My second choice is MUSEUM MILE, winner of G1 Satsuki Sho at Nakayama on 20th April and G1 Arika Kinen at Nakayama on 28th December in 2025. Takarazuka Kinen is the first start for him in 2026. In fact, he accepted the invitation to G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan on 28th March, however, he ruled out of the trip to Dubai, due to uncertainty surrounding the conflict in Middle East. He was entered in G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin on 26th April, however, veterinarian team at Hong Kong didn't like his unique way of walking and suggested he was not suitable to run in G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup. While I assess MUSEUM MILE is as good as CROIX DU NORD, this is not an ideal approach to Takarazuka Kinen.

My third choice is DANON DECILE, winner of G1 Japanese Derby in 2024 and G1 Dubai Sheema Classic in 2025. He finished third in G1 Osaka Hai, behind CROIX DU NORD and MEISHO TABARU, and I assess it was a good effort. However, I understand he prefers anti-clockwise track and it is unlikely for him to beat CROIX DU NORD and MUSEUM MILE at Hanshin, which is a clockwise track.

My fourth choice is MEISHO TABARU, who tries to complete back-to-back wins of Takarazuka Kinen. He finished second to CROIX DU NORD in G1 Osaka Hai and it was brave effort.

My fifth choice is REGALEIRA, winner of G1 Arima Kinen at Nakayama in 2024 and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Kyoto in 2025.

Overseas Expert Column by Naohiro Goda

Ribbon Sho is stakes for three-time winning 3YO and upper at 1200m dirt track at Hanshin.

My favorite is NOBORI SHORYU, 5YO horse by REAL STEEL. Since he graduated the class for two-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 30th March 2025, he has started at this class for 8 times, finished second once, finished third for 4 times, and finished fourth twice. I understand he is the most consistent runner at this class in this field. And I believe Hanshin dirt track is his favorite track, where he started for 6 times, won once, finished second twice, and finished third twice. I am sure Hanshin is the track where NOBORI SHORYU can show his true potential. ANZU AME, who finished second in Yoshun Stakes for three-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 19th April, when NONORI SHORYU finished 3rd, won Minazuki Stakes for Graded Stakes performers at Hanshin on 7th June and I assess the standard of Yoshun Stakes was high. I judge NONORI SHORYU has a good chance to graduate the class for three-time winners on Sunday.

My second choice is NEW ORLEANS, 4YO colt by REAL STEEL. He finished second in Temmabashi Stakes for three-time winners at Hanshin on 5th April and I regard this form highly, because of three reasons, It was first start for him to run against three-time winners, he carried 58kg for the first time, and the tempo was quick for NEW ORLEANS, who tried to make all. Although this is first time for him to run the race shorter than 1400m, I assess he has a good speed and the distance could not be a problem for him.

My third choice is LUX DAISY, 4YO filly by CALIFORNIA CHROME. She finished second in Takasegawa Stakes for three-time winners at Kyoto on 24th May and I regard this form highly, because it was first time for her to compete against three-time winners and it was first start for him since 15th February. I believe LUX DAISY is competitive at the class for three-time winners.

My fourth choice is RAIJIN, 6YO horse by SPEIGHTSTOWN, who finished fourth in Yoshun Stakes for three-time winners at the same course and same distance as this race on 19th April.

My fifth choice is IRIFI, 4YO filly by TOO DARN HOT. Though she was beaten 8th in Tenmabashi Stakes at Hanshin on 5th April, I assess the distance of the race, 1400m, was too long for her. She won 3 races and all of them are 1200m's races. It is obvious that 1200m is her best trip.

Track Analysis by Naohiro Goda

Hanshin Racecourse locates at 35.5 miles southwest of Kyoto, old capital in Japan. Hanshin has three clockwise oval tracks for flat racing. The outer turf track is 2089m long, with 473.6m homestretch, which is the third longest in JRA's tracks, after Niigata and Tokyo. The difference in height on course is 2.4m. The highest point is the final part of backstretch, and the lowest point is 200m before the finishing line on homestretch. The width is 20m to 29m. The outer turf track is used for 1600m and 1800m turf race and the starting gates are set at middle and top of backstretch respectively. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of far turn is 444m for 1600m race and 665m for 1800m. Tempo of race tends to be slow at this course. There is no draw bias at this course for 1800m race.

The inner turf track is 1689m long, with 356.5m homestretch. The difference in height is 1.9m. The highest point is all way through the near turn, and the lowest point is 200m before the finishing line on homestretch. The width is 20m to 28m. The inner turf track is used for 1200m turf race, and the starting gate is set at middle of backstretch. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of far turn is 243m. It is said inside draw is better than outside draw. For 2000m turf race over the inner turf track, the starting gate is set at top of homestretch of inner turf track. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of near turn is 325m. As there is uphill soon after the break, tempo of race tends to be slow at this course. The inner turf track is used for 2200m turf race, and the starting gate is set at top of homestretch of outer turf track. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of near turn is 525m. As the beginning of 300m is slight downslope, tempo of race tends to be fast at this course.

The inner dirt track is 1517.6m long, with 352.7m long homestretch. And the chute for the starting point of 1400m dirt races is set at the entrance of backstretch. The difference in height on course is 1.6m. The highest point is all way though the near turn and first half of backstretch, and the lowest point is 200m before the finishing line on homestretch. The width is 22m to 25m. The inner dirt track is used for 1200m dirt race, and the starting gate is set at top of backstretch. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of near turn is 342m. It is said front runners and horses who track leaders closely enjoy better result than closers. For 1800m dirt race over the inner dirt track, the starting gate is set at middle of homestretch. The distance from the starting gate to the entrance of far turn is 303m. It is said outside draw is preferable at this course.

It is analyzed the key factor at this course is sustainable speed. While front runners and runners who track leaders from the second and third position perform better than closers in general, it is recognized this is a tough course, as runners go through the sharp rise on homestretch, and stamina and power are more important characters than acceleration and turn of foot.

Apart from Takarazuka Kinen, Hanshin is the site of G1 Osaka Hai for older horses and G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) for 3YO fillies, and G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies for 2YO fillies and G1 Asahi Hai Futurity for 2YOs.

There are four seasons at Hanshin. The midday temperature is lower than 10C in wintertime, while the midday temperature is hotter than 35C in midsummer, in July and August. June is the rainy season, when there are 300mm rainfall in one month in average year at area of Hanshin. Therefore, track condition at Hanshin on the day of six out of last running of Takarazuka Kinen was Soft or Good to Soft.

Croix Du Nord chases history in G1 Takarazuka Kinen

Friday, 12/6/2026

Croix Du Nord will attempt to make racing history in the JPY651 million (approx. HK$32.0 million) G1 Takarazuka Kinen (2200m) at Hanshin Racecourse, Japan, on Sunday (14 June) when he bids to become the first horse to sweep Japan's older-horse spring Triple Crown.

Triumphant in the G1 Osaka Hai (2000m) in April and G1 Tenno Sho Spring (3200m) in May, Croix Du Nord faces a string of high-class rivals as he seeks to outdo the achievements of his sire Kitasan Black, who won the Osaka Hai and Tenno Sho Spring before labouring into ninth place in the Takarazuka Kinen in 2017.

Standing between Takashi Saito-trained Croix Du Nord and history is a stellar field of rivals, which includes last year's Takarazuka Kinen victor Meisho Tabaru, top mare Regaleira, 2024 G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby, 2400m) winner Danon Decile and 2025 G1 Arima Kinen (2500m) champion Museum Mile.

Saito said Croix Du Nord was primed for another big performance after the colt worked over 1200m on Ritto's woodchip course, clocking 1m 24.1s overall with a 36.9s final 600m including 11.6s for the closing 200m.

"He got a win last time in the Tenno Sho, even if it was just by a nose (over Wurttemberg)," Saito said. "He went to the farm after that and came back to the stable on May 20. More than being tired, he was just a bit loose. But he's coming on for his work and should be in good condition just before the race.

"His breathing is fine. What matters is just tightening him up a little in body and mind, and if we can stay aware of that, I think we'll be fine."

Meisho Tabaru blitzed his opposition in last season's Takarazuka Kinen, surging clear by three lengths. He finished second to Croix Du Nord in the Osaka Hai after attempting to lead all the way, only to be caught late.

Three-time Group 1 winner Regaleira resumes after finishing fourth in her Arima Kinen defence, and will be ridden by Christophe Lemaire, who won the 2023 G1 Hopeful Stakes (2000m) on the daughter of Suave Richard.

Winless since the 2025 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic (2410m), Danon Decile has finished third in each of his past three assignments – the G1 Japan Cup (2400m), Arima Kinen and Osaka Hai.

"Last time, it was just one of those things in a race. He got a bit squeezed with horses losing speed and going back through the field, and was quite unlucky at the fourth corner. But he ran on the best he could in the straight. Compared to his run in the Arima Kinen, he was a lot more balanced," trainer Shogo Yasuda said.

Museum Mile was spelled after his Arima Kinen win and will be ridden by Damian Lane as he chases a third Group 1 triumph.

The G1 Takarazuka Kinen (2200m) is carded as S2-7 and will be run at 2.40pm (Hong Kong Time) on Sunday, 14 June.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This prestigious Class 1 Handicap, the Grand Handicap de Lamorlaye Longines, is run over 1800m on turf at Chantilly.

MANEKI tops the weights but has shown he has plenty of class and may be able to make that tell. Jean-Claude Rouget's 4YO is a winner of 4 of his 8 starts, over distances ranging from 1600m to 2300m. He ran a rare poor race when last seen in Listed company at Toulouse (2000m), but the start before that he was beaten under 2 lengths by smart rival HORIZON DORE in Listed company over 2150m at Cagnes-sur-Mer, when attempting to make all the running. Prior to that he was a winner over the same course and distance in February, when again given a prominent ride. A winner of a maiden over 1600m, he shouldn't have a problem dropping back to 1800m, and if ridden aggressively from the front could prove hard to pass.

Francis-Henri Graffard won this race in 2023 with the lightly raced Andromede and this year saddles SAUCEPOT, who has a similarly unexposed profile. A winner on her second career start, at Deauville (1900m) in January, she has run twice since, finishing sixth in a conditions race over 1800m on Chantilly's all-weather track before being an eye-catching third on handicap debut over 1900m at Chantilly. While this will only be her second start on turf, she did finish second on debut at Clairefontaine (1600m) last year, so shouldn't have problems switching back to the grass. More improvement is likely now and she can play a part in the finish.

Another horse that caught the eye finishing off well behind SAUCEPOT in that 1900m Chantilly contest was DOUBLE UP. The Stephane Wattel-trained 4YO was positioned on the outside of the field from the off and looked to take a while to quicken up but flew home to finish a close-up sixth. He stayed on well to win over 1600m on turf at Saint-Cloud in November last year and now looks ready for this trip.

CHAUMIERE DE PRE is a three-time winner over 1900m on Chantilly's all-weather track. 2 of those 3 successes came early this year, before his latest effort saw him finish sixth over 1600m at Chantilly in March. He needs to transfer that form to turf, but is consistent and could find the frame at this level.

FEARLESS CHEETAH travelled extremely well and won with something in hand on Chantilly's all-weather track (1900m) last month but is another that needs to prove she can run to that level on turf if she is to be seriously involved.

Boasts a 50 per cent strike rate in addition to being Listed placed in February. The ground was a factor when he brought up the rear in April, and any rain will clearly help his cause, but he will need to defy a career high mark.

All five career wins have come on all-weather surfaces, including three at this course. Didn't handle the raise in grade last time and the fact that he has yet to win on turf is a slight concern.

In fine form this season and plenty to like about his running-on second in a C2 handicap at Compiegne. Needs to be produced from off the pace but he looks to be racing off a competitive handicap mark.

Seems to have lost his way after a positive start to the season, having won here on all the all-weather here in March. Never got going at Compiegne last time and needs to bring his A game to the table.

The Czech Republic runner tried to steal the race from the front only to come unstuck (seventh) at the business end. Boasts four prior French wins (mainly on the all-weather) but his running style could make him vulnerable.

Put in a mighty effort last time at Chantilly when touched off in a C2 handicap on the all-weather. The winner was completing a hat-trick and he appeals as an interesting contender.

From a top yard and has very low mileage on the clock, having run just four times. The filly opened her account in January and her running-on third in at C2 level hinted at further progress down the line.

Boasts a very solid record in these types of races and a repeat of his consecutive thirds at C1/C2 level at ParisLongchamp could see him play a leading role. Should again be on the premises.

Reflected his positive start to the season by asserting as favourite at C2 level at Lyon Parilly. Yard tends to get the best out of their horses and, although his handicap mark has risen, there could be more to come.

Yet to hit last season's heights but his form has been steadily improving, and plenty to like about his running-on sixth in a C2 handicap on the all-weather. Could be one to monitor in the betting.

Has been mainly on a downward spiral since her Listed third at ParisLongchamp last summer. The filly was a never dangerous ninth on her reappearance at Compiegne in April but has come down in the weights.

Very much an all-weather specialist, the mare has done all her winning (six victories) on that surface, and asserted at a lower level at Chantilly. Her turf record, though, is less convincing.

Trained in the Czech Republic but does most of his racing in France. Won in Hungary (Budapest) last season, and a fair sixth in C2 all-weather handicap at Deauville last time, but probably an outsider at best.

Thrived after having his sights lowered (two wins) last summer, but his form has dipped on his three starts since and is hard to recommend on that evidence.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

The G1 Prix de Diane (2100m) is dominated by the Irish and English raiders this year, after neither Francis-Henri Graffard nor André Fabre declared a runner.

All eyes will be on DIAMOND NECKLACE, who bids to give Aidan O'Brien a rare French Classic double following Constitution River's victory in last week's G1 Prix du Jockey Club. The daughter of ST MARK'S BASILICA already boasts 2 French G1 victories, having won the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac (1600m) last autumn and the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (1600m) on her seasonal reappearance at ParisLongchamp in May. She was particularly impressive in testing conditions that day, suggesting the step up to 2100m should be well within her range. She comes into this race an unbeaten filly after 4 career wins and looks likely to extend that to 5 here.

Another filly with top-level form is EVOLUTIONIST, trained by Karl Burke. Like his 2018 Prix de Diane winner LAURENS, she arrives at Chantilly after finishing second in the 1000 Guineas (1600m) at Newmarket. Prior to that she was a very good winner of the G3 Prix de la Grotte (1600m) at ParisLongchamp. There is a question mark about her stamina, given a pedigree packed with speed, but Burke remains convinced she has the class to play a major role.

There are no such stamina concerns surrounding ESNA, who is trained by Brian Meehan. Fourth behind DIAMOND NECKLACE in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac after just 2 previous starts, she looks to have strengthened up over the winter. While her first outing of the season was disappointing, she bounced back with a Listed success over 2000m at Newbury and looks capable of further progress.

LILT, trained by William Haggas, is another interesting contender. A Listed winner over 1600m, she has raced only twice and so lacks the experience of some of her rivals. However, William Haggas is not known for running horses in Classics unless he believes they belong at that level, making her a filly worthy of respect.

For the home team, EVITA could be better than the bare form of her third-place finish in the G2 Prix Saint-Alary suggests. She raced prominently that day and finished ahead of HABIBI, but a stronger pace and more patient tactics could help her take another step forward and put herself firmly in contention.

From a UK stable that have plundered this Classic before. Proved herself a classy filly for 2026 when winning a ParisLongchamp G3 before strong-finishing second of 19 in a G1 Classic at Newmarket. Expected to get this trip, if so a major contender.

A convincing winner here on her debut and performing well at a higher level since, most recently when looking to have a winning chance in a 2000m ParisLongchamp G2, until unable to match two rivals late on. Some further progress needed.

Couldn't build on her fine G1 fourth at ParisLongchamp last October when returning for 2026 at Newmarket. But she proved herself as superior to that when outgalloping some better fancied rivals in a 2000m Listed event at Newbury. This trip looks right.

Despite the weak pace not thought to favour her, she proved too strong for her seven rivals in the sprint to the wire at Goodwood in Listed class last month. This trip looks fine and it is possible that she could run into the money in this French Classic.

She has won both starts in the style of an exciting filly, latterly in Listed grade at York. Good chances of lasting this longer trip and, though this represents a sharp rise in class, her trainer rarely overfaces his horses. Interesting.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

This 2400m Listed contest for fillies and mares aged 4 and older is limited to those who've not won a G3 this year and so has attracted a competitive field looking to land the prize. The ground is described as soft, and that will be a crucial determining factor come the race.

TIFFANY looks to be the best of the two British-trained contenders. Sir Mark Prescott's mare hasn't won since August 2024, where she captured a Baden-Baden G2 over 2400m, but she has been extremely consistent since. After that, she was a fine 5-length third to top-class mare Kalpana in the G1 British Champions Fillies and Mares (2321m) at Ascot, before finishing her season with a gallant neck second in G1 company in Munich over 2400m. She only ran twice in 2025, both times second again in 2400m G1 events in Germany, the second of which behind BAY CITY ROLLER, who impressively won last weekend's G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in slow ground. Prescott's 6YO operates at her best when the mud is flying, and if fit for this assignment, could be hard to beat.

RABBIT'S FOOT must be respected having performed well in Group company last season when trained by Francois Rohaut. After a 2100m Listed win at Toulouse, she was stepped into G3 company where she finished fifth at Chantilly, before improving to finish third in a G2 Longchamp, both over 2400m. A third to INDALIMOS in a 2500m G3 followed and then she took her form to a new level when third, with INDALIMOS well behind, in the G1 Prix Royallieu (2800m), appearing to relish the soft conditions then. She has made just 1 start for her new trainer, Francis-Henri Graffard, where she was only narrowly beaten over 2800m at Longchamp, and she has every chance of getting her head in front.

INDALIMOS' form ties in closely with RABBIT'S FOOT, having beaten her at Deauville last August in the G3 Prix Lady O'Reilly (2500m). She disappointed behind RABBIT'S FOOT at Longchamp, but her 2 runs this term have been encouraging, and Andre Fabre's filly can be there at the finish.

ELEGANZ is another Fabre runner but has a very different profile, with only 3 runs under her belt. A 2400m Saint-Cloud maiden win was followed by a fine third in a Chantilly G3 over the same trip, finishing behind INDALIMOS and ahead of RABBIT'S FOOT. Oisin Murphy travels to take the ride and she could trouble the principles if improving again.

MISS JUSTICE would prefer quicker ground, but her form suggests she should run well regardless.

In quite good form this year and fought bravely to win a 1400m handicap at ParisLongchamp last month. But she competes at a modest level and over shorter. Hard to fancy.

No stamina or class issues as she won a 2500m G3 at Deauville last August. Lacked the pace to challenge in a Saint-Cloud G3 over 2000m last time. That trip looked inadequate.

This classy and reliable 7-times winning mare has a very good winning chance on ratings with G2 success and placed form at a G1 level in both the UK and Germany. First run of 2026 but she has a good record following an absence.

Runner-up in a G3 at Saint-Cloud last year but hasn't looked like winning in two Listed events at ParisLongchamp this year. Will need to shape a bit better to land this.

Her three career wins have come in handicaps over shorter. Led for most of the trip in a 2100m G2 at ParisLongchamp last month and, though fading into fifth, it was a personal best effort.

Overseas Expert Column by Bill Esdaile

Only 12 runners are set to line up for this Chantilly Class 3 handicap over 1800m, including LONDONPOLO, who made a late start to his career last August at Clairefontaine where he finished fourth in a 2200m maiden. Since then, he changed trainers and category, revealing himself to be consistent in handicaps and also conditions races. He handles any ground and while this will be the shortest trip he has ever tackled, his third place in a 2000m handicap at ParisLongchamp last time out suggests he may actually appreciate a slightly shorter distance.

BALAKOVNA only ran 12 days ago when she finished fourth in a similar handicap (2000m) at Saint-Cloud. She has already won over 1800m at Clairefontaine, which is arguably the perfect trip for her. She probably would have preferred slightly softer ground, but she should once more produce a good performance.

Trainer Nicolas Caullery has reached out to Maxime Guyon again for the ride on SIM CARD. The son of DABIRSIM has competed over a variety of distances recently, ranging from 1400m to 2000m, but his last victory came in a claiming race over 1800m. This will be only his second start of the season and after finishing seventh in the same handicap where BALAKOVNA finished just over a length ahead of him in fourth, he should have scope for improvement.

The only time PONTOS has got himself onto the highest step of the podium in his 11 career starts was in April this year when Mickaël Barzalona steered him to victory in a 1600m conditions race at Compiegne. The pair teamed up again when he returned to handicap company in another 1600m race at ParisLongchamp, where he never threatened when finishing seventh. He is capable of better and BARZALONA clearly retains faith, as he is back in the saddle here.

Connections of SWIFT FLIGHT will be hoping for more rain as the 8YO produces his best performances on soft ground. A regular performer in handicaps over distances between 1800 and 2200m, he has come down the weights and could spring a surprise with Stéphane Pasquier, who has partnered him to success before, back in the saddle.

Track Analysis by Tim Carroll

Chantilly Racecourse consists of a network of three interlocking right-handed courses, plus a straight course, and includes the first All-Weather track to be installed on a Parisian racecourse, in 2011. There is The Jockey Club track, which has a circumference of 2400m and is a teardrop in shape. The home straight is 600m in length, rising approximately 10m to the winning post, which places emphasis on stamina.

For races run over a shorter distance, the 1000m and the 1200m starts are conducted at the same spot, from a chute that joins the main course on the right-hand bottom side of the track. However, there are two winning posts in use, over 1000m they run to the first post and over 1200m, the second post. Pace runners do well over 1000m, but riders must be careful not to be too aggressive on the straight course, especially over 1200m, as there is a rise of approximately 10m. Runners tend to come down the grandstand rail (like Sha Tin), however, the draw sees low numbers on the grandstand rail, thus low draws are advantageous, especially for on-pace runners.

For races run over a longer distance, the 2100m start is located at the top of the back straight and sees a run of approximately 800m, before they meet the bend, which has a sweeping aspect to it at first, but the final part of the turn, before entering the 600m rising straight, is sharp. There is no cut-away rail in the straight at Chantilly, meaning horses in larger fields need to be ridden prominently or look to sweep down the outside, as trying to thread the field from the rear is a difficult thing to do. More so than most French tracks, there is a high number of hard luck stories, especially for horses strung up in behind on the rail. As such, horses who draw low need to hold a forward position if they can, or risk finding themselves trapped in a pocket on the rail. In larger fields, there is a barrier bias over these trips, favouring horses drawn low to middle.

Chantilly Racecourse is located approximately 50km from Paris and is considered one of the most beautiful racecourses in the world. The spectacular venue with the picture postcard setting hosts both the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby), which takes place either in late May or early June, and the Prix de Diane (French Oaks), which is commonly held two-weeks after the Derby, although the interval can vary. Whilst these are the only 2 permanent G1 races staged at Chantilly, there is a host of G2 and G3 contests, including the Grand Prix de Chantilly and Prix de Sandringham. The venue has hosted top tier events such as the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and supporting G1s when ParisLongchamp underwent renovations in 2016 and 2017.

France enjoys a temperate climate and mild weather. Spring (March – May) the weather is mostly pleasant, and this is when the flat season officially gets underway. Whilst the ground conditions in France will depend on the weather, it is rare to see genuine firm going as the French tend to water regularly, especially in the warmer months and the grass is usually mown to a longer length (between 10-12cm) to help the ground retain moisture.

Aidan O’Brien’s Diamond Necklace seeks French Classic double in Prix de Diane

Friday, 12/6/2026

Aidan O’Brien saddles Diamond Necklace in the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks, 2100m) at Chantilly, France, on Sunday (14 June), seeking a seventh major European classic of a standout start to the season, a fortnight after the champion Irish trainer dominated the French Derby with a remarkable 1-2-3.

Diamond Necklace claimed the G1 French 1000 Guineas (1600m) in holding ground at ParisLongchamp in May to make it four wins from four, and the longer trip should hold no fears for the classy daughter of St Mark’s Basilica.

O’Brien, who landed the Prix de Diane with Joan Of Arc in 2021, said: “The plan was always, if everything went well in the Guineas, to come back here (to France). Everything has been very good since her last victory. I think she’s even better on better ground.”

Regarding the step up in distance for Ryan Moore’s mount, who starts in gate three, he said: “We’re going to learn more on Sunday, and you’re never sure what to do, but we always thought this distance wouldn’t be any problem.

“She’s very like her sire St Mark’s Basilica. When he went up to a mile and a quarter (2000m), he improved again and everything she does is very like him, really.”

Stablemate Moments Of Joy (Wayne Lordan, gate eight) is expected to improve after finishing a well-beaten fourth in a steadily run G3 Musidora Stakes (2051m) at York in which another French Oaks contender, Felicitas, took second.

“She (Moments Of Joy) had a couple of choices – the Epsom Oaks, Ascot for the Ribblesdale and Chantilly.

“We think there’s more improvement to come from her, and we think she’d like the trip, and we think she’d like the track as well.

“I don’t think she’d be mad about soft ground. She’s a very good mover.”

The nine-strong opposition to O’Brien’s duo is headed by Evolutionist, trained by Karl Burke, who trained the 2018 Prix de Diane winner, Laurens.

An impressive winner of her G3 Prix de la Grotte (1600m) at ParisLongchamp when resuming, she then found only O’Brien’s True Love too good in the G1 English 1000 Guineas (1600m).

Connections feel this extra distance will prove ideal after targeting the French Oaks rather than the 2405m G1 English equivalent. Shane Foley rides the filly.

Lilt, drawn in gate 10, will also have plenty of supporters, with William Haggas’s Lope De Vega bay filly putting her two-run unbeaten record on the line.

Her breeding suggests 2100m is well within her scope – she was running on strongly to make up four lengths late to land her Listed preparation trial at York (1575m) on her first start as a three-year-old.

Her jockey, Tom Marquand, reported: “She did a really good job in running down the leader, she’s beautifully bred… you’d have to say where she’s going to be real comfortable is within the 2000m range.”

David Menusier, the French trainer based in Newmarket, holds his charge Inis Mor (Oisin Murphy) in high regard. She put a disappointing run in the G1 English 1000 Guineas (1600m) behind her with a subsequent confidence-boosting Listed win over 1979m at Goodwood.

The local defence has cut up disappointingly with only four trying to deny the overseas raiding party, including Maxime Guyon-partnered Green Spirit, who finished third, beaten four and a half lengths by Diamond Necklace last time out.

The going is expected to be on the soft side of good.

The G1 Prix de Diane (2100m) is carded as S3-2 and will be run at 10:05pm (Hong Kong Time) on Sunday, 14 June.
